A DEAD HEAT AT GRAVESEND

MONEY IN THE BROOKWOOD HANDICAP DIVIDED.

THE JUDGES WERE UNABLE TO SEPARATE DAILY AMERICA AND HERALD AT THE FINISH—THE REST OF THE RACING DULL.

The six races at Gravesend yesterday were of scanty interest, with the exception of the dead heat in the Brookwood Handicap. Daily America was very lame after the finish. This made a run-off impossible, and the Herald party, after at first insisting upon a run-off, consented to a division.

The first race fell to Strathmeath, the favorite, who was well ridden by Noble. When Taral joined issue in the stretch with Merry Monarch, all expected to see Noble go to pieces, but he rode with a force and skill that would put many highly paid and renowned jockeys to shame, landing Strathmeath the winner by a short neck, Merry Monarch second, six lengths before Terrifier.

Six two-year-olds ran in the second race, but it was really a contest between Frog Dance and Wernberg. Frog Dance won easily by a length.

In the Culver Stakes, at six furlongs, Dr. Hasbrouck frightened out all but Correction, and she might have been kept in the stable, so far as her chance of beating him was concerned. She ran the first three furlongs in 35½ seconds, but Dr. Hasbrouck captured the race under a pull by four lengths. Most of the betting was on time, at 9 to 10 over 1:14¼, and the books retained both the under and over money. Bitter dissatisfaction was expressed and it would be wise for the club to prohibit time betting. If it is not abolished ugly scandals are sure to take place.

In the Brookwood Handicap for three-year-olds Comanche was the favorite and Kinglet second choice, but at the end they were the last two. Saragassa and Herald alternated in the lead for a mile, where Daily America joined them, and with a strong rider would have won, but the best Irving could do with him was to make a dead-heat with Herald, Saragassa third, four lengths back. The stake was divided.

The fifth race was captured by Wah Jim, who led all the way. Tigress was second, a length before Little Billy, whom McCafferty did not ride any too vigorously.

The sixth race was won by Now or Never, thanks to Midgeley's bungling overconfidence. A sixteenth from the end May Win had the others beaten, and if Midgeley had gone on steadily he would have won with ease, but he pulled up May Win in order to draw the finish fine. This blunder gave the race to Now or Never by a neck. Deception was third, two lengths back. In his career as a jockey Midgeley has lost a number of races by this absurd overconfidence and stupid lack of common sense.

Conscientious and upright racing men are talking in terms of severe censure of the action of Michael F. Dwyer in starting his horse Raceland on Wednesday, and then backing Dr. Knapp's colt Sir Walter to defeat his own horse. Of course it is possible that the reports that Mr. Dwyer backed Sir Walter to defeat Raceland are untrue. But these reports were generally circulated through the betting ring. No owner with a delicate and sensitive sentiment of honor would ever start so celebrated and popular a horse as Raceland is, and then back another horse to defeat him. But a delicate sense of honor in racing is not the dominant influence at Gravesend, or time betting on races and the backing of other horses to beat your own entry would not be permitted.

A New-York newspaper on Wednesday declared directly that the backers of Kazan were "brazenly defrauded" by the decision of the judges in the Patrician-Kazan race on Tuesday. Does the Executive Committee of the Brooklyn Jockey Club intend to ignore this direct and positive accusation of fraud? Does the Board of Control propose to overlook it? The Executive Committee of the Monmouth Park Association ruled off two turf writers because it asserted that what they had written was detrimental to the turf, and the Board of Control sustained this ruling. The chief offence of one writer was that he had compared the racing at Monmouth to roulette. The chief offence of the other was that wrote that a certain jockey had not ridden a certain horse in a certain race with sufficient energy. This jockey is generally believed on the turf to have ridden fraudulent races at Saratoga and at some other tracks in former years. A prominent official employed and paid by the Board of Control has told the writer of this article that he saw this jockey pull horses at Saratoga some years ago, and he added that there could be no doubt that the jockey was dishonest then, no matter whether he had been riding honestly since or not. This same jockey drew a knife in a brawl within a year or two and narrowly escaped imprisonment. The valet of this same jockey committed murder within a comparatively recent time. This same jockey was punished within a few months for improper and indefensible conduct on a racetrack. And yet a turf writer was ruled off on the pretext that he had charged this jockey with not doing his best to win a certain race. That was not the real reason for the ruling-off. The real reason was that this writer had told too many unpalatable truths about certain rascals on the turf, and had exposed the plots and schemes and tricks by which innocent and simple-minded visitors to the races are too often fleeced and swindled in the betting-ring. It may be added further that a prominent turfman, who, at one time employed this same jockey already referred to, has told his friends repeatedly of late that he suspected this jockey of having pulled his horses in several races. All these things can be proved.

After the action taken by the Monmouth Park Association and the Board of Control in ruling off turf writers, does the Brooklyn Jockey Club intend to take any action when the direct and positive charge is made in a New-York newspaper that the backers of Kazan were "brazenly defrauded" by the judges' decision in the Patrician-Kazan race on Tuesday?

Volume I of Goodwin's Turf Guide for 1893 is now out as a complete, bound volume, and contains a full record of all the races run over recognized courses from January 1 to July 1. It is of great value. It contains much additional information, such as jockeys' winning mounts, racing and betting rules, records at all distances, and horses that have died up to July 1. In fact the guide is just as essential to racegoers as the list of entries for a day's racing.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The new gunboat Marblehead has had the overhauling which she needed in the drydock, and has been sent from the Navy Yard to the Quintard Iron Works to be made ready for her official steam trial.

Corporation Counsel Clark has advised the Board of Electrical Control that the Broadway Railroad Company cannot build private ducts along its route for signalling purposes, as such would be a violation of the subway laws. The company's application was therefore denied.

The provisional estimates of the Park Department for the year 1894 have been prepared for presentation to the Board of Estimate. They aggregate $1,421,338, an increase of $324,880 over the appropriation of 1893. For the new parks above the Harlem $152,000 is asked; $50,000 more than for this year is down for repaving walks and roadways with asphalt, and $30,000 is wanted for the Castle Garden Aquarium.

The Park Commissioners yesterday approved the plans for extra work on the new wing of the American Museum of Natural History, and granted the Trades Union Conference permission to hold an open-air meeting in Union Square on Saturday evening, October 7.

In a few weeks, the superintendent of the Green Car line says, the crosstown cars will be taken off Broadway entirely, and connections will be made on the Sixth-ave. surface road, so that the green cars will hereafter run north and south in that avenue between Twenty-third and Thirty-fourth sts. The superintendent could not say when the new schedule would go into effect.

Mails from Hong Kong, August 26; Shanghai, August 26, and Yokohama, September 5, are due at the Postoffice on Sunday morning, September 24. The next mail for China and Japan will close at the Postoffice at 6:30 p. m. on September 24.

J. B. Dumont, who failed in the summer panic, has been readmitted to the Stock Exchange.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

WHITE PLAINS.

The village authorities expect to realize $1,000 for the contingent account as the result of the licensing of vehicles plying between the Harlem Railroad Station and the Westchester County Fair Grounds during fair week. One of the most promising features of the Westchester County Fair this year is the list of entries for the racing contests. In all, 159 horses have been entered in the various classes. The list includes many fine trotters. Many entries of women's work, farm produce, cattle, dairy produce, vegetables, etc., are being received at the secretary's office. The indications are that there will be an excellent county fair. On Friday and Saturday there will be bicycle races, and valuable prizes will be awarded to the winners. Entries will close to-morrow with George C. Wheeler, of No. 528 Franklin-ave., Mt. Vernon.

George Menzies, of Irvington, and Eugene Halpin, of White Plains, had a match pigeon-shooting contest, fifty birds, for $100 and the championship of Westchester County on the grounds of the White Plains Gun Club yesterday. Menzies won, killing forty-three birds to Halpin's forty-one.

NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The Republican primaries in Hudson County will probably not be held until October 7, on account of the enrolment ordered last week by the County Committee. It was at first intended to hold the primaries on October 4, but after the enrolment was ordered it was found that a rule existed forbidding any enrolment within ten days of the spring or fall primaries. As the enrolment could not be completed in some districts in season, it was decided to delay the primaries a few days.

NEWARK.

The funeral of John W. Taylor, who shot himself at his home, No. 204 Fairmount-ave., on Wednesday, will be held to-morrow morning at the house. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Ford C. Ottman, pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian Church, and the burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, at Caldwell. The pallbearers will be Judge David A. Depue, Amzi Dodd, Cortlandt Parker, John L. Blake, George B. Jenkinson, Marcus L. Ward, Frederick Adams, William Rankin, Albert B. Twitchell, Joseph L. Mann, William Righter and J. P. Rafferty. The Essex bar yesterday passed appropriate resolutions.

HOBOKEN.

POISONED BY A MOSQUITO BITE.

Alfred Dehmcke, a newsdealer living at No. 61 Hudson-st., Hoboken, is confined to his home, suffering from blood poisoning. He was bitten on the leg by a mosquito about ten days ago. He scratched the wound, inflammation followed, and he was obliged to call in Dr. Hoenning. On Wednesday a consultation was held, and it was decided that amputation would be necessary, but Dehmcke refused to submit to the operation. An incision was made in the leg about the bite, and a silver tube inserted, by which it was hoped to drain the wound. To-day another consultation will be held to decide whether amputation can be avoided.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

BOODY AND THE JURY'S PRESENTMENT.

HE AT LAST MAKES APPLICATION TO HAVE THE DAMNING ARRAIGNMENT EXPUNGED FROM THE RECORDS.

The long-delayed application in behalf of Mayor Boody to expunge from the records of the Court of Sessions the presentment of the Grand Jury for June condemning his action in approving the grant for street railroad franchises by the Aldermen, and regretting that he could not be indicted, was made yesterday. When the Mayor was in Chicago attending the exercises of Brooklyn Day at the World's Fair, the June Grand Jury took up the investigation of the grant of the franchises, and found that the Mayor was guilty of a criminal action in what he had done. After his return the Mayor, through his counsel, secured the publication of the minutes of the testimony taken by the Grand Jury, upon which the presentment was made. The application to expunge the presentment from the records was not perfected before the July Grand Jury was discharged, and the Court took a recess in August. The September Grand Jury was sworn in on Monday. Yesterday afternoon James R. Soley, for Tracy, Boardman & Platt, the law firm advising Mayor Boody in the matter, applied to Judge Moore, in the Court of Sessions, for an order to show cause why the presentment should not be expunged from the records.

Judge Moore granted the order, and made it returnable on Tuesday of next week. The papers were served on the District-Attorney, who will appear in opposition to granting the order, but he is not likely to oppose it with so much vigor that Judge Moore will find it necessary to refuse to grant the application of the Mayor to wipe out the damning record.

It has been evident in all the political movements of late that it is regarded as essential to the renomination of Mayor Boody that his record should be cleared as far as possible, and to this end the steps detailed have been taken. The Mayor is in earnest in seeking a renomination in order to vindicate himself, and he proposes to explain his record on the stump.

HE PENOUNCES THE MAYOR IN PUBLIC

JAMES QUINN CHARGED WITH VIOLATING ORDINANCES IN MAKING A SPEECH IN FORT GREENE PARK—HIS ABLE COUNSEL.

When James Quinn, of No. 227 Dekalb-ave., was arraigned before Police Justice Haggerty in the Myrtle-ave. court yesterday, to answer to a charge of violating park ordinances, he was defended by Edward M. Shepard, F. W. Hinrichs, J. Warren Greene and Henry Yonge, all leaders in the Brooklyn Democratic Club, the Citizens' Union and Independent reform politics. Quinn is president of the Twentieth Ward branch of the Brooklyn Democratic Club, and an enthusiastic "Anti-Snapper." He is a middle-aged man, and has made a number of political speeches in public denouncing officials. On Sunday morning he made a political speech in Fort Greene Park, and denounced the Mayor and the administration. He was arrested by Policeman Talbot and Sergeant Reilly, of the park police, on a charge of creating a disturbance and violating park ordinances. Quinn's counsel tried to have the case taken to the Court of Sessions, but Police Justice Haggerty declined to allow it. The evidence of the policemen was heard, and then a motion to discharge the prisoner on the ground of insufficient evidence was granted. Police Justice Haggerty warned Quinn not to collect a crowd again unnecessarily in the park, or he would deserve punishment. Mr. Shepard, in putting some questions, said he desired to show that Sergeant Reilly had a violent political prejudice against Quinn.

POSTMASTER SULLIVAN REAPPOINTED.

Postmaster Andrew T. Sullivan, who was appointed to succeed the late George J. Collins as Postmaster last spring, has been reappointed for the four years' term beginning September 13, and has been informed that he must renew his bond. His former bondsmen will qualify anew.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Charles Brockelman, who lost his money betting on races and took morphine to end his life at No. 280 Tompkins-ave. a few days ago, died yesterday at St. Mary's Hospital. He was a drug clerk, and had no relatives in this country. His father is said to be a wealthy man in Germany.

The certificate of the incorporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, to succeed the Church of St. Chrysostom, at Tompkins-ave. and McDonough-st., was filed with the County Clerk yesterday. The wardens are W. H. Male, George Henderson and John J. Wilson; the vestrymen, Mortlock Pettit, H. C. Johnson, Isaac Sulzer, George S. Andrews and Dr. Thomas L. Wells.

To Clothe Boys & Girls

Neatly, stylishly and at the same time economically, is the desire of most parents. Is it unreasonable to claim that where the outfitting of young people is made the sole business of a large store, that it means advantages no other store can offer in wide range of choice, fit and price?

Our line of Boys' all wool suits $5 to $6.
Girls' School Dresses $4 to $10.
Boys' Hats and Caps 48c. to $1.
Babies' Cloaks $2.50 to $5.
Babies' Dresses 63 and 87c.
Are good illustrations.

QUILTS

Large enough for the royal couch or small enough for the baby's crib.

Honeycomb, Marseilles, Satin finished, Printed, Hand Embroidered, etc.

The newer designs are especially pretty and commend themselves to persons of artistic taste.
