THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, September 13, 1893.

The bulls had the turn on the market to-day although the first sales were made at a decline of two to six points, on an early decline in Liverpool futures of about 4-64d. This decline abroad is said to be due to anticipation of heavy receipts at American ports and the pressing into weak hands of a good deal of cotton. There was, however, a partial recovery at Liverpool, and our market took an upward turn shortly after the opening, and at 1 o'clock January stood at 8.41 against 8.42 at the close of business yesterday. The receipts at the ports for to-day are estimated at 7,000 bales, against 11,000 last year and 5,189 last week. With these light receipts the bulls were encouraged and the shorts were led to cover. Most of the trading was local, though there was considerable selling for Southern account. This selling on Southern orders is supposed to mean that the movement of cotton will be quite free. The situation abroad seems to be somewhat complicated by the continuation of the coal strikes and the consequent scarcity of coal which has forced some mills to shut down. The market closed with a net advance of 5 to 7 points.

COFFEE—The sales of coffee on the first call at the Coffee Exchange were 2,000 bags, subsequent sales carrying the total up to 1 o'clock to about 7,000 bags. The early sales were made at an improvement of about fifteen points on October, and during the forenoon the market advanced five or ten points more. Most of the trading was done by room operators. The local temper seems to be quite bullish, and any attempt by the shorts to cover seems to advance prices, as the offerings are comparatively light. The availability to get telegrams through to Santos, owing to the political disturbances there, unsettles the market very much, and has a tendency to advance prices. Word came yesterday that telegrams written in plain language could be sent through under the supervision of the Minister of Marine, but to-day word comes from the Commercial Cable Telegram Bureau that it had sent telegrams direct to the Minister of Marine, but that the Eastern Cable Company had cancelled the dispatches, owing to a telegram just received saying that the President had forbidden any further telegrams to be sent. The market closed sixty points higher on September and October on covering by shorts, with later months fifteen to thirty points. The market closed strong for near months and firm for far months, and 15 to 60 points higher. The total sales were 23,250 bags.

RIO—Coffee on spot and in other positions was very firmly held on a basis of 17¾c for Rio No 7. No important sales were made of invoice lots, though there was a fair jobbing demand from the country. The warehouse deliveries are light.

SUGAR—The raw sugar market remains firm, though there has been no movement of large lots. Several important sales are pending and it is hoped that they will be closed in a day or two. There is a good demand for the high grades. Total stock of Brazilian sugars in the United States to-day is 154,933 bags; total visible supply of Brazilian coffee afloat and in the United States, 2,553,933 bags, against 436,790 bags same time 1891; afloat from Rio, Santos, etc., 102,000 bags; total stock in New-York, 109,770 bags; warehouse deliveries yesterday, at New-York, 10,029 bags; stock: New-Orleans, 10,412 bags; in Baltimore, 28,751 bags.

FLOUR—Holders again put up their asking prices today, with the result of shutting out business to some extent. A fair trade was done at the advance, however, with a continuance of the export demand which has been noted for the last few days, although it is as yet confined to small lots, as foreigners have not taken hold of the market with any degree of confidence thus far. To-day's transactions were largely of the carlot order. As usual, patents and straights came in for a greater share of business, and Minnesota patents were held as high as $4 35@$4 40. The export demand was confined principally to takers, on which grade 5c advance over yesterday's prices was generally obtained. The bulk of the business was done during the morning, the irregular action of the wheat market in the afternoon tending to restrict operations. The total sales for the day amounted to 19,000 bbls of spring pkgs, and it is reported that about 10,000 bbls of spring wheat flour had been sold during the last few days on private terms, and previously reported. Details of the day's business were as follows: 1,500 sacks winter patents, ranging from $3 15@$3 60 and $3 80; 2,000 bbls winter straights, $3 15@$3 20; 500 sacks do, $3 15; 500 sacks winter clears, $2 70; 600 bbls extra No 1 winter, $2 65@$2 80; 1,500 sacks extra No 2 winters for export at $2 35; 150 bbls do, $2 50; 450 bbls superfine, $2 35@$2 40; 1,050 bbls spring patents, $4 15@$4 60, including fancy; 1,500 bbls spring straights, $3 25@$3 65; 2,000 sacks spring clears, $2 70@$2 90, including 1,000 sacks for export; 450 bbls rye mixed, $2 70@$2 80; 6,500 sacks extra No 1 spring for export, $2 30@$2 65 and $2 70; 210 sacks superfine for export, $2 20. GRAIN AND WHEAT—The wheat market to-day was active and irregular. The opening was at a sharp decline from the closing figures of yesterday on free selling owing to the fine rains in the wheat belt which has broken the drought and permits the resumption of fall seeding and ploughing under favorable circumstances. There was also some marked disposition on the part of traders to take profits, and there was quite a little selling on disappointment at the foreign news. Later there was a sharp rally on the return of outside buying, but subsequently the market eased off on reports of easy private cables and some disappointment at the tone of the closing public cables. The posting of Bradstreet's visible at 1 p. m. brought in attempts to cover on the part of trades as it showed a decrease of 898,000 bushels in the world's figures. The room operators here seem to be very bearish and were disposed to be sellers of wheat on every advance to-day, believing that the market ought to have a reaction from the rise of the past few days. The movement of wheat at the interior is increasing rapidly, and to-day's arrivals were over 1,000,000 bushels. Such a gain in the interior receipts shows that the farmers are larger sellers of spring wheat than was expected by believers in better prices. Notwithstanding this large movement, which began to develop last week, the decrease in Bradstreet's visible to-day was 22,000, but the indications are that the decreases in the visible are over and that during the next six weeks or two months, if not longer, there will be a steady gain in the visible supply. The general feeling in the market, however, is that not only is wheat, but also corn and oats are working into a bullish position, and prices will ultimately advance, although the setbacks at the start may be many and serious. The wheat market was active and weak through all the afternoon, prices holding only for a short time on Bradstreet's visible. There was steady selling by traders, on which the market easily gave way and closed barely steady at the lowest figures of the day. There was a good deal of long wheat pressed on the market, both for local account and scope for outside operators who have bought in the last two days. Late cables were unsatisfactory, and only a small business was done for foreign account, although there were good purchases for milling. Total cash sales were 265,000 bush, including 54,000 bush for export and 168,000 bush for milling, as follows: No 2 red, 4c under December in store; December closed at 77¾c, 3¾c under December f o b afloat, 4c under December delivered; No 2 December f o b afloat, 4c under December delivered; No 2 red, 4,000 bush, 73@73⅝c elevator; No 2 soft Toledo, 8,000 bush, 74c delivered; No 2 hard winter, 24,000 bush, 4½c under December delivered; No 1 Northern bush, 4½c under December delivered; No 1 Northern spring, 168,000 bush, 74⅞@74⅞c delivered; No 3 red, 1 car, graded, 64,000 bush, 70@74⅞c delivered; No 2 red, ⅛c over September 70c elevator; 20,000 bush No 2 red, ⅛c over September in store, local account.
