NOT A RUN FOR HOOSIERS.

THE GIANTS PLAY A GOOD GAME.

A RUMOR THAT THEY MAY GO BACK TO THE POLO GROUNDS IN A FEW DAYS.

The New-York and Indianapolis teams crossed bats for the first time this season at St. George, S. I., yesterday. The attendance was light in spite of the pleasant weather, only 1,131 people being present. The Giants played in greatly improved form and defeated their Western rivals with ease, not allowing them to score a single run. The Indianapolis men could not gauge Welch's pitching and the lack of batting seemed to take all the ambition out of the whole team. Welch pitched more curves than usual and also utilized the "drop" ball to great effect. Ewing played a magnificent game in every department. The chief virtue in the contest was its brevity.

The Giants opened the game with two runs. Gore and Tiernan were each sent to first on called balls, and each were advanced a base on Connor's sacrifice. Both scored on Ewing's pretty line hit between short and third. The game began to drag during the next three innings, and no more runs were made until the fifth inning, when the Giants added three more runs to their list. Welch started off by hitting safely to centre field. Gore and Tiernan were put out, and the side ought to have been retired on Richardson's high drive to left field. It was not, however, as Seery muffed the ball. Connor hit safely to right and Welch scored. Ewing also hit safely, and then errors by Buckley and McGeachy allowed Richardson and Connor to score.

In the sixth inning the Giants added one more run to their score, and the Hoosiers' chances seemed hopeless. Whitney reached first on an error by Glasscock, and Welch went to first on called balls. Gore hit safely to left, bringing home Whitney. The Giants scored one more run in the seventh inning, like the others, unearned. Ewing made a hit and stole second, and scored on an error by Glasscock. The score was as follows:

Tickets of admission (including coupon tickets for Elevated Railroad) to all championship games of the New-York ball club at St. George are now on sale at all downtown stations of the Elevated Railroad.

It was said last night that there was a good chance of the New-York club going back to the Polo Grounds immediately. The fact that the club has not advertised to-morrow's games seemed to make the story probable. It was said that the Aldermen have been seriously considering the subject for some time.

The New-York and Indianapolis teams play again at St. George to-day.

A lively game of baseball was played at the Manhattan Athletic Club grounds yesterday between the Thomas W. Keene team and the "5 A's" team. The Keenes won by the score of 22 to 7. This is the first defeat of the Actors' Amateur Athletic Association of America, and the toy ball players felt sad last night.

YALE BEATEN BY THE STATEN ISLAND CLUB.

New-Haven, May 28.—The Yale team was defeated yesterday by the Staten Island Athletic Club, at New-Haven. Stagg pitched after the fourth inning and was hit hard. Calhoun, Strebeigh and Finley played good ball. The score was as follows:

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Boston, May 28.—The Bostons easily defeated Chicagos to-day. After the first inning Clarkson had the visitors completely at his mercy, striking out ten men. Bastian's error in the fourth was exceedingly costly and gave Boston six runs. The score was:

Boston	1	0	0	6	1	0	0	0	2	—10
Chicago	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—3

Baseblits—Boston 14, Chicago 7. Errors—Boston 0, Chicago 2. Pitchers—Clarkson and Tener. Umpire—Barnum.

Philadelphia, May 28.—The opening Philadelphia-Pittsburg game was a dull and tiresome affair until the ninth inning, when the visitors tied the score. Casey weakened in the tenth inning, and the visitors would probably have tied the score again but for Sunday, who foolishly allowed himself to be caught between the bases. The score was as follows:

Philadelphia	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	—5
Pittsburg	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	2	—4

Baseblits—Philadelphia 11, Pittsburg 11. Errors—Philadelphia 9, Pittsburg 4. Pitchers—Casey and Staley. Umpire—Curry.

Brooklyn	1	0	1	0	1	0	1	0	0	—4

Baseblits—Columbus 10, Brooklyn 8. Errors—Columbus 2, Brooklyn 3. Pitchers—Mays and Hughes. Umpire—Goldsmith.

Baseblits—Baltimore 10, Athletic 4. Errors—Baltimore 1, Athletic 7. Pitchers—Cunningham and Smith. Umpire—Gaffney.

Cincinnati, May 28.—To-day's game was a slugging contest. Ewing was knocked out of the box in the second inning, and Smith met the same fate in the third. The score was as appended:

Louisville	0	0	7	0	0	0	4	1	0	—12
Cincinnati	2	6	0	0	2	2	0	1	x	—13

Baseblits—Louisville 17, Cincinnati 16. Errors—Louisville 3, Cincinnati 4. Pitchers—Ewing and Smith. Umpire—Holland.

THE COURTS.

HENRY E. WALTON IN CONTEMPT.

Henry E. Walton, the actor, having violated an injunction obtained by ex-Judge A. J. Dittenhoefer at the suit of Dion Boucicault forbidding him to interfere with Mr. Boucicault's plays, was yesterday adjudged by Justice Ingraham in the Supreme Court, Chambers, to be guilty of contempt of court and was fined $100. No opposition was made to the motion to thus punish him. Several months ago Mr. Boucicault advertised an auction sale of his plays. Walton attended the sale and violated the order of the court by declaring that he had control of the plays, which broke up the sale.

THE ORDER WAS NOT PROPERLY ATTESTED.

The judgment by which $2,000 was awarded to Anna Luhrs, on a certificate of membership of the Knights of Honor, alleged to have been issued to her brother, John Luhrs, for her benefit, has been reversed by the General Term of the Supreme Court. Luhrs on his death-bed, in writing, directed the organization to cancel a certificate in favor of his wife, Sophie Luhrs, which he held and to issue a new one in favor of his sister. This was not properly attested before he died.

A DEADLOCK IN THE POLICE BOARD.

Before the regular meeting of the Police Board yesterday the Commissioners had an informal meeting to consult about electing a president of the Board, but they could not agree. Commissioner Voorhis has been trying to capture the prize, depending upon the help of his former County Democracy associate, Commissioner McLean; but Mr. McLean has gone over to the Tammany fold, and he also wants to be president of the Board. Mr. Martin, the new Tammany Commissioner, yesterday undertook to engineer the election of Mr. McLean, but failed. Commissioner McClave, as the only Republican in the Board, said he would let the three Democrats organize as they could agree, but would not give his vote to help either of them. Mr. Voorhis declared his unwillingness to help elect a Tammany president. Consequently the Commissioners did not elect a presiding officer. Mr. Martin was continued as temporary chairman. This deadlock may continue for some weeks, and in the meantime the Police Department can get along well enough. It is said that the real cause for the contest is the ex-officio vote which the president of the Police Board has in the Board of Health. With the vote of another Tammany man, it is said, President Wilson, of the Health Board, could turn out some of the old members of the Health Department and fill the vacancies by the appointment of Tammany local politicians.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 28 (Special).—There was a heavy frost in northern Illinois on Tuesday night, killing corn. The mercury dropped under the freezing-point. It was only a few points above freezing at many points throughout Michigan. At St. Vincent, in northern Minnesota, with the thermometer at 22 degrees, everything froze solid. This cold weather was the chief incentive in the wheat pit, prices advancing 3-4 cent per bushel and closing almost the tip-top. Cudahy was among the first to act on the news, putting brokers in to buy December, January and July wheat at the opening. The May and June shorts lost some of their premium, both closing at 79 cents, only 2 cents over July. Cash wheat sold during the day at the May price. Corn was affected as much as wheat by the frost. It advanced 1-2 cent, July opening at 33 5-8 cents and closing at 34@34 1-8. The receipts were 1,377 cars; the estimates for Wednesday, 755. Oats kept within a range of 1-4@ 3-8 cent. Pork closed 15 cents a barrel under Monday's figures, and at one time during the day was 25 cents under. Lard and short-ribs closed 5@7 1-2 cents under Monday's last figures. At six Western packing-points there were over 67,000 hogs, 36,000 more than for the same day last year. The news was that Wednesday's receipts would be just as heavy. Live hogs were everywhere lower, breaking 10@15 cents at the yards. Armour & Co. led the selling. On the curb July wheat sold at 77 1-8.

THE FATE OF MISS TOBIN.

The developments at the inquest before Coroner Hughes, at Rosebank, S. I., on Monday night, which tended to show that Miss Tobin did not die of drowning, caused considerable excitement on Staten Island yesterday. The belief that the young woman met with foul play found many believers, and there are but few who now entertain the theory that she committed suicide. The latest theory advanced is that Miss Tobin might have met her death at some distant point from Staten Island, and that her body was carried to Clifton by the tide. On the night of April 15 she started to go to New-York, and it is thought that she may have been thrown into the water near the city.

TO BEGIN THE SEASON'S WORK.

The opening of the all-water route to Coney Island to-morrow by the Iron Steamboat Company is the beginning of a busy season for the boats and of pleasure for the public. While there are other ways to reach the island, the only direct service to the big iron piers is that afforded by the Iron Steamboat Company. The boats are built for sea-work, and they are commanded by men who know their business and are held by the company to a strict accountability for their duties. The time table for the present in the regular daily service is a boat from West Twenty-third-st., North River, every hour from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. and from Pier No. 1, North River, hourly from 9:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. The trips from Coney Island will be made until further notice hourly from 10:30 a. m. until 6:30 p. m.
