GERMANY'S PACIFIC ATTITUDE.

A NEW CONSUL SENT TO SAMOA TO HARMONIZE AFFAIRS THERE.

INCREASED DEFERENCE TO AMERICAN OPINION—THE PETERS EXPEDITION ABANDONED—THE ATCHINOFF FIASCO—ARMY AND NAVY ESTIMATES.

Copyright: 1889: By The New-York Associated Press.

Berlin, March 2.—The recall from Samoa of Herr Knappe, the German consul, has been promptly followed by the dispatching of Herr Stuebel, formerly Consul-General at Copenhagen, to replace him. Herr Stuebel, after an interview with Bismarck, left here for Hamburg under instructions to reach Samoa by the quickest route. Stuebel's mission is a special one. His position in the consular service entitles him to a better post than Samoa, but if his presence there is followed by harmonized relations with America he will obtain higher rank. It is expected in official circles that complete concord will be established as soon as President Harrison's Cabinet gets in, through touch with the incidents causing the dispute.

The "Borsen Courier," adversely criticizing the increase in the German squadron in Samoan waters, asserts that the order for the dispatching of the warships was not given through Bismarck, but to the Admiralty by superior authority. The "Cologne Gazette" lays the blame for the misunderstanding on Secretary Bayard. It says it is hoped that his successor will accept the friendly approaches of Germany in the cordial spirit in which they are offered. The whole tone of the semi-official press, when any reference is made to the affair, is marked by an enhanced regard for American feeling.

COUNT VON WALDERSEE TO STAY IN BERLIN.

The report that Waldersee was about to retire arose from the overtures of Bismarck toward his acceptance of a high diplomatic post, stated to be Vienna, in succession to Prince Henry of Reuss, upon whose discretion the Chancellor cannot rely. Count von Waldersee declined placing himself within the grip of Prince Bismarck and losing whatever hold his daily contact with the Emperor gives him.

IN MEMORY OF EMPEROR WILLIAM I.

Funeral services in memory of Emperor William, which will be held on March 9, will be attended by the whole imperial family. Empress Augusta has expressed the desire that every one of the late Emperor's entourage, including his domestics, be present.

ATCHINOFF'S FILIBUSTERING FIASCO.

Atchinoff's filibustering fiasco has helped to quicken the Government's perception of the danger involved in such expeditions. The Peters expedition has, therefore, been forbidden. The expedition may start, but not from any point in the German territory.

Advices from St. Petersburg represent the Czar as incensed against Atchinoff, and as ordering his trial immediately on his arrival at Odessa. The Russian corvette Zabraka awaits Atchinoff at Suez. The Czar's anger extends to General Ignatieff, through whom the Slavonic Society supplied funds to Atchinoff. General Balanoff, Governor of Novgorod, another noted Slav, is also involved, and is threatened with suspension from office.

LABOR TROUBLES IN GERMANY.

The crisis in the relations between workmen and employers threatens to produce a general strike here. The severe weather, slack work, and want of cohesion among the workmen have assisted employers in reducing wages. The "Volksblatt," a Socialist organ, in a proclamation to German workers, announces a general strike in the course of this month. The police do not permit mass meetings of workmen, but every night small meetings are held throughout Berlin, at which views on the labor question are excitedly exchanged. The "North German Gazette" says the Government will not interfere in the struggle between labor and capital, as long as the Socialists do not attempt to assume the direction of the labor movement.

MONEY FOR THE ARMY AND NAVY.

The supplementary estimates about to be submitted to the Reichstag provide for an outlay of 21,882,570 marks, a large portion of which goes to strengthen the artillery. A Central Board, to be created for the Navy, is to have control of the vessels and men, while the administration of the Navy will be under the Imperial Chancellor.

OCEAN FREIGHTS LOW IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, March 2 (Special).—There is general complaint among vessel-owners here over the inroads made by the use of tank vessels upon shipping rates for petroleum. A large owner said to-day: "There has also been an almost phenomenal depression in coal-carrying prices, which is in sharp contrast with the boom that line of business enjoyed during January. Ocean freights of all kinds are on the decline. Petroleum, which is an important item in this city's commerce, has fallen two shillings in rates to Continental ports. This decline is directly attributed to the tank vessels. Last year twenty-five per cent of the petroleum exported was carried in these vessels, and it is anticipated that next year they will do one-third of the business. In the coal transportation business there has been a similar depression, several charters for Boston at ninety cents per ton having been made within a few days, while three months ago vessels refused contracts at $1 50 per ton. In shipments to San Francisco and South American ports there has been a decline of twenty per cent."

KILLED BY A RUNAWAY HORSE.

Palmer, Mass., March 2.—A runaway occurred at Barre this morning which resulted in the death of one person and the serious injury of two others. The accident was caused by a horse taking fright while descending a hill, and overturning a carriage which contained Jason Despar, Agnes Craddock and Maggie Sinclair. Miss Sinclair was instantly killed, and the other young lady will probably not recover. Mr. Despar sustained severe internal injuries.

THREE MURDERERS SENTENCED.

Philadelphia, March 2 (Special).—Judge Arnold to-day overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Jacob Schoop, convicted of murder in the first degree in having caused the death of Anton Schilling, and sentenced the prisoner to be hanged. Judge Reed overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Thomas J. Cole, also convicted of murder in the first degree, and passed sentence of death on him. Peter Kreckman, convicted of murder in the second degree, in killing Mrs. Matilda Hellerman, was to-day sentenced by Judge Arnold to twelve years' imprisonment.

FALL RIVER WEAVERS SEEKING AN ADVANCE.

Fall River, Mass., March 2 (Special).—The weavers have sent another communication to the Board of Trade, asking for an advance. There does not seem to be any disposition on the part of the manufacturers to grant the demand, and the Weavers' Union threatens to strike.

TO INVESTIGATE THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL.

Indianapolis, March 2 (Special).—The Indianapolis policyholders of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company have appointed a committee of three persons, Addison C. Harris, Frederick Sheppard and W. S. Gasber, to go to Hartford next week to make a complete examination of the company's assets and to report the result of their investigation, in order that the effect of Joseph A. Moore's defalcation for $500,000 may be ascertained.

CALLED TO A PULPIT IN BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., March 2.—The Columbus Avenue Presbyterian Church has extended a unanimous call to the Rev. Dr. William Adams, of Augusta, Ga., to assume the pastorate.

CLOSE OF THE CONTINUOUS POOL TOURNEY.

The continuous pool tournament ended at Hardman's Hall last night, yet the championship was not decided. Frey defeated Malone in the final game in the evening, and consequently three of the players are tied for first honors. They are Malone, Frey and De Oro, each having won four and lost two. Powers and Clearwater are tied for fourth place with three defeats and three victories. Manning has won two and lost four games, while King is last with one victory and five defeats. Frey, Malone and De Oro will play off the tie within two weeks. About $1,500 has been cleared at the tournament. The final game last night between Malone and Frey was a rather poor one, Frey winning as follows:

Frey	15	0	15	14	6	6	15	0	8	8	10	0	14	—	102
Malone	0	15	0	1	9	7	0	15	12	12	5	15	0	—	91

Frey lost three points through scratches and Malone one, leaving the score at 100 to 90. The afternoon game between De Oro and Powers was the closest of the tournament. The score was Powers 101 to De Oro's 100. Powers lost two points and the game through scratches. King forfeited the afternoon game to Manning, being in no condition to play. Clearwater and Manning played an exhibition game which Manning won by 75 to 73.

WHAT A VICTORY COST DR. W. M. REYNOLDS.

Dr. W. M. Reynolds and his wife, who were acquitted on Friday of a charge of having made false returns to the London Assurance Company, in reference to the burning of the doctor's country home at Flushing, L. I., received many letters and telegrams of congratulation yesterday. Some of them were from Maine and some from California. The Doctor was asked last night what course he intended to pursue in the case, and he replied: "It is a complete vindication for myself and Mrs. Reynolds, and I shall bring suit for malicious prosecution. The amount of damages depends upon the verdict, and that will not recompense us. Chauncey Richards, of the firm of Richards & Brown, counsel in the case, said: "It has cost Dr. Reynolds in actual cash over $12,000, and I think $500,000 would not compensate him. Mrs. Reynolds was seriously injured in health by the prosecution and lay at the point of death for nineteen weeks. Four of the leading physicians of the city attended her, and the doctors' bill alone will be over $4,000. No amount of money can recompense my clients for the suffering they have undergone."

GOVERNOR HOVEY'S CONSTITUTIONAL POINT.

Indianapolis, March 2 (Special).—Governor Hovey is about to bring before the courts the most important legal question raised in Indiana in many years. He holds that the Legislature has no power to elect or appoint persons to office, and he announces that he will refuse to sign commissions to all who have been elected to different positions by the General Assembly. There are nine separate institutions, each employing a large number of subordinates that are included, the political influence wielded through which is enormous. Besides there are four bureaus or departments similarly controlled; and if the Governor's position is sustained by the courts all of this patronage will revert to him. None of the offices was in existence before the adoption of the Constitution, and for thirty years the Legislature has been filling them. The Governor concedes that new offices may be created, and that the election or appointment of officers to fill them may be directed; but that the Legislature has no power to elect or appoint the officers. He proposes to test, he says, whether or not Indiana shall abandon a Republican form of government and sink into an oligarchy.

DEMOCRATIC DISHONESTY IN INDIANA.

Indianapolis, March 2 (Special).—The Legislative Committee engaged in investigating the Democratic management of the Indiana Insane Hospital to-day discovered three checks bearing the date of March 8, 1888, and all numbered 129, which show how $5,900 of the State's money was stolen. Each check is made payable to W. G. Wasson, one being for the sum of $2,500, and another for $3,400, making $5,900; and the third for $5,900. The checks bore the cancellation stamp of the Merchants' National Bank, the cashier of which, A. F. Kopp, declared that the cancellation of the check for $5,900 was fraudulent. It was also shown by the books of the State Auditor and the bank that P. M. Gapen, the treasurer of the Hospital Board, had drawn from the State during the same month, $10,000 more than he had deposited in the bank.

The discoveries were reported to the Attorney-General, who was directed to prepare papers for the arrest of Gapen on the charge of forgery, but it is reported that a warrant will not be served upon him before Monday. A few days ago Gapen admitted on the witness-stand that John E. Sullivan, the absconding County Clerk, had received as a loan $15,000 of the hospital funds, and had not paid the money back. Gapen was employed by Sullivan as a confidential clerk.

A SERIES OF TABLEAUX FROM "BEN HUR."

A unique entertainment will be offered at Palmer's Theatre in the afternoon of March 14, for the benefit of the Society for Aiding Self-Supporting Women. Robert Fraser, a stage manager who has had experience in the production of tableaux-vivans, has selected from Lew Wallace's story of "Ben Hur" some of the most striking incidents, beginning at the introduction of the Three Wise Men of the Desert, and continuing with Joppa Gate, and these will be portrayed by 100 people, as Romans, Greeks, Hindoos, Arabs and Hebrews. Camels, donkeys, cattle and birds will be represented. Among the tableaux to shown are "The Star of Bethlehem," "The Shepherds at Night," "The Three Wise Men before Herod," "Ben Hur and Messiah," "Ben Hur as a Galley Slave," "Simonides and Esther," "The Fountain of Castalia," "Ben Hur Asleep," "Esther and Ben-Hur," and "Ben Hur's Victory at the Circus." The tableaux will be backed by twenty-two scenes, 20 by 30 feet, painted for the production. The costumes and properties will be correct. Mr. Fraser has made sketches from the scenery described by Mr. Wallace.

COSTLY COLLISION ON THE B. AND O.

Pittsburg, March 2.—A collision on the Baltimore and Ohio road last night at Moundsville Narrows, near Wheeling, was one of the most disastrous wrecks that has occurred in months. The loss to the company will reach $50,000, and may exceed that sum. Passenger train No. 4, east-bound from Wheeling, fortunately carried but four passengers, or the loss of life must have been heavy. The three coaches were splintered and telescoped, but the occupants escaped serious injury. The freight train suffered more severely, twelve cars being totally wrecked. The engineers and firemen saved their lives by jumping. Both engines are almost a total loss.
