MILITARY LITIGATION.

AN OFFICER SUED BY A SOLDIER.

RIFLE PRACTICE IN THE NATIONAL GUARD—AN IMPROVING REGIMENT—PROMOTIONS.

After the return of the 11th Regiment from camp Private George D'Arcy, according to the complaint in a suit for false imprisonment which he has begun against Captain George W. Mooney, who commands Company B to which D'Arcy is attached, was detained in the armory until he paid $1 25 toward the expenses of the regiment in camp. The Captain says that D'Arcy, in common with the other men of the command, had promised to contribute one day's pay for this purpose. The suit is brought in the City Court and is for $1,000 damages. The law requires the plaintiff in such a case to deposit three times the amount claimed before the suit can be tried. Colonel Stewart has applied to the Judge Advocate-General to defend Captain Mooney in the case but thinks it doubtful whether it will ever be brought to trial.

The 2d Battery, Captain Ferdinand P. Earle, has been pursuing the even tenor of its way for the last few months, with the exception of a tour of duty as State Camp, where twenty men and four orderlies have been in attendance, the former for four weeks and the latter during the entire season. Preparations are being made satisfactorily for the eleventh annual excursion, which will take place on Wednesday, August 15. The company will leave Twenty-third-st., East River, at 8:30 and One-hundred-and-twentieth-st., East River, at 9:30 a. m. The Crystal Stream will convey them to Cold Spring Grove, Long Island. The entertainments, excursions and love-feasts given by this organization are always enjoyable, and this will not be an exception to the rule. The regular quarterly meeting of the battery was held at the armory last Thursday night. Two names were added to the roll.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Officers of the 9th Regiment will be held at the armory on Wednesday evening. The regiment will have more marksmen this year than ever before. It will have in all three days of general rifle practice. Last year there were only two.

Colonel Albert P. Stewart and Lieutenant-Colonel William P. Walton, both of the 11th Regiment, are members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and have been appointed aides-de-camp on the staff of Commander-in-Chief Rea.

The 69th Regiment, Colonel James Cavanagh, has now 960 men on its rolls and it is expected that during the coming season it will become a full regiment. During the last quarter it gained eighteen men. The regiment is in fine condition and every Irishman in the city is proud of it. Many of them, if circumstances permitted, would seek to join it.

Colonel William Seward, jr., of the 9th Regiment, announces in orders that the following non-commissioned officers have been warranted: First Sergeant Charles Schmeiser, Company B; First Sergeant Louis Wenzel, Company C; Sergeant Herbert E. Earle, Company C; Sergeant Albert McMullen, Company C; Sergeant William R. Dawson, Company D; Sergeant A. Vachris, Company C; Sergeant Maurice Murphy, Company A; Sergeant John Murray, Company I; Quartermaster Sergeant John Hay, Company F; Corporal Christopher Peters, Company F; Corporal David F. Holmes, Company F; Corporal William Krefeldt, Company D; Corporal Otto Gebhardt, Company D; Corporal James V. Pettit, Company A; Corporal William Rowe, Company I; Corporal John McAllister, Company I, and Corporal Jacob H. Lange, Company I. The Colonel in the same order says: "The commandant of the regiment takes this occasion to congratulate the organization on the record made during the recent trip to Gettysburg, and the opportunity afforded to assure the authorities of its reliability to do its whole duty in upholding the laws and maintaining order as did its former members, so many of whom laid down their lives in testimony of their faithfulness."

The 11th Regiment will assemble at the armory early on the morning of August 14, in State service uniform, fatigue cap, with one day's ration in haversacks, and proceed to Creedmoor for first general rifle practice. The second general practice, if any is ordered, will take place in September.

General Louis Fitzgerald, commanding the 1st Brigade, will preside at the meeting of the officers of the 22d Regiment to-morrow evening, called for the purpose of electing a lieutenant-colonel of that command in place of Lieutenant-Colonel Harding, now of the 11th Regiment. Major Miller will probably be successful in wooing the Goddess Fortune, who generally favors the brave, but she will not be his without a struggle. There are other aspirants in the field.

Adjutant George W. Rand, of the 7th Regiment, took a two weeks' leave of absence last Monday, and went to Block Island. When last heard from he was in good health and spirits.

The orders for the second general rifle practice of the 9th Regiment are out. The regiment, with the exception of those members who have already qualified as marksmen, will parade in State service uniform, wearing fatigue caps, with haversacks and one day's rations, next Thursday at 6:30 a. m., and will take the boat at East Thirty-fourth-st. at 7:40 a. m., and proceed to Creedmoor. Quartermaster Dana B. Pratt will make the necessary arrangements for transportation.

Captain Frederick Klonz, of Company D, 11th Regiment, whose resignation has been forwarded to Albany, is the oldest captain by date of commission in the National Guard of the State. He has held the rank since October 30, 1862. He originally entered the service as a private in the 11th Regiment in 1857, became a corporal in 1858 and a first lieutenant on February 13, 1862.

The staff of Lieutenant-Colonel Heman Dowd, of the 12th Regiment, while he is in command of the 8th Provisional Battalion, composed of ten separate companies, at the State camp next week, will consist of the following: Captain Rufus Delafield, adjutant; Captain John Macauley, quartermaster and commissary; First Sergeant D. Gaillard, sergeant-major; Sergeant T. J. Gunsen, color-sergeant; Sergeant George E. Walker, quartermaster-sergeant; Sergeant A. L. Huyler, provost-sergeant; and Corporal F. W. Brown, clerk.

Captain Kasson C. Gibson, of the 9th Regiment, is regarded as one of the best inspectors of rifle practice in the State. Captain G. Henry Witthaus, the genial treasurer of the 9th Regiment, is seldom absent from the post of duty.

Sergeant A. M. Hearn, recently promoted from the position of corporal in Company C, 7th Regiment, and Monroe Crane, jr., who was made a corporal at the same time, earned their advancement by strict attention to duty and intelligent comprehension of military instruction.

Company G, 71st Regiment, will elect a captain in a few weeks. Second Lieutenant E. R. Banks is now in command of the company.

The officers of the 22d Regiment will meet the members of the Armory Board at 3 p. m. to-morrow, for the purpose of selecting the plans of the new armory. Captain Loo's plan seems to be most favorably regarded by the officers. It provides for a building not so ornate in its exterior as those protected by other architects, but with an interior admirably adapted to the purposes of the regiment, with which the captain is thoroughly familiar.

The following corporals in the 8th Regiment passed the Examining Board on Monday evening and were warranted: E. J. McCauley, Company C; E. A. Fellows, Company C; J. F. Tatte, Company B; W. D. Collins, Company I, and R. F. Mackin, Company I.

Sergeants Bernard Pick and E. H. Frost and Corporals William N. Hayes, S. M. Whiting and J. J. Downs, of Company A, 71st Regiment, have received their warrants. Sergeant Lloyd W. Francis, of Company C, Sergeant W. J. Linson and Corporals W. A. Gager and J. J. Breen, of Company D, and Sergeant A. C. Seibeneichen and Corporals W. A. McGuilliard, Charles L. Seinson, John T. Yates and A. M. Lichtenstein, of Company H, have also been warranted.

E. A. Barker, president of the 8th Regiment Athletic Association, has issued a circular in regard to the coming games in camp, in which he says that the athletic games will take place at the State Camp, Peekskill, on July 30, 31 and August 1, open only to members of the 8th Regiment. No prices will be given and no entrance fee required. The contests will be: Monday, July 30—100-yards run, one mile run, running broad jump, 440-yards run; Tuesday, July 31—120-yards hurdle race, standing broad jump, one-mile walk, 220-yards run; Wednesday, August 1—880-yards run, two miles run, standing three jumps, running high jump. Entries closed last Friday evening. The competitor winning the largest number of points (five to first, three to second and one to third in each event) will win the title of "champion all-round athlete of the 8th Regiment."

Henry Cleveland, a relative of the President, was unanimously elected first lieutenant of Company B, 9th Regiment, on Monday evening.

The election of a second lieutenant in Company K, 9th Regiment, will be ordered in a week or two. A committee is looking for the proper man for the position.

HIS FOOT CRUSHED BY AN ELEVATOR.

Conrad Boehm, a young German salesman in the refrigerator factory of L. H. Mace & Co., at Christie and Houston sts., got on the open freight elevator in the place, shortly before 11 a. m. yesterday, and started to ride to an upper floor. At the second floor his foot was caught between the platform of the elevator car and the baseboard of the shaft and badly crushed. A number of Boehm's comrades in the factory ran to his assistance and held him up in a half fainting condition, while efforts were being made to extricate his mangled foot. An ambulance was summoned, and the surgeon gave the young man hypodermic injections of morphine to help him bear his sufferings. The strong oak floor of the elevator had to be cut away with chisel and saw before Boehm's leg could be released, and the work occupied nearly an hour. Boehm was then removed to Bellevue Hospital. His home is at No. 86 First-st.

ALL THE IRON STEAMBOATS BUSY.

There will be no delays in travel to Coney Island or Long Branch to-day by the Iron Steamboat Company's boats, however large the demand for accommodation. Seventeen trips to the Island and four to Long Branch will be made, the boats leaving from West Twenty-third-st., and from Pier No. 1, N. R. The last boat from the Island leaves the Iron Pier at 10:30, and the last boat from Long Branch at 6:15 p. m.

TO FACILITATE THE BUREAUS WORK.

AN INGENIOUS SYSTEM OF RECORDING VITAL STATISTICS TO BE ADOPTED.

On August 1 the clerks in the Bureau of Vital Statistics will begin a new method of indexing the records of births, deaths and marriages which are reported in this city. Instead of keeping an index in one of the ponderous books which have been in use in the bureau for many years, the clerks having charge of the death records will prepare copy for a printed index of names. The same method will be followed by the clerks in charge of the records of births and marriages. Each printed index will contain names, together with numbers which refer to the certificates on file in the bureau, the names being arranged alphabetically. Copies of each index will be sent to the public libraries.

The printing of the records in the bureau was suggested by Dr. John T. Nagle, deputy register of vital statistics, several years ago. His plan, if adopted, would make each index full of information and would enable citizens to get the necessary proofs of deaths, births and marriages at public libraries without paying fees for searches at the bureau. Such a plan also would prevent the complete loss of the records of vital statistics of the city in case of a big fire at Sanitary Headquarters. The policy of secrecy adopted by the present Health Board has prevented the printing of an index which will be of use to anyone except clerks in the department.

THE LOST NAVAL OFFICER FOUND.

LIEUTENANT SCHAEFFER RETURNS—HE CAN GIVE NO ACCOUNT OF HIMSELF.

Lieutenant Henry W. Schaeffer, one of the officers of the United States steamer Swatara, who so mysteriously disappeared on July 19, and for whom an alarm was sent all over the country, returned to the vessel yesterday with his clothing begrimed with dirt and with a generally dishevelled appearance. He could give no account of his wanderings, and the interval of his absence was a perfect shadow to his memory. He was received kindly by his brother officers, but his case will be reported to Secretary Whitney by Commander McGowan, and a court-martial will probably be the result.

The lieutenant's list of the Navy has suffered recently. Lieutenant Hanson R. Tyler has been suspended for one year on account of drunkenness; Lieutenant Emory H. Taunt has been dismissed for the same cause, and two or three others are under the shadow of court-martial from weak habits.

THE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHY.

Round Lake, N. Y., July 28.—At the School of Christian Philosophy this morning Professor Fullerton, of the University of Pennsylvania, read a lecture on "Pagan and Christian Religious Sentiment." It was an examination of Matthew Arnold's comparison of Pagan and Christian ideals. On Monday President Battle, of the University of North Carolina, will speak on "Courts and Judical Proceedings Mentioned in the New Testament."

DEMOCRATIC VETERANS FOR HARRISON.

Cattaraugus, N. Y., July 28 (Special).—Several members of the Grand Army of the Republic who earnestly supported Cleveland for President in 1884 and have since been radical Democrats, have decided to vote for Harrison. In the 1st Assembly District, where ex-State Committeeman McMahon is popular, the Cleveland men will lose heavily, his adherents being determined to resent the removal of that gentleman from the State Committee. J. Andrews, a leading merchant and a veteran of the war, denounces Cleveland, for whom he was a worker in the previous campaign.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

The speculation in crude oil yesterday at the Stock Exchange and the Consolidated Board developed more activity than was shown in the market at the close of last week, the transactions recorded numbering 1,202,000 barrels. The market opened at 80 3-4, but during the first half hour prices declined to 79 3-8, on heavy offerings. After that time, the market developed strength, and prices advanced to 80 1-2, and closed firm at 80 1-8 cents. There was no news from the field, and the strength of the market was maintained on the continued demand for export, which, with the domestic consumption, is greater than the supply as reported from the fields.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as follows:

	Stock Exchange.	Consolidated.
Opening	80 1-2	80 3-4
Highest	80 1-2	80 3-4
Lowest	79 1-2	79 3-8
Final	80 1-8	80 1-8
Sales barrels	332,000	870,000

Refined oil, Abel test, was firm at all points, at 7 1-2 cents. The foreign markets remained unchanged.
