REAL ESTATE.

BUSINESS AT THE EXCHANGES.

There was no business transacted in the auction market yesterday, the only sales advertised being adjourned by the auctioneer. The sale of Nos. 67 and 69 East One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st., northeast corner of Madison-ave., was adjourned until August 11, and the sale of a dwelling and lot on One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st., west of Lenox-ave., was adjourned until August 15.

Transactions at private contract seem to be the most important just now. The site of the old Astor homestead at No. 585 Broadway, running through to Mercer-st., 172 feet north of Prince-st., has been sold to Operator Wronkow for $145,000. The property has a frontage of 28 feet on Broadway and 25 on Mercer-st., the total depth being 200; the building is three stories on Broadway and one story in the rear.

The following, at private contract, has been sold: No. 44 West Seventy-fifth-st., four-story dining-room extension house, 20 feet wide, for J. B. Smith for $42,500. Also for the same owner, a similar dwelling, No. 50 West Seventy-fifth-st., for $42,500. For the estate of Mary Miller, deceased, No. 22 West Forty-ninth-st., Columbia College leasehold, four-story dwelling on a lot 25x100.

In the sale reported in yesterday's Tribune of the northeast corner of Ninety-first-st. and West End-ave., vacant plot 44x100, it has been learned that the consideration was $40,000.
