DR. MARY WALKER TALKS WITH BYRNES.

SHE SUGGESTS A WAY TO PREVENT THE INTRODUCTION OF CRINOLINE.

Dr. Mary Walker, wearing a cape overcoat which nearly hid her trousers from view, went to Police Headquarters yesterday and waited for an interview with Superintendent Byrnes. After talking with him for half an hour she went away with the air of a person having a weighty secret. She was not willing to tell why she had been to see the Superintendent. Mr. Byrnes said he had listened to a story without fully understanding it, and Dr. Walker had promised to tell it to him again another day. She had not been robbed, and no crime had been talked of in the interview. To another man at the Central Office Dr. Walker said that the men should discourage the wearing of crinoline by refusing to give up seats in the cars and elevated trains to women who wore hoops.

A FAIR FOR THE PYTHIAN HOME.

The Knights of Pythias of the State of New-York propose to build a home for the aged and indigent of the order and their dependents. In order to raise money for it, a fair will be begun at the Lenox Lyceum on April 17, and will last for one week. It will be known as the "Pythian Home Fair." At present the fund amounts to $15,000. A meeting for the purpose of organizing women's committees was held yesterday afternoon at No. 114 Fifth-ave. Several hundred of the wives, sisters and sweethearts of the members of the order responded to the call. Committees were appointed late last evening.

THE GERMAN MUSICIANS ARE ARTISTS.

A report was published yesterday that the German bands which are to play at the Madison Square Garden the last week in April would be likely to have trouble in landing on account of the contract labor law. James W. Morrissey, who is to manage the concerts here, said yesterday that the members of these bands would come as artists, not as laborers, the most of them being indeed soloists, and that their admission to the country had already been provided for in Washington. Opposition has been raised before from time to time to the admission of foreign musicians, but usually without result. The leader of the infantry band which is to come is Edward Ruscheweyh, and the leader of the cavalry band is Herr Herold.

THE CHICAGO TELEPHONE LINE A SUCCESS.

A successful trial of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's telephone line from New-York to Chicago was made yesterday afternoon at the company's building, No. 18 Cortlandt-st. A receiver was fitted up in a room on the second floor of the building. It was made of galvanized iron, was funnel shaped, forty inches in diameter and seven feet six inches long. It was wrapped in burlaps to prevent the "tin-pan" sound that would otherwise be heard. It was announced that Theodore Thomas wished to hear Miss Winnie Wetzler, of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, play a few selections on the piano, with a view to securing her services for his orchestra in Chicago. Miss Wetzler played several selections which Mr. Thomas said he heard distinctly. E. Plunket Greene then sang several songs for Mr. Thomas, who said he was delighted with Mr. Greene's singing. Mr. Greene sang Schubert's "Wer sich der Einsamkeit Ergiebt," and several English songs.

Among those who were present were Professor Alexander Lambert, Thomas Rowland Jordan, of London; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull Botsford, the Misses Seligman, Mrs. Cabot, W. R. McLaughlin, H. W. Frye, Thomas R. Taltavall, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carty and Edward J. Hall.

AN EX-ARMY OFFICER HELD FOR LARCENY.

Dr. Robert S. Adams, of the Presbyterian Hospital, in the Tombs Police Court yesterday, charged Emil Gombert, once a German Army officer, with stealing three gold studs. Dr. Adams and Gombert have been friends since they arrived in this country from Germany, in December, 1891. Gombert visited Dr. Adams three or four times a week up to November 30 last, when the studs were missed. About the same time a bond for $1,300 was missed by Dr. Adams, also. Three weeks ago Dr. Adams received a letter from Gombert inclosing a pawn ticket for the studs, which he had pawned for $5, and $6 in bills to redeem them. This letter aroused the doctor's suspicions. Detective McCafferty was sent from headquarters to arrest Gombert at his room, No. 312 East Seventy-second-st. There was not sufficient evidence to connect him with the larceny of the bond, but Justice White held him in $300 on a charge of petty larceny.

JUDGMENTS AGAINST BUSINESS MEN.

The Second National Bank, of this city, yesterday entered judgments for $57,747 against Robbins B. Smith and $43,894 against George H. Tilley, both by confession, on checks of Royal M. Pulsifer, who died in October, 1888, and R. M. Pulsifer & Co., of Boston, dated June 29 and 30, 1888, to the order of Smith & Tilley, which were indorsed by them and delivered to the Second National Bank, but which were not paid on presentation. Messrs. Smith & Tilley have their office at No. 12 West Twenty-third-st.

Charles W. Gleason & Co., pig-iron commission merchants, at No. 19 Liberty-st., yesterday confessed judgment for $1,022 in favor of the Coplay Iron Company, of Coplay, Penn.

Another attachment has been obtained in this city against Kitzinger, Tuholski & Frolichstein, clothing dealers in St. Louis, who failed some time ago, for $6,274 in favor of Cane, McCaffrey & Co.

THE WILL OF E. H. M. JUST FILED.

The will of Edward H. M. Just, the real estate dealer who shot himself in his office at No. 2,554 Eighth-ave., on February 3, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's Court yesterday. The estate is said to be a large one. Mr. Just was a German, and came to this country when quite young. He made his money in the real estate business. By his will he leaves $10,000 to the German Hospital, and the remainder of his property is bequeathed to relatives, friends and employes. He owned many houses in this city, and most of them are bequeathed to relatives in Germany. The residue of the estate goes to Elsie Baumann and Carl and John Just. They are all relatives, and live in Germany. John Just and William Hoegg are named as executors. Hoegg was employed as a clerk by Just.

MRS. LAWS SORRY NOW SHE PLEADED GUILTY.

John D. Townsend appeared before Judge Martine in General Sessions yesterday and asked for leave to withdraw Mrs. Bertha Laws's plea of guilty to an indictment charging her with forgery. She was sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years. Mr. Townsend read an affidavit by the woman, declaring that she pleaded guilty because her lawyer, Patrick McManus, told her that Judge Martine had intimated his willingness to suspend sentence if she would so plead. Mr. Townsend said that he, of course, did not believe that the Judge had said anything of the kind.

Assistant District-Attorney Davis said that there was a number of complaints against the woman for passing worthless checks, and that she had made her plea in open court without coercion. Mr. McManus told of the efforts he had made for the woman. He had interested several persons in her behalf, and one of them, a woman who was a leader in society, had asked the Judge for clemency for Mrs. Laws. Judge Martine had told her that he could not suspend the sentence, and she had told Mrs. Laws so in his, Mr. McManus's, presence.

The case went over a day to give Mr. McManus opportunity to present an affidavit.

CORNMEAL—Dull, but steady; Brandywine, $2.90; Western and Southern, $2.80@$2.90.

GRAIN—WHEAT—There was a decline early in the session of ⅜c in sympathy with the West, and with unloading by local longs. Cables were weak. Trading was largely of a "switching" character, changing early options for late ones—and foreigners were better buyers at the decline than they have been for some time. They bought June freely. This is a delivery that had not previously been much traded in. There was a slight rally in the afternoon, and the market closed at a net loss of ⅝@⅞c for the day. The visible supply statement was without influence. The receipts at interior points were 443,570 bush spring and 70,358 bush winter wheat, comparing with 799,965 and 86,668 bush spring and winter respectively for the corresponding day last year. At the seaboard the arrivals were 24,137 bush against 239,799 bush, and making the total receipts interior and seaboard, 558,065 bush, against 1,188,424 bush. The clearances from the Atlantic seaboard were 139,909 bush on balance against 187,719 bush for February 25, 1892. Spot wheat closed ⅜@⅞c lower in keeping with the weakness in options. There was only a moderate business accomplished, which was on export account. Graded stocks were well held. Shippers took 34,000 bush, including No. 2 hard winter at 1½c under May, f. o. b., store, 16 under; May, declined No. 2 red winter, 1⅜c under May f. o. b. store, and ungraded spring on private terms. Sales, 3,820,000 bush future, 34,000 bush spot, including No. 2 red winter, 77¼c, elevator, 78⅛c afloat; 77⅞@78¼c, f. o. b.; No. 1 Northern spring, 83⅝c; No. 2, 80¼c, and No. 1 hard, 77¼c. No. 2 February, closing at 76⅝c; do March, 76⅝@77⅜c, closing at 76¾c; do May, 79⅝@79¾c, closing at 79⅞c; do June, 79⅞@80⅛c, closing at 79⅞c; do July, 80⅝@81⅛c, closing at 80⅞c. Corn-Option were dull, and closed ⅛@¼c lower, influenced by wheat and the West. Spot lots were ½@¾c lower on private terms. Sales, 320,000 bush future, 50,000 bush spot, including No. 2 mixed at 51⅝@52⅛c, elevator, 52⅝@53⅛c afloat; ungraded mixed, 52⅝@54c; No. 3, 49½@51c; steamer mixed, 51⅞@51¾c, and No. 2 white, 52½c; No. 2 February, closing at 51⅝c; do March, 51⅝@52⅛c, closing at 51⅞c; do April, 51⅛@51⅜c, closing at 51⅛c; do May, 50⅞@51⅛c, closing at 50c; do July, 50⅛@50⅜c, closing at 50⅛c. OATS—Spot oats closed weak at a decline of ¼@⅜c, and options were dull and also ¼@⅜c lower; sales, 80,000 bush future, 65,000 bush spot, including No. 2 white, 40½@41c; No. 3 do, 40c; No. 2, 37⅞@38c; No. 3, 37c; No. 2 Chicago, 38½@39c; ungraded Western mixed, 37@39½c; do white, 40@45c; No. 2 February, closing at 37⅝c; do March, 37⅝@37¾c, closing at 37⅝c; do May, 37⅞@37⅞c, closing at 37⅞c; do white, February, closing at 41⅛c; do May, closing at 40⅝c; do May, closing at 39⅝c.
