THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, October 11, 1893.

COTTON—The cotton market opened at a decline of 10 @18 points, reacted 10 points, recovered the loss of 10 points, and closed at a net advance of 17@20 points, firm in tone, with total sales of 178,700 bales. The early strength of the market was due to the failure of the Liverpool cotton market to show as much weakness as looked for, although that market opened 2@4 points lower, and showed sales of only 10,000 bales for spots, which was thought to be rather poor support to the information cabled privately pointing to an oversold condition on the part of the English spinners. The fact that the Liverpool market closed at from unchanged prices to a net decline of 1-64d, compared with yesterday's prices was a condition that the bears had not believed to be possible. The local traders were extensively short, and as the South was rather bullish and inclined to buy where there was an active forenoon market, the bears soon after the opening pounded the market off 10 points, but the recovery was sharp. The bulls had predictions of colder weather for Texas and elsewhere to-night, and indications from the South of a lighter interior movement than had been looked for, with estimated receipts at the interior for the week now 95,000 bales, against 125,000 bales the corresponding time last year. Parties who have been estimating receipts at the ports at 270,000 bales get their figures down to 260,000 bales to-day, against 238,848 bales last year, as the receipts at the ports. The semi-weekly interior movement, made up by the New-Orleans Exchange, indicates that receipts will be 275,000 bales, against 80,000 bales last year, while the shipments are estimated at 57,000 bales, against 63,000 bales last year. A rumor that Mr. Neill would shortly issue a crop estimate, and that his figures will be large, was denied. Mr. Pasch, of Havre, the continental crop authority, telegraphed that the indicated crop according to the Bureau acreage and on the indicated condition, is 6,700,000 bales. Apart from the Bureau conditions to the acreage as estimated by "The Financial Chronicle," the indicated crop would be 6,700,000 bales.

COFFEE—The coffee market at New-York opened in a dull and good-for-nothing condition, with prices from unchanged to 5 points lower. Up to 1:30 p. m. the sales had only reached 3,750 bags, and prices at that hour were just about where they were at the opening, with the trading confined to November and December, with the rest of the list almost entirely neglected, but even in receiving the counter-call bids recent at long intervals Noember could at $16.50 and December at 16.10. The foreign news included a statement from Rio indicating Santos receipts of 7,000 bags, Santos stock 161,000 bags, with the market quiet and prices unchanged. Havre was reported as 1/4f higher at the close, with Lisbon 31 1/2c for October, later months unchanged to 31 higher. Hamburg was generally 1/4 to 1/2 lower. The New-York market for spot coffee was quite nominal, with the price of No 7, ser. 18½@18⅝. The talk on 'Change just now is a little bearish, on the idea that coffee is to be liberated from the Brazil markets in little larger quantities, and that political news is no longer likely to be a disturbing factor. Total sales were 8,500 bags. The market closed steady and 5 points higher on October, others unchanged to 5 to 10 points lower.

The market for Rio on spot is steady, and closed on the basis of 18½c for No 7, and a sale of 650 bags was made at that price. FLOUR AND MEAL—The flour market to-day was considerably less active, with a weaker tone prevailing, and it closed finally with a depressed undertone. Buyers were demanding 5 to 10 cent concession, which sellers were very grudgingly conceding in a few cases. Export orders were again scarce, transaction being confined to a few peddling lots for the local trade. Total sales were 12,350 pkgs, including 2,000 pkgs city mills patents at $4 40@$4 60, 2,000 pkgs straights at $3 40@$3 60, 300 pkgs clears at $3, 1,250 pkgs extra 1s at $2 50@$2 60, 2,000 pkgs extra 2s at $2 30@$2 40, 2,400 pkgs spring patents at $4@$4 20. The range to-day was $3 90@$4 for country patents, and $4@$4 10 for Minnesota: 250 pkgs straights at $3 30, and 400 bbls flour at $1 85. Southern flour was dull. BUCKWHEAT—The market was moderately active to-day and a little steadier in tone, there being less pressure of the market on account of lighter receipts. Sales were 600 bags.

GRAIN—WHEAT—The action of the wheat market this morning was a little surprising to the trade. The crop report was considered as being rather bearish; nevertheless, the market opened ⅛c higher, but promptly turned weak, selling off about ⅝c, after which it became very dull, and dealings the balance of the day were within a narrow range. The figures of the crop report were construed in some places as indicating that the final report would make the production of wheat at least 400,000,000 bush, and parties who have been banking on the yield of the crop being less than 380,000,000 were somewhat inclined to sell during the morning. Other information was in about the same lines as hitherto. Receipts West were liberal, and indications point to a heavy movement the balance of the week. Exports continue moderate, and foreign markets are dull and continue depressed. By the Government report the yield of wheat is 11.3 bush per acre, against 11.4 last year and 15.4 bush in 1891. The middlemen bearishness in wheat developed into decided weakness after the publication of Bradstreet's trifle, showing 3,478,000 bush increase in the visible. During the afternoon there was considerable liquidation, and as the market developed weakness, the big bears who had been working the market for some time hammered prices, and the close was weak at the lowest prices for the day. The net decline was ½@⅝c. Cash wheat was weak and fairly active at ⅝c decline for the day. Sales were 291,000 bush, including 152,000 bush for export and 64,000 bush for milling. At outports there were 120,000 bush sold for export. Details of sales were as follows: No 2 red, 2¼c under December in store; December closed 71⅝c, 1¼c under December f o b afloat, 2c under December del; No 2 red, 10,000 bush, 70c del; No 1 hard winter, 88,000 bush, 5c under December del; No 1 hard spring, 8,000 bush, 1½c over December del; No 1 Northern spring, quoted 1c under December del, 95,000 bush in store, 1⅝@1¾c under December; No 3 Chicago winter, 14,000 bush, 4½c under December del; ungraded, 46,000 bush, 2c under December del. Bradstreet's visible made an increase in wheat of 3,217,000 bush east of the Rockies and an increase of 261,000 bush on the Pacific coast, a net increase of 3,478,000 bush. Corn increased 1,138,000 bush and oats increased 515,000 bush. The European and Australian supply of wheat decreased 404,000 bush. The total world's supply increased 3,074,000 bush. The total American visible is: Wheat, 81,748,000 bush; corn, 11,054,000 bush; oats, 5,830,000 bush. European and Australian supply of wheat is 82,000,000 bush; total of wheat, 164,164,000 bush.

CORN—The action of the corn market was a little more puzzling than that of wheat. It opened active and higher, first, sales being at a rise of ⅝@⅞c, but this was soon followed by a weaker feeling and a sharp decline in price. The early strength was due to a little outside buying by parties encouraged over the Government report. The latter, however, appeared small and not at all scared by the smaller yield than had been anticipated of late. Receipts were again moderate at the interior, which, together with the crop reports, were expected to have some influence on the market, but after the momentary strength of the opening, there was only a little demand and prices weakened easily. The corn market was dull, weak and more active in the afternoon, declining quite easily, in sympathy with the weakness which prevailed in wheat. There seemed to be quite a little liquidation, and the close was weak at a net decline for the day. Cash corn was ⅝c lower, with sales of 112,000 bushels at 47⅝@48⅝c, including 128,000 bushels for export and 10,000 bushels for milling. Of the total sales, 18,000 bushels were graded No 2 spot at 47½@48⅝c afloat.

OATS—The market for oats was fairly active at the West and higher, but quiet here at about last night's lower figures. There was a little buying early, in sympathy with the rise in corn, but this soon gave place to weakness on local selling on the crop report, showing a production over 25,000,000 bushels larger than indicated last month. In oats as in wheat and corn there was considerable selling in the afternoon, and under these offerings the market gave way. The market closed fairly steady at ⅛@⅜c net decline. Cash oats were fairly active at unchanged prices, closing barely steady. Sales were 1,000 bush as follows: No 2 oats, 30,000 bush, 33½c in elevator and 34½c delivered; No 3 oats, nominal, 31c; No 2 white, 36,000 bush, 35¼@36c; No 3 white, 10,000 bush, 34½@35c; track white, 52,000 bush, 36@39c; track mixed, 3,000 bush, 35@35½c. HALT—Market steady; Western, 60@75c; Canada, 85@95c. MALT—Market steady; Western, 60@75c; Canada, 85@95c. RYE—Market steady; sales, 500 bush, 54c for Western. BARLEY—Steadier; No 2 Milwaukee, 67½@68c; ungraded Western, 60@75c. SEEDS—Clover seed 55c for carlots and bealeads. FLAXSEED—Market quiet at 50c for October price, $9 40@$9 50 asked, $9 25 bid for November, $9 20 bid for December, $9 30 asked, and 100 bbls No 1 October, $9 75; November, $9 90, and December, $10. Timothy—Market steady at $4@$5 per 100 lbs; sales, 100 bags. Flaxseed—Market steadier at $1 14½ b; sales, 100 bags. Flaxseed—Market steadier at $1 14½.

METALS—IRON—The local market for pig iron is entirely without feature and only the smallest possible amount of business is being done. Quotations appended are entirely nominal. Warrants per ton are quoted $11 75 for October, November, December and January. Foreign material is dull and nominally unchanged, while old material continues as before with prices weak. The same particular absence of business prevails for old steel rails, the quotation being $10 50@$11 per ton f o b this port. Old iron rails are offered at $15 per ton delivered, but no buyers seem ready to take the offer. No 1 wrought scrap iron is as quiet as ever, with sales, including 200 tons No 1 railroad, $13 50 per ton delivered at mills. Wrought scrap in small lots has been offered at $10 50@$11 50 f o b Jersey City. In No 1 machinery cast scrap, 150 tons were reported as sold at $10 50 per ton. The regular market is quoted at $10 50@$11 50 according to condition. Old cut wheels are quoted at $9@$9 50, and $14 per ton delivered. Business in wrought turnings is quite active and several sales of several hundred tons have been made at $9 50 per ton delivered at mill. Cast borings are in good demand and selling at $1 50@$7 per ton delivered at mill. Burnt iron rules moderately active at $6 50@$7 per ton. MOLASSES—There is a continued fair demand for domestic kinds, and the market rules steady, prices showing no change. NAVAL STORES—There was a drop of another ½c in spirits turpentine, owing mainly to the limited demand and too heavy a supply. Rosin was quiet but steady with prices as last quoted. Tar and pitch were quiet. Stock: Rosin, 18,238 bbls; spirits turpentine, 860 bbls; tar, 1,207 bbls. We quote: Spirits turpentine, 32@32½c in Southern bbls and 33@34c in private bbls. COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

New-York, October 11, 1893.

BEANS AND PEAS—The market for domestic marrow beans holds firm under a momentary shortage in supplies; medium and pea beans are dull. Between the export and southern trade most of the prime lots of red kidney have been taken, and the feeling is quite firm. Other beans jobbing at unchanged prices. Green peas steady. Green peas, bbls, $1 35; bags, $1 30; do Scotch bags, $1 45@$1 50.

BUTTER—Trade was very dull again to-day, and the market seems to be developing a little weaker tone, especially on fresh table grades. The total receipts are not large, but there is no good outlet for stock at the present time, and holders are now accumulating, and the fear of moment is that holding some accumulation, and the fear of deterioration in quality by holding is leading to some shaving of values. Creamery, State, tubs, 29@29½c; do State, tubs, 29c; do Western extra, 29@29½c; do firsts, 26@28c; do seconds, 23@25c; thirds, 20@22c; June make, extras, 25@26c; do seconds to firsts, 21@24c; State dairy, half-firkins, tubs and prints, extras, 27c; do firsts, 24@25c; do seconds, 22@23c; State dairy Welsh tubs, firsts, 24@25c; do firsts, 23@24c; do seconds, 21@22c; dairy tubs, thirds, 19@21c; State dairy, firkins, extra, 24½@25c; do firsts, 23@24c; do seconds, 21@22c; Western imitation creamery, firsts, 22@23c; do seconds, 19@20c; do thirds, 17@18c; Western dairy, firsts, 21@22c; do seconds, 19@20c; do fourths to thirds, 17@18c; Western factory, 20c; do fourths to thirds, 17@18c; Elgins, June extras, 29c; do seconds to firsts, 18@19c; do tubs, June, extras, 19c; do seconds to firsts, 18@19c; do current make, firsts, 18@19c; do tubs, firsts, 18@19c; do seconds, 18@18½c; do fourths to thirds, 17@18c.

CHEESE—Sellers hold the advantage previously secured on large sale full cream cheese, but there was a quiet trade in other descriptions. The general rate for fancy September was 11¼@11½c, a few lots went to an extreme price, on that basis, and jobbers paid 11¾c, possibly 11⅞c, for some gilt-edge parcels of colored. Small cheese were quieter, but fancy lots held steady at 11¼@11½c. There was a pretty fair demand for Chenango County part skims, and prices made an advance on all grades, the choicest lots showing most strength. Liverpool cheese steady. State factory, full cream, large size, September, 10½@11c; do August, fancy, 11@11½c; do fair, fancy, 11¼@11½c; do August, fancy, Chenango and do fair to choice, 10@11½c; part skims, Chenango and neighboring counties, 7½@9½c; do large, choice, neighboring counties, 9@9½c; do common to fair, 4@7½c; good to prime, 6@8½c; do common to fair, 4@6c; skims, 2@3½c.

EGGS—The market shows very little change to-day. Trade is still exceedingly dull, and, while arrivals are not heavy, there is more or less a surplus of fresh gathered eggs in most stores, and holders are becoming more and more anxious to sell. For average prime Western 22c is the ruling price, with more offered than sought at that, but a few special marks still reach 23c in instances. Inferior eggs are dull and hard to move at 18@19c for fair to good, 15@17c for common, and 20@21c for Western, Pennsylvania and Southern fancy. The receipts are fair for this time of year, and the demand is quite limited, leaving a good margin between receipts and consumption. Refrigerator eggs are dull and nominally unchanged, with sales of Western at 14@15c, and Southern at 13@14c.

POULTRY—Receipts are fair, but the demand is very dull, and prices are barely steady. Receipts from near by points are light, owing to the relative low prices received by shippers, and the demand is a liberal offering of such stock. Sweet potatoes about steady for the best grades, inferior dull and unchanged. Cauliflowers in fair demand, quiet and lower. Norfolk beans and lima in buyers' favor.
