BROOKLYN TENNIS PLAYERS WIN.

VICTORIOUS AGAINST THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NEW-YORK CLUBS—HOBART AND M'ENROE'S CLEVER WORK IN DOUBLES.

The contest between representatives of the Manhattan Tennis Association of New-York and the Inter-Club Tennis League of Kings County was finished yesterday afternoon, on the courts of the Kings County Tennis Club, at Kingston-ave. and Dean-st., Brooklyn. The Brooklyn players carried off the honors, winning three matches out of four. As the grounds had been flooded by the recent rain, the south end of the courts was somewhat miry and the players had a hard time covering court. To add to this discomfort the wind swept across the court constantly, making lobbing almost impossible.

The Brooklyn players began the day's work with the ladies' singles and men's singles to their credit. A. S. Merlan, of the Brooklyn Tennis Club, and Miss Bessie Moore, of the Kings County Club, having defeated their opponents, Ray D. Thurber and Miss Florence Strand. They had only to score in one of the day's contests to make the victory theirs. This was accomplished early in the afternoon in the ladies' doubles. Miss Dowling and Miss Bunnell, of the Fifth Avenue Tennis Club, who represented New-York, had not a ghost of a chance against the Kings County Club's experts Miss Hellwig and Miss Atkinson, and only two games were won in three sets by the New-Yorkers. As Frazer, of the Kings County Club, and Post, of the Crescent Athletic Club, were to play for Brooklyn against Hobart and McEnroe, of the Hamilton, the more sanguine of the Brooklyn people looked for a clean sweep.

But Hobart and McEnroe played from the start with confidence and better team work, and the better court made them easy victors in the first set. Post played poorly, and Frazer failed to dispose of several easy lobs. The Brooklyn team, with the good court, turned the tables in the second set. McEnroe, who had played a fine game up to this point, got stuck in the mud several times, and looked helplessly at some easy balls which he could have killed on a dry court. The third and fourth sets were well contested, as both teams had warmed up to their work. McEnroe's work at the net was the feature, though Frazer and Hobart did some accurate driving. Post seemed unsteady, and volleyed many times into the net. The Brooklyn players made one excellent rally in the third set, but two beautiful drives by McEnroe clinched things.

In the fourth and last set, the New-Yorkers held the lead by a narrow margin from start to finish. Their opponents tried a lobbing game, but the strong wind made them fall short, and gave the Hamilton team a chance to display their ability to smash.

The summaries follow:

Men's singles—A. S. Merlan, Brooklyn T. C., beat R. D. Thurber, Lenox T. C. (New-York), 2–6, 7–5, 6–1, 14–12.

Men's doubles—John P. Hobart and Eugene K. McEnroe, Hamilton T. C., beat Dr. W. N. Frazer, Kings County T. C., and Carroll J. Post, jr., Crescent A. C., 6–2, 3–6, 6–4, 6–4.

Ladies' singles—Miss Bessie Moore, Kings County T. C., beat Miss Florence Strand, Ariel T. C., 6–2, 6–2.

Ladies' doubles—Miss Atkinson and Miss Hellwig, Kings County T. C., beat Miss Bunnell and Miss Dowling, Fifth Avenue T. C., 6–1, 6–1, 6–0.

OBITUARY.

GEORGE M'KIBBIN.

George McKibbin, who was for sixty years well known as a printer and publisher of books in this city, died suddenly from pneumonia at his home, No. 46 West Fifty-first-st., at 8 p. m. on Friday. He was eighty-three years old. He was born and educated in New-York. When a boy he entered a printing office and learned the printers' trade. When twenty-two years old he started a printing office on his own account in Franklin-st., but was unsuccessful and returned to work as a compositor. About a year later he again started a printing office on his own account, and from that time until he retired from active business, about three years ago, he was successful, accumulating a fortune. For many years before his retirement he published the various schoolbooks sold by Ivison, Blakeman & Taylor, of No. 84 South Fifth-ave., maintaining an extensive printing office and bookbindery, in which about 300 persons were employed. In 1833 he married Miss Cordelia Hunt, of this city, who died, seventy-two years after, on New-Year's Day, 1886, three years after they had celebrated their golden wedding. They had six children, four sons and two daughters, three of whom survive. He was an ardent Republican in politics, but never aspired to public office. He was one of the sixteen founders of the order of the Sons of Temperance, the only survivor of whom is John W. Oliver, of Yonkers. These founders held their first meeting in Teetotal Hall on Thursday evening, September 29, 1842. He was for fifty years the treasurer of a local bookbinders' benevolent association, and was for a long time a trustee of St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church, in Forty-first-st., near Sixth-ave. He was a member of the Mechanics and Traders' Society, whose purpose was to educate young men and women for industrial pursuits. He was greatly interested in charity and was a liberal supporter of the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; the Deaconesses' Home and the Methodist Episcopal Church Home. The funeral will take place at his home at 4 p. m. on Tuesday. The Rev. Dr. Ensign McChesney, pastor of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, at Madison-ave. and Sixtieth-st., will officiate. The burial will be at Woodlawn on Wednesday morning.

DAVID HALL RICE.

Boston, Oct. 14.—David Hall Rice, member of the Governor's Council, died this morning. Mr. Rice was born in Penn Yan, N. Y., May 6, 1841, received his education in the common schools and a partial course in Genesee College, now Syracuse University, and was admitted to the practice of law in an examination before the Supreme Court of New-York. He then went South, and in 1867 became partner of the United States District-Attorney at Savannah, Ga. Thence he came East and opened a law office in Lowell. In 1873 he removed his office to Boston. Mr. Rice was widely known as a patent lawyer throughout the country. In 1880 he edited a work on patent law which was adopted as an authority by the Patent Office. For this and other literary work he received the honorary degree of A. M., from Syracuse University.

Mr. Rice had but a brief public career, his only elective office being in the Executive Council, to which he was chosen in 1892, as a Republican, which party had a large majority in that body. He was of an aggressive character and considered it incumbent upon himself to closely scrutinize the appointments of the Governor. His work in this regard caused him to be looked upon as the investigating member of the council.

JOHN W. LARKIN.

Central Bridge, N. Y., Oct. 14.—John W. Larkin, one of the best-known residents of Schoharie County, died to-day. He was an influential Republican, and had served four terms as Supervisor. He was also one of the Republican Presidential electors in 1884.

GOVERNOR FLOWER AND THE PRIZEFIGHT.

After a few days of recreation spent in hunting deer in the Adirondacks, Governor Flower, accompanied by his wife, has come down to New-York "for a little change." He is staying at the Windsor Hotel. To a Tribune reporter, who asked him about the Corbett-Mitchell prizefight at Coney Island, and that he intended doing to prevent it, the Governor replied:

"That matter has not been brought officially to my attention, and until it has been I cannot say what course I shall pursue. No official charges against the Sheriff of Kings County for permitting the fight to be violated have been made that I am aware of, and I have no reason to believe that he will neglect his duty. Even if I did see a prospect of a prizefight at Coney Island I should not be likely to discuss the action I intended to take. The action itself would be all that was necessary."

In speaking of Chicago, the Governor said: "Manhattan Day at the World's Fair will be a grand occasion, and it will do much to remove from the minds of the Chicago people the idea they seem to have that New-York feels bitter toward them. I wish that it were possible for me to be there."

Governor Flower is to spend a week in this city.

LINDEN ENTRIES FOR TO-MORROW.

The meeting at Linden begins to-morrow with a fair card. Many stables have engaged stable-room for the meeting, so that the card is likely to improve as the meeting goes on. Arrangements have been made for the rapid transit and comfort of recoigers to and from the track.
