

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Wednesday, July 4, 1888.

TERMS OF THE NEWS AND HERALD...

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS...

his cotton fields, and would be greatly benefited thereby.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Kidney Cure is a positive cure. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

The annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association will convene in Columbia on July 11. President E. B. Johnson will deliver the annual address. The Association will be addressed during the session by a number of the leading educators of the State.

Mr. G. W. Shell, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional District, has notified M. A. Gaillard, Esq., county chairman, that a convention to nominate a congressman from the Fourth Congressional District, or to decide the method of nomination will be held at Laurens on the 20th day of July next.

Dr. C. D. Clawson, a Chester physician, was found guilty at the recent term of the Court at Chester of selling liquor without a prescription, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 or be imprisoned in the county jail for six months. Our Chester friends are doubtless on the right road to enforce prohibition.

W. C. McCreight, mayor of Cheraw, after the Republican convention had been in session several days, without making a nomination, sent Chairman Estee the following telegram: "The Cheraw Democrats advise you to endorse Cleveland and adjourn." The convention could easily have done worse than to accept the proffered advice.

JERSEY FLATS Chills and Fever Cure for sale by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin and all druggists merchants.

We call attention to the "Political Tip" found in another column this morning. Under this heading there are several questions for the people to settle. However, one can be answered by the party whose name appears at the bottom. Go to him for the answer and when he has given it, take whatever advice he gives you and you will find the answer correct.

The catalogues of Mount Zion Collegiate Institute have just been received by the trustees from the job presses of THE NEWS AND HERALD office, and are ready for distribution. This catalogue shows the Institute to be in a very successful condition, having students from different parts of the county and also from Richland, Kershaw, Lancaster and Chester counties.

Mr. S. F. Cooper, of Ridgeway, is the possessor of a pair of live Florida crocodiles. These modern, highly specialized members of the Icthyosaurus family inhabit a tub, after the manner of Diogenes, and no doubt shed tears as they silently philosophize upon the degeneracy of these psychologic times as compared by means of hereditary reminiscence with those mesozoic ages when their ancestors contended with the plesiosaurs for the sovereignty of the animal kingdom.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker-Mouth. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

THE SIXTH REGIMENT.—The quarterly meeting of the Fairfield Division of the Sixth Regiment S. C. V. Survivors' Association will be held in the Town Hall on Wednesday, the 11th inst. A full attendance is desired.

W. H. KERN, Secretary.

CLUB MEETING.—A meeting of the Woodward Democratic Club will be held at the Academy, at Woodward, S. C., on Thursday, July 5, at 3 o'clock, p. m. A full attendance is desired, as there will be an election for president and two vice-presidents.

JNO. R. CHAM, Secretary.

THE COLUMBIA CANAL.—The trustees of the canal are finding little difficulty in disposing of the bonds. On Thursday the First National Bank of Charleston took ten thousand dollars of them, while four thousand was taken up by three individual citizens of Columbia.

NOTICE.—The County Executive Committee will meet in Winnsboro on Saturday, the 7th July, at 11 a. m., to act upon matters of importance. A full and prompt attendance is requested.

H. A. GAILLARD, County Chairman.

JAS. Q. DAVIS, Secretary.

JULY WEATHER.—We have received the following weather predictions from the Chester Vennor for the month of July: 1 to 4 fair and hot; 5 to 7 fair, dry and hot; 8 indications of rain; 9 rain and thunder; 10 nearly cloudy; 11 rain and thunder; 12 fair and hot; 13 to 15 fair and intensely hot; 16 and 17 local rain and heavy thunder and lightning; 18 and 19 local rain; 20 to 25 fair and hot; 26 local rain; 27 to 31 fair and dry.

ALLIANCE AT GLADDEN'S GROVE.—On 22nd June, a Farmers' Alliance was formed at Gladden's Grove, with the following officers: C. S. Ford, president. R. W. Featherstone, secretary. Danl. Hall, treasurer. J. M. Higgins, chaplain. Wm. Yates, doorkeeper. Jno. Keisler, assistant doorkeeper. The Alliance will meet the first Saturday in each month.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

THE PENSION LAW.—Messrs. Bennett & McGowan, attorneys, of Laurens county, have applied to the Supreme Court for a mandamus to compel the Board of Pensioners to issue a pension to a lady of that county. It seems that the husband of the lady was killed during the war, that she afterwards married, and now her second husband is dead. The question now to be decided is whether she, being a widow of a second husband, is entitled to a pension as the widow of the first.

TWO WAYS.—We learn that the cotton of Messrs. Doty & Walker, which was considerably damaged by the hail, did not improve as they had expected, and they now regret that they did not plant over. They should have made the gigantic "straddle" which our esteemed fellow-townsmen, Mr. H. L. Elliott, made by leaving the damaged cotton, and also planting again in the middle of the rows. He found the second planting the best, and, therefore, ploughed out the other. A good idea.

HARD ON THE MANAGER.—"They" tell a good one on the manager of the 'Bovo' base ball club, which happened on their recent Columbia trip. He, in his genial way, registered at the boys together with himself as manager and one other party of the crowd. This was before the game. After the game had been played with such disastrous results to our club, he went to the hotel register and added "president" to the name of the citizen above mentioned. It seems he wanted help to carry the load after developments.

GILDER'S PILLS are unsurpassed and purely vegetable. For sale by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin.

CALL FOR COUNTY CONVENTION.—In accordance with a notice received this day from the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional District that a Convention will be held in Laurens on the 30th of July to nominate a Congressman from the Fourth District, or to decide the method of nomination, and in pursuance of authority vested in me by the Constitution of the party, I do hereby call a County Convention to meet in Winnsboro on Saturday, the 14th July.

H. A. GAILLARD, County Chairman.

INSURANCE RATES.—The Southern Tariff Association of Insurance has just concluded a session at Fortress Monroe. At its meeting a reduction of ten per cent. in the rate charged on mercantile risks was given to Columbia on account of the new fire alarm system of the city. Right here we might mention that the rates in Winnsboro we learn are considerably higher than those charged in other towns of the State with much inferior fire departments. It might be well for our business men to follow the example of our Columbia friends and send in a petition for reduction.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Jas. Turner will soon commence to build three granite store-houses on the lots at the corner of Congress and Liberty streets. These lots were formerly occupied by buildings which were burned at the late disastrous fire. The buildings, when completed, will be of the most approved modern style, and will add much to the general business appearance of Winnsboro. One of these stores will be ready for occupancy by September 15, and the others will shortly be available. The moral to be drawn from this transaction is, that the people of Fairfield county have abundant evidence that Winnsboro is the town par excellence for investment. This is shown by Mr. Turner's rebuilding, even in better style, the buildings lately burned.

JERSEY FLATS CHILLS AND FEVER CURE is guaranteed by all merchants selling it to cure, or money refunded. For sale by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin.

NORMAL INSTITUTE.—About thirty teachers and visitors were present at the opening of the normal institute at Mount Zion Monday. The Rev. Mr. Glass led in prayer, and was followed by Dr. Boyd, who welcomed the teachers. Prof. Withrow responded in behalf of the teachers, after which Dr. Joyne delivered a brief address. The prospects for a successful session are very flattering.

The following is the order of exercises: Wednesday morning—prayer by Dr. Jordan, and address at 12 o'clock by Mr. Watson.

Thursday morning—prayer by Rev. Mr. Chalmers, and address at 12 o'clock by Mr. Fitz Hugh McMaster.

Friday morning—prayer by Rev. Mr. Watson, and address at 12 o'clock by Mr. Davis Douglas.

Rev. Dr. Burrows, pastor First Baptist Church, Augusta, Ga., says: "I have used H. E. P. myself and in my family for years and find it to be the best remedy known for sick headache, constipation or bilious disorders. I advise any one suffering from these troubles to use it and keep it in their family." For sale by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin.

TO REDUCE STOCK.

WITHOUT WAITING FOR THE DULL SEASON, WHEN VERY FEW GOODS ARE NEEDED OR BOUGHT, WE HAVE DECIDED TO BEGIN NOW.

Tuesday, July 3, 1888.

We will offer for sale 150 pieces of Checked and Striped Piques and Nainsooks at a great sacrifice to close them out. 125 pieces White Lawns, all qualities, at a bargain. A large lot of Black and Colored Silk Givots at cost. Also a lot of SHOES. SHOES. SHOES. SHOES. An inspection of our stock will convince everybody that we maintain fully every pledge and promise we make.

Q. D. WILLIFORD & CO.

A GRAND MONEY-MAKING BUSINESS!

LADIES, act wisely; don't pay one dollar for something you can buy for seventy-five cents, just because it came from this house or that house.

D. A. HENDRIX

Is offering his stock of Spring and Summer Lawns and Muslins cheaper than any other house in town. This is no lie, but an actual fact. If you doubt it then come and see. We mean to get rid of our goods and we are going to do so.

THE CHEAPEST FIFTY CENTS CORSET ON THE MARKET.

Very Respectfully,

D. A. Hendrix.

COUNTY FARMERS' ALLIANCE.—Mr. J. A. McLaughlin met delegates from eleven alliances in the county, at Winnsboro, on Thursday, and organized a County Alliance. The following officers were elected: T. S. Brice, president. D. B. Feaster, vice-president. J. B. Crosby, secretary. C. S. Ford, treasurer.

REV. JAS. DOUGLASS, chaplain. Sam'l. McCormick, lecturer. T. W. Scroggs, assistant lecturer. Jas. B. Stevenson, doorkeeper. J. A. Bynum, assistant doorkeeper. J. B. Morrison, Sergeant-at-arms. A committee on trade was appointed consisting of D. P. Crosby, L. T. Wilds, W. J. Powell, T. P. Mitchell. Messrs. S. McCormick, W. S. Hall and G. F. Andrews were appointed a finance committee.

The County Alliance will meet with the Jackson Creek Alliance on Friday, 27th July.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy.—Price 50 cents. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

ERSKINE COMMENCEMENT.—Eight young men were graduated from Erskine college on Wednesday last, among the number being Mr. R. G. Brice, son of Mr. Calvin Brice, one of the most successful farmers of our county. The anniversary address was delivered by Hon. L. F. Youmans, and it is said that a better address has never been delivered, although this is the forty-ninth anniversary. The board of trustees decided to celebrate semi-centennial next June. The board conferred the degree of D. D. on Rev. Coke Smith, of Wofford College. Prof. J. H. Miller, who has filled the chair of mathematics in the College for several years, handed in his resignation, which was accepted, and Prof. P. L. Grier, of Washington, D. C., was elected to fill the vacancy.

The commencement exercises of the Duo West Female College were held on Thursday, and in the evening a reception was held at the College.

PERSONAL.—Misses Maude Jones and Bessie Callege, of Columbia, are visiting Miss Maggie McCarley. Mr. Fitz Hugh McMaster returned from the South Carolina College on Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Moore, of Ridgeway, is visiting at Dr. Boyd's. Misses Maggie and Lillie Belle, of North Carolina, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. L. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Leland, of Mount Pleasant, are visiting relatives in town.

Mr. H. N. Obeah and family have left for their summer home, Saluda, N. C., to remain for several weeks. Miss Daisy Raff, of Ridgeway, is visiting friends and relatives in town. Mr. I. L. Wilbers has been elected secretary and treasurer of the Junior Alumni Association of the South Carolina College.

Mr. W. D. Gaillard has been appointed express agent on the C., C. & A. Railroad. Miss Jullia Merritt, of Barnwell, is visiting the family of Dr. Quattlebaum.

WINNSBORO VS. COLUMBIA.—The Winnsboro base ball club, accompanied by a number of their friends, went down on Tuesday morning to cross bats with the Columbians. Eye local made several attempts to interview some of the members on Wednesday for the purpose of learning the result of the game, but was unsuccessful. The Register of the same date, however, explains their reticence, and from it we gather the following account of the game:

At 5 o'clock the game between the visitors and the Columbians was called, there being something over a hundred spectators gathered on the improvised stands which the local association had erected in front of the fallen grand stand. The Winnsboro nine were tastefully attired in suits consisting of dark blue hose and belts, with white pants, light blue shirts, and a cap of white with dark blue stripes. The visitors from Fairfield were a gentlemanly set, and did some clever fielding in the game of yesterday, but from the start proved themselves evidently no match for the Columbia nine. They were, however, about the best nattered nine ever seen on a ball field, and took their defeat good naturedly.

During the sixth inning Meetez was put in to pitch to give the visitors a chance, and our boys took all manner of risks in running bases, did considerable "muckeying" with the ball, but to no avail, as will be seen by the score. The score resulted 17 to 0 in favor of the Columbians. The boys had a good time, and about paid expenses from their share of the gate receipts. They will not be discouraged, however, and by more practice will be able to successfully compete with the best amateur nines of the State.

SECRETS EXPOSED.—Ye humble news gatherer in his rounds on Wednesday drew the capital prize in the newspaper lottery, and will now present to the public the prize which he drew in the shape of the form of "mesianism" of a new secret club which was given birth in our midst not long since. It was a lucky draw, and here goes verbatim et literatim that portion of the constitution relating to the admission of new members:

The committee on mesianism meets the would be member at the door. Asks him if he is ready to resign. He is asked if he receives his entrance fee then blind folds him & escorts him to a place for examination. After that he takes off his outer clothing & proceeds to black him which must be done by the committee of mesianism. He is then put in a position so each member can with a paddle give him the right hand of fellowship. Next thing fix the patient so you can pretend to cut him open & draw a piece of ice over his belly. Next tie a rope around the victim's neck & ask him to say his prayers before he leaves this world. When this is done ask him all the fool questions any of the club wishes. Next take off the rope & the president will pronounce the victim a member of the B. S. C. continue this until all is settled. Each member must keep quiet while these solemn duties is performed. And must keep every thing to himself the member must not tel any thing about his mesianism.

Citizens of a prognosticating nature interpret the name of this secret organization to be the "Blamed Shoel Crowd." We are in ignorance and will leave the solution of this important question to an impartial public.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

FAIRFIELD AT THE S. C. COLLEGE.—The commencement exercises of the Ephraim Society of the South Carolina College took place in Columbia on Tuesday evening. Mr. F. H. McMaster, son of our surprising citizen, Mr. G. H. McMaster, enjoyed the distinction of representing the graduating class of the Society as valedictorian. The Columbia Register, in its account of the exercises, says:

The speech of the evening was the valedictory oration by Mr. F. H. McMaster, whose subject was "A South Carolina College's Duty to His State." The eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education to the point where realizing their inferiority they would cease to dream of social equality or anything approaching it. He said that the eloquent young orator reviewed in well-chosen words the glorious history of the Palmetto State, and alluded to her famous sons and their noble achievements. Continuing, he outlined the future prospects of the State, its undeveloped manufacturing possibilities and mining riches. He urged upon the graduates from the South Carolina College that it was their special duty and privilege to advertise the knowledge of the State's advantages, and to aid to intelligently develop them. He alluded to the incursions of the black population, and could see no remedy but in colonization, or in their education