GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

The grain markets presented few interesting features yesterday. Wheat was weak on the spot, declining 3-4 cent, and shippers took only 32,000 bushels. The milling demand extended to 56,000 bushels, and nearly 90,000 bushels were taken for storing. The option speculation was small, about 3,500,000 bushels being traded in. The selling was most pronounced near the close and was apparently in the nature of a liquidation. December opened at 86 1-2 and May at 91 7-16 cents, and then, after a slight rally, ruled dull until the last hour, when prices broke to 85 7-8 for December and 90 15-16 cents for May. The final prices were a shade above the lowest of the day but weakness was continued on the curb, December yielding to 85 1-2@85 5-8 cents. The net losses of the day at the formal closing were 3-4 for October at 84, November at 84 3-4, December at 86 and January at 87, and 5-8 cent for May at 91 1-8 cents.

Cash corn ruled fairly steady and shippers were free buyers, taking 176,000 bushels. Option corn was weaker but inclined to dulness. The final changes were losses of 1-4@3-8 cent as follows: October, 38 5-8; November, 39 1-8; December, 40 1-8; January, 40 5-8, and May, 41 1-2 cents.

There was a brisk demand for oats for export while the option speculation ruled quiet. Prices were somewhat easier in some directions, the options ending as follows: October, 25; November, 25 3-8; December, 25 3-4; January, 26 1-4, and May, 27 3-4 cents.

Lard on the spot was dull, except for the purchase of 500 tierces, cost and freight included, to arrive, but whether for export or not could not be learned. October options closed unchanged at $6 65, up 2 points for November at $6 42, and down 2 points for December at $6 32 and January at $6 30.

The receipts of grain and flour reported yesterday at New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston were as follows: Wheat, 87,083 bushels; corn, 207,278 bushels; oats, 171,692 bushels; total grain, 466,053 bushels; flour, 41,339 packages. At Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis the arrivals were: Wheat, 190,119 bushels; corn, 270,921 bushels; oats, 309,837 bushels; total grain, 770,877 bushels; flour, 29,448 barrels.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 18 (Special).—For three hours to-day Hutchinson executed his favorite manoeuvres in the wheat pit, buying December wheat up to 82¾, then selling it from that figure down, scalping the smaller people in the pit for ⅛@¼ cent. For the second time this week, however, the market got out of his control. December wheat, which opened at 82⅝ cents, and which, under Hutchinson's manipulations, sold as high as 82¾, finally, under the pressure of bear news and of general selling, sold as low as 81¾, and closed at 81¾@81⅞. At the nine primary points there were 270,000 bushels more wheat than on the same day last year. The cables were tending down at the opening, and ½ lower at the close. In California, where there has been some reported need of rain, a good drenching was reported. New-York messages said 160,000 bushels of contract wheat reached there in the morning, and that the stock of contract wheat had increased there this week over 400,000 bushels. Minneapolis messages predicted that the stock there this week would increase 800,000 bushels. Exports were small. Corn was dull. It sympathized some with wheat toward the close. May oats touched the lowest figure on this crop, 21⅞ cents, and closed there. January pork was considerably more active than for any day in months. January opened at $9 45, sold at $9 60, and closed at $9 50. October opened at $10 50, sold at $11, and closed at $10 95. On the curb December wheat sold at 81¾ cents.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

The crude oil market was without any new feature yesterday and confirmed the fear that it was drifting back into its old rut of dulness. At the Stock Exchange prices showed greater weakness than at the Consolidated Exchange, although the decline was not important. There is heard considerable talk of the possible future history of Lima or Buckeye Pipe Line certificates at the Consolidated Board. It might prove a most excellent opportunity for speculation, but it would have to be supplemented by other developments to change the radical relations between Pennsylvania and Ohio crude, as respects prices. The National Transit certificate market closed firm at fractionally top prices.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as follows:

| | Stock Exchange. | Consolidated. |
|---|---|---|
| Opening | $1 00 1-8 | $1 00 1-8 |
| Highest | 1 00 1-8 | 1 00 1-2 |

| Sales, barrels | 173,000 | *205,000 |

*Includes sales of 1,000 barrels of "to-morrow delivery" oil at $1.

Refined oil was unchanged at 7 cents per gallon at all ports.
