WHAT WAS DONE IN STOCKS.

Friday, September 1—p. m.

There was little doing in the stock market to-day, but in the last few minutes sharp advances were made by the active stocks. It was the end of the business week, and evidently the board-room traders were disposed to close contracts on the eve of a protracted interruption of business. To-morrow is by law a half-holiday in the State, and on account of Labor Day business will not be fully resumed until Tuesday. There was consequently a logical reason for the excessive dulness. For the smart upward turn in the final dealings there was no better pretext than the reasonable certainty that the weekly bank statement will be extraordinarily favorable. The receipts of gold from Europe and currency from the interior, together with the disbursements by the Treasury and the increase in bank-note circulation, indicate one of the best bank statements ever published. It will be surprising if the deficit under the 25-per-cent rule is not wiped out, and a small surplus reserve established. If the gain in absolute reserve does not nearly approach $8,000,000 popular expectation will be disappointed. Hopeful anticipations were combined with other causes to make the closing strong.

There was not much change in the general situation. Money was easier, but the disappearance of a premium on currency precluded further imports of gold, and apparently no further relief may be expected from this source. The Senate will take its own time in discussing the silver question, and perhaps its decision will not be rendered in a month. In that time discussion about the tariff may be aroused, and the special session of Congress prolonged until the regular meeting. It is becoming daily clearer that an issue of bonds must be made to protect the integrity of the National currency, but it is not certain whether this measure will be carried before the regular session. An issue of bonds, either for purchases of silver bullion or to meet deficiencies in the revenue, is a spectacle to be dreaded. Issued for the maintenance of the Union, bonds were accepted gladly; to buy gold in exchange for silver they may be somewhat discredited. There is no doubt that they can be marketed, and, in fact, Europe is waiting to take them, but that does not remove the stigma from the new issue. The Senate is dawdling over a matter of supreme importance.

The variations and business in stocks were hardly worth comment. Sugar Refining rose about 3 per cent for speculative reasons, and General Electric 2 1-2 per cent for no better reason than that the company had not been placed in the hands of a receiver. St. Paul gained as much because it was believed once more that the dividend, which is near at hand, would be declared and paid as usual. Final variations invariably were advances in the leading stocks of from 1 to 3 per cent, but these were made in the final dealings, and for that reason may not have been significant.

THE DAY IN THE BOND MARKET.

A few odd lots of Government bonds were sold at prices considerably above recent bids. They gave strength to the market, and bids for the 4s were raised 1-2 per cent. Final quotations were as follows:

	Bid.	Asked.		Bid.	Asked.

There were still no transactions in the State issues. Of the city bank stock Western National sold (10) at 167.

The general bond market was dull and irregular. Atchison 4s yielded 1-2 per cent, but at the close recovered the loss, while "A" seconds were neglected. Northern Pacific junior bonds were higher, Chicago and Northern Pacific firsts advancing 1 1-4 per cent to 44 1-4, and Northern Pacific 5s as much as 1 per cent to 34. Of the Philadelphia and Reading issues first and second incomes gained the fraction at 30 1-2 and 19 1-4 respectively, but third incomes fell 7-8 per cent to 15 1-2, and general mortgage 4s closed 1 per cent lower at 68 after sales at 67 1-4. Fort Worth and Denver City firsts rose nearly 4 per cent to 77 7-8, and were exceptional by closing at their highest figures. Excepting the issues named the variations were small and the transactions light. Reference is made to our full report of bond sales.

Money on call remained easy at 3 per cent. The highest rate was 4 and the lowest 3 per cent. Time money was nominally easier, but large commissions were exacted.

The Clearing House statement was as follows: Exchanges, $74,096,510; balances, $4,034,109.

The Sub-Treasury was debtor to the Clearing House $186,034. The business of the Sub-Treasury for the week ended to-night includes receipts of $12,549,806, and payments of $12,156,709, leaving the general balance $58,139,030, against $57,739,933 on August 25, an apparent gain of $399,097. But deducting from the payments $1,213,000 and from the receipts $4,080,000 for items which affect only its accounts with the general Treasury, its loss as affecting the banks is $2,467,901, and this result includes receipts of $91,453 for payment at other points.

To-day's operations included: Receipts, $1,377,987; payments, $2,100,782; with balances of $50,516,684 coin and $7,622,346 currency.

The United States Treasury at Washington received to-day $90,190 National bank notes for redemption.

The customs receipts were $406,201, the internal revenue receipts $322,035, and the miscellaneous receipts $19,159.

To-day's Washington Treasury statement of cash on hand and deposits in bank compares with the figures of the last previous statement as follows:

	Aug. 31.	Sept. 1.	Differences.
Net gold on hand	$97,105,910	$96,629,593	Dec. $476,317
Net legal tenders on hand	14,450,710	13,823,030	Dec. 627,680
Net silver on hand	3,053,500	3,742,480	Inc. 685,980
Actual cash in the Treasury vault over outstanding certificates	$114,613,120	$114,195,103	Dec. $418,017
Deposits in bank	12,922,433	12,973,325	Inc. 50,892
Net cash bal.	$127,535,553	$127,168,428	Dec. $367,125

The foreign exchanges were fairly active, and on London rates were slightly higher, while on Continental points they were firm but unchanged. The supply of commercial bills was extremely light. The market closed strong at these quotations for actual business: Bankers' bills, $4 82 1-4 a$4 82 1-2 and $4 86a$4 86 1-4 for long and short sterling respectively; French francs, 5.22 1-2 and 5.20 5-8a5.20; reichmarks, 94 3-8 and 95 1-8a 95 1-4.

In London British consols sold ex-interest at 97 9-16 for money and 97 1-2 for the account. The Bank of England lost £29,000 bullion on balance. In the open market money was steady at 3 1-2a3 3-4 per cent for discounts, and somewhat dearer at 3 1-2a4 per cent for bankers' balances. Bar silver lost its recent advance, falling 1-2 to 3d. an ounce. American railway shares were dull, but in the final dealings strong on the rumor that the United States would soon be forced to issue bonds to maintain parity between its different kinds of currency. At Paris French 3 per cents rallied further a few centimes to 99.40.
