THE DWYERS IN LUCK AGAIN.

PONTIAC AND TREMONT SUCCESSFUL.

WINNING TWO STAKES AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY—BAD STARTING.

It takes a great deal of money to pay the expenses of such a stable as the Dwyer Brothers have now—by far the largest and costliest in America. Many stakes and many purses and many big bets are necessary in order to secure them a profit on the season. They did well yesterday at Sheepshead Bay, winning the Coney Island Stakes with Pontiac and the Surf Stakes with Tremont, but their Portland got third place only in the Swift Stakes. Every turfman who has seen Tremont run is enthusiastic over this tall black son of Virgil. He has won four stakes now and will undoubtedly capture many more, including the Zephyr and Paddock Stakes on Tuesday and Thursday of this week, in neither of which is there any weight penalty for winners. Yesterday Tremont carried seven pounds extra for his victory on Thursday in the Foam Stakes and in addition he got a bad start, but his remarkable speed carried him through triumphantly. His most dangerous antagonist, Paymaster, was left at the post, but Tremont ran in a way that left no doubt in any one's mind that Paymaster could only have secured second place at best.

Mr. McDowell, the starter, is strongly suspected of sympathy with the Nihilistic notions of Most and Schwab. His idea of starting seems to be to do all in his power to reduce racing to a condition of anarchy and chaos. Owners and general public alike are becoming extremely unhappy over his performances. Nearly all his starts yesterday were appalling blunders.

Only four ran in the Coney Island Stakes and Pontiac won an easy victory at the end, though Lizzie Dwyer made him move at a lively pace. She showed herself far superior to Bersan and Strathspey, who could not keep pace with her at all. Pontiac's great speed is evidently unimpaired and he may perhaps win out the $17,500 which the Dwyers paid for him at the great Rancocas sale last year. A match between Troubadour and Pontiac would be a big trump for the Coney Island Jockey Club to play.

Walter H. won the Swift Stakes, for which he was well up in the betting, though more money was put on Biggonette, the favorite, and on Portland. Biggonette got much the best of the extremely bad start, but Walter H. beat her in the homestretch, though his victory was a narrow one, and he showed an unexpected lack of courage and perseverance at the climax of the struggle. His running this year has not been up to his standard of last autumn. Portland was at Biggonette's neck, running much better than in the Withers at Jerome Park but still falling far below first-class form.

The Coney Island Stakes and the selling race were run on the grass course. Perfect weather and the excellent condition of the track made the time in all the races extremely fast. The bookmakers won heavily on the first race, which the starter benevolently gave to a remote outsider, Fletch Taylor, but the victories of Pontiac and Tremont hit them hard, and Ernest, the Brighton Beach "tip" in the selling race, was supported to an extent that depleted the "bookies" sadly. In their ingenious scheme to evade the provisions of the Penal Code the bookmakers profess to be doing a "commission" business only and most of them to carry out the illusion, insist on exacting 5 cents from every man who presents a winning card after a race. As they have no competition from auctions or French pools the "books" are bulging with big bills.

A great many people enjoyed the racing and found no fault with any part of the exercises except the starting. With that exception all the arrangements of the club show an improvement over those of previous meetings. The restaurant, of which much complaint was made in the early days of the club, is now in competent hands.

FIRST RACE—PURSE $500, ¾ MILE.
J. Johnston's b. g. Fletch Taylor, by Glengarry-Bonnie Harold, 5 yrs., 117 lb. ..... (Brown) 1

The start was as bad as could be and settled the race. Fletch Taylor was far in front at the speed which he has fetch, Rowland second, Refrain third, the favorite Favor far back and Bess and believing practically out of the race. Fletch Taylor never lost his lead and won by a length in 1:14¾. Refrain second, a neck before Favor, who was a length before Burch, the others beaten off. Sniper was lame, but could no have won anyway with such a start.

SECOND RACE, SPECIAL WEIGHTS, $25 EACH, $750 ADDED, THE SLIP.

Betting—Valet 2 to 1, Marksland 5 to 1, Hecla-Toe 5 to 1, War Eagle 6 to 1, General Monroe 7 to 1, 10 to 20 to 1 against the others.
Frankie B. was withdrawn. Letitia was first off and led for nearly a mile, with Valet second and Hecla-Toe third. Letitia and Valet were both beaten at the head of the homestretch, while War Eagle came up swiftly and challenged Hecla-Toe. The struggle did not last long, War Eagle was seven pounds better off than the weights than the mare, and War Eagle won by two lengths, Hecla-Toe second, six lengths before Valet, who was a neck before Marksland, Letitia fifth. The others pulled up.

THIRD RACE—SWIFT STAKES, FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS, $100 EACH, $1,250 ADDED, SEVEN FURLONGS.
B. Goodwin's b. c. Walter H., by Vortigern-Beware, 115 lbs. ..... (Olin) 1

Time—1:28¾.
Betting—Biggonette 5 to 2, Walter H. 3 to 1, Portland 3 to 1, Gardey 5 to 1, Quito 8 to 1, 10 to 25 to 1 against the others.
Inspector B. and Charity were withdrawn, but Quito ran in place of the latter. After a long delay a wretched start was given with Biggonette first by three lengths, Portland second, Lonsdale third, Walter H. fourth, Quito fifth. Reporter was last far back and Gardey got off badly. McLaughlin hurried Portland and Olney shook up Walter H. Portland gradually gained on the leader turn and Walter H. led into the homestretch, Portland coming from the east and Quito waited and gave it up. Olney plied whip and spur, as did McLaughlin and Hayward. By the hardest of hard work Olney got Walter H. home the winner by a neck in fast time, Biggonette second, a neck before Portland, Quito was fourth, a length behind Portland, and the others were beaten off. Reporter was practically left at the post and was never in the race.

FOURTH RACE—CONEY ISLAND STAKES, FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS AND UPWARD, SPECIAL SUMS FOR ENTRIES, $1,500 ADDED, 1⅛ MILE.
Dwyer Bros' blk. h. Pontiac, by Pedro Gomez-Agenoria, 5 yrs., 122 pds. ..... (McLaughlin) 1
E. Corrigan's ruby Lizzie Dwyer, 4, 118 ..... (Blaylock) 2
G. R. Morris's ch. c. Bersan, 4, 118 ..... (Fitzpatrick) 3
J. Spellman's b. h. Strathspey, 6, 122 ..... (Spellman) 0
Time, 1:50¾.
Betting—Pontiac 1 to 2, Bersan 3 to 1, Lizzie Dwyer 5 to 1, Strathspey 20 to 1.
Lizzie Dwyer promptly took the lead and ran the first quarter mile with Bersan at her neck, Pontiac lying back and Strathspey finding the pace too fast for him. In a half mile Lizzie Dwyer had Bersan beaten but Pontiac did not yet move up. As they turned into the homestretch, Lizzie Dwyer was a length before Pontiac, but McLaughlin was calm and unruffled while Blaylock was uneasy. A hundred yards from the end Pontiac caught the filly and he won the race easily by half a length, Lizzie Dwyer second, forty lengths before Bersan, who was twenty before Strathspey.

FIFTH RACE—SURF STAKES, FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS, THE WINNER OF THE FOAM STAKES (TREMONT) TO CARRY 7 LBS. EXTRA; $25 EACH, $1,000 ADDED. FIVE FURLONGS.

Time—1:02.
Betting—Tremont 1 to 3, Paymaster 5 to 1, Queen of Elizabeth 8 to 1, Kingdom 15 to 1, Oneco 20 to 1, 25 to 1 against the others.
The start was execrable, Paymaster being left at the post and the eight others struggling along at intervals with Lady Primrose three lengths in front. Asteria was second at the start and Kingdom third, but Tremont and Queen of Elizabeth were so superior to the rest in speed that the struggle at the end was confined to them, Tremont winning easily by a neck, Queen of Elizabeth second, six lengths before Kingdom, who was a length before Asteria, Paymaster cantered over the course.

SIXTH RACE—PURSE $500, SELLING, 1 1-16 MILE.
W. Lakeland's ch. g. Ernest, by Enquirer-Jacomet, 4 yrs., 109 lbs. ..... (Hamilton) 1

Burch's b. g. John C., 4, 109 ..... (Maynard) 0
J. Walden's unnamed horse by Lisbon-Emeti, 5, 116 ..... (Hayward) 0
Time—1:51½.
Betting—Ernest 2 to 1, Brambleton 4 to 1, Islette 5 to 1, John C. 6 to 1, Moonshine 7 to 1, 10 to 15 to 1 against the others.
Pawn got much the best of a bad start and led to the last furlong, where the favorite Ernest caught and passed her, winning by a length, Favor second, four lengths before Frank Ward, Islette fourth.

ATHLETICS FAIL TO GET A RUN.

BEATEN BY METROPOLITANS BEFORE A BIG CROWD.

Baseball "boomed" at Staten Island yesterday, and the largest crowd of the season with the exception of the opening day was present to witness the game between the Metropolitan and Athletic clubs. The home nine played with the spirit and dash that won it the pennant two seasons ago. About 5,000 people were present and as the 7th Regiment Band was installed in the grand stand the on-lookers were kept in a happy mood. The crowd was good natured and happy and admired the beautiful grounds and surroundings without stint.

The game was well-played throughout, the ten-fold increase in the attendance seemingly making the home players do their work with better results than usual. Lynch pitched with great effect, holding the visiting batters down to two single hits. He was admirably supported behind the bat and in the field. Orr and Roseman did the most of the batting done. A brilliant running catch by Stovy in the eighth inning evoked loud applause, and made Roseman, who hit the ball, "fighting mad." Quest also made a neat double play in the fifth inning. Only two runs were made during the game, those by the Metropolitan nine in the opening inning. Nelson reached first base on an error by Quest, and went around to third on a hit by Roseman. Orr's force hit to short stop allowed Nelson to score and sent Roseman to third. The latter scored on Forster's sacrifice out at first. The score was as follows:

REGATTA OF THE HUDSON BOAT CLUB.

The twenty-second annual regatta of the Hudson Boat Club, of Jersey City, took place yesterday on the club course. The distance was a mile and a half with a turn. E. A. Schultz, of the Valencia Club, Hoboken, was timekeeper and judge, and T. B. Hill, of the Orions, was starter and referee. There were four contests on the programme, the first being for four-oared barges manned as follows: No. 1—S. J. Lenker, A. Devitt, D. Crandall, T. R. Creed (stroke) and A. Ockernonsen (coxswain); No. 2—L. F. Belcher, F. E. Hauck, E. S. Champlin, H. S. Coster (stroke) and W. H. Anderson (coxswain); crew No. 2 won in ten minutes, the second barge being ten seconds behind. The second race was for four-oared shells with the following crews: No. 1, H. Ockerhausen, D. Crandall, H. Scharnerhorn, jr., and C. F. Ockerhausen (stroke); No. 2—E. Hauck, jr., S. Carter, W. H. Henderson, Leon Abbett, jr., stroke. Crew No. 1 won in 7:42, three lengths ahead of the other boat. In the single shell race the competitors were D. Crandall and M. H. Carpenter. Crandall won easily in 8:52. The entries for the tub race were A. F. Commaeno, H. S. Lenner, Horace Scherneborn, Leon Abbott, jr., and D. Crandall. Commeno was the winner with Lenner second. The others were upset. The winners a member of the New-York Athletic club.

BROOKLYN YACHT CLUB REGATTA.

A fleet of fourteen yachts started in the annual regatta of the Brooklyn Yacht Club yesterday. With a moderate breeze from the south and against the first quarter of the flood tide, the yachts on the port tack, close-hauled, crossed the imaginary line—drawn from the northwest point of Coney Island to a stake boat moored one-eighth of a mile to the northward—in the following order: Cabin sloops—Outvie, 1h., 4m. and 7sec.; Mascotte, Carrie May, Elephant, Vida, Irene, Waconcah, Hattie S., Bess. Cat boats—Surprise, Ripple, Psyche, Ethu, Fanstina.

For classes A and C (cutrigged) the course was thirteen miles to and around buoy No. 7 on the west bank, the cabin sloops sailed 16½ miles to and around buoy No. 8 on the southwest spit and return. It was a pretty race throughout. To the outer marks it was a along leg and a short one, with a fair wind on the return. The breeze continued fresh to the finish. The winners were: in class No. 1 (cabin sloops), Mascotte, 2 h., 24 m., 12 s.; class No. 3 (cabin sloops), Carrie May, 2 h., 43 m., 20 s.; class No. 4 (cabin sloop) Outvie, 3 h., 35 m., 53 s.; class A (cat boats), Ethu, 2h., 28 m., 24 s.; class B, Ripple, 3 h., 11 m., 16 s.; class C, Fanstina (formerly Gracie), 2h., 13 m., 16 s. PHILADELPHIA, June 12 (Special).—The cricket match between the Staten Island Club of New-York, and Germantown, of this city, was played to-day at Nicetown and was an excellent exhibition. The game was won by Germantown in the first inning by a score of 149 to 103.

HELPING THE SICK POOR IN SUMMER.

The Sick Children's Mission, which has done so much during the summer months of the last seventeen years to relieve suffering and save life among the poor children of the tenements, has begun another season's work. Cards are being circulated in all the tenement quarters of the city informing poor families that if they are unable to procure the services of a private physician for their sick children, medical attendance, medicine and nourishment can be obtained free of charge by applying to George Calder, superintendent of the mission, No. 287 East Broadway. Ten physicians have been employed who will promptly attend to all cases of sickness reported to them in their respective districts. Druggists in convenient locations will furnish medicine free to destitute families and at first cost to the mission. All kinds of nourishing food of pure quality will also be furnished at the mission headquarters. Applications for physicians are received from 7 to 9 o'clock a. m. and from 6 to 8 p. m. Contributions in aid of this work are received by the Children's Aid Society, No. 27 St. Mark's place.

A GUIDE TO READING'S EXCURSION POINTS.

The summer excursion book of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad has been issued for this season. It describes all places of resort and interest along the Bound Brook route, the Lehigh Valley route and the Schuylkill Valley and Catawissa routes. Special summer excursion rates are offered to all points on the road, and every accommodation is arranged for the convenience of tourists. Through excursion tickets, good until October 31, are furnished to most of the important resorts in Pennsylvania and New-York. The tickets include famous points of interest also in Maine, New-Jersey and Virginia. The book is conveniently shaped for carriage in the pocket.

A BABY SAVED FROM SUFFOCATION.

The tenement-house No. 215 Wooster-st. furnished forth a heroine yesterday in the person of Sarah Gill, the housekeeper's daughter. The Gills live on the fifth floor, and a rear fire-escape runs under their windows all the way to No. 219. On the top floor of the latter house Mrs. Tellicina, the wife of an Italian iron-moulder, yesterday upset a candle on a husk mattress and set it on fire. Mrs. Tellicina burned her hands in trying to put it out, and one of the neighbors fared no better. The house was filled with smoke. In a room adjoining Mrs. Tellicina's lay the month-old baby of Mrs. McPartland sound asleep. In the confusion it was forgotten until the smoke was so thick that it could scarcely be seen. Sarah Gill heard the outcry two houses away and ran along the fire-escape, dove through the window and brought the baby out. Returning the way she came she dropped the baby on her bed and, woman-like, promptly fainted. The firemen had been called meanwhile, but the neighbors had made short work of the fire before they came.

THE SITUATION IN VERMONT.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR AND MUCH UNCERTAINTY AS TO THE CONTEST.

BOSTON, June 12 (Special).—The political campaign in Vermont this year promises to be a lively one, and it is already fairly begun. County conventions are already being held and to-day the majority of the delegates to the Republican State Convention were chosen. The United States Senatorship will be a prominent factor in the election of members of the Legislature. The prospects of Senator Edmunds for re-election are better than they were a year ago. The action of the Rutland County Convention this week is indicative of the change of sentiment in his favor. Of the Governorship the Vermont correspondent of The Journal says: Outside of Rutland County only about a score of town primaries have been held up to the present time. Burlington sends an unpledged delegation to Montpelier, eager to vote, it is said, for General William Wells for Governor should the opportunity offer. The delegates are also friendly to Judge Poland and Lieutenant-Governor Ormsbee, while it is alleged, several of them favor Speaker Batchelder. Stowe has elected Poland delegates and the friends of the Judge assert that Lamoille County will be nearly solid for him in the convention. Orleans, Caledonia, Franklin, Washington and Essex counties are also expected to elect a good number of Poland delegates. Northfield has chosen an unpledged delegation, as have Alburgh and Starksboro. In the event of a deadlock in the convention it is not improbable that the friends of Batchelder, in Bennington County, and of Ormsbee, in Rutland County, could be united on Judge W. G. Veazey, of Rutland.

There are some Republicans who would like to see the political boundary line broken over and the nomination made irrespective of geographical location. If the convention should decide to obliterate the mountain line in politics and take a man from the East side, it is not unlikely that the name of the next Governor of Vermont would be Frederick Billings, of Woodstock. Such a resolution would upset all the slates which have been made. Assuming that the delegates take the matter of breaking down this political Chinese wall into their hands, it would not be strange if George Nichols, of Northfield, should receive some support. It seems certain that there will be a large number of unpledged delegates in the convention. Messrs. Ormsbee and Batchelder are showing great activity in the closing days of the canvass and there may be sufficient pressure brought to bear on unpledged delegates after the forces of the leading candidates arrive at Montpelier next week to swing over enough men to nominate either Ormsbee or Batchelder.

Starting out with the assumption that Rutland County will cast its eighty-three votes for Ormsbee and that Bennington will give Batchelder forty-one, we find there are 554 more delegates left divided by counties as follows: Addison, 60; Caledonia, 46; Chittenden, 56; Essex, 22; Franklin, 48; Grand Isle, 11; Lamoille, 27; Orange, 48; Orleans, 47; Washington, 53; Windham, 59; Windsor, Addison and Chittenden Counties solid would, with Rutland, secure Ormsbee's nomination. Batchelder might get Caledonia, Essex, Franklin, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Orange, Orleans, Washington and Bennington Counties solid and divide the convention. It is unlikely that either candidate will have any county entire outside of his own. Both parties are likely to divide the counties named to a greater or less degree.

PITTSBURG'S GREAT IRON INDUSTRY.

PITTSBURG, June 12 (Special).—Few people have any idea of the vast amount of iron bought at Pittsburg mills by railroads. The Union Pacific Railroad was about the best customer the city had during 1885. More than 50,000 tons of iron were shipped from here for that company in that year. This includes rails from the Edgar Thomson Works, and more than that much has been received by the same company from this city this year, while other railroad companies are also leaving heavy orders to be filled for the fall trade. The Pittsburg Forge and Iron Works have just been started on double time in every department, making each day over seventy-five tons of car axles, nuts, bolts, splice bars and all the iron used to build passenger and freight cars excepting wheels. More than thirty tons of the same kind of production is made at the Vulcan Forge and Iron Works at Chartiers, and about fifty tons are made at the Twenty-ninth-st. mills of Carnegie, Phipps & Co.

THE NAHANT AND SWAMPSCOTT SEASON.

LYNN, June 12 (Special).—Wealthy Bostonians and others are filling up Swampscott and Nahant, and the large hotels in these towns will open this week. As two years ago, Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge will conduct his Congressional campaign from his beautiful Nahant villa, and the leading politicians predict his success. With Nahant subsidizing a steamboat line between the peninsula and Boston this year, it is believed that the early plans for the new Nahant Hotel will be matured. Louis James and Marie Wainwright arrived at Nahant yesterday. They have spent their summers there for many years. It is hoped to have the boulevard between Nahant and Lynn widened to 200 feet and an electrical railroad constructed.

TO DISCUSS CHARITIES AND CORRECTION.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 12.—There are indications that the thirteenth National Conference of Charities and Correction, which is to be held here July 15-16, will be more largely attended than any for several years. Last year, in Washington, 400 delegates were present and thirty-five states were represented. Reports, papers and addresses are promised from more than a score of persons prominently identified with reformatory, educational and other philanthropic movements. Among the announcements are the following: "On Labor in Prisons," by Z. R. Brockway, Elmira; "Immigration and Migration," C. S. Hoyt, M. D., Albany; "Kindergartens," Miss Anna Hallowell, Philadelphia; "Preventive Work among Children," Mrs. Virginia T. Smith, Hartford; "Education of the Deaf and Blind," G. A. Fay, Hartford; "Children of the State," William P. Letchworth, Buffalo; "Causes of Pauperism and Crime," Joshua L. Bailey, Philadelphia.

HORRIBLE CRIME OF A MOTHER.

SOUTH ROYALTON, Vt., June 12 (Special).—Mrs. William Sloan, who murdered her little son a few days ago, this morning made a full confession to Sheriff Hazelton. "I had started for Vershire to visit my brother," said she. "I went to the bars in front of the water course and there saw Oscar playing in the water near the mouth of the culvert. I turned back to the house and laying my infant on the bed went back. Jumping over the wall I picked up a post and struck Oscar a heavy blow in the face, knocking him so that his head was near the mouth of the culvert. I grasped him by the legs and shoved him under the culvert. I took the post and pushed him into the culvert as far as I could."

ACCUSING A BROKER OF SELLING HER STOCK.

Mrs. J. B. Thorpe bought fifty shares of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western stock from William L. Wheeler, of No. 52 Broad-st., who has an agent named J. B. Conover, with an office at No. 122 East One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. She stated yesterday to Justice Waite, in the Yorkville Police Court, that she had paid Wheeler, through Conover, $500 or $400 in margins, and that she gave on May 21, $50 to Conover to give to Wheeler to carry the stock. Conover said he gave the money to Wheeler, but Wheeler nevertheless sold out the stock, as he states in his defence that he thought the money was in part payment of a debt due by Conover to him. Justice White held Wheeler in $1,500 for examination and the production of the books in which the transaction is recorded.

CHARGES OF BRUTALITY AGAINST AN OFFICER.

Mrs. Mary Brown, age twenty, of No. 20 Rector-st., appeared in the Tombs Police Court yesterday with her baby in her arms. She said that on Friday evening she was assaulted by James F. Carney, an officer of the Liberty Street Station. She was returning home, she said, when in the hallway she met Carney with a couple of companions. She says they were intoxicated and that Carney caught her by the collar, pulled her into the street and struck her twice in the face. The blow knocked her over and in falling she sprained her ankle. Carney told Justice O'Reilly that he went to the house to see Mrs. Brown's brother against whom there was a complaint. Carney was not on duty at the time. He was paroled until to-morrow.

NATHAN J. NATHAN ARRESTED

Nathan J. Nathan was arrested yesterday on an unsatisfied judgment obtained by Mrs. Elizabeth Cosine. She invented a machine for making butter, and agreed with Nathan that he was to manufacture and use it in consideration of paying her half a cent a pound for all butter so manufactured and sold. He manufactured for several years, but paid no royalty. Mrs. Cosine then sued him and recovered a judgment for $51,881. The execution was returned unsatisfied. Then an execution was issued against his person, and he was found by Deputy Sheriff Crawford at Fifty-ninth-st. and Tenth-ave. and taken into custody. He was paroled in the custody of his counsel until Monday.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE AND THE BROWN PLAN.

A special meeting of the Governing Committee of the Stock Exchange was held yesterday to consider the plan proposed by Frederick T. Brown for a new building on a new site. There was some brief discussion and then the subject was referred again to a smaller committee which will be announced by the president to-morrow. It is understood that the committee consists of Rudolph Keppler, Henry Graves, S. Tighlman, R. J. Kimball and F. K. Sturgis. The report will probably be made promptly, because the refusal of the proposed new site will expire within three weeks.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND ACCEPTS AN OFFICE.

President Cleveland yesterday signified his willingness to allow his name to be used as Honorary President of the American Exhibition, which will be held in London in 1887. It is but a few weeks since Elihu B. Washburne accepted the working presidency of the enterprise. The appointments were made with the view of giving the exhibition a distinctly National character.

SPOILSMEN DEFEATED.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES HOLD GOOD.

MR. REED ANGERS THE DEMOCRATIC "REFORMERS" IN THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 12 (Special).—The scheme of the Democrats led by Randall and Holman to coerce the President and the Civil Service Commission to annul the Civil Service law, was killed to-day by Chairman Blount, of the Committee of the Whole, who sustained a point of order submitted by Colonel Morrison. The debate which preceded Mr. Blount's decision was lively and interesting. The anti-Civil Service men fought hard, but they were easily overcome. Mr. Randall did not attempt to argue the question, but he asked Mr. Hammond several questions which indicated that the Pennsylvania statesman believes the law to be unconstitutional and therefore that the House ought to nullify it. The discussion was not confined closely to the point of order and this gave Mr. Reed an opportunity to offer some sarcastic observations on Democratic economy and reform. He ridiculed unmercifully the Holman idea of economy as exhibited in the pending bill, which proposes to save a few dollars here and there on the salaries of clerks. This is the sort of statesmanship to which the welfare of a great country is relegated by the Democratic party. Then Mr. Reed went on to describe in a vein of sarcastic humor the different kinds of "reform" offered to the people, and to compare the lofty and virtuous professions of the President with the acts of "Brother Higgins," the Postmaster-General and others. An allusion to Reagan's constitutional scruples brought the Texan to his feet with a protest against "sneers" at the Constitution.

"I do not sneer at the Constitution," retorted Mr. Reed, "but I do protest against this constant dragging of the Constitution through the mire of partisan debate, in season and out of season."

Reagan was too much excited to weigh his words and sprang to his feet exclaiming:

"I have not mentioned the Constitution to-day."

This declaration caused roars of laughter on both sides of the House, and it was several minutes before Mr. Reed could be heard saying that this was the first day in the history of the House since Reagan became a member of it when he could have ventured to make such a statement. Mr. Reed's speech put the Democrats in a bad humor, which was greatly aggravated by the adverse decision of Mr. Blount.

When the item for the Life Saving Service was reached there was a little breeze caused by the reading of a letter from Assistant Secretary Smith, of the Treasury Department, to Chairman Randall, correcting certain statements made by Mr. Taulbee yesterday in regard to the Assistant General Superintendent of that Bureau. After the letter had been read, Mr. Taulbee, who is a young, smooth-faced lawyer from the Big Sandy region of Kentucky, rose to reply. It seems that he had tried to get one of his constituents, who may have acquired experience on the banks of the Big Sandy to fit him for the place, into the office of the Assistant General Superintendent of the Life Saving Service, and had failed. For this failure he held Assistant Secretary Smith responsible and soon afterward he offered a resolution of inquiry respecting Treasury affairs. When he next visited the Department in behalf of his constituent, Mr. Taulbee asserts that the resolution was referred to by the Assistant Secretary, coupled with an intimation that to offer such a resolution was not the best way for a Congressman to secure official favors. In short, Mr. Taulbee charged that Assistant Secretary Smith—whom in the heat of debate he spoke of as "that man Smith"—had sought by threats to influence his action as a Representative of the people, and he denounced the act in indignant terms.

Mr. Hewitt offered a long amendment to the item in the Legislative bill for the office of the Assistant United States Treasurer at New-York. There was a spicy discussion on a question of order raised by Colonel Morrison against the amendment in the course of which Mr. Hiscock urged that it was designed to reorganize the office entirely so that Republicans might be removed and their places filled with Democrats without causing too great scandal. He had no objection to the removal of Republicans by the party in power, but he insisted that Congress should not assume a responsibility which belongs to the Executive. Mr. Hewitt denied such intention, but his amendment was ruled out. He succeeded, however, in securing an appropriation of $3,500 for the salary of an additional assistant cashier and of $10,000 for messengers, laborers, etc., as the exigencies of the service may require in the office of the Assistant Treasurer.

COMMERCE OF THE AMERICAN NATIONS.

MR. WHITTHORNE'S SPEECH IN THE SENATE—PASSAGE OF THE ARMY BILL.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—After routine morning business in the Senate to-day Mr. Waitthorne addressed the body in fav
