Give THE NEWS AND HERALD a showing on your job work. Chickens can be hatched successfully in incubator. W. J. ELLIOTT.

Does your label say that you are behind with your subscription? The police force was increased on Monday to about ten men, but their services were not needed we are glad to say.

You will find by reference to Dr. W. E. Aiken's advertisement that you can get a five-gallon drink for twenty-five cents. Look for yourself.

Examine your label on the paper. Are you behind? Make some arrangements at once.

A basket picnic will be given at Salem Church on July 11. Ice cream and lemonade will be sold for the purpose of raising funds to furnish the church.

Read Habnicht's advertisement. He has fish, "cat soup" with or without sauce. Vinegar and mackerel bird food. Lump chimneys and sardines. Meal and matches. Rice and lemons. Brooms and pickles, and if you want to know what else read for yourself.

We have received a copy of the Medical Herald, published at St. Joseph, Mo. It contains a glowing tribute to Dr. Jas. M. Richmond, formerly of this county. There is also a fine steel engraving of Dr. Richmond, which is very life-like, according to our recollection.

We do not wish to stop your paper, but you must do something or we will be compelled to stop it.

The new colored Baptist Church was ready for service on Sunday. The paint adds greatly to its appearance. It is one of the tallest spires in town and can be seen for fifteen miles. The wind was too much for the iron rod that held the ball and weather vane and bent it considerably.

Buy a wind mill—water your stock, put out fire in your barn or dwelling. W. J. ELLIOTT.

Those desiring to compete for the scholarship of the Winthrop Normal College, (the tuition being free, board to be paid), must be prepared to stand examination on 11th July at the office of A. Y. Milling, School Commissioner. Scholarships are good for two years. Remember only tuition is free, other expenses to be paid.

We notice Mimmang opening up a big job in ladies', misses' and children's fashions this morning, adv. G. D. WILLIFORD, Manager.

The reporter for THE NEWS AND HERALD regrets exceedingly that he was unable to be present at the Y. M. C. A. anniversary at Union Church last week. We appreciate the kind invitation extremely, besides we would like to have "divided time" with some of the preachers present on the chicken business; but in the language of Bill Arp, there was "a lady and a shuck basket full of chicken" at Monticello who had to be brought home.

Do you wish to read all the campaign news? Then look after your subscription to this paper.

Mr. R. V. Bray brought a rattlesnake to town on Friday which his son had killed with a pistol. It measured 4 1/2 feet in length and 9 inches around the body. It had swallowed a rabbit all but the shoulders. When fired at it let go the rabbit and jumped back three or four feet and coiled for a fight, but the next shot did the work. Its fangs were gone and some of the rattles broken off. Mr. Bray thinks it must be twelve or fourteen years old.

Ladies, when you want a nice solid black lawn, go to Mimmang's, adv. Q. D. WILLIFORD, Manager.

When traveling, always take a cake of Johnson's Oriental Soap with you; diseases are often caught from using hotel soap. Winoosboro Drug Store.

POLITICAL NEWS.—Our readers will observe that we have full and detailed accounts of the State campaign meetings at Rock Hill, York and Lancaster. We know that everybody wants to read it though they make out like they are disgusted with it. But we will give you the news nevertheless.

FELL FROM THE JAIL WALL.—Little Henry, son of our friend, D. E. McDowell, fell from the jail wall on Friday about 12 o'clock. We heard the shrieks of his nurse and cries from the little fellow and soon ascertained the cause. We are glad to state however that he sustained no serious injury. He fell to the pavement from the top of the wall, a distance of about nine feet.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

NO NEED FOR A BOILER-MAKER.—When things get wrong with a boiler we generally call for a boiler-maker, and when we want duels we generally get them from a North Carolina wagon, and the laws that we are accustomed to are green lawns with a cow for a lawn mower. But your eyes will be riveted, and you can get ducks at Mimmang's and he has black lawns. Well we are not surprised. Read for yourself.

Call for the Horse Brand of Johnson's Magnetic Oil. It has no equal for the diseases of horses and cattle. $1.00 size 50 cts., 50 ct. size 25 cts. Winoosboro Drug Store.

REGISTRATION DAY.—Monday was the last day to register. Early in the morning the town was crowded with blacks and whites. The negroes were congregated around the Court House from the door to the middle of the pavement. The first day the Supervisor held his office in the Judge of Probate office, the next time in the Court House, and the negroes concluded that it would be held there again. They have crowded the place heretofore to such an extent that it was impossible for anyone to get in. This time the office was held at the Auditor's office and the whites took possession and held it the entire day. The negroes saw that they were crowded out this time and some of them commenced to leave for home. They held a conference and soon left. We understand that a gentleman said that Israel Bray, the Republican County Chairman, said that the white people were doing exactly right, that the colored people had three days in which to register and that he had tried to get them to register but that they had let the opportunity go. This is the first time the white people have attempted to register to any extent. We hear that one of the negro leaders claim that they have 2,000 registration tickets, but do not put much faith in the truth of that statement. They only registered 25 or 30 each day and have only registered three days. The scenes around the Court House reminded us of 1876. The day passed off very quietly, there was only one disturbance and it was soon quelled. The darkey who caused it was fined three dollars. The entire crowd of whites took dinner at the Duval Hotel and then went back to finish up what was left of the registration work.

PERSONALS. Cadets Hinant and McMaster, of the Citadel, are home.

Cadet Jimmie Desportes, of the Porter Military Academy, is home. He was in Winoosboro Sunday.

Prof. Withrow and Misses Mary Madden and Rachel McMaster have returned to the teachers' meeting in Sparta.

Mr. F. J. Burley, of Monterey, La., is out on a visit.

Mrs. T. W. Woodward has been to see her father, Capt. Thos. Lyles. We are sorry to learn that the venerable gentleman is not doing well, in fact he is seriously ill.

ON A PLEASURE TRIP. A Fishy Tale—A Little Scaler(s). A gentleman in town informs us that a party consisting of Messrs. C. L. Brooks, Furman Brooks, T. W. Robertson, Charley Robinson, Will Ashford, Tom Perry and David Glenn, caught seven hundred fish in one day—mostly cats, but a few scaly fish. Well, boys, the local man wants to try it with you, and see how much salt is required to swallow this story.

HOW DR. FLEMING DIED. Mr. J. F. McMaster, nephew of Dr. C. E. Fleming, who died suddenly in Sparta, reports that his uncle died from heart failure. His horse jumped in the creek just as the bridge gave way but the doctor was not hurt by the accident at all, heart failure was the cause. Dr. Fleming was well and popularly known all over the State. The State press give a glowing tribute to his memory. He will be a great loss to Sparta and to his State.

Itch on human, mange on horses, dogs and all stock, cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by W. E. Aiken, druggist, Winoosboro, S. C.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES. The following appointments will be carried out this week. They were set for last week but were ordered changed by Rev. Roggs:

Rev. W. K. Roggs will meet the following appointments this week: Moway Dale, Wednesday night and Thursday morning; Simpson's Friday morning and evening; Saturday afternoon, 3.30 o'clock, at school house, near Moore's; and on Sunday afternoon, 4 o'clock, Bush Arbor, in the Bear Creek neighborhood.

It May Do as Much for You. Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pain in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At McMaster & Co.'s drug store.

A SAD DEATH.

It is with pain and sorrow we chronicle the death of Mrs. Mattie M. Ketchin, wife of Mr. W. W. Ketchin. She had a spell of malarial fever and had almost recovered, but unfortunately exerted herself too early and took a relapse. She was confined to bed about five weeks. She was thought to be dying for a day or so before her death, but at one time there was just a little hopeful sign. There are six children left without a mother's love and care, making the bereavement sore indeed on this account. The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the father and the motherless children. Mrs. Ketchin was a member of the A. R. P. Church in which she was reared and was about thirty-eight years old. She was the eldest daughter of our esteemed citizen, Dr. J. R. McMaster, Sr. Mrs. Ketchin was greatly liked by all who knew her, was of a friendly and amiable disposition. Her remains were laid to rest in the A. R. P. Churchyard at eleven o'clock on Saturday.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: J. M. Beaty, W. H. Williford, Dr. B. J. Quattlebaum, W. H. Flenniken, R. E. Ellison and T. W. Landerdale.

KILLED WITH A PISTOL.

Franking as Usual.—Did Not Think it was Loaded. On last Saturday John Brown was killed by Jno. Peay. The affair happened on Dr. J. E. Douglass' place. They were friends and were tussling with each other; one had a pistol but had taken out the balls, but unfortunately someone had put them back in the pistol. Brown was advancing on Peay brandishing a stick; Peay gave back and pulled the pistol which he thought was empty. He commenced snapping it at Brown and presently it fired; the ball entered the left breast near the collar bone. Brown lived until Monday and died a Jew of inquest decided that the shooting was unintentional. But it should be a warning to every one. The usual cry is after it is too late, did not know it was loaded. A man should be punished to some extent for such foolish hard acts.

Thus affording an unusual opportunity for a pleasant trip.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE Y. M. C. A. OF UNION CHURCH.

On the 23rd of June the Young Men's Christian Association of Union Church celebrated their sixth anniversary. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. A. L. Scruggs at 11 o'clock. The exercises were opened with "All hail the power of Jesus name." Rev. E. S. Lupo then offered prayer. He then made an address to the audience, taking for his subject, "Exhortation to Christian duty," which was ably handled by the speaker, fully setting forth what was Christian duty and how to perform it. Rev. J. C. Russell then addressed the meeting in reference to serving "Thy Creator in the days of thy youth," and the origin of the Y. M. C. A. and it's good results throughout the world. He handled the subject in a manner that showed great preparation and deep forethought on the part of the speaker, and showed himself thoroughly conversant with the subject. The hymn, "Bless'd be the tie that binds," was then rendered and rendered well.

Rev. A. G. Kirkpatrick was called on without previous appointment and delivered a thorough and comprehensive address on appealing to the Bible for guidance in times of adversity.

Rev. M. W. Hook being somewhat indisposed made a few short, but very impressive remarks. After singing the exercises closed with prayer by Rev. A. G. Kirkpatrick.

In a brief space of time dinner was announced, and the multitude (for they numbered over 250 souls) at once repaired to the scene that never has to court for followers. The dinner was such as the ladies of old Fairfield are noted for. There was enough and to spare. After dinner ice cream and lemonade was sold by the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of Union Church. About twenty dollars was realized. The young people and the old people all spent a most enjoyable time.

A BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE.

At 5.30 o'clock on the evening of the 27th of June, the "old story" was rehearsed at the Methodist Church here. Mr. Walter S. Till, of Ellerbe, S. C., carried to the altar Miss Florence L. Sharpe, of Brooksville, Florida. Mr. W. S. Blake acted as best man, standing with Miss Jessie Jennings as maid of honor. Mr. Marvin Jennings with Miss Alice McMaster, and Mr. Willie Boyd with Miss Bessie Quattlebaum completed the number of attendants. The ushers were Messrs. J. M. Simpson, Jno. A. Desportes, W. M. Callcart and Robt. Matthews. Mrs. C. S. Dwight was at the organ. As she rendered the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's famous wedding march, the ushers marched slowly up each aisle taking a position by couples on either side of the pulpit; on the right aisle came Mr. Marvin Jennings and opposite him on the left aisle came Miss Alice McMaster. They were followed by Mr. Willie Boyd and Miss Bessie Quattlebaum in the same order. Then came the groom leaning on the arm of his best man, Mr. Blake; the bride was walking with her maid of honor in the aisle opposite. The male attendants all took their positions on the right of the altar and the female attendants on the left. The bride and groom met and took their position directly in front of the altar. The church was darkened and lamps lit which gave a brilliancy of effect. The bride carried in her hand a handsome morocco bound edition of the Methodist Episcopal discipline. When she halted in front of the minister she handed the book to him, as much as to say "This is the law I propose to live up to." The minister opened the book and commenced to read the beautiful and impressive ceremony which bound these two hearts as one.

The book feature is something new in Winoosboro and is quite appropriate. Most assuredly there should be no release from a self-tendered obligation.

As soon as the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. W. S. Stokes, was ended, the couple marched out to a carriage and drove to the Duval Hotel; there they awaited the 6.13 north-bound train and left for Asheville. They will visit several resorts, and will be gone for two or three weeks.

The bride wore a handsome tailor-made costume of grey camel's hair, the groom in regulation black. The chandelier, which is suspended in the centre of the house, was draped in vines. The pulpit was beautifully adorned with flowers, having two large stands or bouquets on either end. The railing was entwined with a green vine dotted with bright flowers. All the decorations showed to great advantage by lamplight. The decorations were done by the friends of the bride and attest to their high appreciation of her. The presents displayed at the parlor of the Duval Hotel were both beautiful and useful, consisting mostly of plate for table use. One of the presents consisted in a large family Bible, a beautifully bound book.

The groom is a young man of twenty-three years of age, and is the main salesman for the firm of Woodward & Rabb at Rockton. He has by close attention and courteous behavior won an enviable reputation in the entire community. Many of his friends and customers were present to witness the occasion.

The bride is a pretty young lady of only eighteen summers, with a pleasant smile for every one and of very winning manners. She has been residing with Mrs. Duval for a little over a year, and has made many friends during her stay in Winoosboro.

We wish for them both a pleasant sojourn and a safe return, and may peace, contentment and happiness mark their pathway in the earnest desire of THE NEWS AND HERALD.

ERSKINE COMMENCEMENT.

Due West is the Mecca of the A. R. Presbyterians. Some man in the South Carolina Legislature once said it was "a hill to grind out preachers." We heard of a Fairfield man once saying that when "these Seceders die they all expect to go to heaven by way of Due West." Due West is a name that is near and dear to the heart of each and every one of the sect of whom old Bigelow, of Tennessee, once said, "they are a peculiar kind of people, who plough with a double line, grease their boots with tallow, drink corn whiskey and generally pay what they owe."

To those who have never been there on commencement occasion it will certainly repay them to make a visit. Every house in town is a hotel and the board bill is already paid. Every man you meet wants you to go to his house. We think that a hotel man would starve to death trying to board people, no matter who they are, on commencement occasion. The local editor of this paper has had the pleasure of being present on two of those occasions, and ate several snappers in the evening, just to keep the hospitable people from taking offense. He remembers distinctly of being guilty of this act at the residence of Prof. J. P. Kennedy, but he has always believed that it was best to endure a good deal (of supper at least) than to have a fight about small matters.

The exercises properly commenced on Sunday. Dr. S. M. Smith, of Columbia, preached, by request of Dr. Grier, to the graduating class in the morning. He preached a very impressive sermon from the text: "I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians; both to the wise and to the unwise." (Rom. 1:14.) His effort was powerful and his remarks will leave a lasting impression.

On Monday evening the certificates were delivered to the graduating class of the seminary. The graduates are J. J. Grier and J. L. Pressley.

On Monday night the annual celebration of the literary societies came off. J. H. Moore, of Alabama, the senior orator of the Euphemian Society, made a speech which deserves special mention.

State Treasurer Bates presided over the debate in the Philomathean Society, which was, Resolved, that the ministers of the gospel have done more for the world than men of science. On the affirmative, J. B. Hood, of North Carolina; on the negative, L. C. Branyon, of South Carolina. The debate was decided in favor of the negative.

Tuesday was commencement day proper at Erskine. J. H. Moore, of Alabama, A. S. Rogers and L. C. Branyon, of South Carolina, made fine speeches. The anniversary address was delivered by Dr. Boyd, of Charlotte. His remarks made a deep impression on his audience.

The diplomas were delivered to the graduating class by Dr. Grier. The members of this class are J. H. Moore, L. C. Branyon, A. S. Rogers, W. B. Galloway, J. B. Hood and T. P. McDill.

The Alumni address on Friday evening was delivered by Rev. W. L. Phillips, of Georgia. His address is worthy of notable mention. It will have a deep and enduring impression on his hearers.

Every year there are present at Due West those who have spent some of their happiest days in that place. Mothers and fathers who have graduated there years gone by come to see their children graduate. The speeches and the scenes there are often touching. Many an anxious parent watches with bated breath and tearful eye to see the launching out on the sea of life of their children. They see the breakers ahead; they started from that point many years ago, encountered many dangers, had many fond hopes blighted. Would to God they could only pilot the frail bark through the narrows in life. But each must be its own "man at the wheel." The maps and charts are before you. They can only hope for the best. Thus terminated a scene which will carry fond memory for many years to come.

CROP REPORT.

MITFORD, S. C., June 27.—Have had rain more or less for about one week. Fine season in ground now. Corn improving. Cotton at its best. Crops clean. Melons doing well. Sweet potatoes growing nicely. Wheat crop light. Oats short. Gardens a failure. Lot of corn and peas planted after grain—rather favorable for such work. C. S. F.

UPPER LONGTOWN ITEMS.

LONGTOWN, S. C., June 29.—At last the drought has been broken. One of the heaviest rains—that has fallen in this section in years fell here on Wednesday night; it was a regular trash mover. The lands were considerably washed up, even where carefully terraced. Corn on the creek and branches was nearly all washed down, which will necessitate the restanding of it. Upland corn has come out wonderfully since the rains; it looks as if we might make some corn after all. Cotton is clean of grass and is in a growing condition.

Mrs. G. B. and Mr. John Dush, of Hopkins, S. C., are visiting at Mr. D. W. Tidwells.
