AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

INSANITY HIS ONLY DEFENCE.

THE MURDERER OF DR. LLOYD THINKS HIMSELF FIT FOR GRAND AND LOFTY THINGS.

The defence of James Doughtery, on trial for his life for the murder of Dr. George F. Lloyd at the Kings County Insane Asylum, was conducted in the Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday. Foster L. Backus appeared for the prisoner by direction of the court. He stated that his client declared he was sane, yet his only defence was insanity. He wanted his counsel to say that while employed by a telegraph company he felt his daily work was beneath his ability, and that he could comprehend grand and lofty subjects. He wanted to fit himself for companionship with the most adorable of women, who was to him the most beautiful of God's creations. He crossed the ocean to see her, but his aims were thwarted, and after he returned he was arrested by men in the employ of his rivals, was declared insane, and spent twenty-two months in the asylum. Thomas J. Cusick, of the Postal Telegraph Company, testified that after he escaped from the asylum he went to the office and said he had been imprisoned because of Mary Anderson. Evidence in regard to Doughtery's conduct at the asylum was given by James J. Deegan, a former steward at the asylum; Dr. Walter S. Fleming, Dr. John L. Arnold, Dr. John C. Shaw and others.

Doughtery has written an essay upon insanity since he has been in jail.

DEATH OF WILLIAM M. O'BRIEN.

William M. O'Brien, the well-known sporting man of New-York and Brooklyn, died yesterday at the Kings County Hospital, from apoplexy. He was taken to the institution on Monday for examination as to his sanity. It was expected that he would have been the referee at the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons prize fight in New-Orleans to-day. He began to show signs of paresis last week, and wanted his friends to hire the Madison Square Garden for a great exhibition, and to draw checks for $1,500,000 for expenses. He became violent on Saturday, and was sent to the County Hospital. Two experts in insanity found his case a hopeless one. "Billy" O'Brien, as he was best known, was about thirty years old, and lived in Brooklyn. He managed many walking matches and other sporting affairs. It is supposed that he left considerable money.

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION'S MEETING.

Many of the churches in the New-York and Brooklyn Congregational Association were represented at the annual meeting held yesterday in the Rev. Mr. Halliday's Beecher Memorial Church, at Herkimer-st. and Rockaway-ave. Among those present were the Rev. Drs. Edward Beecher, Lyman Abbott, J. G. Roberts, J. M. Walton, E. P. Thwing, and William Lloyd, the Rev. Messrs. S. B. Halliday, J. W. Malcolm, S. S. Hughson, W. H. Ingersoll, R. H. Bosworth, H. S. Bliss, J. C. Emery, S. Wright Butler, John E. Pray, D. Butler Pratt and E. Bonfils. The Rev. Howard S. Bliss was chosen for Moderator, to succeed Dr. J. E. Roberts, and the Rev. Ellsworth Bonfils for scribe and treasurer. Dr. Roberts had declined to serve again as the presiding officer.

Professor E. P. Thwing introduced a discussion upon "Occidental and Oriental Thought: Some Characteristics and Mutual Interaction," and gave the result of some of his recent experiences in China, Japan and India. The evening session was devoted to a discussion of the question, "Why Not Accept the Fourth Condition of the Bishops?" in which the claims of the historic episcopate were considered.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Joseph Walton, who has been employed as gatekeeper at the Barge Office in New-York since that place has been used for immigration purposes, died yesterday from pneumonia at his home in Brooklyn. He was a veteran fireman and in the days of the old Volunteer Fire Department belonged to Engine Company No. 23. He was seventy years old.

The Brooklyn Nationalist Club No. 1, of which Dr. Owen E. Houghton has been president, has dissolved because of the increasing influence of socialists and Anarchists in the councils of the organization. The club has been meeting at Montague and Clinton sts. It will give up its rooms and dispose of its property.

The Rev. William Sparger, rabbi of the Temple Beth Elohim, at State and Hoyt sts., has been called to the Temple Emmanu-El in Fifth-ave., New-York, and has tendered his resignation to his congregation in Brooklyn. He has been for seven years in charge of Beth Elohim congregation.

The Rev. Edward E. Knapp was elected pastor of the Central Baptist Church in Bridge-st., last evening, to succeed his uncle, Dr. Halsey J. Knapp, who has resigned.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

THEIR FURNITURE TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION.

To-day application will be made in court to admit to probate, as the last will and testament of Charles Thielcke, the letter found in the room where Thielcke and his aged wife drank poison. Two graves in the New-York Bay Cemetery will be purchased for the old couple. It is probable that the funeral services will be held on Thursday, at the morgue, and that the Rev. Mr. Meury will officiate. The furniture at the home of the aged couple, No. 70 Thorn-st., will be sold at auction to pay the expenses of the funeral.

The Rev. Father Hennessy of St. Patrick's Church in Ocean-ave. is very seriously ill. He was taken with a hemorrhage Sunday, and has been prostrated ever since, although yesterday it was said he was improving.

The Rev. Father Brady, pastor of St. Agustine's Church, Union Hill, is building a new parochial school next to the church.

NEWARK.

Another detachment of fifteen spinners to take the places of the strikers at the Clark Thread Works was received by the company yesterday. In Mill No. 1 work was resumed in full. The company's officers say that enough applications have been received from outside spinners for the company to run the entire three mills at their usual capacity. Mill No. 1 was surrounded by strikers and employes shut out by the strike, watching for developments. A number of carders and framers entered the mills, while others who changed their minds, and turned back were cheered by the strikers. Several policemen were at the mill, but no violence was shown.

A deed conveying all the property and plant of the H. S. Miller & Co. fertilizing works to the Pacific Agricultural Chemical Works was recorded yesterday, the price being $100,000.

PATERSON.

August Musche, one of the Belgians running a sausage factory at Cherry Lane, whose arrest for shipping diseased horse meat to Europe was related yesterday, is in the Passaic County Jail. Justice Senior, who on Monday held the men in $100 bail each for examination, heard yesterday that Musche was preparing to leave the country. Musche had engaged passage on a French steamship sailing yesterday, and had arranged for his partner, Amiel Rayions, to go with him. A quantity of horse meat had beef shipped on the same vessel. The justice increased Musche's bail to $500, and as he could not find it he was committed.

OTHER SUBURBAN TOWNS.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.—aLst September Dr. Galusha B. Balch sent a petition to the Common Council asking to be appointed health officer of the city at the expiration of Dr. Valentine Browne's term. Mayor Millward, in November, nominated Dr. Balch, but the Common Council rejected the nomination and re-elected Dr. Browne. Yesterday Dr. Balch served a writ of certiorari, granted by Judge Barnard, of the Supreme Court, on the Mayor and Aldermen to show cause why he should not be appointed health officer. Dr. Balch bases his right to the place on the ground that he is an honorably discharged Union soldier, having served in the army during the Rebellion. The writ orders that certified copies of the Council's proceedings in the matter be produced at Poughkeepsie within twenty days. . . . The skating on Van Cortlandt Lake is the best of the winter, the ice being as smooth as glass.

STATEN ISLAND.

RICHMOND.—The work of getting a jury in the case of Edward Emmons, indicted for the murder of Kate Owens, was continued yesterday in the Richmond County Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Barnard. The work was slow and tedious and each juror was closely questioned as to whether he was opposed to the new law, providing for the execution of criminals in the electric chair. During the day seven jurors were obtained, and there were eleven jurors in the box when the court adjourned for the day. The second panel having been exhausted, a new panel of 100 jurors was ordered to be drawn, and the jury will probably be completed this morning. Young Emmons belongs to a respectable Brooklyn family and his father and two sisters were present in court yesterday. Mrs. Lillian Van Dunn, the revivalist, who has taken much interest in Emmons, sat near him and repeatedly whispered words of encouragement in his ear. There being no question as to the killing, the defence will be that Emmons was not morally responsible for the shooting. His counsel claim that he was temporarily deranged.

IN FAVOR OF RAPID TRANSIT.

A preliminary meeting was held last night at the house of the Harlem Democratic Club, to make arrangements for a mass-meeting to favor and discuss the project of rapid transit. The organizations represented were the Harlem Democratic Club, the Harlem Republican Club, the Hamilton Republican Club, the Lexington Democratic Club and the Massasoit Democratic Club. President T. C. Campbell, of the Hamilton Club, presided, and C. A. Sulzberger, of the Harlem Democratic Club, was secretary. It was voted to hold the mass-meeting, at a place yet to be announced, on Saturday night, January 24. There was perfect unanimity of feeling, and great interest was shown in the objects of the proposed meeting.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The bids for the Custom House cartage were opened yesterday. There has been considerable trouble in disposing of the cartage. The bidders were J. Leroy Jacobs, Thomas A. Briggs, W. Howard Brown, Bernard Biglin, John Mullin, D. D. Kuper & Brothers, Simon Hess and William Utz. The award will be made probably about February 13.

The paintings of Miss Alice Suydam will be exhibited to-day at the Ladies' Art Association, No. 23 East Fourteenth-st., to illustrate the work done by the class in landscape painting in Niantic, Conn.

The Rev. Dr. E. Winchester Donald will speak this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the series of interdenominational services now being held in the John Street Methodist Episcopal Church. It is intended that the sermons preached during these special services shall be printed and bound in a neat volume.

The U. S. Grant Club of the VIth Assembly District, at a meeting on Monday night, adopted resolutions testifying to the loyalty of Postmaster Van Cott as a Republican, and his success in the improvement of the postal service, and putting him in nomination as a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket.

Mayor Grant's Rapid Transit bill received the unanimous approval of the Board of Aldermen yesterday in a resolution offered by Mr. Flegenheimer which called upon the Legislature to hasten its passage.

The Board of Aldermen yesterday requested the Gas Commissioners to place more electric lights in the growing XIXth Assembly District.

At a regular meeting of the Hamilton Republican Club held Monday night at One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st. and Seventh-ave., Captain W. C. Reddy introduced a resolution protesting against the free coinage of silver. Colonel Henry Altman, who is an old Californian, opposed the resolution and a short debate followed. The resolution was finally laid over until Saturday night, when the question will be fully discussed. An interesting debate is expected.

The new officers of Lafayette Camp, Sons of Veterans, will be installed by General Martin T. McMahon, Commander of George Washington Post, G. A. R., at the Hotel Brunswick, on Friday evening.

The Tribune yesterday received the following subscriptions for the family of James McGrady, who are destitute, the husband being unable to get employment: "O," $25; Mrs. R. M. Hoe, $5; S. de Jonge, $10; "M," $2; "A Constant Reader," $1.

The proposal of F. C. Travers to be one of five men to give $100 a year for five years to the Teachers' Mutual Benefit Association has resulted in a prospective addition of $2,500 to the fund. The other contributors are E. D. Farrell, Commissioner Miles O'Brien, L. M. Hornthal and John Whalen, two school trustees.

According to the reports of the superintendents, there were last year 18,624 pupils in seventy-six public schools who studied German under forty-two teachers. In 1868 there were 10,672 pupils in the German classes under twenty-seven teachers. There are now 3,874 pupils who study French in fourteen public schools.

James R. Cuming has been re-elected as chairman of the school trustees of the Twenty-second Ward.

Mrs. B. H. Hood, of No. 96 West Mohawk-st., Buffalo, has asked the police to search for her son, Paul John Hood, eleven years old, who disappeared in June. The boy ran away from his mother when she was staying at a hotel in Scranton, Penn., and he was last seen on a train bound for this city.

The seventy-fifth semi-annual statement of the Home Insurance Company of New-York shows a net surplus of $1,494,595. The assets of the company amount to $9,091,192 with the market of stocks and bonds calculated and including real estate, loans, etc. The board of directors is a strong one and a dividend of 5 per cent has been declared, payable on demand.

Housewives who put up Tokay grapes for winter preserves are so delighted with their success that this delicate addition to the tea table will be repeated when quantity tempers cost as it did last season.

The Contract Labor Bureau at the Barge Office has ordered the return of eleven Italians who were detained as contract laborers.

A water-logged canalboat bearing on her stern the name E. D. Soul drifted into the pier at West Twelfth-st. yesterday. No one was on board and the boat had evidently been in a collision.

Edward Higgins, who has been janitor of the Board of Education for thirty-five years, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday. Mr. Higgins is sixty-five years old.

The free lectures to the people given under the auspices of the Board of Education will begin next Monday in seven grammar schools of this city. A number of well-known men have been engaged to deliver the lectures.

Charles F. Phoenix, who was arrested for alleged assault on Sinton Steele, of Scranton, Penn., was held in $5,000 bail by Justice McMahon at the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday. Steele was present in court with the shirt, which figured in the case, half of the bosom being cut out. His watch, chain, locket, and diamond stud were also reported missing.

A cab driven by Michael Kelly, sixty-five years old, was struck by fire engine No. 33 in Broadway near Waverley Place last evening. The driver of the engine tried to pass the cab, but the wheels caught in the railroad track and struck the rear of the cab. The cab wheels were knocked off and Kelly was thrown into the street. He was not severely injured.

The final bouts of the Pastime Athletic Club boxing tournament will be held at Turn Hall, Nos. 64 and 66 East Fourth-st., to-night.

WORK OF THE TORREY BOTANICAL CLUB.

The Torrey Botanical Club held an interesting session last night at Hamilton Hall, Columbia College. The treasurer, W. E. Wheelock, reported receipts for the last year, $1,318 24; disbursements, $1,221 72. A large portion of this amount was used in the publication of monthly bulletins, and articles on botanical subjects of scientific value. The secretary reported 126 active members and 146 corresponding members. The committee appointed to classify and collect specimens of local flora and cryptograms reported that they had gathered much material.

The idea of a botanical garden in one of the parks of the city is being heartily advocated by Dr. Britton and other members of the club. Dr. Thomas Morong read a paper upon the "Ascunsion Market in Paraguay."

The following officers were elected: President, Judge Addison Brown; vice-president, J. F. Allen; treasurer, W. E. Wheelock; recording secretary, Miss Marie O. Steele; corresponding secretary, Miss H. C. Gaskin; curator, Miss J. E. Rogers; librarian, M. L. Delafield; editor, Dr. N. L. Britton; associate editors, Dr. E. L. Gregory, Miss A. M. Beck.
