RECAMIER CREAM PEOPLE AT ODDS.

MRS. HARRIET HUBBARD AYER SUES J. M. AND A. L. SEYMOUR—THE CHARGES AND THE ANSWER.

In the Court of Common Pleas, Special Term, yesterday two actions were begun by Harriet Hubbard Ayer against James M. Seymour and Allen L. Seymour, his son, treasurer and assistant treasurer of the firm of which Mrs. Ayer is president, known as the Recamier Manufacturing Company. One suit was for an injunction to restrain the defendants from voting on certain shares of stock in the company, and the other to cause them to make an accounting of funds which they are alleged to have misappropriated. The general complaint of the plaintiff sets forth among other things that prior to 1887 the recipes for all the toilet preparations made by the company belonged exclusively to the plaintiff, and she procured a loan of $50,000 to enlarge the business from James M. Seymour, he taking as security 498 shares of stock in the company. The total amount of stock was 1,000 shares at $50 per share. It was agreed at the time this loan was made that the voting power on the stock was not to be used by the defendant.

The complaint also alleges that Mrs. Ayer was taken ill in the fall of 1888 and went to Germany. On returning here in February last the defendants, she says, conspired against her to obtain possession of her stock, endeavored to destroy her health and reason, and to have her considered insane. In December last, she alleges, James M. Seymour went to her house in New-York, broke open her boxes and satchels and ransacked her papers, taking possession of documents relating to her affairs which he wrongfully destroyed.

The answer made by James M. Seymour, which was presented by General Roger A. Pryor, was a general denial. He made no agreement not to use the voting power on the stock, he says, as the stock was his own property. It was shown that Mrs. Ayer had been receiving $1,000 a month from the company as president during the last year, and that the prosperous condition of the company's affairs was due wholly to the business skill of James M. Seymour.

The papers in the case were submitted and by agreement it was ordered that an accounting be made.

SUING BROKERS FOR HIS COMMISSION.

Charles S. Boyd says that on January 1, 1885, he was engaged by Douglass Green and Arthur R. Bateman, doing business under the name of Green & Bateman, stock brokers, to obtain customers for them. He was employed in this way until the end of last January. He was to have one-half of the commissions on the business which he brought in. He says that the total commissions amount to $31,782 50 and claims that his share, including expenditures made for the firm, amounts to $19,043 05. Of this $11,800 has been paid and he demands $7,243 05 more. Chief Judge Sedgwick in the Superior Court yesterday granted an order requiring the plaintiff to give a bill of particulars giving the name of every customer obtained by him for the firm.

E. BERRY WALL IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

Judge Holme, of the City Court, yesterday made an order for the examination of E. Berry Wall in supplementary proceedings under a judgment obtained by Ingersoll & Glendinning, dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods. The examination is to take place before Jared G. Baldwin, No. 20 Nassau-st., next Thursday.

BITS OF LEGAL NEWS.

The will of Thomas C. P. Bradhurst was admitted to probate yesterday, the objections of Mrs. Lora E. Bradhurst, who claims to be his widow and who received by his will only $10,000 in lieu of dower, having been withdrawn.

Damages to the amount of $5,100 against the elevated railroad companies for injury to the property at the northwest corner of Greenwich and Desbrosses sts. were awarded to the owner, William F. J. Prelle, yesterday by Justice Ingraham in the Supreme Court. Judge Daly, in the Court of Common Pleas, gave judgment for a like cause against the companies for $4,500, in favor of Christian Ruff, who owns the property No. 48 Allen-st.

In the case of the children of Jane Crothers against the same defendants for damages to property in South Fifth-ave., near Broome-st., Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court, awarded $3,500 to the plaintiffs.

An attachment has been granted by Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, against the property of Henry Zeimer & Co., of Nos. 628 and 630 Broadway, at the suit of Salmon & Lumley, a New-York and Paris firm, on a claim for a balance of $20,632 50 for goods sold and delivered. Alexander Lumley, one of the plaintiffs, says that since the balance was demanded the defendants have withdrawn money from the bank and disposed of their property with intent to defraud their creditors.

Alice Graham, the little child taken from her mother, Mrs. Genevieve Graham, by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, But afterward restored to her and now claimed by her father, John W. Graham, was taken before Justice Ingraham in the Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday. A reference having been agreed to by A. H. Hummel for the father and Charles W. Brooks for the mother, the Judge appointed Rollin M. Morgan referee in the case, directing that until it is decided the child be left in the custody of the mother.

A judgment for $280,447 46 has been entered in the Supreme Court on behalf of the Kanawha Improvement Company against the Kanawha and Ohio Railway Company on two notes dated October 22, 1888, payable in six months, with interest at 10 per cent.

Justice Barrett of the Supreme Court holds that Pythagoras Hall in Canal-st. was improperly sold by the referee, George B. Newell, and has ordered a resale of the property.

Madame Christine Nilsson Miranda, the famous prima donna, claims dividends to the amount of $200 on bonds of the Bogota City Railroad Company, of Bogota, United States of Colombia, held by her. She has a suit against the company for the amount in the City Court, and her attorneys, Goodrich, Deady & Goodrich, yesterday obtained from Judge Holme an order placing it on the calendar for speedy trial.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 20 (Special).—The visible supply of wheat decreased for the week 1,508,000 bushels, greater than was generally expected, and greater than for the corresponding week last year by 1,250,000 bushels. The official statement made the aggregate visible only 22,542,000 bushels, against 29,021,000 on May 19, 1888. But these favorable statistics availed nothing against rather free selling by a few of the local operators and week foreign markets. July wheat opened at 77 1-8 cents, sold to 77 5-8 cents and closed at 76 3-4. This was 3-8@1-4 cent under Saturday. May wheat, however, at 83 cents, 1-2 cent over Saturday's close, and June at 81 cents stopped just where the price did last week. Just before the close and after prices had dropped about 1 cent from the top, Hutchinson took the buying side, gathering in quietly and at about bottom prices about 500,000 bushels for July delivery. Corn kept within 1-4 cent range all the session, July opening and closing at 33 7-8, just where the market stopped last week. The arrivals in the morning were 1,075 cars; the estimates for Tuesday, 1,275. The visible supply, however, decreased 1,593,000 for the week, and the local stock, in spite of the big receipts, decreased 50,000 bushels. The demand from shippers was very heavy, vessel room being chartered for 350,000 bushels. There were only 11,000 hogs at the stock yards and prices there were 5@10 cents higher. There were fewer hogs, too, at the Western packing points than a year ago. Product, however, on the floor was weak.

On the curb July wheat was weak at 76 5-8@76 3-4.
