MR. SEYMOUR GETS A VERDICT.

The jury in the suit in which James M. Seymour, stockbroker, sought to recover $40,000 from Pierre Lorillard for breach of contract in the sale of the steam yacht Radha, yesterday brought in a sealed verdict in the Superior Court, Justice O'Gorman presiding, awarding $5,750 to the plaintiff. At the request of General Roger A. Pryor, who, with Joseph H. Choate, represented the plaintiff, an extra allowance of $300 was granted him. Mr. Parsons, who seemed pleased with the verdict, said he did not expect to appeal. He did not oppose an extra allowance and said he thought Mr. Choate had earned it. "We hope," he added, smiling, "that something will be left of the verdict for Mr. Seymour." Mr. Choate said he was perfectly satisfied with the result.

The jury, when they first retired, were evenly divided on the question whether the verdict should be for the plaintiff or for the defendant. They agreed on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., after they had deliberated for five hours and forty-five minutes.

A reporter for THE TRIBUNE asked Mr. Parsons yesterday afternoon if Mr. Lorillard would pay the judgment or appeal. Mr. Parsons replied that he was not at present prepared to speak on that point.

DAMAGES FOR INJURY BY AN EXPLOSION.

Frederick M. Keach went into the wine room kept by William Buck and Martin Stelges, No. 140 West-st., on June 16, 1885, and a friend invited him to take a cigar. He took one and seeing one of the wire cigar-lighters which are generally used in such places, one end being dipped in alcohol, found that it would not work as there was no alcohol in the receptacle from which he took it. The bartender brought out a can of the fluid, filled the receptacle, and placed the can on the counter. Keach's friend then lighted his cigar and Keach was about to do the same when there was an explosion. The can was burst asunder and Keach was hurled about the head, neck, arms and body. He sued the proprietors of the place for $10,000 damages. The case was tried yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas before Judge Doty and a jury, and a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $100. Colonel Edward C. James appeared for the plaintiff and Robert W. Todd for the defendants.

BITS OF LEGAL NEWS.

Mrs. Rosella Granger sued Frank Patterson for $2,000 damages for selling liquor to her husband at his liquor-store, No. 125 Delancey-st., between January 1881, and July, 1885. The case was tried yesterday in the City Court before Judge Ehrlich and a jury. The plaintiff said she had requested the defendant not to give her husband intoxicating drink and that Granger, in consequence of his dissipated habits, neglected to support her. A motion to dismiss the complaint on the ground that the plaintiff was not the lawful wife of Granger and had married him while her first husband was living was denied. The jury were ordered to bring in a sealed verdict this morning.

Emma A. Field, who says her father at his death, fifteen years ago, left her a snug legacy, asked Judge Van Hoesen, of the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday for an order giving her permission to sue "as a poor person" her brother, Lucius A. Field. She says he has borrowed all the money she had remaining, amounting to $2,800, and refuses to return it and that she is penniless. The Judge granted the petition and appointed Herman S. Butler as her counsel.

An attachment was obtained from Justice Ingraham, of the Superior Court, yesterday against the property of the St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado Railroad Company at the suit of Gener I James S. Negley, who claims $30,000 for an alleged breach of contract. The plaintiff says that this sum was promised him for settling certain controversies between the defendant and the American Finance Company and for selling the control of the defendant's franchise and its stock and bonds, which he effected, but for which he has not been paid.

LEAVING HER FIVE DOGS TO SUFFER.

The police were asked yesterday to search for Mrs. Catharine Nelson, an old and feeble woman who had lived in a room on the top floor of the tenement-house No. 10 Birmingham-st., and who disappeared about a week ago. The housekeeper of the tenement-house said that Mrs. Nelson was not known to have any relatives in the city, but she kept five dogs in her room. After she went away the dogs became so hungry that they tore her bedclothes into fragments and gnawed at the furniture. Other occupants of the house finally put the dogs out.

MRS. LEFFERTS ONLY TEMPORARILY INSANE.

Mrs. Catharine Lefferts, who is remembered in connection with the Darling will case, as having claimed that she was a daughter of Professor Darling, is still in the insane pavilion at Bellevue Hospital, where she was taken on Tuesday. Dr. Wildman thinks that her ailment is of a temporary nature and that she will recover her usual mental energy in a few weeks. She is not violent and at times appears to be perfectly rational.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

Crude oil again showed a downward tendency yesterday. Business was dull most of the time, but after an opening at 67 @67⅛ cents, against 66¾ cents on Tuesday, the price began to recede. Near the close a selling movement that was conducted with spirit carried values to 66 @66¼ cents, though no news was received to explain the fall. Statistics of declining production (taking all the fields together) and increasing consumption are plentiful enough, but they seem powerless to influence speculation. The wind of the Lima-Indiana field is above 10,000 barrels, due partly to new wells, but in the main to torpedoing, and the developments in the Reid-ld pool, near the old Thorn Creek district, may be of more importance than hitherto suspected. Yet even these influences do not satisfactorily explain the depression in crude, and though the outlook wonder, they find little vim in the market. The close was weak, with carrying sales moderate.

The range of prices and the total dealings at the Consolidated Exchange were as follows:

Opening	67	Lowest	66
Highest	67⅛	Final	66¼

Johnny's Composition on Medicine.

"There is two kinds of medicine besides the kind you find Rub On and the first kind is the soft Kind which you take with a spoon while A man holds your Head and you kick and Biggle while because it Tastes so nut the other kind is the Hard kind which is called Pills and it is the Hardest of the whole because it is so Hard to go down but it does not make any Difference which Kind you Take when you get it Took you wish you Had not for it makes quite a Row in your stomach and Riots Around."

Evidently Johnny's experience in medicine does not include Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," which are easy to take and do their work quietly and calmly. Neither does it include in the way of "soft Medicine" Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which though powerful to cure all chronic derangements of the liver and blood, is pleasant to the taste and agreeable in its effects. Unequalled as a remedy for all scrofulous diseases, pimples, blotches, eruptions, ulcers, swelled glands, goitre or thick neck, fever-sores and hip-joint disease.

"Golden Medical Discovery" will not cure a person whose lungs are almost wasted, but it is an unfailing remedy for consumption if taken in time. All druggists.

Don't hawk, hawk, and blow, blow, disgusting everybody but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.
