EASTERN CLUBS ALL WIN.

GIANTS DEFEAT CLEVELAND.

ANSON'S MEN GET A FINE DRUBBING FROM THE BROOKLYN TEAM.

GAMES YESTERDAY.

New-York 9, Cleveland 6. | Washington 12, St. Louis 7.
Brooklyn 9, Chicago 0. | Baltimore 18, Louisville 8.
Boston 11, Cincinnati 6. | Philadelphia 10, Pittsburg 4.

Yesterday was the time set for the closing of the Eastern tour of the Western members of the National League, and as befitting the cause every one of the Western teams was beaten. Heavy batting characterized all the games and run-making was indulged in at an unusual rate. It was warm, of course, at the Polo Grounds, as it was at every other place around Manhattan Island. As the afternoon advanced, however, a delightful breeze crept somewhere from around "Dead Head" Hill and made life in the shady grand-stand a positive pleasure. Another encouraging incident was that the New-York team played with life and spirit and defeated the Cleveland nine after a well-contested battle.

Crane pitched with speed and effect except in the ninth inning, when he grew either crazy or careless and allowed the Cleveland men to bat in three earned runs. Rutgers was hatted freely during the last half of the game. The fielding work of the home players was excellent, Fuller's work at short stop being unusually clever even for this remarkable little player. Ewing's work at first base and Lyons's batting were also of the best. The score:

Anson and his band of Windy City baseball talent made a doleful exit out of Brooklyn last night. Anson was going to win all three games when he came to Brooklyn, he said. The final game between the Brooklyn and Chicago teams was played at Eastern Park, Brooklyn, yesterday, in the presence of 2,500 spectators. Ward's men won as they pleased. Stein, once a Chicago pitcher, held down his old comrades to three scattering hits and nine consecutive blanks. The batting of Burns and Ward's work at second base pleased the onlookers immensely. The score was:

The Fordham College and Wesleyan University teams played at Fordham yesterday before a good-sized crowd. The match was exciting and for eight innings victory seemed likely to rest with either team. In the ninth inning the Fordham players batted with effect and scored half a dozen runs. The score by innings:

Fordham College	1	0	1	0	0	2	1	0	5	—11
Wesleyan University	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	0	—4

Earned runs—Fordham College 6. First base on balls—Off Smith 1, off Frost 2. Struck out—By Smith 10, by Frost 3. Home run—Sullivan. Three-base hit—Carnedy. Two-base hits—Smith (Fordham), Ferguson, Smith (Wesleyan) 2. Umpire—Hart. Time of game—1:55.

GAMES TO-DAY.

New-York vs. Brooklyn, at Polo Grounds, New-York.
Boston vs. Philadelphia, at Boston.
Washington vs. Baltimore, at Washington.
Pittsburg vs. Chicago, at Pittsburg.
Cleveland vs. Louisville, at Cleveland.

The Brooklyn and New-York teams will play at the Polo Grounds to-day. Rusie and Haddock will probably be the pitchers.

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Baltimore, June 14.—The Baltimore team closed their home series with the Western teams to-day by defeating Louisville with ease. When the fifth inning was started the visitors were in the lead, but then the Orioles scored seven runs and knocked Jones out of the box. The score:

Baltimore	2	0	1	1	7	0	0	2	5	—18
Louisville	4	2	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	—9

Batteries—Baltimore 17, Louisville 14. Errors—Baltimore 6, Louisville 6. Pitchers—Buffinton, Jones and Viau. Umpires—Hurst.

Philadelphia, June 14.—The Philadelphias won to-day's game almost as they pleased. Baldwin was hitted out of the box in the second inning, and was succeeded by Woodcock. Attendance 1,602. The score:

Philadelphia	2	5	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	—10
Pittsburg	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	2	—4

Batteries—Philadelphia 16, Pittsburg 10. Errors—Philadelphia 2, Pittsburg 2. Pitchers—Esper, Baldwin and Woodcock. Umpire—Emslie.

Washington, June 14.—Getzein had no terrors for the Washingtons to-day, while Abbey, late of the University of Vermont team, proved effective in all but one inning. Attendance, 1,250. The score:

Washington	0	1	0	4	0	0	2	4	1	—12
St. Louis	0	0	5	0	0	0	2	0	0	—7

Batteries—Washington 19, St. Louis 9. Errors—Washington 4, St. Louis 5. Pitchers—Abbey and Getzein. Umpire—Mahoney.

Milwaukee, June 14.—Milwaukee and Columbus began to-day a series of seven games which are to decide the championship of the first season of the Western League, and through O'Day's weakness in the first inning the Brewers won. Attendance, 1,000. The score:

Milwaukee	5	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—6
Columbus	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	0	0	—3

Batteries—Milwaukee 8, Columbus 8. Errors—Milwaukee 1, Columbus 1. Batteries—Burrell and Donahue; O'Day, Stevens and Merritt.

Boston, June 14.—The Boston and Cincinnati teams closed their series to-day, the home team winning easily. Duryea was hatted freely, and his support was none of the best. The score:

Boston	1	1	1	5	0	2	0	1	0	—11
Cincinnati	1	0	4	0	0	1	0	0	0	—6

Batteries—Boston 10, Cincinnati 7. Errors—Boston 3, Cincinnati 5. Pitchers—Hewetts and Dwyer. Umpire—Gaffney.

OXFORD'S DESIRE TO ROW HARVARD OR YALE.

Cambridge, Mass., June 14 (special).—Captain Keiton has received letters from R. C. Lehman, coach of the Oxford crew, in which he says that the Oxford eight is desirous of arranging a match with the winner of the Harvard-Yale boat race. He does not wish it to be understood that his utterances are in the form of a challenge, but he would like to provoke an expression of opinion from the Cambridge and New-Haven oarsmen. The Englishmen wish the race to be rowed in September on the Thames River, England.

W. C. Forbes, '92, president of the Harvard Boat Club, says that no official action has been taken in regard to Mr. Lehman's letter. Every year there is talk of an international race on the water, but Oxford's crew always demands the condition mentioned by Mr. Lehman. It is improbable that such a race will take place until the Englishmen decide to row on American waters and in a more convenient time of the year.

YALE'S TIME OVER THE NEW-LONDON COURSE.

New-London, June 14 (special).—The Yale crew arrived here on Saturday evening. On Sunday no exercise was indulged in, except a four-mile walk. Yesterday morning the young men before breakfast took a spin into the country at a lively rate. After breakfast the crew gave three hours to hard study. In the afternoon the crew seated themselves in their shell and started down the river under the direction of Captain Cowles, of the '86 crew, who acted as coach, and the men rowed exceedingly well. They covered the course in twenty-two minutes and five seconds. Captain Cook is expected here in a day or two.

MRS. COLLINS EXPRESSES HER THANKS.

A letter from Lillie S. Collins has been received by O. H. Byrne, president of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, acknowledging the receipt of a draft of $3,019 02, and conveying heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and regard expressed for her late husband.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The residents of the north side of Madison Square and that neighborhood are opposed to the cab stand known as No. 11. Alderman Morris made another effort for their relief yesterday by offering a resolution at the meeting of the Board limiting the boundaries of the cab stand to the south and west sides of the square. It was laid over for one week under the rules.

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Brennan closed a contract yesterday for department uniforms. Drivers' jackets and trousers are to cost $1 40, and hats 22 cents; total, $1 62. The sweepers' uniforms complete will cost $1 57.

Commissioner Brady, of the Department of Buildings, yesterday appointed Joseph I. McKeon assistant counsel of the new department at $3,000 a year. Mr. McKeon was formerly a conspicuous County Democrat of the 1st Assembly District and unsuccessfully ran for Civil Justice on that ticket against the late Peter Mitchell. He has since joined the Wigwam.

Thomas H. Barrett, local inspector of steam vessels, will investigate the accident in the North River on Saturday, in which W. K. Vanderbilt's yacht the Alva ran down a rowboat and drowned two persons, as soon as the Alva returns from Newport.

To-morrow at 8 p. m., at the Church of the Holy Communion, Sixth-ave. and Twentieth-st., a service and reception in the interest of trained nurses will be held; sermon by the Rev. James O. S. Huntington.

The Museum of Art is open free to the public to-day, to-morrow, Friday and Saturday from 10 o'clock a. m. to 5 o'clock p. m., and on Sunday afternoon.

The Committee on Nomination of Trustees of the Board of Education has recommended Abraham Stern for the position of school trustee in the Thirteenth Ward.

Mayor Grant has deferred his departure for the Chicago Convention until Sunday morning.

As a result of the recent examination of three-score of applicants for the position of master electrician at the Navy Yard, R. Sweetland was yesterday appointed to the place. J. Martin, who was second on the list, was appointed assistant to Mr. Sweetland.

At the De La Salle Institute commencement exercises to-day in the Broadway Theatre, Bishop Corrigan will preside. Edward F. Fagan will deliver the address to the graduates.

The schooner Gypsum Queen came into collision at 11 p. m. Monday night with the schooner Edward Waite, off Hart's Island Point. The latter vessel had her mainmast, maintopmast, mizzen-topmast and all rigging carried away. The falling spars stove two holes in her deck, and broke four timbers on her port bow. The Gypsum Queen lost her foretopmast and flying jibboom and came to anchor.

A petition was circulated among the members of the Produce Exchange yesterday, asking the managers to make arrangements to get the market quotations from the Chicago Board of Trade.

TO MAKE A PLAY GROUND FOR CHILDREN.

The Charity Organization Society is anxious to secure the free use of two adjacent vacant lots, during the summer, for a playground or a sand-garden for young children now restricted to the public streets. No injury will be done to the lots and much benefit will result to the children. A generous lady has offered to bear all the other expense of a playground, which amounts to about $1,000 for a summer, if any one will give the use of the land. The lots are to be fenced in and provided with wheelbarrows, shovels and other plaything, and with shelter against the rain. There will also be swings and some simple gymnastic appliances. The society has such a playground in Fittleth-st. which is now in its third year, and has had an average attendance of 150 children daily, who find their enjoyment and exercise amid its surroundings and under the care of a competent matron who supervises their play and tries to teach them good manners. Without this they would be left to the physical and moral contamination of the streets. It is hoped that the owners of vacant lots will assist the society in this good work.

MRS. GALLIGAN'S CASE TO BE DECIDED.

The teachers of the public schools are greatly interested in the outcome of the trial of Mrs. Louise M. Galligan, a principal in Grammar School No. 70, who has been recommended for removal by the trustees of the Nineteenth Ward on the charges of inefficiency, incompetency, conduct unbecoming a teacher and falsification of the roll. The case will be decided to-day by the Board of Education. It was said yesterday that Commissioner Moriarty would decline to vote for the removal of Mrs. Galligan, and that Commissioners Lummis and O'Brien would also uphold her. If Mrs. Galligan gets five Commissioners to vote for her she cannot be removed. In case this result comes about the trustees of the Nineteenth Ward say that they will give the records of the case to the public through the newspapers and allow it to judge the case. With only one exception, it is said the teachers of Mrs. Galligan's school testified against her, so that should she be retained in office charges will be necessary in the school.

ORDAINED AS AN EVANGELIST.

David G. Smith, a graduate of Union Theological Seminary and Hamilton College, was ordained last night as an evangelist at the Presbyterian Church of the Puritans, No. 15 West One-hundred-and-thirty-first-st. The Rev. J. J. Patterson acted as moderator, and put the constitutional questions. The Rev. F. H. Marling preached the sermon. The Rev. Dr. E. L. Clark offered the ordaining prayer, and the Rev. Dr. G. L. Spining, of Phillips Church, gave the charge to the evangelist. Mr. Smith will continue for the present to preach at the Lenox Presbyterian Church, Eighth-ave., near One-hundred-and-thirty-seventh-st.

MEETINGS AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

The ceremony of "The Blessing of the Fields" will be held at Burnham Industrial Farm between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. to-day. The occasion will be of unusual interest on account of the dedication of Gilpin Hall and of the Christian Union Cottage. There will be a luncheon at noon, followed by the trustees' meeting at 1 o'clock and the Holy Communion at 2 p. m.

The summer St. John's festival will be celebrated at Washington Park, Sixty-ninth-st. and Avenue A, by the United Lodges of F. and A. M. of the Twenty-eighth German District, for the benefit of their asylum in Tappan, N. Y., on Friday afternoon, June 24.

The Little Mothers will have their anniversary picnic, which will be one of their "happy days," at the Holiday House, in Pelham Park, Bartow, next Friday. The party will leave the One-hundred-and-twenty-ninth-st. station of the New-Haven road at 9:45 a. m. If it should rain on Friday the excursion will be held on the following Saturday.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY

JERSEY CITY.

ALFRED STOCKER ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

Alfred Stocker was placed on trial yesterday morning in the Hudson County Court, before Presiding Judge Werts and Associate Judge Hoffman, for the murder of his wife, Kate Stocker, on January 28 last, at their home on Jersey City Heights. Prosecutor Winfield appeared for the State and ex-Judge William Hoffman and Max Sarringer for the prisoner. The shooting of Mrs. Stocker and Mary Tierney, Stocker's sister-in-law, followed a ball held by the Dunn Association. Patrick Tierney, the prisoner's father-in-law, was the first witness, but his testimony was not important.

His wife was then called. She testified that on the morning of January 25 John Dunn and George Brunner accompanied Mrs. Kate Stocker and Mary Tierney home from the ball of the Dunn Association. Stocker had been to the ball, but he had got home several hours before them and was up stairs asleep. While he was at the ball he did not notice his wife. The party were eating breakfast when Stocker came down stairs. He was in an ugly mood and in a short time went out. Mrs. Stocker, Dunn, Brunner and Mary Tierney had milk punch and were enjoying themselves singing when Stocker came back. This was about noon. He then quarrelled with his wife and the witness saw him strike her in the face.

She screamed and ran into the street, closely pursued by Stocker. The witness and Mary Tierney followed them, and Stocker shot Mary Tierney, who fell bleeding to the sidewalk. While witness was bending over Mary Tierney she heard two more shots, and on turning around saw Stocker coming toward her with a smoking pistol in his hand. He said to her: "I have done it." Witness then saw Mrs. Stocker also lying on the sidewalk dying.

Miss Mary Tierney corroborated her mother. She heard Stocker say to his wife a week before the tragedy: "If you will not live with me, I will put you out of the way." Stocker and his wife had not lived together since the preceding October. After the quarrel between Stocker and his wife, Stocker fired at her in the front room. John W. Jepson and his son August, who live opposite to No. 90 Zabriskie-st., related how they saw Stocker pursue his wife and shoot her, she made one exclamation and died. Sergeant Michael Conlon, Sergeant Holderer and Captain McNulty detailed the facts of the arrest. Stocker did not try to escape, and admitted the murder. The State rested when the hearing adjourned.

ELIZABETH.

The special session of the Presbytery of Elizabeth to hear the report of the committee appointed to investigate the conduct of the Rev. Nicholas Nicolai, the missing pastor of the German Presbyterian Church, met yesterday afternoon in Westminster Church. The Rev. Dr. Buckle, of Elizabeth, presided. The committee reported that three charges of forgery have been preferred against the runaway clergyman and no defence having been set up the committee were led to conclude that the allegations were well founded. They also had other charges of impropriety made against the clergyman, but did not think it necessary to make any report at this time. They recommended that the pastoral relations between the Rev. Mr. Nicolai and his flock be dissolved and that the pulpit be declared vacant. This was agreed to by the Presbytery.

The Presbytery fixed on June 27 as the date for the missing pastor's trial. The Rev. E. B. Cobb, of the Second Presbyterian Church, was appointed moderator of the German Presbyterian Church until such time as a pastor could be obtained.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULTING JUDGE BAXTER.

Judge John A. Baxter, of Peekskill, was assaulted last Tuesday evening by Clarence Griffin, a merchant, while Baxter was talking to Griffin's wife at No. 166 Union-ave., the latter's home. Judge Baxter began a suit for damages of $5,000 against Griffin. He also swore out a warrant for Griffin's arrest on the criminal charge of assault in the second degree. Chief of Police Nickerson arrested Griffin and the preliminary hearing was given yesterday before Judge William Barton in Judge Baxter's court room. Griffin's lawyers were Eugene B. Travis and E. F. James, who was beaten by Judge Baxter last spring for justice. Baxter's lawyers were ex-Assemblyman David Wiley Travis and Clint a F. Ferris. Judge Baxter, who has been justice of the sessions eight years and justice of the peace twelve years, told how on the evening in question, while cut airing his blooded dogs, as has been his custom for years, one of them ran on Griffin's front stoop. He went in to call it off, and spoke pleasantly to Mrs. Griffin, when her husband came up and struck him. The assault was accomplished with fists, pistol and horsewhip. Dr. Harold Hyer, who attended the Judge, swore that his hearing and vision were much impaired, possibly permanently.

Griffin's statement was rambling and weak. He said that he had heard that the Judge was paying improper attentions to his wife. He had watched him with detectives, but could prove nothing. Mrs. Griffin said that Baxter had his hand on her ankle when her husband appeared on the night of the assault. Mrs. Griffin was heavily veiled and nearly broke down while on the stand. The case was adjourned to June 28.

MOUNT VERNON.—The commencement exercises of the Misses Lockwoods' Collegiate School for Girls were held in Willard Hall last night. "The Greek Festival," written and musically arranged by Miss Fanny Cranberry Levy, the tutor in music, received deserved commendation and applause. The parts were taken by the students, who have been several weeks rehearsing and preparing their Greek costumes. The Latin salutatory was delivered by Miss Mary E. Chambers, the essay by Miss F. M. Crosby, the class poem by Miss Telazeal Godney, and the valedictory by Miss Lizzie M. Lockhart. Miss Edith Gardner gave a recitation, Miss Leila Lockwood read the honor roll, and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Robinson presented diplomas to the following graduates: Misses Lizzie M. Lockhart, Mary E. Chambers, Hortense Lewis, Florence M. Crosby, Telazeal Godney and Edith Gardner. . . . The Village Board of Trustees of Mount Vernon, held their final meeting on Monday night. It was the last meeting of any village board. The Mayor and Board of Aldermen will take hold of affairs to-day. Acting Mayor Jared Sandford presided at the meeting on Monday night, and after the business was finished the trustees without a dissenting voice adopted a resolution in recognition of the ability, fairness and impartiality which had characterized Mr. Sandford as a presiding officer. The people will have occasion to recall the old board, so overwhelmingly Democratic. As trustee Howland said at the meeting, there will not be a cent remaining in the treasury after all the bills have been paid. The new Mayor will assume the reins of office to-day and the Common Council will hold its first meeting to-night.
