NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

A woman named Bender was tried in Jersey City three months ago for stealing $645 from Vincent Wykorswickiey. Her defence was that her daughter Barbara, thirteen years old, had taken the money. Upon this information the Grand Jury indicted the girl, and yesterday she was convicted. She admitted taking the money, but said that she had given it to her mother.

A boy who gave his name as Samuel Van Buren, and his age as thirteen years, called at the City Hospital on Monday night and told Warden Osborne that he was extremely sick and would like to have a place where he could lie down and rest until he felt better. He said he had neither father, mother nor home. He had been at work for a man who lived at No. 11 White-st., herding cows, but he could work no longer. Warden Osborne took him in, but yesterday his case developed into smallpox, and he was sent to Snake Hill.

NEWARK.

Mayor Haynes yesterday appointed Samuel Klotz a member of the Board of Street and Water Commissioners, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of James Smith, jr., who was elected United States Senator. Mr. Klotz was sworn in afterward at the City Hall. He was Collector of Internal Revenue under Cleveland's first Administration, and was formerly prominent in the National Guard. He is a Democrat.

William Arthur, secretary of the American Watch Case Company, was badly injured last night in attempting to alight from an electric car at Jackson and Ferry sts. Several ribs were broken and he sustained other injuries.

RUTHERFORD.

The annual election of the Union Club, the leading social organization of Rutherford, took place on Tuesday night and resulted in the choice of the following officers: President, E. J. Turner; vice-president, M. W. Hawes; recording secretary, L. B. Parsons; corresponding secretary, R. B. Beaumont; treasurer, W. H. Stevens, jr.; governors, Carl Von Hartz and Major C. Waters. Mr. Turner is a prominent Rutherford business man, and the others, with the exception of Mr. Stevens, are New-York business men.

ORANGE.

Hermanios Toby, a liquor-shop keeper in Mitchell-st., Orange Valley, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. He had been playing policy pretty heavily lately and when the slips came in yesterday afternoon he looked over them and it is supposed in his desperation at his losses he fired the fatal shot. He was alone in the place and stood behind the bar when he fired the shot. His wife was at work in the kitchen and ran into the room. He was still standing, swaying to and fro. She ran up to him and wrenched the pistol out of his hand when he fell to the ground headlong and died.

Toby has not been considered to be right in his mind for a long time. He used to get up in the night and walk swiftly two or three times around the block and declare that his enemies were after him.

PATERSON.

David Campbell, jr., of Passaic City, died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Paterson yesterday. His right leg had been nearly severed from his body, and amputation was performed. His left arm was broken in three places, and he had cuts and bruises on the head. Mr. Campbell was knocked down and run over by an electric car while trying to cross Broadway at Main-st. on Tuesday night. Mr. Campbell was a well-known business man in Passaic, in partnership with Gilbert D. Bogart, of Garfield, in the real estate business. He left a wife.

Mrs. Patrick Shea, wife of the proprietor of a hotel at No. 10 Ramapo-ave., was knocked down by an electric car last evening and badly injured. Both of her legs will have to be amputated. She was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

HACKENSACK.

There was a meeting called at S. Baldwin's home by the athletes of Hackensack for the purpose of forming an athletic club on Tuesday. The meeting was well attended, and a club that will be known as the Hackensack Athletic Club was organized. The officers are: President, A. Hale; vice-president, H. Doremus; secretary, S. Baldwin, and treasurer, C. Wells. G. Gale captain of sports. The club expects to move in the clubhouse formerly used by the Hackensack Outing Club.

SHE WHIPPED A FLATBUSH EDITOR.

One week ago yesterday Miss Mary Hemmings, the sister-in-law of Victor L. Bedingfield, Editor of "The Flatbush Press and Gazette," purchased a riding whip and made the threat that she would horsewhip George White, an editorial writer on "The Supervisor," a Flatbush weekly publication, at the first opportunity, and last night she carried her threat into execution and horsewhipped White. The story of Bedingfield's editorial tilt with his rival, White, is now well known. White, in retaliating, brought Miss Hemmings into the controversy, and made some remarks in innuendo which resulted in her threat to horsewhip him.

Mr. Bedingfield was on trial last night at the Town Hall on the charge of highway robbery. Miss Hemmings had been subpoenaed in the case. With Mr. Bedingfield and his wife she was on her way to the court house to give testimony. The rest of the story is best told in her language as she gave it to the reporter: "It was just 6:30 o'clock and we were turning the corner of Clarkson-st., in Flatbush-ave., when White alighted from a car on his way home. I struck him full across the shoulders. I am satisfied now that I have visited on him the punishment he deserved, and I don't believe he will want to bring me into any more of his vituperative editorials."

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

PEEKSKILL.—Peekskill's typhus patient died yesterday afternoon at the Helping Hand Hospital. He was John Armitage, an Englishman. He had been an inmate of the hospital for nine days, but the case had not been reported by the attending physicians to the Board of Health as a case of typhus until Monday. Armitage had been in a contagious state for fourteen days before he entered the hospital. A large number of persons had been exposed to the disease.

FUNERAL OF COMMISSIONER L. J. HEINTZ.

MANY PEOPLE FOLLOW THE BODY TO THE GRAVE.

Hundreds of people attended the funeral of Louis J. Heintz, Commissioner of Street Improvements for the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards, which took place yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 1,259 Washington-ave. For more than an hour before the time set for the services Washington-ave., from One-hundred-and-sixty-eighth to One-hundred-and-sixty-ninth st., was crowded with the neighbors and other friends of the dead man. All the stoops and porticos also were occupied. Most of the stores in the neighborhood were closed, and in the windows of many were displayed draped lithographs of the Commissioner. Flags floated at half-mast from many poles in the district.

The body was placed in a handsome oak coffin, covered with silk plush and adorned with silver mountings. A broad silver plate on the lid bore the commissioner's name, the date of his birth and the date of his death. About the coffin, filling a large part of the room, were a number of beautiful floral designs, the offerings of friends and societies. Five carriages were necessary to hold the flowers when the funeral procession moved to the cemetery.

The services at the house were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Beiderbeck, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, of which Mr. Heintz was a member. There was singing by L'Harmonie Singing Society. Dr. Beiderbeck delivered a brief address, eulogizing the character of the commissioner. About 3 o'clock the coffin was closed and was carried to the hearse. The pall-bearers were A. G. Hupfel, Henry Lewis Morris, Charles A. Stadler, Jordan L. Mott, Ashbel P. Fitch, John C. De La Vergne, Peter Doelger, jr., Arthur C. Butts, Hugo Maul, Michael Hermann, Herman Ridder and William Endiman.

The order of the funeral procession was as follows: Carriages containing the floral gifts, members of the Schnorer Club, the employes of John Eichler Brewing Company, employes of the Street Improvement Department of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards, the Morrisania Maennerchor, L'Harmonie Society, the Central Turn Verein, the Melrose Leidertafel, the Youthful League, the pall-bearers in carriages, the hearse, surrounded by a guard of honor composed of members of the Schnorer Club, the carriages containing the relatives and friends. The burial was at Woodlawn.

Among those present were Mayor Gilroy, County Clerk Henry D. Purroy, Assemblyman Charles C. Marvin, Judge W. G. McCrea, Commissioner of Public Works Daly, Coroner John B. Shea, Port Warden T. M. Lynch, Deputy Commissioner J. A. J. Ronner, Louis F. Haffen, Jacob Seabold, Professor A. H. Dunden, J. Thomas Stearns, George Ehret, Jacob Ruppert, J. C. G. Hupfel, Charles Keary, William Ebling, Philip Ebling, Valentine Loewer, Alderman W. H. Schott, John P. Dunn, Joseph Kuntz, Henry Zeltner, Commissioner John A. Goulden, James M. Clanchan, Fordham Morris, F. R. Smith, Police Justice Simms, James Morrison, and W. Ebling, jr.

A special meeting of the Republican District Committee of the Twenty-third Ward was held Tuesday evening to take action regarding the death of the Commissioner. Appropriate resolutions were passed. The flag on the clubhouse was placed at half-mast.

A meeting of the Tammany Society of the Annexed District was also held at the clubhouse in Fordham. Resolutions of sorrow at the death of Mr. Heintz were adopted.

PRACTICAL JOKERS AT ELLIS ISLAND.

Several officials at Ellis Island tried to play a silly practical joke Monday. They succeeded in misleading Chief Clerk Van Duzen, Contract Labor Inspector Sliste and several others, who gave a false story in good faith to the newspaper reporters. The men with a humorous turn of mind sent a bogus letter to Contract Labor Inspector Karwowoski, purporting to be from Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle, informing him that his resignation had not been accepted. Mr. Karwowoski showed the letter to Colonel Slate, who is not especially friendly to officials of foreign birth. Colonel Slate became indignant because the Treasury Department had shown such a preference for Mr. Karwowoski, and told about the letter to his brother officials. The case was taken seriously by the other Ellis Island officials, but it is likely that the resignation of Mr. Karwowoski will be accepted.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.

The crude oil markets were without feature yesterday. Stagnation continued at the Stock Exchange, while at the Consolidated Exchange only 5,000 barrels were sold at 65 cents, the same price as at Tuesday's close.

Refined petroleum was unchanged at 5.30 cents a gallon in barrels, 2.80 cents in bulk and 6.15 cents in cases. Foreign quotations were: Antwerp, 12 3-4 francs; Bremen, 5.20 marks; London, 4 7-16d.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS.

The sales of wheat futures at the Produce Exchange yesterday amounted to 5,080,000 bushels. The market opened at a decline of 1-8@3-8 cent as a result of easier cables and weak Western markets. A further decline of 1-8@3-8 cent followed, due to realizing sales by local longs, foreign selling and an increase of 272,000 bushels indicated by the weekly Bradstreet statement of the visible supply. Unfavorable crop news caused a reaction and the market closed steady at a net loss of 1-8@3-8 cent for the day. May options sold at 75 7-8@76 5-8; June at 76 7-8@77 1-4; July at 77 1-2@78 1-8; August at 78 3-8@78 5-8; September at 79@79 1-4, and December at 82@82 1-2 cents. Spot wheat was steady with a fairly active demand for export, chiefly on old orders, however. The sales were 176,000 bushels on the spot, of which 152,000 bushels were for export.

Corn rulled dull in the speculative line and closed at a loss of 1-4 cent for the day on some months and unchanged on others. The sales were 355,000 bushels. The spot market closed steady at a decline of 1-4 cent.

Futures of oats declined 1-4@1-2 cent on sales of 110,000 bushels. Spot oats closed heavy at a loss of 1 cent for the day.

The final quotations were as follows:

Wheat—March, 74; April, 75; May, 76 1-4; June, 77; July, 77 3-4; August, 78 3-8; September, 79; December, 82 cents.

Corn—March, 53; April, 51 3-4; May, 50 3-4; June, 50 1-2; July, 50 7-8 cents.

Oats—March, 38 1-4; April, 38; May, 37 1-2; June, 37 1-2; July, 37 3-4 cents.

Lard—March, $12 25; May, $12 25; July, $11 45; September, $11 25.

The receipts of grain and flour reported yesterday at New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston were as follows: Wheat, 61,800 bushels; corn, 125,707 bushels; oats, 112,400 bushels; total grain, 300,096 bushels; flour, 68,101 packages. At Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul the arrivals were: Wheat, 195,856 bushels; corn, 224,375 bushels; oats, 234,487 bushels; total grain, 651,728 bushels; flour, 34,211 barrels.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, March 15 (special).—There have been a half a dozen times in the last fortnight when the bulls in May wheat have come to the protection of the price against raiders so promptly and so energetically as to make it very clear that there was a big concentrated holding in existence. There was such an exhibition in the pit to-day. A raid against May was started at the opening by Partridge and Linn, and some other shorts. They got the May price as low as 75 1-2, but under 76 cents brokers representing the bull crowd took the offering. They probably got 1,000,000 bushels before it became apparent where the wheat was going. The failure of this raid disturbed some shorts and caused some covering. Duluth is supposed to have covered a considerable line. There was an idea that the May bulls sold a lot of wheat for July. That, however, was not certain, for Kauffman, of St. Louis, was doing a lot of selling. The air was full of crop damage reports from Kansas, Missouri and Illinois, but the local trade was so much engrossed in the May contest that it did not pay much attention to them. There was a very much larger volume of outside buying of May. Bradstreet's increase in the available was rather a disappointment. Cables were not committed. The Northwestern receipts were light, 209 cars against 555 cars last year; but receipts here, 267 cars, were heavy. The Signal Service map showed winter conditions everywhere in the West, Southwest and Northwest. It is believed that the Northwest has considerably reduced its short line of wheat. At the same time it is believed that Partridge has an enormous short line in May, somewhere between 5,000,000 and 10,000,000 bushels. Corn was easy; May sold from 43 3-4 to 43 3-8, and closed at 43 3-4 cents. Provisions early were very weak. They all closed strong at the best prices of the day, and even considerably over the closing prices of Tuesday. The rally was partly the result of covering; partly the result of a vigorous buying by a bull interest.

FOREIGN WOOL SALES.

Antwerp, March 15.—A series of wool sales opened here to-day. There were offered 3,800 bales. The attendance was good and the demand active. Lambs' wool was keenly competed for. Prices were firm at an average advance of ten centimes. Following are the sales and prices obtained: Buenos Ayres, 1,500 bales at 65@185 francs per 100 kilos; Montevideo, 329 bales at 90@215 francs; Australian, 441 bales at 95@135 francs. The series will close on Friday.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

A Home without Fireplaces is like a man without eyes—Cheerless and unsightly. The stove is not sociable nor does the steam radiator glow with hospitality.

In family affairs what is sentimental is also practical. Domestic happiness is a practical matter, and the home is the shrine of sentiment. A Fireplace is the centre of the home circle, warms hearts and hands alike. Therefore buy seasonable things for the fireside.
