THE FAVORITES IN FRONT.

A BAD DAY FOR THE BOOKMAKERS.

FIVE OUT OF SIX FIRST CHOICES WIN AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

The heavy storm and the deep mud put the Coney Island track in the worst possible condition for racing, and naturally caused many withdrawals. Most of the fields were small. The attendance was surprisingly good, however, and the spectators were immensely pleased with the day's sport, as nearly every one of them left the track a winner. It was a day full of disaster and gloom to the bookmakers. Five strong favorites won without a break after the first race; and although Satisfaction was not quite first choice in the betting, she probably carried about as much money as any other horse in the selling race. The management was perfect, the judging, the starting and all the details being carried out with the utmost efficiency and promptness, and almost all the racegoers left the track early with money enough in their pockets to enjoy a sumptuous dinner in good season.

Out of the nineteen probable starters in the selling race, which opened the day's sport, five were withdrawn. Satisfaction won easily with the lightly weighted Gallatin second and Queen of Elizabeth third. Mr. Haggin decided not to start Salvator in the Gleaners' Stakes with his heavy weight of 122 pounds. Eric, Khaftan, Blue Rock, Forest King and Ganymede were also withdrawn. With all these out, Madstone was made a strong favorite, few of the bookmakers being willing to give even money against him. He won with all possible ease, under a heavy pull. Tenny got second place, only a head before J. A. B., who was a head before Mr. Withers's Dawdle colt. Taylor rode the Dawdle colt with little judgment and no skill. This youngster has no remarkable burst of speed. He is not at all of the same class or the same quality as the Faverdale colt, his stable companion. In fact, the characteristic of all the Dawdle family and of all the Tom Ochiltrees is their ability to rate along at a good pace without any sensational flashes or wonderful rushes at the finish. But most of our jockeys are so stupid that they ride all horses alike. Every horse that they get on is handled as if he or she were a Firenzi or a Faverdale colt. They seem to think that every one of them is to be run under a pull and to win with a rush at the end. If Taylor had ridden the Dawdle colt all the way, keeping him moving steadily and well, and choosing his room at the turns, the Dawdle colt could not have failed to get second place, although he had no chance of defeating Madstone, who decidedly outclasses him this year, although it is not probable that Madstone will make nearly as good a three-year-old as the Dawdle colt. This son of Tom Ochiltree and Dawdle is like Laggard, who was of little account at two, but a colt of merit at three. Madstone is a precocious youngster by Vanderbilt, out of Nina Turner, and will hardly train on long. Taylor went very wide at the turn with the Dawdle colt, and did not begin his work on him until too late to have any chance. His riding undoubtedly was influenced by the fact that the Dawdle colt was conceding weight to everything in the race, but some horses, no matter what weight they carry, must be ridden all the way to get the speed out of them, and no shadow of excuse can be offered for the clumsy manner in which Taylor lost many lengths at the turn.

Only three ran in the Sheepshead Stakes for three-year-olds, Gallifet, Santalene and Little Jim. William S. Barnes made no secret of his confidence in Gallifet, who has now recovered most of his spring form and who was always clever in mud. To Gallifet went to the post with odds on, although many people backed Santalene on account of his forward running last week in heavy going, while others thought the race a certainty for Little Jim, who was ridden by Garrison, because Little Jim won a welter weight race on the grass on Saturday against a poor class of horses. Little Jim had no chance whatever and was beaten off at the finish. Gallifet won in the easiest possible manner.

So did Los Angeles in the fourth race, another favorite at odds on; but she might have been compelled to run a little at the finish if Joseph with 23 pounds advantage in the weights had been handled with any approach to common sense. Why in the world such boys as Griffith, who rode Joseph, are allowed to exist at all is a mystery. Why they should be permitted to ride racehorses in handicaps to which $1,250 is added would puzzle Plato, Aristotle or any other old Grecian. This little numbskull sat back in the saddle and nearly pulled off Joseph's head for more than a mile. It was wonderful how so tiny a midget could ever have developed such prodigious strength in the biceps muscles. If the race had been at Brighton Beach everybody would have supposed that it was a put-up job for Joseph to lose the race, this boy pulled him so hard and so long; but as the purse was a good one and Joseph a rank outsider in the betting, this peculiar riding must be ascribed to the jockey's idiocy rather than to dishonesty. E. F. McCarthy, who is put down on the cards as the owner of Joseph, is unknown to fame. He must have an astute idea of racing; he must be a great master of the Turf, if he approves such riding as this boy does for him. Joseph had only 95 pounds in the saddle. Of course the only way for him to win was to go out and make the race. How could a colt of Joseph's class expect to beat a filly of the class of Los Angeles if the racing were left to the last furlong? But not only did young Griffith pull Joseph's head into his chest up to the final furlong, but he also took him as far out as possible at every turn, and lost the greatest number of lengths that any jockey could possibly lose at each curve in the course. Yet, in spite of this atrocious bungling, Joseph came in third, beating Lelex, Unique and Argo. Los Angeles won in a canter, with Le Logos second and Joseph third. Lelex, Unique and Argo seemed to like neither the mud nor the distance.

Wary and Kaloolah being withdrawn, there were only three starters in the fifth race, Swift, Vosburg and Lela May. Swift could have won by nearly a furlong. She did win by a great many lengths, which amazed the cynics of the turf, who rubbed their eyes in wild bewilderment that this mare was ever permitted to carry off a race in which the betting on her was 5 to 2.

Garrison with Rupert proved an invincible combination in the race at a mile and five furlongs on the turf. Rupert won in masterly style, beating off his field. Aretino ran second, and might have given the winner some serious trouble if McLaughlin had been in the saddle, but with McLaughlin out, Garrison never had to worry for a second. Ernest was well backed by some blind followers of William Lakeland's stable because the horse had won a handicap at Brighton Beach on Friday. Perhaps that race took away some of his speed, but thoughtful observers considered it significant that Lakeland did not engage Hamilton to ride Ernest, but put up Regan instead. Hamilton is Lakeland's favorite jockey when he wishes to pull off a really good thing. Yet Regan rode the horse to victory at Brighton. The most meek and long-suffering of men would soon exhaust his patience in backing Mr. Lakeland's horses. Calm and profound reflection on the performances of this horse Ernest at Monmouth Park, Brighton Beach and Sheepshead Bay within the last month or thereabouts ought to convince the most charitable and sympathetic of turfmen that Mr. Lakeland's activity should be confined hereafter to Brighton, Clifton, Guttenberg and Yonkers. There is really no reason why he should be allowed further to degrade the really honest and respectable racecourses. It may not be his fault. The horses may be perverse and unprincipled. But certain owners ought either to get off the turf altogether or ought to be able to discipline their horses into some approach to decency, self-respect and consistency.

DETAILS OF THE RACING.

S. W. Street's ch. m. Lucy H., 5, 97 . (Anderson) 0
Time—1:47 3-5.

Post odds: To win—Queen of Elizabeth 5 to 1. Satisfaction 6 to 1. Lucy H. 7 to 1. Jennie McFarland 7 to 1. Bo Peep 8 to 1. Benedictine 10 to 1. Hilda 10 to 1. Himalaya 10 to 1. Ocean 10 to 1. Gallatin 15 to 1. Keder Khan 20 to 1. Idilla 40 to 1. Allentown 50 to 1. Place—Satisfaction 2 to 1, Gallatin 5 to 1.

Mutuals—Satisfaction straight paid $46 60, place $16 05; Gallatin place (field ticket) $11 20.

At the first break Dynamite went off like an Anarchist bomb and ran three-quarters of a mile at top speed. When he rejoined his horses the flag fell on a fair start, with Queen of Elizabeth slightly in front, Bo Peep second, Hilda third and Allentown fourth, the others nicely grouped. Dynamite drew out at the quarter, and opening a gap of three lengths, led to the half, where he collapsed. Himalaya took up the running on the turn, but soon retired in favor of Allentown, who gave way to Satisfaction as the field swung into the homestretch. Once in the lead, Satisfaction remained there, winning cleverly by three lengths; same between second and third. No bid for the winner.

SECOND RACE—GLEANERS' STAKES. TWO-YEAR-OLDS. $50 EACH, $1,500 ADDED. SIX FURLONGS.

R. Pryor & Co.'s br. c. Madstone, by Vanderbilt-Nina Turner, 115 lb . . . . . (J. Lewis) 1
D. T. Pulsifer's b. c. Tenny, 105 . . . (Goodale) 2
F. S. Brown's b. c. J. A. B., 105 . . (Covington) 3
D. D. Withers's Dawdle colt, 118 . . . (Taylor) 0
Preakness Stable's b. c. Gendarme, 102 . (Anderson) 0
J. D. Morrissey's b. c. Sam Wood, 115 (Fitzpatrick) 0
J. B. Haggin's ch. f. Ogallala, 102 . . (Barnes) 0
Time—1:15 2-5.

Post odds: To win—Madstone even, Ogallala 6 to 1. Dawdle colt 8 to 1. J. A. B. 8 to 1. Tenny 8 to 1. Gendarme 10 to 1. Sam Wood 10 to 1. Place—Madstone 2 to 5. Tenny 5 to 2.

Mutuals—Madstone straight paid $10 35, place $7 20; Tenny place $13 95.

Ogallala led for three furlongs and retired. Madstone, who got off second, then took the lead, and coming on without effort, won by two lengths. Tenny made a desperate rush in the last furlong and got on even terms with the favorite, but when Lewis gave the latter a gentle rousing he came away, crossing the line under a pull. Head between second and third. The Dawdle colt was second at the head of the homestretch, but dropped back and was never afterward dangerous. Ganymede, Blue Rock, Infanta, Forest King, Salvator, Khaftan and Eric were withdrawn.

THIRD RACE—SHEEPSHEAD STAKES. THREE-YEAR-OLDS. $50 EACH, $1,500 ADDED. 1 1-4 MILES.

Melbourne Stable's ch. c. Gallifet, by Falsetto-India, 106 lb . . . . . (Harnes) 1
Chicago Stable's b. c. Santalene, 103 . . . (McCarthy) 2
C. T. Perry & Co.'s ch. c. Little Jim, 111 . . . (Garrison) 3
Time—2:13 1-5.

Post odds: To win—Gallifet 4 to 5, Santalene 3 to 1, Little Jim 3 to 1. Place—none.

Mutuals—Gallifet straight paid $6, place $5 50; Santalene place $7 20.

Gallifet and Santalene, alternately leading each other by a neck or head, made the running for a mile, Little Jim taking the mud from their heels. The favorite shook off Santalene in the homestretch and won in a common canter by a length, Santalene, under the whip, beating Little Jim a hundred yards. Defence, Yum Yum and Macbeth II. were withdrawn.

FOURTH RACE—HANDICAP SWEEPSTAKES. $25 EACH, $1,250 ADDED. 1 3-8 MILES.

E. J. Baldwin's ch. f. Los Angeles, by Glenelg-La Polka, 3 yrs., 115 lb . . . . (Murphy) 1
R. Bradley's b. g. Le Logos, 6, 108 . . (Winchell) 2
E. F. McCarthy's b. g. Joseph, 8, 95 . . (Griffith) 3
D. A. Honig's b. g. Lelex, aged, 112 . . (Taral) 0
Castle Stable's b. g. Argo, 5, 90 . . . (Anderson) 0
O. F. Wiseman's ch. g. Unique, 5, 103 . . (Freeman) 0
Time—2:30.

Post odds: To win—Los Angeles 2 to 5, Lelex 7 to 1. Le Logos 10 to 1, Joseph 10 to 1, Unique 15 to 1, Argo 20 to 1. Place—Los Angeles 1 to 6, Le Logos 3 to 1.

Mutuals—Los Angeles straight paid $7 25, place $6 70; Le Logos place $17 30.

Little Griffith must have had waiting orders, for it would have been the height of folly to let Joseph, with his crushing burden of 95 pounds, attempt to make the pace. Joseph did his best to get up in front where there was no mud flying, but as often as he tried it, Griffith, leaning far back in the saddle, pulled and sawed and yanked at him until Joseph, disgusted and out of heart, ceased his efforts to win. Murphy rode a waiting race. When the others had run themselves almost to a standstill, Los Angeles strode to the front and came home in a walk, crossing the line a length before Le Logos, who beat Joseph a neck. With half a chance, Joseph would have been second; with a whole chance he might have beaten Los Angeles. Why didn't Griffith let him go?

FIFTH RACE—HANDICAP SWEEPSTAKES. $25 EACH, $1,000 ADDED. 1⅛ MILES.

W. B. Jennings's br. m. Swift, by Great Tom-Mariposa, aged, 110 lb . . . . . (Hamilton) 1
Chicago Stable's ch. f. Lela May, 3, 102 . (Covington) 2
Oden Bowie's ch. g. Vosburg, 4, 103 . . . (Winchell) 3
Time—2:01 3-5.

Post odds: To win—Swift 1 to 3. Lela May 3 to 1, Vosburg 5 to 1. Place—Swift none, Lela May 7 to 10.

Mutuals—Swift straight paid $6 55, place $5 30; Lela May place $6.

This was an exercise gallop for Swift, who had the race at her mercy from the fall of the flag to the last stride. It was also an exercise gallop for Vosburg, who had third place at his mercy from start to finish. Lela May fought gamely for a mile, cheering the heavy hearts of her backers, but she had to yield in the straight. Swift won in a gallop by six lengths. Wary and Kaloolah did not start.

SIXTH RACE—HIGH WEIGHT HANDICAP SWEEPSTAKES. $25 EACH, $1,000 ADDED. 1 5-8 MILES ON THE GRASS.

Preakness Stable's b. g. Rupert, by Falsetto-Marguerite, 4 yrs., 125 lb . . . . (Garrison) 1
J. J. Carter's b. h. Aretino, aged, 110 . . (H. Lewis) 2
S. W. Street's br. g. Orlando, 6, 117 . . (Anderson) 3
W. Hendrie's b. f. Pee Weep, 3, 117 . . (O'Leary) 0
Summit Stable's ch. g. Royal Arch, aged, 122 (Donohue) 0
W. Lakeland's ch. g. Ernest, aged, 115 . . (Regan) 0
T. N. Miller's b. g. Ten Booker, 6, 117 . . (Taral) 0
Time—2:53 1-5.

Post odds: To win—Rupert 8 to 5, Ernest 4 to 1, Aretino 7 to 1, Royal Arch 8 to 1, Pee Weep 8 to 1, Orlando 10 to 1, Ten Booker 12 to 1. Place—Rupert 3 to 5, Aretino 5 to 2.

Mutuals—Rupert straight paid $10 80, place $7 60; Aretino place $18 40.

Ernest opened a gap of four lengths and made the pace for a mile. Pee Weep got up to him on the backstretch and the two ran together until half around the long turn, when Aretino took the lead, coming into the homestretch half a length before Rupert, who was only a neck before Pee Weep. In the final brief struggle Rupert easily shook off Aretino and won by three lengths; six between second and third. Ten Booker sulked and was last all the way.

NO RACING AT SHEEPSHEAD TO-DAY.

THE MEETING POSTPONED UNTIL TO-MORROW—ENTRIES TO STAND.

There will be no racing at Sheepshead Bay to-day. RACING AT THE HUB.

SAM KEENE AND JOE COTTON BADLY HURT IN A FALL.

Boston, Sept. 11 (Special).—The Bostonians have caught the racing fever, and they swarmed upon the Mystic Park course to-day, the grand-stand and smarter-stretch being crowded, while long lines of vehicles occupied the outer and inner fields. The steeplechase pleased the people highly, and they fairly yelled with delight at each jump. The racing as a whole, was interesting, but a serious accident occurred in the third race. There were sixteen starters, and all of them went around the first turn in a bunch. Before reaching the first quarter there was a collision, in which Sam Keene was thrown and jumped upon by the other horses and badly mutilated. Joe Cotton fell over him and broke a leg. The two jockeys, Foster and Crittenden, escaped without serious injury.

HAMPDEN PARK TROTTING RACES.

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 11 (Special).—At Hampden Park this afternoon the seventh meeting of the Grand Trotting Circuit began with three races on the card. The air was close and heavy and the track was soft and rather cuppy from recent rains. There were not many visitors present, but the stake race set down for to-morrow will doubtless bring a large number of turfmen from New-York and the New-England cities. The sport this afternoon was not exciting or sensational, and the two races finished were both won by the horses most heavily backed to win. Summaries are given below:

CHICAGO'S NEW PITCHER PUZZLES THE VISITORS—DUFFY'S GREAT CATCH.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—John Tener played his fourth League game to-day and won it. The Giants were unable to hit his curves till the sixth inning, when hits by Welch, Richardson, Conner and Tiernan brought in three runs and tied the score. In the next inning two bases on balls and three hits gave Chicago two runs, and they won by that many. The features of the game were the fly catching of O'Rourke and Duffy. In the ninth inning Duffy made the most remarkable catch of a fly ball that has been seen here this season. He caught it in far centre field and fell under a horse standing on the carriage tracks, narrowly escaping being kicked to death. The crowd numbered 6,500. The score was as follows:
