GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

Another day of dull and featureless markets is to be recorded at the Produce Exchange. In wheat the export demand ran up to 120,000 bushels, and spot lots rose ½ per cent. Cash corn was a shade easier, with 64,000 bushels bought by shippers. Wheat options ruled firm on better advices from Europe and on the spurt in silver, which was figured out as increasing the cost of Indian competition. Prices closed strong, a shade under the best, and up ¾ for September, 87¾ for October at 88. November at 90⅛, and December at 92⅛; and 1c cent for January at 93⅛, and May at 99 cents. The corn options were favorably affected by reports of cold weather at the West, and the gains ranged from ¼ for September at 51, to ⅜ for October at 51⅛, and ½ cent for the other months as follows: November, 52⅛; December, 52⅞; January, 54⅛; and May 55⅞ cents. Oats were dull and lower, and closed practically unchanged as follows: September, 32; October, 32⅛; November, 32⅛; December 34⅜; and May, 37⅜ cents. Rye and options were a little better—September at 57 45, was unchanged and the other months rose 3@2 points to $60 90, for October, $6 81 for November, $6 76 for December, and $6 85 for January.
The receipts of grain yesterday at New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston were as follows: Wheat, 509,000 bushels; corn, 124,688 bushels; oats, 104,637 bushels; total bushels, 738,392 bushels; flour, 27,096 barrels. At Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis the arrivals were: Wheat, 218,721 bushels; corn, 804,057 bushels; oats, 280,442 bushels; total grain, 1,098,220 bushels; flour, 30,108 barrels.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3 (Special).—Big John Teufel enlivened the pork pit at the opening by repeatedly offering to sell 5,000 barrels of "parivary" pork at $11. Nobody wanted it. Hobbs, however, took in at one clip 3,000 barrels of his short stuff at $10 97½ for the same month. October pork was quiet at about $10 07½, a little higher than last night. The clique does not appear to be doing much toward sustaining prices. Lard is traded in about once every hour, and it is altogether chance whether the quotation for September is $7 20 or $7 40. Hutchinson was on the curb this morning and a free seller of corn at 41¾ for October. He sold probably 100,000 bushels at this figure, and then offered any part of 100,000 bushels more. Immediately after the opening October sold at 41⅜@41¼ cents. Wheat was a trifle steadier early on the large decrease in wheat and flour in Minneapolis and their passage. It sold up to 78⅞ cents for an instant early, but then fell off to 78⅜ cents. Wheat kept just under, or just at 78 cents all day. Pork was up about 10@15 cents. The crowd did not sell. The anticipated receipts for to-morrow show 146 cars of wheat, 540 of corn and 185 of oats. The railroads, however, say that the loadings of corn are letting up. The clearances were: Wheat, 64,000 bushels; corn, 225,000; oats, 60,000; rye, 82,000; and barley, 55,000. Lake freights were dull and heavy. The close was at the top figures for the day—October wheat at 78 cents, October corn 41⅜@41¾ cents, October pork $10 25@$10 27½ and October lard $7 20@$7 22½. "Puts" on October corn sold at 41⅜ cents and "calls" at 42. "Puts" on October wheat were 77⅞ cents and "calls" 78⅜. The receipts to-day were 143 cars of wheat, 652 of corn and 158 of oats.

"The Produce Exchange report makes Wheat on lake September 4, 1886, 1,075,585 bush., but the receipts of Wheat at Buffalo on Monday and Tuesday, September 6 and 7, were 680,400 bush., and for six of September 7 probably will be enough to exceed the 1,075,585 bush. There is a probable error in the Exchange statement of stock on lakes September 4, 1886, of 500,000 to 600,000 bush. Wheat, making the increase in visible Wheat 2,000,000 to 2,300,000 instead of 1,080,000 bush."
