WHAT WAS DONE IN STOCKS.

Tuesday, Oct. 17—p. m.

Speculation in stocks was devoid of new features to-day. There was the usual manipulation of industrial and special stocks, to which the market is becoming accustomed, and at the same time there was in the last hour something like a vicious attack on the Granger shares. It ought to be perfectly plain that the advances in one class of stocks are no more important than declines in the other. The control of prices remains in the hands of professional speculators, who are, at this stage, of little consequence. A small clique raises by force the prices of a few stocks, and a bear faction, which apparently possesses even less courage, furiously attacks stocks that are well held. The manipulators on both sides seem to be wholly oblivious of the fact that the course of prices is affected only for a short time by their operations. The undertow may be sufficiently strong to carry both classes of speculators far out to sea.

The first question in importance is whether Congress will repeal the present Silver law. There were rumors that the Senate would adjourn without taking action, and they were not without good influence, because it was believed in Wall Street that after the November elections the views of some members of Congress might be materially changed.

After a steady decline during the greater part of the day, there was a smart rally, but the improvement was not maintained to the end. The closing was not at the lowest price, but it was by no means strong. Final changes were usually declines of anywhere from a small fraction to 2 per cent, but the market was, on the whole, irregular. The foreign exchanges were weak, and exports of gold are as remote as imports. It is the season when imports would be natural, but in consequence of the low prices of grain and cotton they may be small.

THE DAY IN THE BOND MARKET.

A small sale of coupon 4s at 113⅝ was made on the morning call, and, as the price was only a trifle below the price recently asked, Government bonds were firm throughout the day. The closing quotations were unchanged as follows:

	Bid.	Asked.		Bid.	Asked.
U. S. 4½s, 1891, coupons off 2 per cent reg	98		U.Scur.6s, 1895	107
U.S.4s, 1907 reg	110¾	111½	U.Scur.6s, 1897	109
U.S.4s, 1907 cou	110¾	111½	U.Scur.6s, 1898	109½	---
Dis Col 3-65 1894	111½	112	U.Scur.6s, 1899	111½	---

State issues were neglected, and there were no sales of city bank stocks.

There was no active demand in the general bond market. Reported transactions amounted to $525,000 at par value, an insignificant increase over the business of yesterday. The tendency of the market was toward a lower level, but the movement was not rapid. Atchison issues were relatively active, but while A seconds advanced to 36, and at 35¼ recorded a final gain of ½ per cent, general 4s were weak, and, at the close, a small fraction lower. Chesapeake and Ohio consol 5s finally lost ⅜ per cent at 101¼ after early sales at 101¾, and Richmond and Alleghany Division firsts, on small sales, fell ⅝ per cent to 76⅝. Missouri, Kansas and Texas 4s were 1 per cent lower at 75. Union Pacific collateral trust rates were unchanged at 77½; a single bond selling at 78. Reference is made to our full report of bond sales.

Money on call was in excessive supply at 2@1½ per cent, and the business at the lower figure was large.

The Clearing House statement was as follows: Exchanges, $108,265,729; balances, $6,412,337.

The Sub-Treasury was debtor to the Clearing House $1,101,410. Its net loss on balance was $675,085, made up by a loss of $705,109 in coin, less a gain of $30,024 in currency. The day's operations covered: Receipts, $2,584,570; payments, $3,259,655, resulting in a general balance of $54,192,602, consisting of $49,134,703 coin and $5,058,899 currency.

The United States Treasury at Washington received to-day $715,719 National bank notes for redemption.

The customs receipts were $232,903, the internal revenue receipts $210,826, and the miscellaneous receipts $59,281.

To-day's Washington Treasury statement of cash on hand and deposits in bank compares with the figures of the last previous statement as follows:

	Oct. 16.	Oct. 17.	Differences.
Net gold on hand	$83,981,374	$84,454,473	Inc. $472,099

Net cash bal.	$116,141,469	$114,335,852	Dec. $1,804,517

The foreign exchanges were lower. The supply of bills was not larger than usual lately, but the demand was extremely limited. Annexed are revised quotations for actual business: Bankers' bills, $4 82½@$4 82¾ and $4 84½@$4 84¾ for long and short sterling respectively; French francs, 5.21¼@5.20⅝ and 5.18¾; reichsmarks, 94⅝@94¾ and 95⅝@95½.

In London British consols were a shade lower at 98¼ for both money and the account. The Bank of England gained £66,000 bullion on balance. In the open market money was somewhat easier at 1⅜ per cent for discounts and 1¼ per cent for arrivals, while daily balances were offered freely at ½@¾ per cent. Bar silver was quoted steady at 33 11-16d an ounce. American railway shares were quiet, but they advanced until near the close, when small concessions were permitted. The final declines, however, were small. At Paris French 3 per cents closed a few centimes lower at 98.32½, sight exchange on London being higher at 25.16½ francs to the £ sterling. The weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany showed an increase in specie of 10,567,000 marks.
