A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. B. D. McKay, formerly Miss Schelly McMaster, a daughter of Col.
F. W. McMaster died at her home in Columbia on Sunday night. She had been in declining health for over a year. A husband and five small children with a host of relatives are left to mourn her loss. We tender our sympathy to those bereaved.

UNFORTUNATE.

A Fairfield Lady Badly Hurt in Convulsion.
We read in the State of Friday that Miss Mamie Macfie, Miss Haight and several others were thrown from a vehicle in Bridgeport, Connecticut.
Miss Haight was thought to be dying at last account, but we are glad to learn that Miss Macfie's injuries are not so serious as was thought at first.
We are truly sorry to hear of so unfortunate an occurrence.

VOLE NOT COUNTED UNLESS COM- PLIANCE WITH THE RULE.

Rule 5. Candidates for the General Assembly and for County offices shall, ten days previous to the primary election, file with the chairman of the County Executive Committee a pledge in writing, to be held in evidence, to comply with the result of the primary and to support the nominees of the party. No vote for any candidate who has not complied with this rule shall be counted.

Saturday, August 18, is the last day that a pledge will be accepted. Address J. R. Curlee, Rockton, S. C.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo.
W. Baker, a prominent merchant of this place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint.
When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The remedy is the best that the country affords. We ask for this institution a fair examination of its merits and a patronage will surely follow.

CHEA TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

The tickets sold by the Southern Railway to Washington, D. C., and return at the special low rate of one fare, have been extended to September fifteenth (15th), instead of September 6th. This will be of great advantage to any who wish to take the trip. The tickets will be on sale at all important stations August 23rd to 28th, at the very unusually low rate of one fare for the round trip.
While the rate is made especially for the Knights of Pythias, still tickets can be purchased by any one desiring to take advantage of the rate.

A TEXAS SUBSCRIBER WRITES.

His Friends Passing Away—Regrets the Political Status Here.

Mr. Editor: Please find enclosed money order for one dollar and a half for THE NEWS AND HERALD and when my time expires I will have to stop, as all my old neighbors and friends have died or moved away. I would have been glad to know before I quit taking my home paper of old South Carolina that her people were at peace with each other; it is very mortifying to hear the disturbances that have been in the political gatherings that have been of late years. Our old true and tried men cast aside for nothing, only to keep up strife.

Waelder, Texas, August 9, 1894.

Some of our elder citizens inform us that there are still a good many of our former citizen's friends out here who remember him well.

NANCY HANKS.

"Nancy Hanks" is a name Given to a little horse, Which is prized by all,
But more especially by her boss.

He cares for her tenderly, Until he wants to see his girl;
He then uses the whip,
And goes all in a whirr.

Of course we can't blame him,
For he is keeping "back";
Is tired of the solitude,
And wants to make a match.

He's getting on famously, With a little girl on the hill;
Some say that she is promise,
To make her home at the mill.

We can't well blame her,
For he is so nice and neat; There's Nancy and the buggy too,
The thing is just complete.

There's the farm, the mill,
The things that are in the store,
And many other little things To keep the wolf from the door.

There's a little rippling stream Just for them to see,
With a bridge across its banks To walk shortly after tea.

If all is not complete, I don't know the "reason why,"
For they are both in love, And will prove it by-and-by.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT.

Mrs. Martha S. Parker, who formerly lived in Winsboro, died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Capt.
W. N. Mason, on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Parker lived in Wins-boro for quite a number of years. Her husband, Mr. G. W. Parker, conducted a tailoring business in town for a long period of time. Mrs. Parker was a sister of Mrs. C. H. Scroggs and Mrs.
W. N. Mason and had many friends here in Winsboro. She was about sixty-two years old at the time of her death. One brother, Mr. John Aiken, lives in Richland and another in Alabama. Her remains were interred at the family burying ground on Friday.

DIED SUDDENLY.

On Wednesday Mr. J. E. Williams received a telegram about 11 o'clock announcing the sad news of the death of his nephew, Mr. Eugene Williams, which occurred at Leesburg, Fla., early Wednesday morning. He had a telegram on Tuesday announcing the fact that Eugene had had a congestive chill, and it is supposed that he died from the effect.
Mr. Williams had been apparently well up to one day before his death.
He was only sick one day and a part of a night. His sudden taking off adds to the general sadness of such bereavement, and he being the only brother makes it doubly hard on the sorrowing sisters.

The remains were brought here and were laid to rest in the Presbyterian churchyard Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. In the absence of the pastor, Dr. Jordan, Rev. W. S. Stokes, of the Methodist Church, conducted the funeral services.
Mr. Williams was a son of the late Mr. W. H. Williams and a nephew of Mr. W. M. Nelson. He was born and raised in Winsboro and was in his twenty-sixth year. Two sisters are the only ones remaining, the father and mother preceding him to the grave several years. We express our sincere sympathy to those bereaved.

The following relatives of the young man were present: Mrs. M. J. Slight, Miss Alma Williams, sisters of the deceased; Mrs. Caroline Miller, Mrs.
J. H. Lybrand and Mrs. E. C. Hartin.
Mr. and Mrs. Slight accompanied the remains from Florida; the other relatives mentioned reside in this State.
Quite a concourse of town people attended the burial.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: J. W. Seigler, C. M.
Chandler, L. Landecker, S. C. Mc-Dowell, J. S. Elder and J. J. Geisz.

RESOLUTIONS.

Passed by the County Convention Aug. 6.

The following are the resolutions offered by Jno. W. Lyles in the County Democratic Convention and adopted:

Resolved, 1. That, however cordial the members of a party may endorse its convention nominees, the convention system is wrong in principle and the abolition of it is the immediate and imperative duty of clear sighted patriots, without further imposing on the forbearance or thoughtlessness of the rank and file of our party.
2. That the Reformers, having been the special champions of the rule of the people, owe it to their own good name and to the people who have trusted them to provide a straight general primary for all State officers at the earliest opportunity.
3. That there being now no State candidate but Reformers, no proposal measures but those of Reform, further continuance of the convention system would be as injurious and tyrannical as the enforcement of martial law in time of peace.
4. That the Reform nominating convention should not nominate, but on the other hand should memorialize the Democratic nominating convention to provide for a direct primary.
5. That the Democratic nominating convention should decide not to nominate for Governor, should provide for two primaries to be held in October in which every Democrat may express his untrammelled individual preference not only for Governor, but for each and every other State officer.
6. That a candidate who may see the nomination within his grasp is unworthy of the office if he shall not prefer to be chosen by the ballot of the sovereign people and proudly take his commission from them.

BUCKHEAD LOCALS.

BUCKHEAD, S. C., August 3.—Crops have improved very much since the rain, and if the seasons continue, the farmers will have cause for rejoicing this fall.

Capt. T. W. Lyles is somewhat improved in health; also Mrs. C. Ladd.

The members of Rock Creek Church are expecting a visit from their former pastor, Rev. J. R. Aiken, the fourth Sunday in August. He will assist Rev. B. P. Estes in a series of meetings at that time. We hope good congregations will greet them.

We certainly miss the fruit this summer. Have only melons of inferior quality.

A JOINT PICNIC.

At Old Mt. Moriah Church.

It was the pleasure of our reporter to be present at a joint picnic of three Baptist Sunday Schools at Mt. Moriah Church on last Saturday. Mr. Fletcher Hinnant, who has just graduated at the citadel, has secured the school at Mt. Olivet and took passage with "the local" in order to meet his future patrons and pupils and to meet the friends of the neighborhood. The day was exceedingly warm, compelling us to drive slowly, consequently the exercises were in progress when we drove up to the church. The exercises opened with singing and prayer, and the following program was executed: Recitation, Greeting—By Mand Powell.
Music—I am Thine, O Lord.
Recitation—By W. F. Scott.
Children's Day—By Pearl Powell.
Recitation—By Miss Mattie Belle Bray.
Recitation—By Miss Lottie Durham.
Music—Gospel Hymns.
Recitations—By Pearl Gayden, Laura Ford and Struther Ford, Jr., Holmes Scott, Miss Lilla Powell, Miss Irene Scott, Miss Lilla Mayfield.
Music—Happy Day.
Song—By Lizzie Gladden, a mere child, and was deserving of special mention.

The entire program was well executed, some of the pieces were very touching and were rendered quite feelingly. In fact the exercises reflect great credit on teachers and pupils, and more so on the good many who were present and scholars in the Sunday School work, and they may rest assured that their work will bear fruit. Several addresses were made after the scholars closed their exercises by gentlemen.
