A NEW-YEAR'S GIFT FOR THE CITY.

ADAM FOREPAUGH PRESENTS HIS ELEPHANT "TIP" TO NEW-YORK—THE HUGE ANIMAL WILL ARRIVE TO-DAY.

President Robb, of the Park Department, yesterday received a letter from Adam Forepaugh, the well-known showman, offering to the city as a New-Year's gift his elephant "Tip," as he had given to his native city, Philadelphia, the elephant "Bolivar" as a Christmas present.

Mr. Robb was at first startled at the offer, but he determined on second thought to accept it, and to invite Mayor Grant to be present at the formal presentation this afternoon. The elephant will reach the city at 3 p. m. to-day at the Twenty-third-st. ferry under the care of Charles A. Davis, Mr. Forepaugh's agent. He will be conducted by Superintendent Conklin, of the menagerie, to the Arsenal in the Park, and will there be presented formally by Mr. Forepaugh and accepted by President Robb.

"Tip" is eighteen years old, stands ten feet high in his bare feet and weighs five tons. He was purchased by Mr. Forepaugh of Carl Hardenback, the Hamburg animal dealer, in 1882, and is one of the most intelligent and well trained of the Forepaugh herd of elephants. His tusks, which are four feet long, are the finest in the country. He is gentle and good-natured and is valued at $8,000. Dr. Conklin said last night that "Tip" was one of the finest elephants in the country, and with care ought to live a hundred years. After the formal reception this afternoon at the Arsenal, the Mayor, Park Commissioners and city officials present will be invited to ride around the Park in a palanquin on the elephant's back.

CLERKS RECEIVE A HANDSOME PRESENT.

The sum of $25,000 was divided among the clerks of the Central Trust Company yesterday, in accordance with a vote of the trustees a year ago. The condition was that the profits should reach a certain amount. After a distribution equal to an increase of twenty-five per cent in the salaries of the employes there was left a balance of $2,000 which was placed in a special fund for the relief of clerks disabled by sickness or accident. It is understood that the amount of the premium on honesty and faithful service was invested immediately in the stock of the Trust Company. Of the twenty-seven clerks, all except two are stockholders of the company, and the aggregate holdings are valued at $102,000. This is entirely outside of the executive affairs of the company.

A SALUTE FOR GENERAL HOWARD.

The formal salute in honor of General Howard's taking command of the Division of the Atlantic was fired at Governor's Island yesterday. General Howard assumed command of the Division on December 18, and the reason why the customary salute was not given at the time was because Colonel Roger Jones was ill abed on the island. Since then Colonel Jones has been well enough to be removed to Fortress Monroe.

CAN THE LINES AFFORD CONDUCTORS?

Mayor Hewitt yesterday told President Dowling, of the Board of Aldermen, that he could not sign the city ordinance passed by that body, in which it was ordered that conductors should be placed on the "bob-tail" cars of the Dry Dock, East Broadway and Battery, Broadway and Seventh Avenue, and Ninth Avenue railroad companies, on the ground that he was satisfied that the above named companies could not afford to comply with the law, with the exception of the Dry Dock Line.

Superintendent H. A. Newell, of the Broadway and Seventh Avenue road, said that the new law which was to go into effect on April 30, would not apply to his road, and officials of the Ninth Avenue, Central Cross-town, Christopher and Tenth Street, and Avenue C roads also said that their roads would not be affected by the new law, and therefore no changes would be made. The superintendent of the Dry Dock Railroad Company said yesterday that his company had not been informed of any new law requiring conductors to be placed on its cars, and that even if such law was signed by the new Mayor it would be impracticable to run double cars with conductors and give the public as good a service as at present.

COTTAGES BURNED AT OCEAN BEACH.

Asbury Park, N. J., Dec. 31 (Special).—A fire at Ocean Beach this evening destroyed eight buildings and rendered four families homeless. It started from a defective flue in the three-story frame building of James G. Freeborn on Ninth-ave., near the railroad station. The town has no fire department. Only a portion of Mr. Freeborn's furniture was saved. A mounted messenger was sent to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove for fire engines. The two departments responded as promptly as possible, but it was nearly two hours before the engines arrived.

The flames destroyed the cottage and drugstore of Dr. William L. Kinmonth. The adjoining cottage, also owned by Dr. Kinmonth, and occupied by Joseph Van Brackle, a mason, next was burned, as were four one-story business buildings and and a large cottage, all belonging to Mrs. Amanda M. Clemens, of Bristol, Penn. One of the little stores was occupied by Julius Stonsburg, a German shoemaker and his family. The other three and Mrs. Clemens's were empty.

The loss is estimated at $20,000. Dr. Kinmonth, Mr. Freeborn and Mrs. Clemens lost about $5,000 each. They had insurance for about one-half the value of the property destroyed. The three secret organizations of the town, the Free Mason lodge, the Castle of the Knights of Pythias and the Odd Fellows' lodge occupied the upper floor of the Freeborn building. The three organizations lost all their furniture and paraphernalia.

DIED FOR A BROKEN PROMISE.

A YOUNG MAN IN NEWARK SHOOTS HIMSELF AND HIS MOTHER MAY DIE FROM THE SHOCK.

The boarders in Mrs. Miriam Pierson's fashionable boarding-house, at No. 1,020 Broad-st., Newark, were startled last evening by the report of a pistol, followed by a shriek from Mrs. Pierson, who was in her bedroom. Hurrying to the room, the boarders found Mrs. Pierson lying in a swoon on the floor, while her son, Eugene A. Pierson, sat close by in a chair, with blood oozing from an ugly wound in his right temple, and with a smoking revolver in his hand. Police-Surgeon Clark, who is a boarder in the house, was in his office a few doors away and was immediately summoned. When he arrived he had young Pierson, who had fired a bullet from a thirty-two-calibre revolver into his brain, carried to his room, where after examining his wounds, he saw that it was useless to attempt to save his life and that death was but a question of a few moments.

He then assisted the women in caring for Mrs. Pierson, who was entirely prostrated by the act of his son. Restoratives of all kinds were used, but up to a late hour they had not had the desired effect, and it was feared that the shock would prove fatal. The suicide is about twenty-eight years of age and is well known in Newark, being a member of the firm of John L. Kinsey & Co., druggists, who have an extensive wholesale and retail establishment in Broad-st.

Pierson, who drank heavily for several years, promised his mother six weeks ago that he would drink no more, and he kept his promise until yesterday. Last evening he went home intoxicated, went to his mother's room and there shot himself.
