NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A SUMMER IN SCANDINAVIA. By MARY AMELIA STONE. 16mo, pp. 204. Anson D. F. Randolph & Co.

Mrs. Stone has given us a pleasant record of an interesting and not yet hackneyed tour, through beautiful landscapes, sparkling waters, and noble cities, and among a people remarkable for civility, simplicity and orderly habits. Nearly all travellers in Sweden and Norway become enthusiastic, and it is evident that those countries exercise a fascination for which the guide-book catologues of their attractions will not account. Mrs. Stone's unpretentious pages reproduce a great deal of this singular charm. She is a very sympathetic observer, and therefore her success in indicating the exact character of a town, or a view, or a trip, is sometimes most enviable. Her short account, for example, of the voyage from Copenhagen to Christiania has an effect all the more agreeable for being apparently unsought and, we dare say, unsuspected; she draws the portraits of cities extremely well; and scattered through her pages there are many little bits of description and narrative which we have found both vivid and alluring. The book moreover has a prevailing tone of good humor and good taste in which stories of travel are apt to be lacking. No doubt even the sunny temper of this American gentlewoman was tried now and then by the petty annoyances of foreign life, but her readers are never vexed with tales of mishaps and discomforts, or narrow criticisms upon strange people and their real or fancied shortcomings. Mrs. Stone made her journey with open eyes, an open mind, and an open heart.

THE CHINESE PAINTED BY THEMSELVES.—By Colonel TCHENG-KI-TONG, Military Attaché of China at Paris. Translated from the French by James Millington. 12mo. pp. 203. Scribner & Welford.

There will be curiosity to see what an educated Chinaman, after passing ten years in France, has to tell us about the manners, customs, and ideas of his own people, and what he thinks of the observations of western travellers upon the Chinese Empire. But the curiosity excited by Colonel Tcheng-Ki-Tong will be soon satisfied. In effect he tells us nothing; and his trivial and verbose book echoes so perfectly the tone of the flippant boulevardier that we cannot help suspecting that some Parisian journalist wrote it for him.

7 AND 8 PER CENT FARM MORTGAGES.
That properly negotiated first mortgage loans upon improved farms in amounts not exceeding one-third to 40 per cent of their value are the best securities obtainable, is evidenced by the success of all who have invested in them through us. We are prepared to demonstrate from the records of a business extending over more than a quarter of a century that these mortgages are as safe as State or Government bonds, and arguments in opposition to them, as negotiated by us, will not stand for one moment in face of the overwhelming proofs which our records afford. Contingencies existing in almost every other form of investment are lacking in these, and while we do not pretend that they are the only safe securities to be had, we do say emphatically that the combination of as great safety and nearly if not quite twice the income obtainable from such as we would place in the same class, makes them decidedly attractive. Had they not proven satisfactory to our customers during the past twenty-five years, our transactions in them would have scarcely reached the enormous proportions which our records disclose. We invite all whose attention may be attracted by our advertisements to this form of investment to call and investigate for themselves before deciding that our claims for these securities, strong as we make them, are not based upon a solid foundation.
