BACK FROM EUROPEAN CLIMES.

THE TIDE OF WESTWARD BOUND TRAVEL ACROSS THE OCEAN NOW AT ITS FLOOD.

That the westward tide of travel over the ocean for this season is at the flood is evident. The crowds who thronged the transatlantic steamships a few weeks ago, anxious to escape the summer's heat, are now anxiously turning their faces homeward in anticipation of the pleasures of the winter season. Among the 541 saloon passengers who arrived yesterday on the City of New-York were:

F. P. Adams, William Adams, S. H. Agnew, James Allen, C. T. Anderson, Nowell T. Ansley, E. W. Anthony, John Ambler, Thomas Amor, the Rev. T. G. Apple, George H. Babcock, F. Bailey, the Rev. J. M. ELECTRIC LIGHT AND FIRE WIRES MIXED.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 15 (Special).—The electric light wires and the fire alarm wire were mixed up last night and two or three alarms of fire were accidentally sent in. One of the horses in an engine house was knocked down by the current. The electric light wire burned the alarm wire in two, and caused considerable confusion.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

In the two hours devoted to business yesterday in the Consolidated Exchange, a fair volume of trading in pipe line certificates was recorded. The tone of speculation continued unsettled with the tendency toward lower prices, checked only by occasional rallies on the shorts. The opening was 3-8 cent lower at 91 1-4 cents, and after a spurt to 92 1-4 cents, there was a falling off to 91 3-8 cents. There was no news from the field to warrant the decline, but the depression in the leading railway stock undoubtedly exerted an unfavorable effect on oil. Around 91 1-2 cents the market, however, displayed some steadiness, but just before the close, a vigorous raid broke prices below 91 cents on the absurd cry: "Stocks are going to pieces!" The character of the raid was as obvious, only in a different direction, as was that of the bidding up of prices at the end. The last price was quoted officially at only 1-2 cent under first figures, but it did not represent the tone of the close, which was unsettled and uneasy.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as follows:

	Stock Exchange.	Consolidated.
Opening	91 3-4	91 3-4
Highest	92 1-4	92 1-4
Lowest	90 3-4	90 3-4
Final	91	91 1-4
Sales, barrels	407,000	868,000

Refined oil was unchanged at 7 3-4 cents per gallon, Abel test, at New-York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.
