IN THE POLITICAL FIELD.

W. V. ALLEN THE NEW NEBRASKA SENATOR.

THE POPULIST CANDIDATE GETS 70 VOTES TO 59 CAST FOR SENATOR PADDOCK, REPUBLICAN.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 7.—William V. Allen (Populist) was elected United States Senator from Nebraska to-day on joint ballot of the Legislature. He received 70 votes, all the Independents and Democrats supporting him. His election was made unanimous.

The Republican caucus last night substituted Senator A. S. Paddock for John M. Thurston as their candidate, and in to-day's joint session every Republican except two voted for him, giving him 59 votes.

When the result of the ballot had been declared Senator Tafft (Rep.) moved to adjourn, but was roundly hissed. Church Howe (Rep.) sprang to his feet and made a strong speech in favor of courtesy to Allen and the honor of the State. A committee was appointed to escort Allen to the hall. He made a brief speech, in which he promised conservative action. Further than this he made no pledges. All the Democrats were congratulated by the Independents as soon as the vote was announced.

Omaha, Feb. 7.—William Vincent Allen, the next United States Senator from Nebraska, was born at Newaygo, Madison County, Ind., on January 28, 1847. In 1856 he moved to Iowa. At the age of fifteen years he enlisted with Company G, 32d Regiment, N. G. Iowa, in the War of the Rebellion, carrying a musket for three years. He is an enthusiastic Grand Army man. He studied law with L. L. Alinsworth, of West Union, Iowa, and nine years ago came to Hadison, Neb., his present home. In 1890 he joined the Populists, in the fall of 1891 he was nominated by that party for Judge of the Ninth Judicial District and was elected. Before going over to the Populists he had been a strong Republican. The newly elected Senator is a giant in stature.

INEFFECTUAL BALLOTS IN THREE STATES.

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 7.—The thirty-seventh ballot for Senator was distributed among eighteen candidates, half of whom received one each. Engle, with seven votes, headed the list.

Helena, Mont., Feb. 7.—The vote on joint ballot for Senator to-day was as follows: Sanders, 29, Clark, 21; Dixon, 12. No choice.

Cheyenne, Wy., Feb. 7.—It was a free-for-all race in the Senatorial contest to-day, all previous agreements being withdrawn by the Democrats. One ballot was taken, as follows: A. L. New, 9; J. D. Woodruff, 21; C. W. Paxter, 2; J. E. Osborne, 5; William Brown, 6; Major Wolcott, 1; S. T. Corn, 2; W. H. Holiday, 1; George T. Buck, 1.

ORANGE COUNTY'S STURDY REPUBLICANS.

Highland Falls, N. Y., Feb. 7 (Special).—The Republicans of Orange County are busily engaged in making preparations for the spring elections. It is the object of the leaders to nominate good men for all minor offices. The manner in which the late Presidential campaign was conducted in Orange County has elicited general approval. Louis F. Goodwill, who stands next to B. B. Odell in the party leadership, says that the Republicans of Orange County were never as well united or better organized than at present. Seven years ago every office-holder in the county was a Democrat. The Board of Supervisors was Democratic and all the indications pointed to a long period of Democratic misrule. By the energy and the foresight of the Republican leaders Orange County to-day is overwhelmingly Republican. He drew attention to the fact that the party ousted the Democratic Congressman and Assemblyman last fall, and that they controlled the Board of Supervisors by a majority of five.

SO CONGRESSMEN ELECTED IN RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 7.—The joint commission of the Legislature appointed to count the vote cast in the last Congressional election reported to-day the following result, showing that there was no election in either district: 1st District—Melville Bull (Rep.), 12,001; Oscar Lapham (Dem.), 12,961; Isaac S. Turner (Pro.), 752; B. G. Chace (Peo.), 217; N. B. Church, 1. IId District—Adin B. Capron (Rep.), 11,467; Charles H. Page (Dem.), 10,469; E. A. Lewis (Pro.), 1,011; H. A. Burlingame (Peo.), 161.

The count showed that 4,816 ballots were cast blank and were defective. The new election will take place on the first Wednesday in April, the day of the State election.

AT WORK IN THE XXIID DISTRICT.

The regular monthly meeting of the Loyal Club was held last night at its headquarters, No. 1380 Third-ave. Michael Sherry presided and Clarence Fountain was secretary. Fourteen new members were taken in, which brings the total membership of the club to over 100. A handsomely framed picture of John H. Gunner, Republican leader of the XXIID Assembly District, was presented by the club, Benjamin Oppenheimer making the presentation address, to which Mr. Gunner responded in a neat little speech.

THE HELL GATE CLUB TO GIVE A BALL.

The Hell Gate Republican Club held its regular monthly meeting last night at its clubhouse, No. 1,620 First-ave. George Gorlo presided and Samuel Brody was secretary. The meeting rooms of the club have just been hand-somely decorated. The principal business last night was the discussion of arrangements for a ball which will be given by the club some time after Lent.

LOYAL MEN OF THE XTH DISTRICT.

Notwithstanding repeated assertions in the Democratic press that the Lincoln Club of the Xth Assembly District was about to disband, it is plainly evident that the statements are false. The club last evening held a crowded meeting at its cosey quarters, No. 35 Third-ave., and it was seen that the defection of one man had no effect on the loyal Republicans who compose the club. Over $145 was paid into the treasury of the club. Henry L. Schrader was elected president, in place of John R. Nugent, who joined Tammany Hall. A ringing speech was then made by John J. Boslin, denouncing the underhand attacks of the club's enemies, and predicting success for the party when the eyes of the people are opened to Democratic falsehoods.

GEORGE F. ELLIOTT IS NOW CHAIRMAN.

The Kings County Republican Executive Committee for the present year held its first meeting last evening at No. 151 Lawrence-st., Brooklyn. There were thirty of the thirty-five members present. M. J. Dady, the retiring chairman, called them to order. The election of officers resulted in the unanimous choice of George F. Elliott, of the Twentieth Ward, as chairman, and Warren C. Tredwell, of the Ninth Ward, as secretary. Mr. Elliott has been a member of both the General and the Executive Republican committees, and has been active in the party for many years. He has never held any official place save as counsel of the Health Department. He was defeated for District-Attorney last year. Mr. Elliott is a lawyer with a large practice. He is an active member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church.

After electing officers the committee adopted a resolution asking the General Committee to refer all plans of reorganization to a special committee to report in April.

JUDGE MARTIN IN NO HURRY.

THE KANSAS SENATORIAL CLAIMANT HAS LITTLE CONFIDENCE IN HIS TITLE.

Washington, Feb. 7 (Special).—Judge Martin, of Kansas, who was recently chosen by the Rump Kansas Legislature United States Senator to fill out Mr. Plumb's unexpired term, appeared at the Capitol to-day and was introduced to a great many people by Mr. Peffer. It was remarked generally that Judge Martin did not seem to be in a hurry to assert his title to the seat to which he had been supposedly chosen to fill. If Mr. Martin was duly elected a Senator his term of office began immediately thereafter and he was entitled to a place in the Senate as soon as he should present himself for qualification. The Populist Senator-elect has shown no disposition, however, to claim what he, no doubt, insists rightfully belongs to him, and he has left Mr. Perkins in undisturbed possession of Mr. Plumb's seat for three weeks or more. It is said now that Mr. Martin will probably wait until the beginning of next session before presenting his credentials.

This hesitation on the part of the Populist Senator proves very clearly that he has no great confidence in the legality of his title and is unwilling to submit it to the inspection of the senate except in the confusion and hurry of the struggle which is likely to ensue after March 4 on the attempted reorganization of the body. In the midst of this confusion alone has Mr. Martin any hope of maintaining his title, for it is fraudulent on its face and it will undoubtedly be received by the Senate only under the stress of a partisan contest for the control of patronage and committees. The election of a Populist senator in Nebraska makes it clear that the Democrats will have a majority in the Senate after March 3, and this majority will be appealed to to seat Judge Martin. Mr. Martin's inaction now is a clear proof, however, of the inadequacy of his title and the wholly partisan character of the support on which he expects to depend for the justification of his claim.

BINGHAMTON'S MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

REPUBLICANS PRESENT A GOOD CANDIDATE—EXCELLENT PROSPECTS OF SUCCESS.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 7 (Special).—The nearness of election day, which comes on February 14, is apparent in the active work being done on both sides. The Republican party have this year as their standard bearer for Mayor George E. Green, a young man, but a veteran in good, honest political work. Binghamton is proud of Mr. Green. Self-made, progressive and successful in business, foremost in all that promises the city's advancement, he is a representative man. His business interests, his knowledge of Binghamton's resources and possibilities, his shrewd business tact, which have achieved success for his many enterprises, unite in commending him as a man eminently fitted for the place. As president of the Board of Trade Mr. Green has shown great executive ability, and placed in the front rank an organization that is a credit to the city and its business men. The nomination of Mr. Green was a surprise to him, and he reluctantly accepted only when assured that duty called.

B. S. Curran, the present Mayor, who has been renominated by the Democrats, is an exemplary official, but not one with advanced ideas or a thorough knowledge of the needs of a growing city, and it is no invidious comparison to say that in point of ability, familiarity with other cities' advantages, and a cosmopolitan experience, gained by constant intercourse with progressive officials in various parts of the country, the Republican nominee far outranks the Democratic.

Good judges predict the success next Tuesday of the Republican ticket; and it would be a public calamity and a menace to Binghamton's commercial supremacy should any other result ensue.

CHILDREN CHARGED WITH SHOPLIFTING

THE LITTLE PRISONERS ARE ONLY THIRTEEN YEARS OLD—MARCELLA DECLINES TO DESERT MAUD.

Maud Vleits, of No. 777 Eighth-ave., and Marcella Hunter, of No. 693 Ninth-ave., two little girls, each thirteen years old, were held in $300 bail each, by Justice Meade, in the Yorkville Court yesterday morning, on a charge of shoplifting. Private Detective Oestricher, of Bloomingdale Brothers, said he had often seen the Vleit girl in the store and suspected her. When she and a companion had entered the store on Monday he had watched them. Maud had worn a glove with the end of one finger cut off. She had gone to a tray of gold rings and while pretending to inspect them, had slipped four or five on her free finger. The other girl had carried an umbrella in which were passed two or three rings. Altogether they had taken eight rings, valued at $22.

The girls attended the same school. On Monday the Hunter girl was promoted for proficiency and good conduct. Each child accused the other of inducing her to visit the store. Marcella's mother was in court and she upbraided Maud, for influencing her child. Both girls cried bitterly.

The Judge committed the young prisoners to the Gerry Society pending their trial at the Court of Special Sessions. Little Miss Hunter did not want to desert her friend, and begged to be permitted to remain in custody with her, although her mother said she would procure a bondsman in the person of "Uncle Billy."

A SERIES OF DENOMINATIONAL SERMONS.

The Rev. J. L. Campbell, pastor of the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church (Harlem), has arranged a series of denominational sermons to be delivered during February, March and April. The programme is as follows: Feb. 19—"Why I Am a Disciple," the Rev. Dr. B. B. Tyler. Feb. 26—"Alexander Campbell," the pastor. March 5—"Why I am a Presbyterian," the Rev. Dr. J. S. Ramsay. March 12—"John Calvin," the pastor. March 19—"Why I am a Methodist," the Rev. Dr. F. S. Upham. March 26—"Bishop Simpson," the pastor. April 2—"Why I am a Congregationalist," the Rev. Dr. S. A. Virgin. April 9—"Jonathan Edwards," the pastor. April 16—"Why I am a Baptist," the Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur. April 23—"Roger Williams," the pastor. April 30—"Why I am a Christian," the pastor.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

There was more activity in wheat speculation on the Produce Exchange yesterday than has been shown for some time, due in a large measure to what were considered developments in Washington favorable to the defeat of the Anti Option bill. The market opened at an advance of 1-8 cent on reports of cold weather in the West and in sympathy with higher Western markets. A reaction of 3-8@3-4 cent soon took place, however, as a result of foreign selling, easier cables, an increase of 1,656,000 bushels in the amount of grain on passage and a slump by Wall Street houses, and after a period of nervousness the market closed weak at a net loss of 1-2@3-4 cent for the day. March options sold at 80c@80 3-4 cents, May at 82@82 3-4 cents, and July at 82 7-8@83 5-8 cents. The spot market ruled dull, and closed 1-2@3-4 cent lower in sympathy with options. The sales were 12,000 bushels—all for export.

Corn options were dull and weak, closing at a loss of 3-8@5-8 cent, on expectations of better receipts and an increase in the amount on passage of 240,000 bushels. Spot corn was dull but steady. Shippers took 16,000 bushels.

Oats were dull and closed a shade easier. The market was neglected. Whites were steady, with mixed a shade lower.

The closing quotations were:

Wheat—February, 79; March, 80; May, 82; July, 82 7-8 cents.

Corn—February, 53 5-8; March, 53 3-8; May, 53 1-8; July, 53 1-8 cents.

Oats—February, 37 3-4; March, 38 1-2; May, 39 cents.

Lard—March, $12 30; May, $12 30; July, $11 90.

The receipts at New-York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore were: Wheat, 78,522 bushels; corn, 249,044 bushels; oats, 113,159 bushels; total grain, 441,325 bushels; flour, 59,923 packages. The receipts at Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis were: Wheat, 178,829 bushels; corn, 320,651 bushels; oats, 183,287 bushels; total grain, 682,758 bushels; flour, 10,656 packages.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 7 (Special).—Although the weather was certainly as severe as any bull had expected, the rain of Sunday and Monday having been succeeded by zero weather throughout the winter wheat territory, to-day's market proved a bear rather than a bull one. There was something of a rush at the start, but Cudahy, the big holder, filled the market full. May, which started at 79 1-4, sold as low as 78 1-4 and closed at 78 3-8. Weak cables, the large increase on passage and an increase in the contract stock here of over 500,000 bushels for the week contributed to the weakness. There are now in the public houses here, deliverable on contract, 8,587,000 bushels. The Northwest had only 98 cars to-day, Chicago had only 234. There were very large receipts of corn, 625 cars. Corn also sympathized with wheat. Ream, who has been short a considerable line, covered possibly a million. The market got no other support. May sold between 46 7-8 and 47 1-4 and closed at 47 bid. Oats opened and closed at the same price, 34 5-8 for May. Lard led the entire provision market. May sold from $11 85 to $12 02 and closed at $11 97. Hately, who is supposed to have had Fairbank and Cudahy for customers for three months, bid the price up. It took no very great amount of business to effect the object. Nelson Morris was the best buyer of pork. All in all, it was a very small market. Of hogs there was the thing to be said which has been said each day for months—receipts were surprisingly small. They were only 6,000 at the yards; prices were 10 cents higher. The estimate for Wednesday was only 15,000. It looks as if the week's total receipts might be less than 100,000, which would make it the smallest week of the season. May pork sold between $10 67 and $10 50, and closed at $10 59. May lard between $11 85 and $12 02, and closed at $11 97. May ribs between $10 10 and $10 17, and closed at $10 10. Flax was very strong, 1-4@1 1-2c advance. May sold at $1 22 and closed at $1 21 1-2.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Feb. 7.—Wool market—The demand for wool has been good and the market has ruled firm. Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces have been selling at 28@29c for No. 3 fine for XX and XX and above and 33@34c for No. 2. Michigan fleeces are selling at 27@27½c, and No. 1 at 32@33c per lb. No. 1 combing at 35@36c. Ohio fine delaine at 32@33c. Michigan fine delaine at 30c, and unwashed combing at 25@27c for one-quarter and three-eighths blood. Territory wools on a basis of 77c clean cost for fine, 33@55c for fine medium, and 47@50c for medium. Texas, California and Oregon wool steady. Pulled wool sells well at 32@40c for super. Australia wool firm and in demand. Foreign carpet wool sells steadily.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

London, Feb. 7.—At the wool sales to-day, 15,731 bales were offered. The offerings were of good quality and included good Victoria grazings. Competition was active, buyers for the Continent, especially Germany, operating vigorously. Home buyers purchased less freely. A fair assortment of New-Zealand new clip sold here at extreme prices. Buyers for America took comparatively little. The total of their purchases has reached 10,600 bales. Following are to-day's sales in detail with prices obtained: New South Wales, 7,400 bales, scoured, 1s 3d@1s 5½d; do locks and pieces, 9½d@1s 1½d; greasy, 5½@10½d; do locks and pieces, 5½@7½d. Queensland, 1,700 bales, scoured, 9½@1s 2½d; greasy, 6½@1s 1½d; do locks and pieces, 7d. Melbourne and Victoria, 3,800 bales, scoured, 6½@1s 6½d; do locks and pieces, 9½@1s 1d; greasy, 6½@1s 6½d; do locks and pieces, 5@8d. South Australia, 800 bales, scoured, 10½@1s 2½d; do locks and pieces, 7@8½d; greasy, 5½@7½d; do locks and pieces, 5@6½d. Tasmania, 52 bales, scoured, 11½@1s 3d. New-Zealand, 1,000 bales, scoured, 8½@1s 3½d; greasy, 7@11½d; do locks and pieces, 4½@8½d. Cape of Good Hope and Natal, 700 bales, scoured, 1s 1½d@1s 3d; greasy, 5½@7½d. Thus far 146,000 bales have been offered and 135,000 bales sold, while 141,000 bales are available.
