WHAT WAS DONE IN STOCKS.

Wednesday, May 10—p. m.

There was a little larger business at the Stock Exchange to-day, and, of course, the movement of prices was downward. The weakness of the market hatched a brood of rumors, but the conditions surrounding speculation were not materially changed. Money was easy enough, and the rates of foreign exchange did not indicate immediate shipments of gold. Recent buying for European account was admitted to be an arbitrage business. The industrial stocks were, in a sense, the weakest, but the enforced liquidation was extended to railroad stocks, and Missouri Pacific, Manhattan and Rock Island lost more than Sugar Refining, Chicago Gas, Cotton Oil or National Cordage. General Electric was exceptionally weak, and, with a loss of nearly 6 per cent, there was the usual statement that the company was not in need of money, and that a receivership was one of the impossibilities. Why Western Union should decline in the face of improved earnings, and Missouri Pacific fall below its intrinsic worth, are questions which may not easily be answered. It would appear that a fountain of stock had been struck, but the inside holdings must now be larger than ever before.

It is quite useless to advance arguments in favor of an advance in prices. The uncertainty about the currency is so great that no one may foretell an issue of Government bonds, because the present Administration has not finished its "object lesson." The stability of the currency must be maintained at all hazards, and possibly it would be better to have at the head of the Treasury some one who will not suggest that full legal-tender notes may be paid in silver instead of gold.

THE DAY IN THE BOND MARKET.

A sale of $500 coupon 4s at 112 7-8 was the only transaction in Government bonds. Asked prices for both classes of this issue were lowered 1-4a1-2 per cent. The closing quotations were as follows:

	Bid.	Asked.		Bid.	Asked.

State bonds were utterly neglected, and of city bank stocks the only sale was 85 shares of Metropolitan at 7. The bank failed in 1884, and the accounts have not yet been fully settled.

The general bond market was devoid of special feature. The transactions were a little larger than they have been recently, but the movement of prices was downward, and in some instances there would have been a larger business if the offerings could have been absorbed. Erie second consols closed 2 per cent lower at 94. Chicago and Northern Pacific firsts lost 1 1-2 per cent at 69, and Northern Pacific consol 5s fell over 4 per cent to 58 3-4. Philadelphia and Reading general 4s fell to 71, and second incomes to 28 1-2. General Electric debenture 5s suffered a final loss of 2 1-2 per cent, and many other issues were materially lower. Reference is made to our full report of bond sales.

Money on call was unnaturally easy. The highest rate was 2 per cent, and in the last hour balances were offered at 2 per cent.

The Clearing House statement was as follows: Exchanges, $126,321,104; balances, $7,087,359.

The Sub-Treasury was debtor to the Clearing House $1,247,328. Its net loss on balance was $787,359, made up by a loss of $976,686 in currency, minus a gain of $189,327 in coin. The day's operations included: Receipts, $2,824,307; payments, $3,611,666; resulting in a general balance of $77,002,484, consisting of $65,888,831 coin and $12,613,650 currency.

The Treasury bought 560,000 ounces of silver bullion at 93, 95 and 94.10 cents an ounce. The offerings were 871,000 ounces.

The United States Treasury at Washington received to-day $445,148 National bank notes for redemption.
