FOUR POLES CHARGED WITH MURDER.

AN AMERICAN, ARRESTED WITH THEM, IS RELEASED BECAUSE OF THE MYSTERIOUS VISIT OF A WOMAN TO THE DETECTIVE'S OFFICE.

Detective Edward Slavin, of the Sheriff's office, yesterday arrested four men who are suspected of complicity in the supposed murder of Otto Schneider, a Pole, who was found unconscious in the cornfield of S. McCreery, near Flushing, on Thursday. He was removed to the Flushing Hospital, where he died at 7:30 o'clock on the same evening. The autopsy revealed that Schneider had come to his death by being struck on the head with a dull instrument. The four men arrested were Joseph Jula, John Jula, Joseph Kuwsky and Adam Felter, all Poles, who are employed on farms near Flushing. These four had been seen in company with Schneider Sunday afternoon and evening by several Flushing citizens. With the Poles arrested was a young American bookkeeper, employed in this city, but living in Flushing, and who was released about an hour after his incarceration. Mr. Slavin was asked why the bookkeeper was released and said that a woman had called on him and promised to furnish some damaging evidence against the four Poles provided the American was released. He says he knows what the evidence is, and feels confident it will convict the guilty men.

A CHANGE AT THE ELGIN WATCH CO'S OFFICE.

About a week ago John M. Cutter, of the home office of the Elgin Watch Company, of Illinois, came to this city to take charge of the New-York office, at No. 11 John-st. Edmund J. Schofield, the former New-York manager, was retired, and gossip among the jewellers in Maiden Lane at once began as to the cause. Rumors were circulated that his accounts required examination, but Mr. Schofield was at the Elgin Company's office a short time on Thursday. Mr. Cutter declined to make any statement yesterday with regard to the affairs of the company or its former New-York manager.

THE REV. W. RAMSCAR IS IN THE CITY AGAIN.

The Rev. William Ramscar, who gained notoriety several years ago on a charge of brutally beating an old man, the inmate of an old people's home, which Mr. Ramscar kept in Harlem, reached this city yesterday morning. With him were his wife and daughter, two old men and three old women, who are said to have been the inmates of a "home" which Mr. Ramscar had been keeping at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson. It is said that Mr. Ramscar will establish another home for old people in the Annexed District.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

London, Oct. 6.—At the wool sales to-day 5,000 bales were offered. The competition was keen. French buyers took largely of the lower grades of merinos. Home and German buyers took the bulk of the better wools. Cape of Good Hope and Natal wools were chiefly to the Germans, who assisted Yorkshire buyers in taking the cross-breds offered. Following are the sales and the prices obtained:

New South Wales—700 bales; greasy, 5½@9½d.
Queensland—1,000 bales; greasy, 5½@8½d.
