WEDNESDAY, Feb. 7—P. M.

The activity of to-day's stock market is reflected by the amount of recorded transactions—568,953 shares against 380,400 yesterday; but the activity was accompanied by sharp declines in value. Union Pacific furnished one-fifth—111,900 shares—of the whole day's total dealings, and declined from 94⅛ to 91¼ and closed at 92¾. St. Paul contributed one-seventh—83,100 shares—and declined from 101⅞ to 99⅞ and closed at 101⅛; and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western furnished another one-seventh—81,000 shares—and declined from 122⅜ to 120@121¼. The stock next in amount of transactions to those before mentioned was Western Union; transactions in it were recorded to the amount of 34,275 shares and all within the range of 81⅛@80½@81⅝, with final sales at 81½—the same as last evening's closing figures. The remainder of the market was depressed in proportion with the extreme declines named for the stocks mentioned and later rallied in like proportion. Northeast declined from 131½ to 129⅝@130⅞, St. Paul and Omaha from 46¾ to 45½@45¾, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy from 120¾ to 117⅝@119¼, Louisville and Nashville from 55½ to 54⅞@55⅛, and Michigan Central from 95⅝ to 94⅝@95, etc, etc. The great feature of the day, however, was the severe blow that was given to speculation in the house of its warmest friends, by some exceptional transactions in Lake Shore stock. As is well known, that stock has been dull for a considerable length of time. To-day the total transactions in it amounted only to 17,500 shares, and that small quantity includes the purchase of 7,600 "under the rule" to close contracts when some five or six brokers had failed to make deliveries at the specified hour—2:15. Instances are reported of stock having been bought in at 2:30 p. m. against brokers who had tendered the stock before that hour, but after the delivery hour of 2:15. The prices at which the stock was purchased under the rule for cash, from the rostrum of the Exchange, averaged about 1 per cent higher than the market price, in the regular way, for the same time the purchases were made. "Under the rule" the stock sold at 111 cash, while the highest price (which was the closing figure) in the market was 110¼ (after 108⅝), against 109½ last evening. The movement was a surprise to the market, and started a general covering of shorts all over the list. This is the principal reason why prices generally did not close near to the lowest of the day. But the generally expressed opinion is that the movement will go far toward reducing the speculation to even smaller dimensions than it had before. It is necessary to add that although the movement was in Lake Shore stock, it was not a "Vanderbilt" movement. The market closed feverish and unsettled at prices generally ½ to 1½ per cent lower than last evening's figures.

Government bonds were dull; strong for the fixed dates at unchanged quotations, and weak for the optional issues at declines in the bids of ¾ per cent for the 3s and ½ per cent for the 3½s. Annexed are the closing quotations:
