THE GIANTS VICTORIOUS.

THEY SORELY DEFEAT THE CHAMPIONS.

A HOTLY CONTESTED GAME AT THE POLO GROUNDS.

GAMES YESTERDAY

New-York 15, Boston 6. Cincinnati 5, Chicago 0.
Brooklyn 11, Philadelphia 10. Baltimore 8, Washington 6.

It is seldom that local followers of baseball have an opportunity to rejoice over the fall of Boston's baseball champions. The admirers of the Giants, however, had that opportunity yesterday and they enjoyed it thoroughly. The Giants gave the bronzed men from Boston one of the most humiliating defeats which the champions ever suffered.

The drizzling rain yesterday made the holding of the contest doubtful. In fact, it was not decided to play until nearly 4 o'clock. Then the gates were thrown open and some 2,000 people who had not returned to their homes were admitted to the grounds. The visitors saw a game which they will not forget in a long time. Rusie and Stivetts, each weighing over 200 pounds, were to pitch, and a royal battle was expected.

On Friday the Giants were clad in spotless white uniforms, and they played a good, quiet game, as became their attire. The Boston men were dirty-looking uniforms and they played like "Indians." New-York's representatives were then defeated.

When the Giants took the field yesterday they changed their tactics. They looked for puddles to step in and they determined to be just as "tough" as their Boston visitors. Their pretty white uniforms were soon a sight to see." The "fun" started in the fifth inning when Carroll ran against Doyle at the plate. He apparently did not care whether he spiked New-York's clever catcher or not. The visitors showed their disapproval and then the Giants went to work in earnest.

"I'm all black and blue," said little Doyle, after the game, "but there is no use trying to play nice baseball with these people. They don't play that kind of a game, and when you meet fighters the only thing you can do is to fight them at their own game."

The New-Yorkers played a superb game, and Rusie pitched finely after the first inning. Cheers after cheers greeted the players. The cannonading in the sixth inning made the crowd act like a lot of Sioux Indians returning from a successful raid. Fuller, Doyle, Lyons and Connor won the honors.

Ward thought it advisable for the Giants to take the first trial at the bat and take their chances with the new ball, but it did them no good, for they were easily fanked. The Bostons were more fortunate, and scoring three runs, took the lead. Long, the first batsman, got safely to right field. He went to second on a passed ball. Rusie did not like this, and sent Carroll to first on balls. Duffy sent up a little fly which Ward should have got, but did not, and the bases were full. McCarthy sent a bounder to second, and was retired at first, but Long scored. Nash followed with a drive for three bases between right and centre fields, sending home Carroll and Duffy. Tucker and Lowe were out, and the crowd breathed more easily.

In the next inning the Giants rallied and scoring four runs, took the lead. Davis started the inning with a safe drive to centre field, while Fuller was patient. He was sent to first on called balls. Davis made a clever goal of second, as Long's throw was poor. Fuller stole second. Lyons hit to second by Davis, and beat the throw to the plate. Doyle then hit to left field, and Fuller scored. Rusie hit beyond second, and the bases were full. Burke struck out, and then a peculiar play was made. Tiernan drove the ball toward first. Tucker partially stopped it, the ball bounding to one side. Long recovered first, and Tiernan was put out, but both Lyons and Doyle scored on the play, Doyle's daring baserunning being loudly applauded. New-York was one run ahead and the crowd was happy. In the third inning the Boston men had the bases full with nobody out, but remarkable plays by Doyle and Lyons prevented them from scoring.

The champions took the advantage of some poor playing on New-York's part in the fifth inning, and scoring three runs, got a lead of 6 to 4. Long was sent to first on called balls. Carroll sent a slow bounder to Ward, which the latter threw past Connor, and Long scored. Carroll going to third. Duffy was also sent to first on balls. McCarthy hit to Davis, and Carroll was thrown out at the plate in spite of the fact that he tried to spike Doyle. Nash and Doyle each gained a base, and scored on a hit to right field by Tucker, which Tiernan made a rather lame effort to get.

In the sixth inning the Giants showed that they are still entitled to their name, for they gauged the mighty Stivetts's curves, scoring seven runs. The spectators filled the air with cheers. Such a cannonading has not been seen in many a day. Stivetts gave three bases on balls and the Giants' bats did the rest. Rusie, Tiernan, Ward, Davis and Fuller made hits, while Burke made a two-base hit. The seven runs scored gave New-York a lead of 11 to 6. The onlookers became wild with joy.

The Giants clinched their victory in the last inning by adding four more runs to their formidable score. Lyons made a hit and crossed the plate on Doyle's drive to right field for three bases. Burke's long fly to centre field allowed Doyle to score. Tiernan and Connor were sent to first on called balls and Ward made a hit. Tiernan and Ward scored on a hit by Davis, and the champions had received one of their worst defeats in years. The score was:

YALE DEFEATS WILLIAMS 10 TO 0.

Williamstown, Mass., April 29 (Special).—Yale defeated Williams on Weston Field this afternoon by a score of 10 to 0. The game was well played up to the fifth inning, when costly errors let in four runs for Yale. Yale's fielding was almost errorless. The batteries were Carter, Davis and Kedzie for Yale; Howard and Draper for Williams. A double play by Ide, Eaton and Towne in the third inning, and another by Hedges, Sims and Colgate in the fourth, were the features of the game. The score:

Yale	1	0	0	0	4	3	2	0	—10

HARVARD WINS FROM BROWN.

Providence, R. I., April 29 (Special).—The game between Harvard and Brown was witnessed by 2,500 people. Harvard won in the sixth inning by strong batting. Brown nearly pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth, and the last man struck out, with two men on bases. The score:

Harvard	1	0	0	0	0	4	0	1	1—7

A CLOSE GAME AT PRINCETON.

Princeton, April 29 (Special).—For the first time in the history of the college, the Princeton Freshmen crossed bats with the Harvard Freshmen this afternoon. A crowd was present numbering at least 1,000 persons. Both teams batted heavily, Harvard getting fifteen base-hits and Princeton eleven. McCarthy pitched for Harvard and Herr and Wilson for Princeton. Score by innings:

Harvard	3	0	2	0	0	0	2	1	0—8
Princeton	0	0	3	0	1	1	3	1	x—9

PRINCETON VICTORIOUS OVER CORNELL.

Ithaca, N. Y., April 29 (Special).—Princeton and Cornell put up the finest game played here in a long time, and it was not until the eleventh inning that it was decided. Princeton made two runs off errors and a third by a poor play. Cornell's first by error, and second, hit by pitched ball, stolen base, basehit and sacrifice hit. The score:

Princeton	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0—3

BALTIMORE WINS AT LACROSSE.

Baltimore, April 29 (Special).—The Johns Hopkins lacrosse team opened the season to-day by defeating the team of the College of the City of New-York by a score of 9 to 1. The team work was not particularly good on either side, but there was some fine individual playing. The only goal for the New-Yorkers was made by Whiting.

BROOKLYN'S NARROW MARGIN.

A VICTORY OVER PHILADELPHIA BY A SCORE OF 11 TO 10.

Philadelphia, April 29.—An errorless game, two home runs in one inning, free hitting and a good lead availed Philadelphia nothing in a ten-inning contest with Brooklyn to-day. The Bridegrooms began their half of the ninth with the score 9 to 4 in favor of the Philadelphians, but three singles, a double and two bases on balls tied the score. The home team scored one run in the tenth, but the visitors hit Taylor, who replaced Keefe in this inning, at will, and won with no one out. Attendance, 2,600. The score:

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Baltimore, April 29.—The Baltimore club opened the championship season on the home grounds to-day in the presence of 1,242 people. The Washingtons had the better of it up to the fifth inning, when the Baltimores, because of Mulvey's errors and a two base-hit by Stovey, tied the score and won the game. The weather was threatening. The score:

Baltimore	0	1	0	0	2	4	1	0	—8
Washington	0	3	0	3	0	0	0	0	—6

Basehits—Baltimore 6, Washington 13. Errors—Baltimore 1, Washington 5. Batteries—McMahon, Schmidt and Robinson; Duryea and Farrell. Umpire—McLaughlin.

Cincinnati, April 29.—Dwyer's magnificent pitching completely baffled the Chicagos, and they were shut out in clever style. The ground was wet and soggy and long hits and base running was almost an impossibility. Comiskey's men played steady ball all the way through. The weather was dark and rain fell most of the day. Attendance, 1,873. The score:

Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
Cincinnati	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	3	x—5

Basehits—Chicago 4, Cincinnati 8. Errors—Chicago 2, Cincinnati 3. Batteries—Mauck and Schriver, Dwyer and Vaughn. Umpire—Emslie.

Pittsburg, April 29.—The Pittsburg-Cleveland game was postponed on account of rain.

At Charleston—Charleston 4, Macon 1.
At Savannah—Savannah 9, Augusta 7; ten innings.
At Birmingham—Memphis 11, Birmingham 7.
At Chatanooga—Atlanta 8, Chattanooga 2.
At Bethlehem—University of Pennsylvania 17, Lehigh 4.
At Amherst—Amherst 14, Trinity 1.

INTERCLASS GAMES AT HARVARD.

SOME GOOD RECORDS MADE BY THE ATHLETES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

Cambridge, Mass., April 29 (Special).—The interclass games of the Harvard Athletic Association were held this afternoon. There were some good records made, the best, undoubtedly, being the one by Shead in the 120 yards high hurdles, when he broke the former Harvard record of 16 3-5, which he himself holds, covering the distance in 16½ seconds. Whittren, '95, beat the famous little sprinter Bloss in the hundred yards run. It was hardly a fair test, however, for Whittren stole on the pistol by at least two yards.

One of the prettiest races, and most unexpected in its results was the two-mile bicycle race. In the beginning of the last lap Pratt spurted and forged ahead. On turning the corner, however, he lost control of his wheel and was carried away off the track into some tennis courts. Treading his way between net poles and various other obstructions, he again got on to the track, and by beautiful riding spurted across the finish ahead of Davis, who came in some five yards behind. Merrill ran the 220 yards flat in 22 1-5 seconds; one watch showed an even 22. Bingham's quarter in 51 3-5 seconds, Fenton's mile in 4 minutes and 39 seconds, Bloss's jump of 22 feet, and Sherman's pole vault of 10 feet and 3 inches were the features of the games. Ninety-four won the cup, scoring 50 points; '95 was second, with 30. Following were the winners:

One hundred yard dash—Final heat won by J. P. Whittren, '95, in 10 2-5 seconds; second, E. B. Bloss, '94; third, L. Sayre, '96.

Two hundred and twenty yard dash—Final heat won by S. M. Merrill, '94, in 22 1-5 seconds; second, L. Sayre, '96; third, J. P. Whittren, '95.

440-yard run—Won by N. W. Bingham, '95, in 51 8-5 seconds; second, E. B. Hill, '94; third, F. H. Bartlett, '95.

880-yard run—Won by H. C. Lakin, '94, in 2 minutes 1 2-5 seconds; second, C. H. Hubbell, '93; third, P. Richardson, '96.

One-mile run—Won by D. W. Fenton, '95, in 4 minutes 39 seconds; second, A. Blake, '93; third, J. Boardman, '94.

One hundred and twenty-yard high hurdles—Final heat won by O. W. Shead, '93, in 16½ seconds; second, K. Brown, '93; third, G. D. Whitehead, '96.

Two hundred and twenty-yard low hurdles—Final heat won by H. W. Wheelwright, '94, in 26 3-5 seconds; second, G. D. Whitehead, '96; third, H. W. Jameson, '95.

Running high jump—Won by T. E. Sherwin, '94, 5 ft. 8¼ in.; second, W. E. Putnam, '96, 5 ft. 8 in.; third, G. C. Chaney, '94, 5 ft 7¼ in.

Broadjump—Won by E. B. Bloss, '94, distance, 22 ft.; second, O. W. Shead, 20 ft. 7 in.; third, F. Richardson, '94, 19 ft. 7 in.

One mile walk—Won by A. L. Endicott, '94, in 7 13¾; second, C. R. Bardeen, '93; third, F. Johnson, '95.

Two mile bicycle race—Won by F. S. Pratt, '94, in 5 min. 59 3-5 sec.; second, P. W. Davis, '93; third, C. N. Holmes, '96.

Putting the shot—Won by R. MacAllister, 33 ft. 7½ in.; second, J. P. Whittren; third, P. Whittemore, '95.

Throwing the hammer—Won by E. C. Cockrell, '95, 82 feet 3 inches; second, J. P. Whittren; third, L. James, '95.

Pole vault—Won by T. E. Sherwin, '94, height, 10 feet 3 inches; second, H. W. Wheelwright, '94, 10 feet; third, W. E. Putnam, '96, 9 feet.

WEST POINT CADETS BEAT COLUMBIA.

West Point, N. Y., April 29 (Special).—The Columbia College baseball team and the West Point Cadets played a spirited game this afternoon. The playing on both sides was excellent, but the Cadets were better batters and fielders than the visitors. The score was 8 to 2 in favor of West Point.

NOTES ABOUT THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

It is now understood that Lochatchee will represent the Rancocas Stable in the Brooklyn Handicap, and that Lamplighter will not start. Lochatchee's weight is 112 pounds. Lamplighter was handicapped at 125 pounds. Sims will ride Lochatchee.

Philip J. Dwyer has engaged Doggett to ride Leonawell in the Brooklyn Handicap. Leonawell's weight is 110 pounds.

A "SMOKER" AT AN ATHLETIC CLUB.

The officers of the New-York Athletic Club are making every effort to keep the members interested in the club. They have provided a series of entertainments, to be held at the clubhouse every Saturday. The club gave a "smoker" last night. An interesting programme was carried out. The club will give a "country circus" at Dicker's Riding Academy on May 18, the proceeds to go toward the building fund of the club.

SALE OF M. A. C. PROPERTY.

The sale of the property of the Manhattan Athletic Club continued yesterday afternoon at the boathouse, Eighth-ave. and the Harlem River. The property consisted of single, double, four and eight-oared racing shells and working boats, sweeps, oars and the furniture. The boathouse was also sold. It was bought by the Ravenswood Boat Club, of Long Island, for $1,550. One of the eight-oared shells was purchased by James K. Carroll for $130. Another was sold to the Atlanta Boat Club for $170. M. J. Goldner, City Clerk of Long Island City, bought the working boat for $25. To-morrow at 10 a. m. the furniture of the billiard room at the club in Madison-ave. will be sold.

FLOODGATE OUT OF THE AMERICAN DERBY.

Chicago, April 29.—Floodgate, one of the favorites for the American Derby, is seriously ill at Ogden, Utah. He is owned by Charles Fair, the young California millionaire, who is now in Chicago, and was shipped from Sacramento on Monday with the Fair stable, bound by direct route for Washington Park. Floodgate's trouble is of such a nature that his going to the post for the $60,000 prize has been turned from a certainty to a practical impossibility. A big lot of California money is on Floodgate in the winter books. Only last week Fair secured second call on "Snapper" Garrison's services for the Derby, and intended to have the premier jockey handle Floodgate in case Marcus Daly had no starter.

CHAMPIONSHIP TENNIS FOR CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 29.—Newport and Chicago will this year divide the honors of the National lawn tennis tournament. The World's Fair city has received the championship for doubles and the games will be played on the St. George's cricket grounds, from July 24 to August 3 inclusive. The grounds were recently secured. As this is to be the first lawn tennis championship ever held in the West great interest is manifested in its outcome. In addition to the championship in doubles there will be a full tournament in singles, open to the world, the winners to be indorsed by World's Fair championship honors. The doubles, too, will be open to all comers, and there will be no preliminary trial tournaments. C. S. Campbell and R. S. Huntington, jr., the present champions, will be on hand ready to defend their titles. Victor Elting, the Northwestern champion, has received assurances that all of the crack Eastern players will participate and that the tournament promises to prove the most interesting ever held in this country.

THE ST. LOUIS RACES OPENED.

St. Louis, April 29.—The meeting of the St. Louis Jockey Club began to-day at the Fair Grounds. The weather was a trifle threatening, but no rain fell, and about 10,000 people were on hand to enjoy the sport. The feature of the day was the Inaugural Handicap for all ages, and a fair field contested for the prize. Masny Brothers' imported Service won in great style.
