TWO ANGRY TENNESSEE SENATORS.

A PERSONAL COMBAT NARROWLY PREVENTED —THE HOUSE RESOLUTION ABOUT CONVICT LEASES PASSED.

Nashville, Sept. 4.—"You are an infamous liar," came a hot retort in the Senate Chamber this morning, and immediately the Sergeant-at-Arms was called upon to prevent a personal combat between two Senators almost in front of the chairman's stand. Order was restored, and the belligerents, Senators Alexander and Riley, after reflecting a little, apologized to the Senate and to each other. The trouble arose in a debate over a resolution brought by Mr. Alexander providing that a reward be offered for the arrest and conviction of Messrs. Irish, Ingraham, Merrill and Hamaker, the committee from the insurgent miners of Briceville, on the ground that they had incited lawlessness and rebellion against the authority of the State.

This exciting episode served to divert attention from the other proceedings of the session to some extent, and the House resolution appointing a committee to investigate the alleged incendiary conduct of Commissioner of Labor Ford and Representative Alleman and the House resolution declaring the General Assembly powerless to abrogate the lease were adopted, the latter with an amendment, without creating a ripple.

The most important measure in the House this morning was the passage on third reading of a bill that will save the State about $100,000 a year and do away with professional witnesses.

THE GRADY STATUE NEARLY READY.

Chicopee, Mass., Sept. 4.—The head, shoulders and trunk of the bronze statue of Henry W. Grady, the Southern author and journalist, were successfully cast in bronze in one piece at the foundry of the Ames Manufacturing Company yesterday afternoon. The statue must now be joined at the hips and have the forearms attached before shipment to Atlanta. It will be about one and one-half times life size and will rise about eight and one-half feet from its pedestal. The superintendent of the Ames Company says the original date for the unveiling of the statue, September 10, will have to be changed, as the work has been interfered with by the delay of the sculptor in sending the plaster model to Chicopee.

A PHILADELPHIA OFFICIAL'S MISDEEDS.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—George Roney, Director of Public Safety, this afternoon tendered his resignation to Mayor Stuart. This was the outcome of recent grave charges against him as superintendent of the Almshouse, which place he filled for a number of years until April 1, when he was chosen by Mayor Stuart as a member of his cabinet. About two weeks ago the fact was printed that the Bureau of Charities and Correction had charged Mr. Rooney with removing furniture from the superintendent's house when he moved to his new home; with using money deposited by inmates upon their admission to the institution and with redeeming jewelry pawned by a woman admitted to the insane department, and appropriating it to his own use. Mr. Roney practically admitted the charges against him, but pleaded ignorance. The Citizens' Municipal Association demanded that Mayor Stuart remove Mr. Roney from office. His salary as director was $10,000 a year.

RUMOR OF A CHANGE IN ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 4.—There is a rumor being circulated here about army headquarters to the effect that the headquarters of the Department of the Arizona will be moved from San Diego to Denver, and the State of Colorado will be taken from the Department of the Platte.

RETAIL DRUGGISTS ORGANIZE.

St. Louis, Sept. 4.—The organization of the Retail Druggists' Association of the Mississippi Valley was perfected here this afternoon by the election of the following officers: Thomas Layton, of St. Louis, president; Dr. Goodyear, of Memphis, vice-president; C. Howard Willet, of Kansas City, secretary; Dr. George Sloan, of Indianapolis, treasurer. The objects of the association are stated in the following platform adopted by the convention: "We hereby agree to withdraw our patronage from any wholesale dealer or jobber who knowingly furnishes 'cutters' with any merchandise whatsoever. We also agree to discontinue the sale of any patent or proprietary articles furnished to 'cutters' by the manufacturers or through their agents."

THE HERRING CATCH FALLS SHORT.

Gloucester, Mass., Sept. 4.—The schooner Joseph E. Garland arrived from Iceland to-day with 125,000 pounds of salt herring, about 50,000 pounds short of what would be a fair trip. The Garland reports that the herring fishing there, which was not very good at the start, fell off gradually and on July 8 failed entirely, the fish leaving the locality. There are twenty-five American vessels, all from Gloucester, engaged in this fishery and the Garland reports that they are all coming home. The catch will not be over two-thirds of the average.

A BOSTON CLERGYMAN CALLED TO LONDON.

Boston, Sept. 4.—It is understood that the Rev. Brooke Herford, pastor of the Arlington Street Unitarian Church, will resign soon to accept a call from the Rosslyn Hill Chapel, London, Eng. Dr. Herford, previous to his call to Boston in 1882, had been pastor of the Church of the Messiah in Chicago for six years.

THE CASES OF TREZZA AND M'ELVAINE.

Albany, Sept. 4.—The Attorney-General announces that he will apply to the United States Court on October 4 for a dismissal of the stay of proceedings and appeals in the cases of Trezza and McElvaine, the convicted murderers, now in Sing Sing. He is sanguine that the court will grant the application. The men will then be resentenced.

SUBSTITUTES CANNOT SECURE INDIAN LANDS.

Guthrie, Oklahoma, Sept. 4.—A sensation was caused here last night by the discovery of a section of law which makes it a misdemeanor for any person or corporation to hire a man to go into any of the Indian lands and take a claim or lot and afterward turn it over to such person or company. As a penalty the land is to be forfeited and the parties fined $1,000 or imprisoned one year, or both. Many bankers, mercantile and other companies and hundreds of private persons have engaged persons to do this very thing, and the discovery of this law creates consternation on all sides. The law will prevent frauds and put poor homeseekers on an equal footing with the banker and speculator.

THE COURTS.

SUING HIS FORMER EMPLOYER.

HE WANTS $25,000 AS A RECOMPENSE FOR THE LOSS OF HIS WIFE'S AFFECTIONS.

John D. Slater, who is at present an inmate of the Asylum for the Destitute Blind, at One-hundred-and-fourth-st. and Tenth-ave., has brought a suit in the Supreme Court against Thomas Finucan, a Queen's County politician, for $25,000, for alienating his wife's affections. Slater already has a divorce from his wife, which he secured on the ground of her intimacy with an unknown man at No. 61 Sands-st., Brooklyn. Slater's lawyers, Culver & Anthony, declare that since the divorce proceedings they have learned that the "unknown man" was Finucan. The trouble between Slater and his wife began when he worked for Finucan as manager of the hotel known as Washington Hall, at Woodsburg, L. I. This hotel was owened by Finucan. Slater says that on the night of March 25, 1888, he was somewhat intoxicated and went upstairs to bed. A short time after he had got into bed Finucan came up and ordered him to dress. He did so, and they both went into the next room, which his wife and their child, Grover Cleveland, occupied. Finucan asked Mrs. Slater, according to Slater's story, if he should put her husband out of the house. She nodded yes, and Finucan proceeded to kick him out. He was obliged to wander about all night with no place to sleep. He never recognized Mrs. Slater as his wife after that, he says. She remained in the house for some time though, Slater declares, and afterward went to No. 61 Sands-st., where he charges that she was unduly intimate with Finucan.

In his answer Finucan declares that Slater was in a beastly state of intoxication on the night mentioned, and he discharged both him and his wife immediately. In consequence of the fact that Mrs. Slater had two or three small children, however, he allowed her to remain in the house for a month after he discharged her husband. He denies all undue intimacy with her.

Slater to support the charges which he has made, puts in the affidavit of his twelve-year-old son, who swears to having seen several acts of affection on the part of Finucan toward his mother.

The case came up yesterday before Judge O'Brien, in the Supreme Court, Chambers, on a motion made by Finucan to change the place of trial to Queen's County. Decision on that motion was reserved. At present Finucan is running the Long Island Hotel at No. 124 Flatbush-ave., Brooklyn.

RESTRAINED FROM HAVING A PICNIC THERE.

The Young Men's Benevolent Association will have the exclusive use of Sulzer's Harlem River Park for their picnic to-day. The Manhattan Railway Employes had expected to have a picnic there, too, to-day, but the other association declared that it had rented the park exclusively for its members, and they asked Judge Bischoff, in the Court of Common Pleas, for an injunction preventing the railroad men from having their picnic there, yesterday. The injunction was granted.

WESTERN NATIONAL SILVER CERTIFICATES.

A published effort at political detraction, directed against the son of the President, is based upon the exploitation of a matter which has been before the Treasury Department since last February. It relates to the investigation by the Controller of the Currency of the authority of the Western National Bank to issue certificates against deposits of silver bullion in the vaults of the Mercantile Trust Company. The law forbids a National bank to guarantee the transactions of any other corporation or individual, and on this ground objection was raised to the Western National assuming silver bullion certificates. Bankers generally hold that this is entirely within the province of the bank. The question came before Controller of the Currency Lacey as unfinished business after the death of Mr. Windom. Mr. Lacey asked for and received from President Brayton Ives and the counsel of the Western National briefs of the bank's position, showing that the banks leased the vaults where the bullion was stored and provided ample safeguards over the receipt and delivery of bullion on certificates.

Controller Lacey was in New-Jersey a week ago on the way to Asbury Park, where he is spending his vacation. He transacted no official business while here with Assistant Treasurer Roberts or any one else, and did not see Mr. Ives. There was a strong suspicion in Wall Street that the attempted revamping of this question, which is still in the hands of the Treasury Department, might have a speculative motive connected with the ostensible purpose to manufacture political capital of a personal kind.

DAMAGED BY RUNNING INTO A PIER.

The steamship Habana, of the Spanish Transatlantic Company's line, from Cuba, ran into Pier No. 1, North River, yesterday, while trying to get alongside, and badly damaged her bows. Her cutwater was torn away ten feet above the waterline and five feet below it, and several of the bow plates were badly bent. Two tugs were aiding the Habana in getting into her pier at the time, and the tide was slack, so the accident was rather inexplicable. The forward compartment was almost entirely filled with water, which rushed in through the broken bow. When the steamer had finally got alongside her pier the bow was temporarily repaired and pumps were set at work, which kept the forward compartment comparatively free. No one was injured, and the only damage done was that to the steamer herself. As soon as her cargo is removed the Habana will be placed in the drydock and her broken bow repaired.

Berkshire Hills, via New-York Central (Harlem Division). Buffet-cars on morning and evening trains. See time-table.
