GRAIN—WHEAT—The speculative market was without much vim to-day, and intervals of idleness were quite frequent during the session. Nothing new transpired in the way of features. The short interest became apprehensive of another squeeze at the opening, and a buying movement was started, partly by foreigners. Prices quickly began to rise, until December reached $1 17 3-4 and May $1 21 3-4, or net gains of 1 7-8c on the close of yesterday. The firmness, however, soon wore away, and before noon the situation was completely reversed. Large houses at the West who were buying early, turned around and sold quite freely, thus causing a decidedly weaker feeling. December dropped to $1 14 7-8 and May to $1 18 1-2. The afternoon was perfectly listless and the changes did not amount to much, leaving off at 1-4@3-8 above the bottom. The spot market remains in the same dull and unsatisfactory position as noted for some time past. Winter grades show a decline of 1-2@1c per bushel, while spring stock is well maintained on account of the small supply available. Sales, 4,192,000 bushels future, 32,000 bushels spot, including Ungraded Winter Red at 92c@$1 11 1-4; No. 2 Red, $1 11@$1 11 1-2 elevator, $1 11 3-4@$1 12 1-4 delivered; $1 12@$1 12 3-4 store and afloat; No. 2 Chicago, $1 13 1-4 nominal; No. 2 Milwaukee, $1 11 1-4 nominal; No. 1 White, 97 c. b., $1 19 1-4 nominal; No. 2 October, closing at $1 11 1-4; do November, $1 13@$1 15 1-8, closing at $1 13 1-4; do December, $1 14 7-8@$1 17 3-4, closing at $1 15 1-4; do January, $1 16 3-8@$1 17 1-8, closing at $1 16 3-8; do February, $1 17 1-8@$1 19 1-4, closing at $1 17 1-4; do May, $1 18 1-2@$1 21 3-4, closing at $1 18 3-4; do June, $1 17 1-2@$1 20, closing at $1 17 1-2. . . RYE—Quiet and firm; prices without further change. . . BARLEY—Firmly held, but quiet. . . BARLEY MALT—Dull and nominally unchanged. . . CORN—There was a decided pressure to sell to-day, both here and at the West, and the market in consequence suffered a break. The options were momentarily steady at the opening, but prices soon gave way and at length declined 1-2@3-4c, closing at a shade above the bottom. Cash grades are down 1-2@3-4c, with freer offerings, leading to a fair degree of activity, shippers taking 128,000 bushels. Sales, 728,000 bushels future, 203,000 bushels spot, including Ungraded Mixed at 52 1-4@52 3-4c in elevator, 52 5-8@53 1-2c delivered, here and afloat; No. 2 October, closing at 52 3-8; do November, 52 7-8@53 5-8, closing at 53; do December, 52 3-4@53 1-4, closing at 53; do January, closing at 49; do May, 48 1-4@48 1-2, closing at 48 1-4. . .
