WRECKED BY ITS CASHIER'S STEALINGS.

THE MECHANICS' BANK OF NASHVILLE MAKES AN ASSIGNMENT.

Nashville, Tenn., April 17.—The Mechanics' Saving Bank and Trust Company made a general assignment this morning. The failure was caused by the shortage of John Schardt, the cashier, who is charged with a defalcation of over $50,000. The assignment shows about $200,000 assets in notes and overdrafts against $150,000 deposits and indebtedness to other banks. Schardt has assigned to the bank a life insurance policy of $36,000. Many of the notes and overdrafts counted in the assets are considered to be of small value. Other banks are steady and confident and there seems to be no uneasiness in bank circles.

A director said last night that if the stealings did not amount to over $50,000, the bank would pay the depositors in full, as it holds the bonds of the Guarantee Company of North America for $20,000 on Schardt, and there are undivided profits of $26,000. Schardt's speculations have been going on for over a year, but he was clever enough to keep them covered up. The bank until three or four days ago was looked on as a safe institution, and the stock sold in the market from $130 to $150. Schardt succeeded in deceiving the officials when they made an examination at the time of the failure of the Commercial National Bank.

IN THE BROOKLYN THEATRES.

Two plays were produced under the auspices of the Theatre of Arts and Letters, of New-York, in the Columbia Theatre, Brooklyn, last evening. They were "The Decision of the Court," by Brander Matthews, and "The Squirrel Inn," by Frank R. Stockton. The former is of only one act and was heartily appreciated by the audience. Mr. Stockton's play, based upon a story of the same name, the scene of which is the Onteora Park, in the Catskill Mountain region, also proved an amusing entertainment, as presented by a competent cast, in which was Mrs. Nellie Yale-Nelson, formerly a well-known amateur actress in Brooklyn. Next week "Lady Windermere's Fan" will be given at the Columbia.

The first presentation of "Lady Windermere's Fan" in Brooklyn was made at the Amphion Theatre last evening, to which it was transferred from Palmer's. The cast, appointments and scenery were the same as in the New-York production, and the performance was appreciated by a large audience. Next week Wilson Barrett will appear at this house in a number of plays.

A FAIR FOR THE PYTHIAN HOME.

A fair in aid of the Pythian Home of the State of New-York was opened in the Lenox Lyceum last evening. It is held by the Knights of Pythias, and will close on Saturday evening. The sum of $25,000 has already been contributed, and the officers expect that when the fair closes not less than $100,000 will have been collected. As usual, it will come from the pockets of susceptible young men. At the hall last evening youth was paying tribute at beauty's shrine, and paying heavily, too. The number of pretty girls at the fair was legion. About twenty-two lodges of the order were represented. Granville P. Hawes delivered the oration, and Frank J. Martin then declared the fair formally opened. Among those present were Frank J. Martin, Frank Meier, Charles H. Klee, John W. Van de Mosk, Henry Lemmerman, S. H. Pretzfelder, Miss Nettie Davis, A. B. de Freece, John J. Acker, John Brewer, William Laden, Miss G. Buchholz, Isaac P. Hubbard, Thomas W. Tomlinson, Irwin W. Ronk, Julius W. Frank, Nathan S. Levy, A. W. Silsworth, Jacob Windecker, Augustus Jacob, James F. Yearsley, Charles Spencer, Alexander Frankenstein, W. H. Rowlsby, Edward Gruter, Frank H. Palmer and Dr. H. Jarecky. Mrs. P. H. Moss and Mrs. A. Herzberg have given much time and labor to advance the interest of the fair.

LONG ISLAND SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

The Sons of the Revolution on Long Island will give their third annual dinner at the Montauk Club, Brooklyn, to-night, it being the eve of the anniversary of the battle of Lexington. Asa Bird Gardiner will preside and a large attendance is expected. The guests of the evening will be Colonel Loomis L. Langdon, 1st United States Artillery, commandant at Fort Hamilton, representing the Army; Commodore Henry Erben, commandant United States Navy Yard, Brooklyn, representing the Navy; General Stewart L. Woodford, Frederick S. Tallmadge, president of the New-York Society of the Sons of the Revolution; Colonel Floyd Clarkson, vice-president of the same society; James M. Montgomery, William B. Hornblower and Charles A. Moore, president of the Montauk Club. There is to be a reception before the dinner in the drawing-room of the club.

The following are the speakers and the toasts: "The Day We Celebrate," W. B. Hornblower; "The United States of America," General Stewart L. Woodford; "The Revolution of To-day," Norman S. Dike; "Sons of the Revolution," Colonel Floyd Clarkson; "The United States Navy," Commodore Henry Erben; "The United States Army," Colonel Loomis L. Langdon.

DID THE SCHOOLBOY DIE FROM THE BLOW?

HIS CLASSMATE TO BE HELD FOR THE CORONER'S JURY.

The police yesterday asked for the aid of a coroner in investigating the death of Amos Hawkes, twelve years old, at his home, No. 737 Third-ave., on Sunday evening. Amos attended the public school in East Forty-third-st. At the close of the noon recess on Wednesday he was returning to the school from his home, and encountered John Kerrigan, sixteen years old, one of his classmates. There had been no quarrel between the boys, but Kerrigan dealt Hawkes a blow in the neck and nearly knocked him down. It was said afterward that Kerrigan struck the smaller boy in sport. Hawkes did not complain of the blow at the time, and did not feel much injury from it, but in the evening he had a headache and complained of dizziness. Next day he was not able to go to school. Dr. Pope, of West Forty-fifth-st., was called to attend the boy, and said he was suffering from spinal meningitis. Young Hawkes continued to grow worse rapidly until he died, on Sunday night. Dr. Pope said the boy's illness might have been caused by a blow, but he thought not. The police said yesterday that they would arrest young Kerrigan and hold him for the coroner's action.

FOR THE DISPOSAL OF SCARSDALE SEWAGE.

The protest made before the State Board of Health at the Murray Hill Hotel in New-York, last Saturday, by residents of Scarsdale and Hartsdale, concerning the alleged pollution of the Bronx River by sewage from the disposal works of the White Plains sewer system, caused the White Plains Board of Trustees to convene yesterday afternoon. Dr. George H. Magness was elected a member of the board, and two engineers, to manage the disposal works at all hours, were appointed at a salary of $1,200 a year each. The small creek known as Davis Brook, which flows through the village, will also be widened and cleaned.

Commissioner Daly will start on another raid upon the nuisances of the Croton Watershed to-day. Dr. Edson, Health Commissioner, Chief Engineer Birdsall, and Henry T. Dykman, special counsel, will accompany Mr. Daly. Mayor Gilroy intended to go with the Commissioner this time, but the Brennan trial and the reception to the Duke of Veragua will prevent this.

ASKING THE COURT TO MAKE HER MARRY HIM.

Charles Elias, a young butcher, appealed to Recorder Harkins, of New-Brunswick, N. J., last evening to compel Sarah Connor to marry him. Elias says he is twenty-one years old, but he does not appear to be more than sixteen. Sarah will be seventeen in a few months. Some months ago Sarah promised to marry the young man, and named yesterday as the day. On Easter Sunday Sarah went to work for a man named Price, at South River. Whether the girl went away because she did not wish to marry has not been learned, but it is probable that such was the case. This belief is strengthened by the fact that when the young man went for her in a buggy yesterday she refused to leave her employment. On arriving in New-Brunswick Elias went to the home of Sarah's mother and informed her of the state of affairs. He then went to the Recorder's court. Mrs. Connor accompanied him, as did Edward Matthews, the girl's half-brother, and a girl named Carrie Beard. Mrs. Connor took out a warrant for her daughter's arrest. She charged that the girl was incorrigible and had left home without permission. There is considerable speculation as to the outcome of this peculiar affair.

A BIG REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

The transfer of the property on the southeast corner of Eighty-second-st. and Fifth-ave. to Henry O. Havemeyer was recorded yesterday. The purchase price was $285,000. The sale was made by order of the executors of John H. Hall.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE TAMMANY SOCIETY.

Tammany Society's annual election took place last evening in the big hall of the Wigwam. Three or four hundred members of the Columbian Order were present, and the ticket, made up in accordance with Richard Croker's instructions, was elected without opposition. No other ticket was voted. Sachem Thomas L. Feltner presided in the absence of Grand Sachem Gilroy. Sachem Croker, Sachem William H. Clark, Sachem Charles Welde and Sachem John J. Gorman sat in the front row and looked patronizingly upon the lower orders of warriors about them. The following is the ticket chosen, although the official announcement of the election will not be made until the meeting of May 12: Sachems, Hugh J. Grant, John J. Gorman, Charles M. Clancy, William H. Clark, Charles Welde, John McQhade, Richard Croker, W. Bourke Cockran, Charles E. Simmons, John H. V. Arnold, Bernard F. Martin, Thomas L. Feltner and Henry D. Purroy; secretary, John B. Metcalfe; treasurer, Peter F. Meyer; sagamore, William H. Dobbs; wisikhale, Daniel M. Donegan.

SHE OBJECTED TO BEING CALLED A WITCH.

Mrs. Geiser, of No. 28 Lewis-st., Paterson, N. J., appeared in Judge Van Cleve's courtroom yesterday afternoon and amused the justice and every one present by asking for a warrant for the arrest of one of her neighbors on the charge of having called her a witch. According to her story, Mrs. Sanford, the neighbor in question, had told many of her friends that the evil one had possession of the complainant. She pointed her out on the streets and repeated her accusations. The result was that the neighbors were afraid of the complainant and avoided her. The justice gave Mrs. Geiser a lecture and told her to avoid her tormentors, and if she was annoyed again to come to him.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

GENERALLY WARMER WEATHER.

Washington, April 17.—The barometer has fallen decidedly through the regions lying between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains, the greatest fall being in Eastern Nebraska and Western Iowa; the pressure has also decreased in New-England; it has risen slightly in the southeastern States, the upper lake region, and the North Pacific Coast. A general rise in temperature has occurred in all the districts except in the lake regions, Eastern Florida, the extreme Northwest and regions west of the Rocky Mountains. It is 15 to 18 degrees above the normal in Eastern Kansas and Nebraska. Occasional light showers occurred during the day from Massachusetts southward to the Potomac, in Western New-York and Western Pennsylvania, Iowa and Missouri. Fair weather is reported from the remaining districts.

DETAILED FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

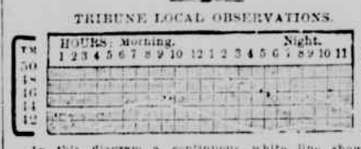
For Maine, New-Hampshire and Vermont, generally fair, except local showers in eastern part of Maine; light westerly winds.

For Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, generally fair, light westerly winds; slightly warmer except in Western Massachusetts.

For Eastern New-York, Eastern Pennsylvania and New-Jersey, fair; light westerly winds; slightly warmer in Southern New-York and New-Jersey.

For Western New-York and Western Pennsylvania, generally fair; slightly warmer.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.



In this diagram a continuous white line shows the changes in pressure as indicated by The Tribune's self-recording barometer. The broken line represents the temperature as observed at Perry's Pharmacy.

Tribune Office, April 18, 1 a. m.—Cloudy weather, prevailed yesterday. The temperature ranged between 40 and 49 degrees, the average (44¾) being ¼ of a degree higher than on the corresponding day last year and 1¼ higher than on Sunday.

We can't help this city to-day there will probably be fair and slightly warmer weather.
