IS DR. BULL PERSECUTED?

JUDGE DONOHUE SAYS HE IS DEFYING THE ORDER OF THE COURT.

Dr. George Washington Bull, who was some time ago adjudged to be an habitual drunkard, the Union Trust Company being appointed a committee of his estate, is kept an inmate of the Christian Home for Intemperate Men, but is allowed to go out on every day except Tuesdays and Saturdays. Last Tuesday he obtained special permission to leave the Home and proceeded to the office of Richard H. Spencer, No. 39 Broadway, who had been appointed by the Circuit Court of the city of St. Louis a commissioner to take his testimony in a suit involving the disposition of Dr. Bull's real estate in St. Louis, valued at $30,000. The suit was brought against John G. Priest, Dr. Bull's agent in St. Louis, and against the Union Trust Company, by Morris Glazer, a tenant, who wishes to have it determined to which of the defendants he is to pay rent. The hearing was adjourned until to-day. Meantime J. W. E. York, who represents the daughters of Dr. Bull, obtained a stay of proceedings from Justice Donohue, of the Supreme Court, before whom Dr. Bull and his counsel appeared yesterday afternoon on an order requiring him to show cause why the stay should not be permanent. Frank J. Dupignac, in behalf of Dr. Bull, said that the attention of General Benjamin F. Butler and himself had been called to the case of Dr. Bull, whom he believed to be a much persecuted man. He asked the Judge if he would entertain an application for his discharge.

Justice Donohue said that when the proper time came and proper papers were presented that could be considered, and added: "Dr. Bull has been adjudged for his own sake a ward of the Court. He is to-day acting in defiance of an order of the Court, being examined in a suit brought in Missouri, the effort being to have his property out there disposed of without regard to the order of this Court."

Mr. Dupignac said that if Dr. Bull had acted contrary to the order of the Court it had been an error of judgment and not of will on his part.

The Judge said it was very easy to show that by submitting to the order of the Court, and Mr. Dupignac said that Dr. Bull would cheerfully do so.

The stay was made permanent. Mr. York suggested that a contempt of court had been committed, but the Judge, in view of the statements of Mr. Dupignac, declined to consider that matter.

MAJOR HOLZBORN'S GEM-STUDDED SWORD.

Judge Bookstaver, in the Court of Common Pleas at special term yesterday, after investigating the case of Major Herman Holzborn, who had been committed to the Ludlow Street Jail for contempt of court in failing to deliver to Receiver Cornelius J. Kane the property which in supplementary proceedings he had sworn was in his possession, directed that he be taken back to jail unless he gave up the property. Later in the day he returned to court with his counsel, bringing an old sword in a brass scabbard, a plain gold ring, an old Waterbury watch and a pair of cheap sleeve-buttons which he offered to surrender. Louis J. Grant, on whose application he had been incarcerated, said that these were not the articles that the Major had spoken of in his examination, consisting of a presentation sword with a gold handle studded with gems and a silver scabbard, worth $350, and valuable jewelry, and intimated that the prisoner had purchased the articles now shown, which were of little or no value, for the purpose of imposing upon the Court. Judge Bookstaver sustained this view and sent the Major back to the jail, saying that he must either produce the property spoken of in his examination or show that there was some mistake in taking the testimony.

A PRIEST'S EXPERIENCE ON A "BOB-TAIL" CAR.

Father Daniel P. Ward, of St. Bridget's Roman Catholic Church, at Eighth-st. and Avenue B, yesterday recovered $40 in a suit in the City Court against the Christopher and Tenth Street Railroad Company, tried before Judge Ehrlich and a jury. The plaintiff said that on May 21, 1886, he entered a "bob-tail" car at Tenth-st. and Ave-B, obtained change for a dollar from the driver and dropped a nickel in the box. Soon after the driver stopped the car, insisted that he had not paid his fare, swore at him, assaulted him and subjected him to "unjust comment and ridicule and disgrace in the presence of several witnesses." He asked for $1,000 damages. Several witnesses corroborated his statements, while the driver swore that the priest had not paid his fare.

McMAHON ASKED TO GIVE BONDS.

The hearing in the case of William McMahon against Maurice B. Flynn, Civil Justice Kelly and the companies which have been organized to build the subways, was to be continued yesterday before Commissioner Shields, but the Consolidated Subway Company, one of the defendants, procured from Judge Shipman in the United States Circuit Court an order to show cause why the proceedings should not be stayed until McMahon gave bonds to the amount of $2,000 for the payment of the costs. The order to show cause was made returnable this morning, when there will be an argument before Judge Shipman.

BITS OF LEGAL NEWS.

By direction of Justice Patterson a verdict of $994 58 was rendered in the Supreme Court yesterday in favor of Joseph Hartman in his suit against the city. He was appointed janitor of the Fourth District Court at a salary of $1,500 a year. His claim for five months' pay was opposed on the ground that during 1877 the civil justices were only entitled to appoint two attendants each, while the janitors were to be named by the Commissioner of Public Works.

The Fidelity and Casualty Company having refused to keep an agreement to guarantee a bond for $25,000 given by Louis S. Samuels on a contract with the United States Government, Mr. Samuels sued the company, claiming $4,000 damages. The case, which was tried before Justice Ingraham and a jury, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $2,471 19.

NEW TRAIN RULES AND TELEGRAPH ORDERS.

The General Time Convention of railroad managers resumed its session yesterday at the Hotel Brunswick. New train rules were adopted to go into effect as soon as possible, and the new system of telegraph orders was adopted provisionally, subject to the approval of the next session of the convention. The following officers were elected: President, Colonel H. S. Haines, general manager of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railroad; first vice-president, J. M. Toucey, general superintendent of the New-York Central; second vice-president, D. J. Chase, superintendent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe; secretary, William F. Allen, of "The Official Railway Guide," and members of the executive committee, J. T. Harahan, general manager of the Louisville and Nashville; H. B. Stone, general manager of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; E. B. Thomas, general manager of the Richmond and Danville; James McCrea, general manager of the Pennsylvania Company; T. M. P. Talcott, general manager of the Mobile and Ohio, and A. H. Swanson, general manager of the Houston and Texas Central. The convention adjourned to meet on October 12 at the Hotel Brunswick.

A HANDFUL OF HAIR SHOWN AS EVIDENCE.

Policeman Sahm, of the Elizabeth-st. squad, was tried at Headquarters yesterday on a charge of clubbing Patrick Shea, of No. 83 Baxter-st., on the night of March 6, and afterward arresting both Shea and his wife without cause. Mrs. Shea, who had made the complaint, gave a vigorous and circumstantial description of the quarrel. In brief, her story was that she and Katie Green, another inmate of the Baxter-st. house, had a fight on the sidewalk at 11 p. m. Shea had just begun to help his wife in the row when Sahm came along and took Katie Green's part. Not content with clubbing Shea, the officer broke into the rooms of the Sheas after midnight and dragged the couple to the police station. The sergeant refused to hold them. Mrs. Shea's story was backed up by the statements of her husband and several relations.

Sahm said he interfered to protect Katie Green, who had been thrown down and nearly scalped by the Sheas. They took his club away and locked themselves in their rooms. He followed and arrested them, but the sergeant thought the arrest ought not to have been made without a warrant. Sahm denied having clubbed any one. Katie Green exhibited a lock of hair which she said Mrs. Shea had torn from her head in the fight. She and other witnesses declared that the policeman had not used any unnecessary force in defending her.

"Hope on, hope ever." How many delicate ladies there are who, while they attend to their daily duties, do so with aching heads, a sense of fullness, pain in the back and depressed spirits, who are "only keeping about," as the phrase is. Some day they "go into a decline," and leave their children orphans. To such we would say, "Cheer up." Timely use of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" corrects all female irregularities, weaknesses and kindred affections easily, pleasantly and quickly.
