FIRED A VOLLEY AT THE TRAIN.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO ROB AN ATCHISON EXPRESS IN THE STRIP.

Topeka, Kan., May 20.—The telegrams received by the officials of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company in this city this morning give the details of an attempt by the Starr gang of desperadoes to rob the northbound express train in the Cherokee Strip about 9 o'clock last night. When the train reached Guthrie, Oklahoma, it was reported that the Starr gang was at some point on the track north of there and that an attempt was to be made to stop the train when approaching Ponca. The train was stopped and a messenger was sent ahead to reconnoitre. A reasonable time was given him to return, but as he failed to do so the train pulled out, passing the depot without stopping. Six of the Starr gang were standing on the depot platform and when they saw that the train was not going to stop a volley was fired into the express car.

The train stopped a short distance north of the station, near Ponca Bridge, and Superintendent Stockton, of the Wells-Fargo Express Company, and Deputy United States Marshal Heck Thomas left the cars and started back toward the depot. As they did so three of the Starr men rode toward the train and succeeded in getting between Thomas and Stockton and the cars. The train then pulled over the bridge and no attempt was made to molest the two men on foot. In the mean time the citizens of Ponca had been aroused and the three train robbers who remained at the depot were compelled to flee without their horses. They went a half-mile east, where a company of cavalry was encamped, and, stealing three horses, made their escape. The cavalry went in pursuit as soon as the theft was discovered. There are now several posses of citizens in the Strip hunting the train-robbers.

FAST TIME BY A CENTRAL "FLYER."

Buffalo, May 20.—The Empire State Express beat its own record for long distance running yesterday. The feat was performed with engine No. 903, a sister of the famous No. 999, and similar to her in size and construction. The engineer was the veteran Charles Hogan. The run of eighty-one miles from Syracuse to Rochester was made in seventy-one minutes, and the sixty-nine miles from Rochester to Buffalo in sixty-nine minutes. The run of 146 miles from Syracuse to East Buffalo was made in 141 minutes. At one point between here and Batavia a speed of 100 miles an hour was reached.

A VERDICT AGAINST THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

Windsor, Vt., May 20.—In the United States Court, in the case of William Johnson against the Canadian Pacific Railroad, a verdict was rendered in favor of Johnson for $8,125 for the loss of a leg.

A TEXAS BANKER'S GIFTS TO CHARITIES.

Galveston, Tex., May 20.—Enough is known of the will of Henry Rosenberg, the banker, who died here last week, to show he has bequeathed more than half his fortune of $1,000,000 to public charities. During his life he erected a public school building here at a cost of $100,000, and gave quite as much more in various ways. His will provides for the erection of a church, endowments for widows' and orphans' homes; gives $30,000 for drinking fountains; $50,000 for a monument to heroes of the Texas republic, and $25,000 for a public library. Family and friends are provided for to the amount of $400,000. Gifts to Galveston aggregate $520,000.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE DEBTS

A SETTLEMENT WITH CREDITORS.

DR. TALMAGE'S GIFTS—HOPES FOR BETTER TIMES.

The officers of the Brooklyn Tabernacle met the creditors of Dr. Talmage's church at the Bible House, this city, yesterday afternoon and came to a satisfactory agreement, which definitely disposes of the possibility of Dr. Talmage resigning because of the heavy debt which has hung over the church for so long a time. Dr. Talmage announced a few days ago that he would be obliged to sever his connection with the Tabernacle unless the debt was at once relieved. After yesterday's meeting an official statement was made, a part of which follows:

"The incubus of debt which has hung like a nightmare over the Brooklyn Tabernacle for many months was removed yesterday, and the much mooted question of the Rev. Dr. Talmage's resignation from his twenty-four years' pastorate was effectually settled in the negative. This new aspect of affairs was brought about by the payment or claims representing an aggregate of about $90,000.

"All of the creditors, with the exception of a few who were out of town, met at the offices of 'The Christian Herald,' in the Bible House, Ninth-st. and Fourth-ave. At a previous meeting a large majority had already agreed to the basis of settlement proposed by the Rev. Chandler A. Oakes, assistant pastor of the Tabernacle, and yesterday there was not a single voice heard in dissent to the arrangement. Checks were signed by Dr. Louis Klopsch, of 'The Christian Herald,' and handed to each creditor in turn, those for out-of-town creditors being sent to them by mail. Among the leading creditors who were paid yesterday were the following: Snook & Son, architects, $16,000; Overington, builder, $20,000; Jardine, organs, $14,000; Howell & Saxton, heaters, $3,541; New-York Architectural Terra Cotta Co., $2,300; James Dougherty, glass, $2,800.

"Dr. Talmage really was the largest contributor in the whole matter. In addition to his check of $10,000, he gave fully $20,000 toward the settlement. For one claim which he held against the Tabernacle of $10,400 for money advanced, he accepted a check for $1 to make the settlement legal, the check bearing on its face the words 'in full for all claims against the Brooklyn Tabernacle to date,' with a similar indorsement on the back to be signed by the payee. All the checks paid to the creditors bore the same indorsement. One of the creditors, whose claim amounted to $500 and whose percentage was $115, on receiving his check wrote his name on the back and laid it down with $85 in bills. Pushing the whole over to the paying clerk, he remarked that he had for some time intended to make a contribution to the Tabernacle and he thought the present was as good a time as any.

"This settlement makes the Tabernacle's prospects very bright. Mr. Oakes believes that the income from the Tabernacle, over and above expenses, will be large enough to admit of the formation of a sinking fund, which in time can be utilized as a means of wiping out the $125,000 mortgage held by Mr. Russell Sage, and of ultimately meeting the moral obligation that exists of paying dollar for dollar of the balances waived by the creditors under the present adjustment. As the financial showing now stands, the Tabernacle by yesterday's proceeding, has been relieved from a debt of $90,000, thus reducing its entire indebtedness to about $160,000, relieving the corporation from a prospective condition of hopeless commercial bankruptcy and securing a valuable equity in the Tabernacle building.

"The floating debt when the settlement proceedings were begun was about $132,000. It is expected during the coming week that there will be sufficient funds on hand to pay at least a part of the balances due to the organist, sexton, cornetist and assistant pastor."

SURRENDERED AFTER A LONG EXILE.

Boston, May 20.—Walter Paine, third, of Fall River, surrendered to the authorities to-day and was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000, his son, Sydney B. Paine, of Providence, and his son-in-law, Ray Greene Helling, of New-Bedford, being the bondsmen. Paine was agent and treasurer of the American Linen Company in Fall River, and it was alleged against him that he falsified the books of the corporation to cover up illegal transactions. His offence was committed about the date of the Chace-Hathaway defalcations, and shortly after it became known he made his escape to Montreal, where he has since been interested in a cotton mill. It is stated upon undoubted authority that the cases against him will probably be dismissed. No official action can be had until the June term of the Superior Court, but steps will then be taken. The reasons for the action will be Paine's long exile, fourteen years; the character of the petition in his behalf presented to District-Attorney Knowlton, which was signed by every person living who suffered by Paine's embezzlement, and the advanced age of the man, which is about seventy years.

THE KANSAS COAL MINERS' STRIKE BEGUN.

Weir City, Kan., May 20.—The strike of coal miners, which has been threatening in this district for about a month, is now on. The strikers declare that all the 9,000 miners in the State will soon be idle. The cause of the strike is the new schedule of prices brought about by the new State screen law. The miners claim that the new schedule is a reduction from the old prices, while the operators contend that the pay is the same as before or slightly better.

TALK WITH MORLEY ROBERTS

HE SAYS HE LOVES THIS COUNTRY.

THE ENGLISH WRITER GIVES HIS VIEWS ON MANY LIVE SUBJECTS.

"As well might you expect to dam the bay by throwing overboard the cinders from one of the great ocean steamers as to suppose that the admitted wrongs in the Government of this country could interrupt the onward march of the Republic." This is what Sir Edwin Arnold said to a reporter of The Tribune when asked his opinion about America during his last visit to this country.

Yesterday another Englishman, just arrived here, not so well known as the author of "The Light of Asia," though a writer of considerable note and popularity, was approached by the reporter on the same subject. "My acquaintance with the United States," he said, "has dispelled all prejudice, and I see her as she really is. You will, I think, after making allowance for their stubbornness, admit that in the last analysis the English are a fair-minded people. Now if they could but see America as I see her they would feel as I do. We have a common language; there is not a very wide dissimilarity in our institutions, and to a considerable extent the traditions of the two countries proceed on parallel lines. Why shouldn't Englishmen be proud of America? Why shouldn't they even love her? I love her."

"Do they love her?"

"They do; not perhaps her aristocracy, but her people love her. I am a republican."

It was Morley Roberts who said this. Mr. Roberts is a writer of books of fiction, and has had a varied career, full of exciting incidents. He is about thirty-three years old, and is a combination of English, Irish and Welsh. Ten years ago he was a Government clerk in the India office in London, until his health broke down. Then in response to medical advice he was obliged to travel, and for several years subsequent to this he did travel, almost all of the time in this country. He is again in America after an absence of several years to "brace up" once more and incidentally gather materials for fresh excursions in the field of romance.

"I am fairly well acquainted," said he, modestly, "with this country west of Chicago; but east of that spot—excuse me for calling Chicago a spot—my knowledge is of the most meagre description. For that West which I know I shall say a word. I think that the real Western American, who is not smitten with the overmastering desire to make money, is one of the finest types of humanity to be found anywhere to-day. But you will have to be careful. The question of the colored race is not yet by any means settled."

"How will it be settled?"

"Ah," said Mr. Roberts, gravely, "that is the rock upon which you Americans split. The sword has been invoked in the deadliest conflict that ever took place among the English-speaking race, and you have reached as near to a solution by that means as you ever will. In this case of the black man you can never again unsheathe the sword."

"What then?"

"Let it alone. You can never raise the negro to the intellectual level of the white man; but if you educate him his presence will be rendered at least tolerable in the South; and time works wonders." Mr. Roberts has seen colored life in many aspects in some of the southern States.

Mr. Roberts has published two volumes of poems, and these are some of the books which he has written: "Land Travel and Seafaring," "The Western Avernus," "King Billy of Ballarat," "The Reputation of George Saxon," "The Mate of the Van Couver" and "In Low Relief," his last.

"How does Gladstone's offer of the Laureateship look to Ruskin seem in your eye?" he was asked.

"A most utterly ridiculous thing. In the first place, Ruskin is not a poet; and while he has written some of the most magnificent prose in the English language, his poetry has been absolutely beneath contempt, for matter as well as technique. There are only two men in England upon whom I would suppose the honor should have fallen—excepting, of course, Swinburne and Morris, who, for reasons which are well known, Mr. Gladstone would not think of appointing—and these are Rudyard Kipling and William Watson."

"About Mr. Astor's venture in English journalism?" hinted the reporter.

"About that," said Mr. Roberts, "there is little for me to remark, unless I be permitted to say that the first number of his magazine is not equal to Mr. Astor himself. His own article is the best production there is in that issue. But I suppose it will improve, and that he is a permanent fixture among us."

"Being a republican, I suppose you are a Home Ruler, Mr. Roberts?" the reporter went on.

"With all my heart and soul," said he. "I believe in Home Rule for Ireland because I am convinced that it is right. My sympathy, but not my convictions, received, however, a serious wrench during the unfortunate Parnell episode and the sad and untimely death of that noble man."

"Of course you have followed with interest the proceedings of the Arbitration Commission in Paris about the Behring Sea?"

"Of course I have," said Mr. Roberts, "as who shouldn't, Englishman and American alike? In fact, the intelligent people of every civilized nation are looking on. I hope that America will win. If this indiscriminate slaughter of seals should be sanctioned they would all soon be killed."

"Has England any designs on the Sandwich Islands?"

"Not she," said Mr. Roberts, contemptuously. "Why should she? The Islands, for all practical purposes, belong to the United States now. America's behavior seems to have been anything but precipitate in this matter. These islands naturally belong to America."

Mr. Roberts does a good deal of hard work and he is a rapid writer. He says that T. P. O'Connor gave him an order for three stories for his paper, and he gave him 30,000 words in a week. He dictated them all. He has three unpublished stories now which he will soon put in the press. He has views about the abolition of monarchy in Europe and the manner in which it may be brought about, that are, to say the least, original.

"If you stop immigration to this country," he said, "where else can the people go? The greater number of them will be forced to remain at home, and then they will become so pinched and poverty-stricken that desperation is bound to ensue in the principal countries of Europe—and then the deluge."

A GREAT GATHERING OF DUNKARDS.

Muncie, Ind., May 20.—The Dunkards of the United States are closing in on Muncie. Not less than 25,000 will be in attendance at the big meeting on Sunday. The meeting proper was to have begun its seven days' session to-night, but the unexpected crowds of the brethren here yesterday caused the initial meeting to be held at midday. The address was made by the Rev. J. S. Florey, of California. Regular services will be conducted three times each day. A large tabernacle, with a capacity for 6,000, has been constructed. A dining-hall that will seat over 1,000 has also been erected. Besides these, lunch stands and other public comfort buildings have been erected for the accommodation of the brethren. The men wear the broad-brimmed hat, while the women wear the bonnet of old style. The men greet each other with kiss and caress, but no osculatory manifestations take place between the opposite sexes. The legislative department of the organization is in the hands of the ordained elders of the Church, a number of whom are elected annually to serve on what is known as the standing Committee. This committee held a session yesterday and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: David F. Price, moderator; J. G. Royer, writing clerk; John Wise, reading clerk; H. E. Light, doorkeeper.

THE PRINT CLOTH MARKET.

Fall River, Mass., May 20 (Special).—The cloth market has been firm during the last few days, and transactions have been numerous. The demand has been for old goods principally, and some sales have been made on a basis of 3 3-16 cents for 64 x 64's. The stock has been decreased 1,000 pieces, and there is not likely to be any great accumulation for some weeks at least. Today the gossip in manufacturing circles bears wholly on the surrender of Walter Paine, third ex-treasurer of the American Linen Mills. He was one of the defaulting mill treasurers in the late seventies, and escaped to Canada, where he has been running a cotton mill. He was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000, his son and son-in-law furnishing the securities. The surrender occurred in Boston to-day, and was conducted by Andrew J. Jennings (Lizzie Borden's attorney). The weekly cloth statement is as follows: Production, 190,000 pieces; deliveries, 191,000; stock on hand, 58,000; last week's stock, 59,000; sales, 130,000, of which 110,000 were odds; 11,000 64 x 64's; 16,000 spots, and 114,000 futures. Sales for weekly deliveries: May, 170,000; June, 144,000; July, 53,000; August, 35,000; September, 22,000; October, 14,000; November, 12,000; December, 11,000. The market is firm and the price is 3 1-8 cents for 64 x 64's.

A SUCCESSFUL TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN.

Middletown, Conn., May 20 (Special).—Thomas E. Murphy, the temperance worker, has captured the city by his enthusiastic campaign. The series of meetings was opened on Wednesday evening, and the interest has grown so fast that there is no hall in the city large enough to accommodate all who flock to hear Mr. Murphy. Over 1,000 have already signed the pledge and donned the blue ribbon. Mayor D. Luther Briggs was the first signer. With him were President Raymond, of Wesleyan University; Professor Van Vleck, Professor Van Benschoten, George H. Hurlbut, Professor W. P. Bradley, the Hon. Gaston T. Hubbard and others of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens as leaders in this movement. One of the most important factors in the work is Mrs. Murphy, the wife of the speaker. She enters heartily into the labors of her husband, and every evening she and a corps of girls are kept busy tying blue ribbons into the buttonholes of those who respond to Mr. Murphy's eloquent appeals. Mr. Murphy has just closed a successful campaign in New-Britain. The people there became so enthusiastic over him and Mrs. Murphy that many followed them to this city. Last night a special train was required to bring them from New-Britain, and after they got here a large number were unable to get into the church owing to the crowds that had gathered long before the hour announced for the meeting. To-morrow afternoon Mr. Murphy will hold a meeting for men only.

RECEIVERS SUING FOR $750,000.

Kansas City, Mo., May 20.—Felix La Force and W. H. Clarke, receivers for the defunct Winner Building Company, which was carried down with the disastrous failure of the Winner Investment Company two years ago, have filed suit at Independence against the Kansas City directors of the company for $750,000. This is the first of a series of suits to be brought by the receivers here and outside of Missouri, they having been unable to discover anything concerning the disposition made of half of the capital stock.

JUDGE JACKSON TO RETIRE.

Ringwood, W. Va., May 20.—It is reported that Judge John Jackson, United States District Judge for West Virginia, will soon retire on account of his advanced age, and that President Cleveland will appoint Senator Faulkner in his place. In that event it is thought that Governor McCorkle will appoint either Captain John Sheridan, of Piedmont, or Colonel Joe Chilton to succeed Faulkner.

First trip of New-York Central's Exposition Flyer May 28. Leave New-York 3 p. m., arrive Chicago next morning 10 o'clock.

Another week of Extraordinary Offerings.

Of Ginghams At a Shilling

our stock, already peerless, is augmented by a recent purchase of Finest Silk-Finish Zephyrs, 32 inches wide, for which early season's price was 20 cents and 25..... Compare fineness and finish of the cloth, and judge if you can elsewhere find the match for less than double showing hundreds of styles in every desirable color with plains to match or contrast.

Of Ginghams at a Shilling

At FIFTEEN CENTS.

Finest Lace, Grenadine Openwork, and Satin Plaid and Stripe Ginghams—best styles—sold as "seconds." Scrutiny fails to reveal aught but occasional slips in weaving—but which slips the price from 30 cents to half.

See the SCOTCH ZEPHYRS and GINGHAMS.
