LOCUST LODGE
STOCK FARM,
STONY FORD, NEW-YORK.
Six miles from Goshen or Middletown.
To parties desiring to board their horses or brood mares for the winter or year, I wish to announce that I am now prepared to take a limited number. I have large, well-ventilated buildings, fitted with roomy box stalls and modern improvements. The location is one of the finest in Orange County, being situated about one mile from the Stony Ford Station, on the N. Y., Ont. and West. R. R., and adjacent to the Stony Ford Stock Farm of Mr. Charles Backman, thus being doubly convenient for gentlemen breeding to his stallions.
Horses and brood mares will be kept as owners may desire. Particular attention paid to trotting stock and mares in foal. I am permitted to refer to Mr. Henry W. T. Hall, president National Association of Trotting Horse Breeders, 370 Broadway, N. Y., and Mr. Charles Backman, Stony Ford, N.Y. Very truly yours, L. DE L. CAMMANN.
