PIANO-MAKERS DISSATISFIED.

THE MAJORITY OF THE EASTERN MANUFACTURERS WILL NOT SEND THEIR WARES TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Most of the prominent piano firms on the Atlantic seaboard have decided not to exhibit their wares at the World's Fair. Some of them say that they object to the system of awards, while others are not satisfied with the allotments of space. The following firms, members of the Piano Manufacturers' Association, will have no exhibits at the Fair: Steinway & Sons, Chickering & Sons, George Steck & Co., Decker Brothers, William Knabe, of Boston; Hazelton Brothers, Mathushek Piano Company, Behning Brothers, R. M. Benf & Co., Henning Piano Company, Pease Piano Company, Peck & Son, F. G. Smith, Stuyvesant P[illegible] pany, Weber Piano Company, Webster Piano [illegible] and W. E. Wheelock & Co.

The Piano [illegible] ers' Association, of New-York, held its mont[illegible] in Steinway Hall yesterday afternoon. [illegible] with presided in the absence of William Ste[illegible]way, the president. When the meeting was over, [illegible] secretary, N. Stetson, said that the meeting was [illegible] the transaction of routine business. He refused to [illegible] whether the question of withdrawing from the Fair [illegible] a body was considered at the meeting. He speaki[illegible] for the firm of Steinway & Sons, Mr. Stetson s[illegible]

"Our reason [illegible] or withdrawing is that we could not be fairly repr[illegible]ented in the space allotted us. We make over fo[illegible] different styles of pianos. The space allotted us, [illegible]le perhaps generous enough, is not sufficient to [illegible] play our wares. We shall do everything in our [illegible]ower to help the Fair. We have subscribed $25[illegible] to the World's Fair fund, and we wish every succe[illegible] to the Fair. Our sole reason for refusing to exhibit is that we cannot be fairly represented in the space assigned us."

Solomer & Co., J. A. [illegible], Fisher and Behr Brothers are apparently the only New-York piano manufacturers who appear to be satisfied. It was said, however yesterday, that the Fishers would follow the lead of the majority.

Boston, Feb. 14.—There is much dissatisfaction among the piano manufacturers of this section with the manner in which space has been allotted to them at the World's Fair, and if the New-York dealers at their meeting to-day decide to make no exhibit, the Eastern manufacturers will, it is said, follow their example.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

Moderate business in wheat options was transacted at the Produce Exchange yesterday, the sales just exceeding 1,800,000 bushels. The market early in the session was dull and irregular, opening at a decline of 1-8 cent and then recovering. Cable accounts were easy and there was a disposition to realize on the part of the Western houses. Subsequently a decline of 1-4@3-8 cent took place, but the final figures were unchanged from Monday's closing quotations. Receipts at the West were liberal and there was an increase of 2,536,000 bushels shown in the amount of grain on passage to Europe. March options ranged from 79 1-4 to 79 3-4; May, from 81 1-2 to 82; and July, from 82 9-16 to 83 1-16 cents. The spot market was firm but shippers had few orders, taking only 52,000 bushels.

Corn declined 1-8 cent early in the session but then advanced, closing at a net gain of 1-4 cent for the day. The option sales were 260,000 bushels, shippers took 16,000 bushels out of total dealings in 27,000 bushels.

Oats were dull and steady, but otherwise without feature in either the option or spot line.

The final quotations were as follows:

Wheat—February, 79 1-8; March, 79 5-8; May, 81 7-8; June, 82 3-8; July, 83 cents.

Corn—February, 42 1-2; March, 42 3-4; May, 42 1-4; July, 42 3-8 cents.

Oats—February, 33; March, 33 1-4; May, 33 3-4 cents.

Lard—March, $12 85; May, $12 82; July, $12 25.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 14 (special).—Wheat was weak early on the foreign and seaboard news. It finally rallied on the prediction of another cold wave and on crop damage reports. May early got as low as 78 3-8 cents. It closed at 79 cents. It was raining through Illinois, Missouri and Indiana. The signal service predicted a cold wave by Wednesday; that this cold wave would be a severe one was suggested by temperatures in the Northwest as low as 20 below. Illinois and Indiana sent further reports of wheat smothered by ice. The decrease in the visible supply, 417,000 bushels, was a disappointment; so was the increase of 2,500,000 on the "on passage" statement. Both finally were forgotten. Receipts here were 237 cars; the estimate for Wednesday, 236. Minneapolis and Duluth had 407 cars; the estimate for Wednesday, 236. The Northwest to-day was covering some May wheat and quoting it out for July. The clique is now supposed to have not less than 6,000,000 of the cash wheat here, and continues to absorb all the arrivals. Corn was weak. May sold as low as 45 5-8 cents, but closed at 46 cents. Receipts were 400 cars; the estimate for Wednesday was 520 cars. Cudahy is now very bearish on corn and is selling it on all the rallies. The New-York bull party appears to be giving the market no support. Oats were firm on the strength of No. 3, which has advanced considerably within the last ten days. May sold between 34 1-8 and 34 1-2, and closed at 34 3-8 cents. Provisions were easy throughout the day and closed at the bottom. Pork showed a drop from saturday of 50 cents, lard a drop of 27 1-2 cents a hundred, ribs a drop of 20 cents. It was altogether a matter of hogs. The Monday's receipts, 31,000, were over the expectation; yesterday's arrivals, 25,000, also exceeded the prediction. The estimate for Wednesday was 28,000 hogs. The figures made it look as if, instead of 120,000 hogs, the week's total would reach 140,000 hogs.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

There was a decided increase of activity in the crude petroleum market yesterday, with the result of higher prices. The complete monthly pipe line reports showed a heavy decrease in net stocks, and the supply above ground now is smaller than it has been in three years. Buying orders from Pittsburg, which has been the centre of recent petroleum activity, are said to be at the bottom of the upward movement. At the Stock Exchange there were sales of 5,000 barrels at 56 cents, a rise over night of 1 3-4 cents. At the Consolidated Exchange there were sales of 50,000 barrels in options at 55 1-8@55 1-2 cents. The close was strong.

No change was reported in quotations for refined oil.
