CALL IT WITHERS'S DAY.

BROOKDALE HORSES ON THEIR METTLE.

JOCKEY LUKE'S FIRST AMERICAN VICTORY—EXCELLENT RACING AT JEROME PARK.

If June 8 ought to be set down in the American racing calendar as Withers's day. The veteran turfman sat in the timers' stand at Jerome Park yesterday and saw the Miss Nellie filly run second to Magnetizer in the first race; he saw Premier Salisbury fly away with a dozen fast sprinters at his heels in the second race; he saw the Minority colt steal the place from Bess in the third race; he saw Stonebuck, after one of the most exciting finishes seen this season or any other, beat the speedy Eurus by a neck in the fourth race—he saw all these wonders in one day and was as unmoved as Anarchy in the second race. Many glasses were levelled at that familiar face, but not a muscle quivered. It looked as unhappy as ever.

August Belmont was actually surprised in the act of enjoying a quiet little smile all by himself. Immediately afterward the sun broke through the clouds and shone for the rest of the day. Tarbouche one afternoon, Magnetizer the next. And Luke, imported Luke! it was his first victory on this side of the Atlantic and it drew forth generous applause. Luke is a clever horseman. Few jockeys have a better seat or more skilful hands. With good mounts he will win races that will put his services in demand outside the stable.

Does any one living now doubt that McLaughlin lost Saturday's race on Eurus through carelessness and over confidence? Eurus and Stonebuck are almost exactly equal in speed, and either of them, properly ridden and fit and well, can run away from that wretched plug, Phil Lee, at any time.

THE TRIBUNE thought Amalgam might win his race—with Richmond out—but the "tip" was given on the reasonable supposition that after his recent experiences with Eurus Mr. Cassatt would put a jockey on the Bullion colt. Even with the boy Davis up many excellent judges backed Amalgam to win. But he had no chance. Wait till McLaughlin or Hayward wakes him up. Every horse in Mr. Cassatt's stable requires driving.

The Dwyers never made a bigger blunder in their racing career than the sale of Richmond last autumn for $2,250. He is one of the best handicap horses in America to-day and will make a bold bid for the Suburban at 112 pounds. On his present form and at that weight, he ought to hold Ben Ali and Blue Wing safe at their weights and some others that are much fancied.

Ecuador was handled as if his rider only aimed to kill off the opposition to Shamrock and to let the favorite win. Most steeplechasing on American race-tracks (except when amateurs ride) is about as honest as picking pockets. "Bill" Daly, Ecuador's owner, was once ruled off the turf and the gates should never have been opened to let him back. Ex-Governor Bowie, of Maryland, kept a keen eye on "Uncle Bill," at Washington and Baltimore and when Bourke Cockran was pulled at Washington the punishment was swift and sure. But Mr. Withers is too amiable, indulgent and kind-hearted to treat "Bill" and his gang with the rigor that they deserve.

Many of Captain Coster's handicaps now are gems. But the modest Captain only smiles, and says, "After success in handicapping is largely a matter of luck."

Unless Mr. Withers wants his horses ruined he must stop P. Fitzpatrick's vicious habit of spurring them far up on the shoulder. Such spurring is likely to make a bolter and swerver of a naturally good-tempered animal. Inspector Dilks arrested a negro on the grand stand for striking a special officer who tried to eject him from the course for gaining admission in a fraudulent way. A track employe was knocked down by Adoneus in his preliminary.

De Lacey, a bookmaker, was suspended by the executive committee pending the trial of the case brought against him for pool-selling in Park Row. The American Jockey Club is determined to shut up these city "commission" rooms if possible.

The youngsters started in the woods at the head of the straightaway course, the Miss Nellie filly having a slight advantage. McLaughlin brought Tampa up and Luke followed with Magnetizer. At the head of the stretch Tampa gave it up and joined Satisfied, who did not seem to try at all. In the run home the race lay between Magnetizer and the Miss Nellie filly, Luke outrode P. Fitzpatrick and Magnetizer won cleverly by a length and a half, the Miss Nellie filly second, two lengths before Flyaway, the others pulled up.

Pools—Britannic $40, Climax $32, Anarchy $23, Rosewood $10, Prince Leopold $9, Salisbury $7, Reid $32.

Mutuals paid $114.

This was a runaway race for Salisbury. Prince Leopold was first away, Alf Estill second, Salisbury third. Salisbury moved up quickly and gained the lead going around Picnic Hill. At the club-house he led by two lengths, and was never afterward approached, winning easily by two lengths, Climax second, a neck before Harry Russell, third, Britannic fifth. The favorite was second at the club-house, but continued to fall back after passing the half-mile post. Patrocles was prominent until the head of the stretch was reached, when he fell out of it. Pampero and Richmond were withdrawn.

THIRD RACE—HANDICAP. $25 EACH, $750 ADDED. ONE MILE.

Roth & Co.'s b. h. Richmond, by Virgil—Alert, 5 yrs, 122 lb. ....(Shauer) 1

Pools—Richmond $25, Minority colt $10, Lamasney Brothers' pair $7, Bess $8, Amalgam $5.

Mutuals paid $9 60.

Gozzo was withdrawn. The Minority colt had the best of a fair start, Bess second, Richmond third. Little Minnie and Amalgam took the lead at the turn and showed the way around Picnic Hill. Little Minnie led to the half-mile post when she fell back. Shader rode a waiting race. Richmond was last going behind the bluff, but moved up on the turn into the homestretch. When straightened out he drew away and won with ease by a length, the Minority colt second, two lngths before Bess, third. Amalgam was never prominent after the run to the club-house.

FOURTH RACE—HANDICAP. $25 EACH, $750 ADDED. 1 3-16 MILES.

D. D. Withers's ch. h. Stonebuck, by Stonehenge—Juletta, 5 yrs, 113 lb. ....(Hayward) 1

Pools—Field $25, Strathspey $11, Stonebuck $9, Eurus $7.

Mutuals paid $21 90.

Brown Duke and Richmond were withdrawn. Ten Booker got a running start and led past the stand by a length and a half, Gonfalon second, Eurus third, and the favorite last. There was no change around the turn. In the run to the club-house Strathspey moved into third place, Eurus taking fourth, Stonebuck fifth. In this order they disappeared behind the bluff. At the half-mile post Eurus led by a head, Ten Booker second, Strathspey third, Stonebuck fourth. Eurus was first at the head of the stretch. When straightened out Hayward brought up Stonebuck and joining issue with McLaughlin and McCarthy began a desperate finish. The run home was a hard battle between the jockeys, in which arms and legs did their part. Hayward managed to get his mount in front in the last three strides and Stonebuck won by a head, Eurus second, a length before Ten Booker, third.

FIFTH RACE—PURSE $500. SELLING. FIVE FURLONGS.

T. McCaull's b. h. Choctaw, by Saxon—Fanny Ludlow, 6 yrs., 115 lb. ....(Godfrey) 1

Pools—Choctaw $25, Suitor $10, Adoneus $7, John Alexander $6, field $17.

Mutuals paid $13 75.

Pampero was withdrawn. The race was run over the straightaway course. John Alexander and Suitor led up the slope to the head of the stretch when Choctaw drew away and won cleverly by a length and a half, King Arthur second, two lengths Adoneus third. No bid for the winner.

SIXTH RACE—HANDICAP STEEPLECHASE. PURSE $600. FULL COURSE.

Pools—Shamrock $40, Ecuador $35, Disturbance $23, field $10.

Mutuals paid $12 25.

Thirty-two horses were withdrawn. Whyburn set a killing pace with his mount and led the procession to the water jump, when Baronet, pumped out, fell back beaten. He was so tired that the wall brought him to earth, and he did not run any more. Shamrock at once went to the front and won the race in a canter by ten lengths. Disturbance second, fifty yards before Ecuador, third. Disturbance made up a great deal of ground on the flat, but could never approach the favorite. Ecuador slunt up before taking the last hurdle in the homestretch.

TO-DAY'S ENTRIES.

Hanover will canter off with the Belmont Stakes to-day. A lively fight for second place between Belvedere, Stockton, Rustler, and the Juletta colt was hoped for, but their owners prefer to pay $50 forfeit rather than try for the $300 second money, and Oneko will gallop alone for the $300 far behind the invincible Hanover.

Captain Coster's handicaps are puzzling and make the selection of winners a hard task, but Fingeoletta should win the first race with Mr. Wither's Viceroy second. Fast as Saxony is he does not like weight and may be content with third place or a worse one.

Kingfish seems to have a mortgage on the Sequence Stakes and Tea Tray should capture second money.

In the fourth race Strathspey, though he ran badly yesterday, ought to have a good chance, with Florence Fonso second.

LONDON, June 8.—At Ascot Heath to-day the race for the Royal Hunt Cup was won by Mr. Manton's four-year-old bay colt Gay Hermit. Lord Hastings's five-year-old brown horse Pearl Diver came in second and Sir F. Johnstone's four-year-old bay colt Candlemas third. There were sixteen starters.

The race for the Coronation Stakes was won by a neck by Mr. Manton's ch. f. Heloise, with Prince Soltykoff's ch. f. Luciana second, three lengths in front of Baron de Roth's child's b. f. Simoune third. The last betting was 4 to 1 against Heloise and 25 to 1 each against Luciana and Simoune.

Mr. Manton's ch. c. Timothy won the Ascot Derby Stakes by three lengths, the Duke of Beaufort's b. c. Dante ran second, and Lord Bradford's br. c. Chippeway was a bad third. The betting was 2 to 1 against Timothy, 10 to 1 against Dante and 5 to 4 against Chippeway.

The Triennial Stakes for two-year-olds was won by a length and a half by Lord Zetland's b. c. by Isonomy out of Ellangowan. J. H. Houldsworth's br. c. Springhaven was second and Lord Bradford's br. c. Merry Andrew a bad third.

METS BEATEN BY THE CHAMPIONS.

CROWDS OF PEOPLE GO TO ST. GEORGE.

CLEVELAND MEN DEFEATED BY THE BROOKLYN NINE.

Nearly 5,000 spectators went down to St. George, S. I., yesterday to witness the fourth game of baseball between the Metropolitan and St. Louis clubs. The champions from the banks of the Mississippi played in brilliant form, and although they did not defeat their opponents easily, they nevertheless had several runs to spare when the game was finished. The crowd was an enthusiastic one and encouraged difficult plays by hearty applause. Captain Comiskey protested against a decision of Umpire Knight in the seventh inning and was promptly fined $75. Manager Von Der Ahe looked sad, for he knew that the $75 would come out of his pocket instead of out of Comiskey's. The Metropolitans scored their only run in the third inning on a two-base hit by Hankinson and a single hit by Meister. Welch's home-run hit in the eighth inning, when he sent O'Neil and Comiskey home ahead of him, was loudly applauded. The score was:

The Brooklyn club again defeated the Cleveland nine at Washington Park. About 1,800 spectators were present and as the home club won, the onlookers appeared to be well satisfied and to have got considerable enjoyment out of the game. The home players showed more fire and determination in their work and consequently defeated their weaker opponents easily. Pechiney belied his name for in the vernacular of the game "he cou'dn't worth a cent." Stricker played in excellent form for the Western nine and won about all the honors his club received. Toole, the home pitcher, showed lack of practice, but did excellent work. Greer again did finely and will prove a useful acquisition to the club. The score was:

The Metropolitan and Cincinnati nines play on Staten Island to-day, the New-York and Washington clubs at the Polo Grounds and the Brooklyn and Louisville clubs in Brooklyn.

The Staten Island Athletic Club and New-York Reserve nine played an interesting game at West New-Brighton yesterday. The athletes played in fine form and not only defeated their professional opponents but did not allow the "Ponies" to score a single run. The Staten Island men made three.

ONE MORE FOR THE GIANTS.

BEATING THE PHILADELPHIA CLUB BY A SCORE OF 7 TO 4.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—New-York won from Philadelphia to-day by better work at the bat and in the field. Buffinton was hit hard, particularly in the first and eighth innings, and his support was anything but brilliant. Keefe pitched effectively, the hits made being well scattered. New-York scored three in the first inning on two singles, a double, a wild throw by Irwin and a passed ball; and four in the eighth on three singles, a double, a base on balls and errors by Farrar and Fogarty. The Philadelphia Club scored in the third on two single hits and an out; two in the fourth on Gore's muff, a hit by Wood, a fumble by Ward and two outs, and one in the eighth by Gillespie's muff and Wood's double. YALE AND HARVARD ON THE DIAMOND.

A DISASTER AT CAMBRIDGE FOR YALE PARTIALLY OFFSET BY STURDY FRESHMEN AT HOME.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 8 (Special).—Yale came up to Harvard to-day, bringing along her great staff in the firm expectation of taking her first game on record on Holmes Field. But the Holmes Field diamond has always been a disastrous diamond for Yale, and to-day even Stagg and Dann succumbed to its influence. Harvard put her pony pitcher, Bingham, into the box, and Yale couldn't find him. In nine innings they hit him only six times, with a total of seven. Stagg, however, did not show his hitherto invincible cunning, for everybody on the Harvard team save Mumford got a hit off him. Nine hits, with a total of twelve, was Harvard's record, not counting four bases on balls which Stagg kindly gave them. Harvard gave Yale three runs on rank muffing, and still came out with seven runs to five for Yale. At the end of the game, not to be outdone even as to errors, Yale made thirteen of them, some of which were fairly boyish. Bingham struck out seven of the men from Yale, while only five Harvard batsmen went down before the terrible Stagg. The game was won for Harvard by Bingham's cool and puzzling pitching and by the timely batting of Linn and Henshaw. Cross made a splendid running catch in the sixth and Dann threw to bases remarkably well. Linn made a great catch in the seventh and Wiestling made the play of the game in the sixth by a remarkable stop of a difficult grounder. This morning nobody expected Harvard to win the game, but to-night some wild enthusiasts are making bold claims for the pennant. Score:

Yale	0	1	2	0	2	0	0	0	0	—5
Harvard	0	4	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	—7

Earned runs—Harvard, 2. Batteries—Stagg and Dann; Bingham and Henshaw.

NEW-HAVEN, June 8.—Wild pitching, loose fielding and weak batting cost the Harvard freshmen the freshman championship and $400 cash at the Yale field this afternoon. Harvard's battery work was poor and nearly all of the fielding errors costly. The Yale nine batted Sabine freely and played a sharp fielding game, especially with men on the bases. The feature of the game was the fielding of Morrison, McClintock, Calhoun, Howard and Slade. Score:

Yale Freshmen	2	0	0	0	0	2	1	5	x	—10
Harvard Freshmen	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	—2

Time—2:15. Umpire—Mr. Egan.

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Washington nine defeated its Boston opponents rather easily to-day, outplaying the nine from the Hub at every point. Radbourne pitched with little effect, the home players batting his curves free and hard. The Boston men found Gilmore's curves as hard to solve as did the New-York batters earlier in the week. The score was as follows:

Washington	1	0	2	0	0	0	2	1	0	—6
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	—2

Baseblits—Washington, 20; Boston, 9. Errors—Washington, 2; Boston, 6. Pitchers—Gilmore and Radbourne. Umpire—Mr. Powers.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 8.—The Chicago Club took a commanding lead early in the game to-day and defeated its Indianapolis opponents easily. Baldwin pitched in fine form, holding the Hoosier batters down to five hits. The score was:

Indianapolis	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	—3
Chicago	2	0	5	0	0	0	1	0	x	—8

Baseblits—Indianapolis, 5; Chicago, 11. Errors—Indianapolis, 7; Chicago, 4. Pitchers—Boyle and Baldwin. Umpire—Mr. Pierce.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The Athletic and Cincinnati clubs played two games to-day and divided honors evenly. The home players batted Serad's delivery freely in the first game and won as follows:

Cincinnati	4	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—4

Baseblits—Athletic, 12; Cincinnati, 6. Errors—Athletic, 4; Cincinnati, 4. Pitchers—Atkinson and Serad. Umpire—Mr. Cuthbert.

The Cincinnati players bunched their hits in the second game and won as follows:

THE TROUBLE OVER M. W. FORD.

C. C. Hughes, the secretary of the Manhattan Athletic Club, writes in reference to the rejection of that club's entries for the New-York Athletic Club games. "If such entries have been made it has been inadvertently, and they will very likely be withdrawn before the meeting. Of one thing the public can rest assured—no one entitled to wear the cherry diamond will compete at the New-York Athletic Club games unless the New-York Athletic Club gives official assurance that Ford will not compete. The New-York Athletic Club has deliberately thrown down the gauntlet to the National American Amateur Athletic Association in the bold attempt to foist a professional athlete upon members of the association.

WILL THE ATLANTIC WIN TO-DAY?

GREAT THINGS EXPECTED OF HER BECAUSE OF HER PERFORMANCE ON TUESDAY.

Now that the big sloop Atlantic has shown that under certain conditions she can win a race from the Priscilla and Galatea much interest is manifested, not by yachtsmen alone, but by the public generally, to know whether her sudden display of speed is permanent, or merely an accident. Her performances, therefore, in the New York Yacht Club regatta to-day, when she will have the same opponents in her class as on Tuesday will attract more than usual attention. Should she win to-day and again on Saturday in the Seawanhaka Corinthian regatta, her chances of gaining the honor so much coveted for her last year of defending the America's Cup, will be much improved. The Shamrock will also sail to-day and may be depended upon to make a good showing. The outcome of her match race with the Titania is now a foregone conclusion and the query is Why would it not be a good plan to choose her to compete with the Thistle? Of course the Scotch giant is much the larger boat, but with the time allowance to which Mr. Max
