GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

There is little to say regarding the wheat market yesterday, the transactions amounting to 1,500,000 bushels, while the trading was largely local. The foreigners bought early and the shorts covered to some extent on steadier advices from Liverpool. The talk of a big snowstorm in the Northwest extending to the Southwest was also used by the bulls, and, moreover, the interior arrivals were moderate, and the clearances fair. New-York operators sold at Chicago and late private cables came depressed and lower. The result was a general break, prices closing 5-8@7-8 cent lower for the day. December options opened at $1 04 7-8 and fell to $1 04. May started at $1 09 1-4 and declined to $1 08 1-8@$1 08 1-4. Spot lots were unsettled and lower. Exporters took 128,000 bushels and millers 24,000 bushels.

Corn opened firm on covering at the West, but the clique sold later in the day and a general drop followed, December especially heavy and leaving off 3-4 cent lower. The other months were 1-4@5-8 cent off. Cash lots were depressed and decidedly lower, thereby helping the late break in options. The speculation was less than 800,000 bushels. Exporters bought 56,000 bushels, mainly special for December, January and February delivery.

Oats were quite firm, despite the weakness in the other cereals. Cash oats were 1-2@3-4 cent higher, on an excellent demand and reserved offerings. Options were 3-8 cent higher on December, with the "shorts" covering.

Lard strengthened on a falling off in the hog movement West. There were sales of 500 tierces on the spot, but whether for export could not be learned.

The final quotations were as follows:

Wheat—December, $1 04; January, $1 05 1-4; February, $1 06 5-8; March, $1 08 1-4; May, $1 08 1-4.

Corn—December, 60 3-4; January, 55; February, 53 3-4; May, 52 3-8 cents.

Oats—December, 40 7-8; January, 39 3-4; May, 39 1-2 cents.

Lard—December, $6 43; January, $6 51; February, $6 60; March, $6 70.

The receipts of grain and flour reported yesterday at New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston were as follows: Wheat, 328,439 bushels; corn, 194,099 bushels; oats, 153,161 bushels; total grain, 673,699 bushels; flour, 71,051 packages. At Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul the arrivals were: Wheat, 265,731 bushels; corn, 198,866 bushels; oats, 254,341 bushels; total grain, 818,938 bushels; flour, 38,513 barrels.

WHOLESALE BRIBERY IN OKLAHOMA.

Guthrie, O. T., Dec. 4.—The trial of T. N. Terrill, a member of the Oklahoma Legislature, for the murder of George Embree because the latter testified against him in a land suit, took a sensational turn yesterday. The State finished its rebuttal evidence on Wednesday night, having impeached every witness for the defence. Yesterday George Parts, the principal witness for the defence, was arrested and put in jail on a charge of bribing a juror. One juror has confessed to having received $160. The trial is at a standstill. Other sensational developments are expected hourly. Evidence has already been secured tending to implicate prominent Farmers' Alliance members of the Legislature in the bribery. It looks as though Terrill would hang and some of his friends go to the penitentiary.
