THE GIANTS WIN AT CHICAGO

HARD HITTING BY BOTH NINES.

THE NEW-YORKS CAPTURE ONE GAME OUT OF FOUR—FEATURES OF THE CONTEST.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—New-York won one of the games of the series to-day. Krock and Keefe were batted equally hard, but the support of Chicago's pitcher was poor, while that of Keefe was excellent. The game was uninteresting, the only features being the batting of Richardson and Burns. The attendance was 8,000. The score was:

Umpires—Powers and Daniels.

GOOD BATTING OF THE EASTON MEN.

The New-York Reserves and the Easton nine played a game of baseball at the Polo Grounds yesterday. The Reserves showed little team work and were easily beaten by their Central League opponents. The Easton players were unusually proficient with the bat. The score was as follows:

New-York Reserves	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	3	1	—5
Easton.....	1	2	0	3	0	0	0	2	0	—11

Norman Baker, the crack pitcher of the Newark Club, was heavily fined by the Newark management yesterday and suspended indefinitely, on account of his queer work at Allentown on Thursday. Dan Shannon, the heavy batter and clever second baseman of the Omaha team, has been signed to play second with the Newarks.

The League and Association records to date are as follows:

The Bookmakers' baseball nine has challenged the Reporters' nine to a battle with the bats. The game will be played at the Polo Grounds on Monday, at 3 p. m.

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—The game between the Athletic and Brooklyn clubs was splendidly contested from start to finish, and was won by the home club in the last two innings by a batting streak, with the aid of two costly errors on the part of the visitors. Seward pitched his third game in as many days, and as usual, he was superbly caught by Robinson. Foutz also pitched with great effect in the first eight innings, but weakened a little in the ninth, when he was found for a double and two singles. The score was as follows:

Brooklyn.....	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0—2
Athletic.....	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	2—4

Baseblits—Brooklyn 3, Athletic 5. Errors—Brooklyn 6, Athletic 3. Pitchers—Seward and Foutz. Umpire—Mr. Goldsmith.

Detroit, Sept. 14.—The Detroit players bunched their hits in the third and eight innings to-day and managed to defeat Philadelphia. Gruber pitched with telling effect, except in the last inning. The score was as follows:

Detroit.....	0	0	5	0	0	0	0	2	0	—7
Philadelphia.....	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	3	—5

Baseblits—Detroit 10, Philadelphia 6. Errors—Detroit 5, Philadelphia 4. Pitchers—Gruber and Casey. Umpire—Mr. Lynch.

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—Superior batting enabled the Baltimore nine to win a game from the Clevelands to-day, and again pass the home club in the championship race. The score was:

Baltimore.....	3	2	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	—9
Cleveland.....	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	—5

Baseblits—Baltimore 12, Cleveland 8. Errors—Baltimore 5, Cleveland 6. Pitchers—Cunningham and Bakely. Umpire—Mr. Doescher.

St. Louis, Sept. 14.—The Cincinnati players could not game Chamberlain's delivery to-day and were beaten with ease by the champions. The score was as appended:

Cincinnati.....	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	—2
St. Louis.....	3	5	0	2	0	0	0	0	4	—14

Baseblits—Cincinnati 2, St. Louis 14. Errors—Cincinnati 2, St. Louis 1. Pitchers—Sullivan and Chamberlain. Umpire—Mr. Gaffney.

Kansas City, Sept. 14.—Kansas City outplayed the Louisville nine at every point to-day and won by this score:

Louisville.....	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Kansas City.....	0	0	1	0	1	2	0	0	1	—5

Baseblits—Louisville 2, Kansas City 10. Errors—Louisville 5, Kansas City 6. Pitchers—Ewing and Porter. Umpire—Mr. Ferguson.

Wilkesbarre, Sept. 14.—Jersey City defeated the Wilkesbarre nine to-day by the following score:

Jersey City.....	4	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—5
Wilkesbarre.....	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	—2

Baseblits—Jersey City 7, Wilkesbarre 4. Errors—Jersey City 1, Wilkesbarre 2. Pitchers—Daley and Fitzgerald. Umpire—Mr. Holland.

THE FUNNIEST YACHT RACE THIS YEAR.

PREPARATIONS OF THE NEW-ROCHELLE YACHT CLUB TO ASTONISH SAILORS GENERALLY.

The funniest yacht race of the season is going to be sailed to-day under the auspices of the New-Rochelle Yacht Club. It is a regatta for a mosquito fleet and is open to everything that floats, from a man-of-war to a dead dog. There are no restrictions as to style or area of sail and no boat will be closed out because it is propelled by the wind caught in a last season's flannel shirt split up the back. Horse blankets, red bandannas and any other rags will be in order. In reality, however, the entries will include canoes, open rowboats, St. Lawrence skiffs, Barnegat sneak-boxes and duckboats. The entrance fee is $3 for each boat, and the combined stakes will be used to purchase a silver bowl for the first prize, and a United States yacht ensign for the second. The crew for each boat is limited to two persons, and the time allowance will be computed on length over all, by Larchmont Yacht Club tables.

The start and finish will be across an imaginary line drawn from the New-Rochelle Yacht Club house to the spindle southwest, known as Bailey's Rock. The course will be to and around striped buoy west of Execution Lighthouse, thence to and around stakeboat anchored two miles northeasterly of Execution Lighthouse, thence to starting line, distance six miles. Stakeboat and all buoys on Execution Reef are to be left on port hand. If the wind should be southwest, the order of going out will be reversed and stakeboat and buoys left on starboard side. At the firing of the gun on Echo Island at 2 p. m., ten minutes will be allowed to make ready. A firing start is to be made at the firing of the second gun at 2:10 p. m. Amos Brown, of New-Rochelle, N. Y., will act as stakeholder, and John S. Nicholas as judge.

At Larchmont to-day there will be an interesting race for jib-and-mainsail boats, the one which was postponed from last Saturday. The starters will be the Nahli, Lorna, Amanda, Brooklyn, Sirene and possibly Ira Smith's famous Susie S.

THE MANHATTAN ATHLETIC CLUB TEAM.

The Manhattan Athletic Club team of athletes for the American Amateur Union championships at Detroit, on September 19, will leave the Grand Central Station in a special car on Sunday night. The team will stop at the Russell House, Detroit. It will return on Wednesday. The contingent as determined last night by the Board will be as follows: F. Wesling, A. P. Copeland, J. F. Norton, H. M. Banks, jr., G. L. Estes, D. J. Tompkins, T.P. Connell, E. D. Lange, C. L. Nicoll, W. A. Berrian, E. M. Vandervoort, F. L. Lombardi, I. D. Webster, L. D. Gadshall, J. W. Powers, jr., D. S. Lord, W. Revere, D. T. Brohaw and J. Sennig. The annual dinner of the club will not be given until October 10.

THE NORMAL COLLEGE OFFICIALS.

TRUSTEE SCHMITT THINKS THAT THEY HOLD THEIR POSITIONS ILLEGALLY.

The Trustees of the Normal College differ in opinion in regard to the effect of the recent law on that institution. The reorganization of the college is the same, it is held, as was that of the College of the City of New-York, some years ago. The bill was framed on that of the City College, and the officers of the College of the City of New-York all held over when that institution was reorganized and were not re-elected. President Hunter was asked if he knew of any opposition to himself and he replied that he had heard of none. There was a general feeling of indignation among the young women of the college yesterday that any possible opposition should be made to the president.

"The Normal College consists of its president, the faculty and the students," said Professor Hunter, "and if the president and the faculty are not legally in office then it follows logically that the students have not been legally admitted to the reorganized institution. But the facts are in my opinion that the law simply provided for a transfer of the old organization to its new basis." Trustee Henry Schmitt does not agree with Mr. Simmons, the president of the Board of Trustees, or Trustee Wood in regard to the reorganization. He maintains that a re-election is necessary, and that the present officers of the college have no legal right to their places. "Who has appointed them?" said Mr. Schmitt, illustrating his position. "Not the Board of Trustees, because it has not yet taken any action beyond electing its own president. The Board of Education appointed President Hunter and the faculty of the old organization, but it has no power to continue them in office. I have read the act carefully and I fail to find a clause in it which indicates that the officers of the college should hold over. If they have been drawing any pay for their services since the law went into effect, then the money has been paid to them from the treasury illegally; that, however, is Mr. Myers's look-out."

SOME TEST CASES IN VOTING.

RESIDENCE AND NATURALIZATION.

POINTS FOR VOTERS IN PERPLEXITY—PATRIOTISM NOT INDISPENSABLE.

To The Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: A naturalized citizen of the United States, having been a British subject, declares openly his purpose to remain in this country long enough to vote for Cleveland and free trade and then return to a country where he will again become a British subject. Would not such declarations deprive him of his right to vote? There may be many such persons in this country and it might be well for people to know whether they are entitled to vote or not. E. L.

Idaho Springs, Col., Aug. 20, 1888.

(No; so long as he remains an American citizen and amenable to our laws, he continues to retain the rights of American citizenship. As a matter of fact, is not his course in openly avowing his purpose to vote in the interest of his native land, to which he intends to return, more honest and less open to criticism than the action of those Free Traders who, as Americans and under the guise of loyalty and devotion to American interests, are doing their utmost to destroy them for England's benefit?—Ed.)

AN OFFICE ADDRESS NOT A RESIDENCE.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I had been a voter in New-York; moved to Colorado and gained a residence there; returned to New-York some eighteen months ago; have had my office in one place since my return, but have boarded with my family in different neighborhoods. I am now boarding out of New-York, but shall return before November. Can I vote for President in November next? Will my office address allow me to vote in that election district? Respectfully,

New-York, Sept. 4, 1888. REPUBLICAN.

(It is extremely doubtful whether you have the right to vote. You have certainly lost the right, if it has not been your intention to retain your last residence in New-York, and upon your return you go to another part of the city to live. Your office address does not help you; that is not your "residence."—Ed.)

A FULL YEAR REQUIRED IN NEW-YORK.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Kindly answer the following in your valuable paper: If I have moved within a year from another State to New-York, am I entitled to a vote in my old State or am I compelled to forfeit my vote through change of residence? Yours truly, C. H. K.

New-York, Sept. 1, 1888.

(If you changed your residence to New-York State subsequent to November 6, 1887, you have lost the right to vote this year in either State.—Ed.)

AN INTENTION TO RETURN IS ENOUGH.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I am and have for years been a resident of this State, my place of business being in this city. I temporarily removed to New-Jersey on account of throat troubles; stayed there eighteen months, then moved back again. While there I refrained from voting to avoid the loss of my residence in this State. I shall not have been back one year on November 6. In the meantime my business has been entirely in this State. Am I entitled to vote at the coming election? Respectfully, INQUIRER.

New-York, Sept. 5, 1888.

(You have the right to insist upon your continued and uninterrupted residence in New-York and to cast your vote here, despite your temporary sojourn in New-Jersey. Your place of business, however, has little or nothing to do with it. It is purely a question of your good faith in the purpose to retain the city of New-York as your residence.—Ed.)

A TWO YEARS' NOTICE REQUIRED.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I arrived in this country seven years ago and have never taken out my naturalization papers, being greatly interested in the coming Presidential election and desiring, if possible, to vote for Harrison and Morton, I would like to know if I can do so.

Brooklyn, Sept. 3, 1888. A. H. A.

(If you came to the United States before you were eighteen years old, or if you declared your intentions not less than two years ago, you can now take out your naturalization papers and vote in November; otherwise, not.—Ed.)

ALL THREE ENTITLED TO VOTE.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I was born in England twenty-three years ago and came to this country with my father when I was two years old. My younger brother was born here twenty-one years ago. Our father never was naturalized. Our cousin was born in England twenty-one years ago and came here at an early age. His father was naturalized. We all want to vote, so as to prevent being reduced to the level of the workingmen of England, as described to us by our parents. Are any or all of us legal voters at the next election, all being of legal age? Yours very truly, J. B. R.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 6, 1888.

(You may all three legally vote in November. Your younger brother need not take out any naturalization papers. But you and your cousin should do so at once. As you came to America under the age of eighteen and have continuously lived here more than the requisite number of years, no previous declaration of intentions is required.—Ed.)

THE LAW ABOUT COLLEGE STUDENTS.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: My brother will be twenty-two years old on the 5th of next November. He will enter upon his junior year at Cornell this month. I desire to know if he could vote, if properly registered, at Ithaca. His father and mother are residents of Pennsylvania, but they will not be paying his way nor bearing any of his expenses. He was a resident of New-York State for nearly two years before his twenty-first birthday and has so continued to reside there until a few weeks ago, when he came here to stop with me during vacation. Now, the question is whether he has a vote in New-York State, where the Republican party should have every vote possible for Harrison and Morton? Your reply in The Tribune will greatly oblige. Yours respectfully, A. V. H.

Phillipsburg, N. J., Sept. 1, 1888.

(The question as to the right of college students, of full age, who had no other place of residence, to vote in the college town, was raised and settled at Cornell several years ago. If your brother will inquire of Judge Lyon, J. T. Newman or any other good Republican lawyer of Ithaca, he will learn the particulars. There was a large proportion of the undergraduates who were of full age and as much the largest number of them were Republicans, the Democrats attempted to prevent any of the University students casting their ballots. The result was to establish the right of each student twenty-one years old, who could swear that Ithaca had been his residence for more than a year and that he had no other residence, to vote there. The precedent then established has since been followed, we believe, and University students of that description have seldom been troubled by challenges. Your brother appears to come within this class and to be entitled to vote at Ithaca. His temporary vacation visit at your home does not affect this right.—Ed.)

NO PRELIMINARY NOTICE NECESSARY.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Will you please answer the following question in The Tribune: Can a young man coming to this country at the age of fourteen become a citizen at the age of twenty-one, without having "declared his intentions" two years previous? Yours respectfully,

Gloversville, Aug. 31, 1888. J. R.

(Yes, if he has continued to live here; but he must take out his naturalization papers.—Ed.)

MR. CHANDLER VISITS THE NAVY YARD.

The visit of ex-Secretary of the Navy Chandler to the Navy Yard yesterday caused great surprise among those who recognized him, and some suggested that he had come to take an inventory of the new ships, tools, etc., in view of the probable election of Harrison and Morton. It may be stated, to establish the peace of mind of the sensitive Democrats who feel that their places are not as secure as they would wish, that Senator Chandler's visit had no political phase, but that it was principally to visit his son, Lloyd H. Chandler, an ensign in the Navy and at present attached to the cruiser Boston, at the yard. The ex-Secretary also made a social call upon Rear Admiral Gherardi, commandant of the station, and with him visited the new vessels at the wharfs and also the new cruiser Maine, now in course of construction.

The spires of St. Patrick's Cathedral are rapidly climbing Heavenward. First one spire is a trifle the higher, then the other. Can this be properly called a steeplechase race?
