FELL FIFTY FEET WITH THE SCAFFOLD

FOUR WORKMEN FATALLY INJURED BY STRIKING ON SHARP STONES.

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—A Tri-State News Bureau dispatch from Saultsburg, Penn., says: A terrible accident occurred here last night at the railroad bridge. A swinging scaffold under the bridge was crowded with nine workmen, who were about to stop work when the ropes broke, precipitating the entire party into the river bed, fifty feet below. The river is low, and the men fell in a confused mass on the sharp stones, four of them being fatally injured, while the rest were more or less bruised. Those who were fatally injured are J. C. Repergle, several ribs broken, breast crushed, hurt internally; S. W. Reed, terrible gash on head, and injured internally; W. D. Wilson, neck sprained and injured internally; George Fleming, back seriously hurt and injured internally.

A little son of the foreman, Joseph Artley, who was standing on the scaffold, had a narrow escape. When the scaffold gave way he grasped an iron girder of the bridge, and, clinging to it desperately, climbed to the bridge and was reached a few minutes later by his father, who was among the first to strike the river bed.

MUST CURB HIS PASSION FOR RACING.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 12.—A dispatch from Grand Rapids, Mich., states that the Michigan Methodist Episcopal Conference spent most of the forenoon today with the case of the Rev. J. W. Arney, of Saranac, a pastor with a decided proclivity for fast horses. The committee appointed to investigate the matter reported that "Brother Arney" had not lived up to the promises made at Muskegon one year ago, and recommended that he be disciplined. Arney was then called before Bishop Newman, who proceeded to admonish him, in forceful language, that his conduct had not been at all pleasing in the last year, and that unless he curbed his passion for racing he would have to be asked for his parchment.

THROWN OUT OF A CARRIAGE.

Cortland, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The horse attached to a carriage in which were E H. Mosher and wife and Mrs. Barber, of this village, and Mrs. Scoville, of New-York, ran away this evening. All the occupants were thrown out. Mrs. Barber sustained a fracture of the hip, and, it is feared, internal injuries. She is in an unconscious state, and it is thought she cannot recover. Mrs. Scoville had one of her wrists broken. Mr. Mosher and his wife sustained slight injuries.

PASSES TO THE CUSTOM HOUSE RESTORED.

Collector Fassett and Appraiser Cooper, after a conference yesterday decided to restore the old regulations regarding the admission of importers to the Public Stores. A few months ago when George Borgfeldt & Co. applied to the Collector for a renewal of their annual pass to the stores the application was refused. The firm appealed to the Secretary of the Treasury for an order to compel the Collector to issue the pass. The Secretary declined to interfere, and shortly afterward the Collector cancelled all the outstanding passes. It has been found that the new rule causes much inconvenience to both the Appraiser and the merchants, so yesterday the old regulations were revived. Now an importer or his authorized representative may have access to the "floor books" of the department, and may consult with the assistant appraisers, as of old. Twenty passes were issued yesterday afternoon.

THE KIDNAPPING DETECTIVES IN COURT.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 12.—M. C. Sullivan, the detective, and his assistants, Mackaye and Evans, who kidnapped Bailey and Albertson on Thursday night, had a hearing in a justice court last evening. Sullivan is charged with assault with a deadly weapon and his two deputies with simple assault and battery. The defendants demanded a jury trial and the hearing was continued until Monday. The charges preferred are intended only to hold the prisoners while more serious charges are being prepared.

FIRE ON WISCONSIN CRANBERRY BOGS.

Babcock, Wis., Sept. 12.—The cranberry marshes north and east of here are being consumed by a fire that has been burning for the last twenty-four hours. No rain has fallen here for two weeks and all the surrounding country is covered with tall grass and is dry as tinder. How the fire started is not known. Railroad section men are guarding the company's property all along the line and a large number of men are trying to check the fire.

A MURDERESS DIES IN PRISON.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Annie Hollenschiedt died in the prison yesterday. She was sentenced in 1875 for life, for complicity in the murder of her son-in-law. Her husband was tried, convicted and hanged for the murder, and her daughter, wife of the murdered man, was found accessory to the murder and sent to the prison under a sentence of ten years, but died a few months later.

THE COTTON-PICKERS' STRIKE A MYTH.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 12.—The reported strike of cotton pickers in Georgia proves to be a myth. The negroes are all at work, except in those portions of the State where it is raining. Reports received by "The Journal," from Texas, all portions of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee are to the same effect.

A MURDER IN CONNECTICUT.

Putnam, Conn., Sept. 12.—A shooting affair occurred at North Woodstock last night, resulting in the death of J. F. Hibbard. Frank Ide came home and found Hibbard keeping company with his (Ide's) wife. The men grappled and Ide being the weaker man was being slowly strangled when Ide's sons came to his rescue, armed with shot guns, and put two charges of shot into Hibbard, one entering his back and the other his neck. The sons were arrested pending investigation. The coroner secured an ante-mortem statement from Hibbard.

A WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER.

Willimantic, Conn., Sept. 12.—As a result of the inquest into the circumstances of the murder of James Corcoran, jr., Mrs. Hugh Daly has been committed to the county jail at Brooklyn, without bail, to await trial at the next term of the Superior Court. The prisoner declined to make any statement whatever.

JOHN DALY, THE GAMBLER, ROBBED.

A BIG ROLL OF MONEY TAKEN FROM THE SAFE BY HIS PARTNER.

Reference is made in another part of this paper to a report published yesterday to the effect that William S. Hollingsworth, who has been a partner of John Daly in his notorious gambling place in West Twenty-ninth-st., had robbed Daly of about $100,000, taken from the safe of the faro den. The article is accompanied by a denial from Hollingsworth. Mr. Daly was at the race-track yesterday, and when spoken to about the loss he was said to have sustained he refused either to confirm or deny the report.

From persons who are thoroughly informed regarding the facts, it was learned that Hollingsworth was until recently Daly's partner, having risen from a subordinate place to places of trust under Daly, until he finally became interested in the business as a partner. Hollingsworth has been known for some time to be living in great style, driving fast horses, and expending considerable sums of money. He has also been frequenting the race-tracks and heavily backing horses which he fancied. Although he was regarded where he lived in Lenox-ave. as leading a quiet and straightforward life, being a church attendant and to all appearances an exemplary citizen, his career was nevertheless not what it appeared on the surface. Hollingsworth began to court the society of actresses of low character and was frequently seen in public places with women of bad reputation.

His abstraction of money from the safe of the concern was not so great as the report made it. About three weeks ago he took the "bank roll" from the safe and appropriated it to his own use. It contained not $100,000 as has been stated, but about half that sum. Hollingsworth claimed that he had the right to as a partner of Daly's. It is understood that Mr. Daly made no complaint of his loss to the authorities, and will seek no legal redress in any way whatever.

People who know Hollingsworth well, wonder how Daly could have trusted a man with so much of the appearance of a sneak-thief.

THE NIAGARA FALLS SUICIDES.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 12.—It is believed that the woman who committed suicide by going over the falls on Thursday afternoon is the same who arrived here on Wednesday afternoon over the New-York Central, and registered at the Cataract House as Mrs. Williams, giving no residence or other address. On one side of this woman's face was a piece of cotton as large as a silver dollar, which looked as if it had covered a sore of some kind. She asked for a room and paid for it and meals until Friday morning. She took her meals in her room, and a bell-boy who waited on her says that he saw three addressed letters on her table. There is no clew to the identity of the man who went over the falls the same day. Neither of the bodies have yet been recovered.

DEMAREST REPRESENTS HILL IN ROCKLAND.

The Democrats of Rockland County held their convention at New City yesterday afternoon. Judge George A. Wyre was chosen chairman. From the beginning the convention was controlled by Assemblyman Demarest in the interest of Governor Hill. The delegates elected to the Saratoga Convention were Frank P. Demarest, of Clarkstown; Michael McCabe, of Haverstraw, and William H. Bannister, jr., of Orangetown. "I am for Governor Hill," said Demarest, emphatically, and added, "this is a Hill delegation."

TABLE D'HOTE AT THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The Republican Club resumed its table d'hote dinner at its club-house, No. 450 Fifth-ave., last evening, and it was enjoyed by many members and guests. The members were pleased to have with them at their initial dinner of the season the next Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of New-York, J. Sloat Fassett and John W. Vrooman. Other diners were John S. Smith, Joseph H. Emory, A. L. Merriam, James S. Lehmaier, William L. Findley, A. J. Fisk, John Yard, C. H. Coleman, J. R. Tresider and James S. Thurston. Next Saturday the occasion will be enlivened by Cappa's music.

DEATH OF FREDERICK P. LITCHFIELD.

Frederick P. Litchfield, a prominent New-York broker and ship-owner, died at Rockland, Me., his birthplace, yesterday. He was at one time the secretary of the Vessel Owners and Captains' National Association, an organization embracing about 1,000 consting vessels, and was afterward appointed general passenger and freight agent at the New-York, Maine and New-Brunswick Steamship Company, which place he held until the time of his death. The funeral will take place at his home, No. 146 Quincy-st., Brooklyn, on Tuesday.

LARGE RECEIPTS OF WHEAT AT DULUTH.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 12 (Special).—The wheat movement to Duluth for the present week has been large. Up to date receipts have been slightly over 1,100,000 bushels, and daily receipts are now running from 500 to 600 cars. Advices from the country are to the effect that farmers are selling freely. There is no evidence that there are many following the Alliance advice to hold back their wheat. So far, the movement has been largest on the Northern Pacific, with the Great Northern movement not far behind. Next week's receipts will probably run up to 3,500 or 4,000 cars.

USED A CANCELLED POSTAGE STAMP.

Canajoharie, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Horatio Nellis, a wealthy farmer, is under arrest under on the charge of using a cancelled postage stamp. He was examined to-day before United States Commissioner Van Steenburgh. United States District-Attorney Alexander appeared for the Government, and Judge H. V. Borst for Mr. Nellis. The examination will be continued October 10.

LOSSES BY FIRE.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The wooden building in Buffalo-st. owned by the Mulholland Spring and Gear Company and occupied by the Dunkirk Wagon Company was damaged by fire last night. The Mulholland Company has $5,000 insurance and the Wagon Company $6,500. The total loss is $15,000.

Williamsport, Penn., Sept. 12.—The large sawmill of Howard & Perley burned early this morning. Loss $30,000; covered by insurance.
