NO ANSWER FROM MYERS.

HOW THE NOMINATION WAS RECEIVED IN THE CITY.

MR. ROBINSON OBJECTS TO WITHDRAWING FROM THE REPUBLICAN TICKET—MANY INFLUENTIAL MEMBERS OF THE PARTY THINK HE SHOULD STAND ASIDE.

Among outspoken citizens who have no political axes to grind and who have the city's interests at heart there was only one expression yesterday about the magnificent meeting at Cooper Union on Friday evening. That opinion was that it was a spontaneous demonstration which came directly from the heart of the people. It was not the work of politicians. Many machine politicians tried to discredit it. That it was not a worked-up affair was shown by the fact that only about twenty-four hours intervened between the issuing of the call and the great gathering. The promoters of the demonstration had really less than sixteen hours in which to get it up. An old stager in politics said yesterday, in speaking of the meeting and the spirit manifested:

"Madison Square Garden could have been filled by voters who want Controller Myers retained, if the men at the head of the movement had been acquainted with the great underlying sentiment of opposition to Tammany misrule and Tammany snobbery which exists in this city."

MR. BROOKFIELD FAVORS MYERS.

Chairman Brookfield, of the Republican State Committee, proved that he was one of the Republicans who understand popular sentiment when he said yesterday:

"Most assuredly I am in favor of placing Mr. Myers on the Republican county ticket. An opportunity is presented to us for dealing Tammany Hall a serious blow, and we make a terrible blunder if we fail to take advantage of it. I have the best of reasons for knowing that thousands of independent anti-Tammany Democrats would delight in the chance of defeating the Tammany nomination, made in defiance of the popular desire that Myers should continue in the office of Controller.

"The demonstration in Cooper Union was a remarkable one. Could such an attendance be secured if the people, the public, the masses who make up the voting population of our city, and have no special interest in office-holding, were not arousing to the situation? Revolt against Tammany is in the air. Mr. Croker has the machine, but if our Republican friends are not blind we will show him that the people are not with him."

"But some Republicans say we get nothing from Democrats we help to elect. They give their patronage to their own side of the house, and the Republicans whose votes put them in office are neglected." This remark was made by one who represented a Republican who opposes coalition.

"Get nothing?" Mr. Brookfield asked, with flashing eyes. "What true Republican wants anything but good government in this city? If Republicans aid respectable Democrats in putting or keeping in office honest, efficient and experienced men, they get all they should expect—honest officials and good administration.

A LONG STEP TOWARD GOOD GOVERNMENT.

"If we can defeat Tammany Hall in its bold purpose of taking possession of the Finance Department and the city treasury, it would be a long step toward re-establishing government by the people in this city, and deliver a blow at Tammany Hall which will be felt by it next year, when we come to elect a Mayor."

Ex-Senator Platt declined to say what he thought the local Republicans ought to do. "I am devoting my attention wholly to the State canvass," he said, "and must leave the details of the municipal campaign to the gentlemen of the County Committee. But I do not hesitate to say that the nomination of Controller Myers seems to be a spontaneous uprising of the people. In regard to the withdrawal of Mr. Robinson, that is a matter upon which I can properly express no opinion."

Edgar J. Levey, the Controller's confidential secretary until his appointment as Assistant Deputy Controller last week, who has not yet relinquished his duties in the former capacity, said yesterday that he received no message from Mr. Myers yesterday, and had not heard of Mr. Myers's making a reply to the dispatches sent to him informing him of the magnitude of the meeting which nominated him and of its action.

MR. ROBINSON UNMOVED.

Henry C. Robinson, the Republican candidate for Controller, yesterday decided that he would not retire from the Republican ticket so that Theodore W. Myers could be placed upon it in his stead. Mr. Robinson did this after consultation with some of the leading Republicans in this city, who advised him that as a Republican he was nominated and that he ought to stand by the ticket. Mr. Robinson also received a large number of letters from Republicans in various parts of the city and he had personal calls from a considerable number of well-known men in the drygoods district, who asked him to remain on the Republican ticket. Among those with whom he talked was Donald McLean, the chairman of the Republican County Convention, who was responsible for the nomination of Mr. Robinson. Mr. McLean spent the day going among business men, and he said that on all sides he received the advice to keep Mr. Robinson in the field. It was after Mr. McLean had made his investigation that Mr. Robinson finally decided to stand as a candidate. He has done so because he believes that he owes it as a duty to the Republicans who put him in nomination. To a reporter Mr. Robinson said yesterday afternoon:

"I have decided, after consultation with my friends, and with a large number of business men, to stay in the field. I will not retire unless a positive request for me to do so comes from the members of the Republican County Convention, who nominated me.

"I have never intimated," said Mr. Robinson, "that in case Mr. Myers was placed in nomination by the independent citizens I would withdraw in his favor. I accepted the nomination at the hands of the Republican party in good faith, and up to the present time have no intention of withdrawing from the responsibility thus placed upon me by the party which placed me in nomination.

"I am not unmindful of the interests of the citizens of New-York, but I fail to see in a movement to simply substitute the name of one man on a ticket any evidence of sincerity or good faith on the part of those who indorsed Mr. Myers as an independent Democrat.

"The movement is not broad enough of itself to warrant the proposition that it means an organized opposition to Tammany Hall. The inference to be drawn is that it is simply the vindication of one individual who was turned down at the bidding of Richard Croker, while another person whose reputation as a citizen has not been brought into question has been chosen in his place.

"There are other nominations on the ticket placed in the field by Tammany Hall which in point of character are far below that of the Tammany nominee for Controller. The office of District-Attorney has a more important bearing on the interests of the people than that of Controller. It is by far more important to wrest this office from the influence of Tammany Hall, and the nominee of that organization, John R. Fellows, should be met with a stronger and more emphatic protest from those who desire clean and honest government.

"But there has been no protest made by Independent Democrats against this nomination, and no indication that, if Mr. Myers had been nominated instead of Mr. Fitch, Independent Democrats would not have swallowed the entire Tammany ticket. If the Independent Democrats will give some guaranty that they will do more for the cause of good government than the simple scratching of one man on the ticket in exchange for the powerful indorsement of an organized political party, I will not stand in the way. If they will, for instance, agree to support the Republican candidate for District-Attorney, it would show that there was a purpose more apparent than has yet appeared to render it necessary for the Republican party to indorse Mr. Myers.

"Past experience affords no encouragement to Republicans to lead them to expect any material advantage to follow the indorsement of a Democrat. If there were a real desire to oppose Tammany Hall as dangerous and vicious, why should it not be evinced either by an indorsement of the Republican ticket or the placing of an entire independent ticket in the field? Up to the present time I have not been consulted. No member of either party has as yet approached me on the matter. Anything that I have said has been said to reporters, and many things have been imputed to me as saying which have been misconstrued.

"I am free to say, however, that I am in the hands of those who nominated me and am willing to accept their wisdom and judgment. The nomination of Mr. Myers of itself has not affected my position or altered my determination to continue as the candidate of my party."

JUSTIFYING MR. ROBINSON.

In justification of the course pursued by Mr. Robinson, Mr. McLean, whom no one can accuse of having any ulterior motive in trying to prevent the indorsement of Mr. Myers, as he stands too high as a lawyer and as a citizen to allow such a charge to be made honestly, said:

"The Republican party has put good men in the field for the various offices to be filled this fall. Why, if the people are afraid of Mr. Fitch and the Tammany influence which will control his actions, do they not support a man like Mr. Robinson? Few stand higher than he does as a business man, and none higher as a man of integrity. The Republican party never gained anything by indorsing Democrats. We always lost. In the campaign of 1890 when we adopted a mixed ticket the result was that every Independent Democrat voted the Democratic part of the mixed ticket and cut the Republican part of it. The result was the loss of enough members of the Assembly to insure the election of David B. Hill as a United States Senator over William M. Evarts. We are just as patriotic as any one else and we wish to do everything in our power to secure good government. If our candidates are elected we will have good government."

No answer was received by the members of the City Club to the telegram sent yesterday to Mr. Myers in Chicago, telling him of the result of the meeting. The telegram was as follows:

Theodore W. Myers, Chicago.

Having fully recognized your right to make your acceptance of an independent nomination for Controller conditional upon unmistakable approval of a great number of your fellow citizens, we are glad to be able to inform you that last night such approval was unmistakably shown by a great and representative mass-meeting, at which you were unanimously nominated.

WAGER SWAYNE,
R. FULTON CUTTING,
EDMOND KELLY.

POSITION OF THE CITY CLUB DEFINED.

The City Club members who took part in the meeting confined their expressions of opinion to the following statement:

Mr. Myers, many of his friends and some of the Republican leaders waited for the result of the mass-meeting held last night before committing themselves to a support of the movement. It seems proper, therefore, to point out what, if any, conclusion is to be drawn therefrom. 1. The meeting demonstrated that the movement is in the best sense of the word a popular one; this is the worst that "The Sun" and "Times" can find to say of it. No prominent speakers were advertised, because none could be found to speak. The people came not to hear prominent speakers, but to nominate a popular candidate. 2. It was thoroughly non-partisan; Republicans and Democrats were equally cheered. 3. It was thoroughly unanimous, neither Republican nor Democrat met with the slightest expression of disapproval. 4. This movement differs from that of the People's Municipal League in the following essential features: (a) It is started and supported by the people. (b) It has behind it the labor vote. (c) It has a politically popular leader.

In support of the foregoing it may be pointed out that the people spoke at this meeting in spite of the caution and absence of representative men; that the labor vote was found for the first time in hearty co-operation with a purely municipal reform movement, and that, notwithstanding the high personal qualifications of Francis M. Scott, the standard bearer of the People's Municipal League, he had never had the opportunity of securing the popular favor that is now lavished on Theodore W. Myers.

5. The political elements that are by their very nature allied in this movement are the Independents, the Labor party, the Republican party, the disaffected Tammany men, the Anti-Snappers.

In 1890 the Labor party looked with positive disfavor upon the Municipal League; there was practically no disaffection in Tammany, and there was no division in the Democratic party. Now the contrary is the case. We have the Labor vote; there is widespread disaffection in the very stronghold of Tammany Hall, and the Anti-Snappers, who have been prevented by National considerations from taking an openly hostile attitude to Tammany are all the more vindictively anxious to "knife" Tammany in secret.

It is submitted that all these considerations are sufficient to justify expectation of success and cordial co-operation on the part of all concerned.

REPUBLICANS WHO FAVOR COALITION.

Up to a late hour last evening, no word had been received from Mr. Myers at the City Club or at either the Republican State or County Headquarters. Republicans of prominence, including Chairman Brookfield and Chairman Hackett, of the State and State Executive committees; ex-Police Justice Patterson, John Sabine Smith, ex-Senator F. S. Gibbs and other well-known Republican leaders adhered to the belief that the indorsement of Controller Myers was the proper policy for the Republicans to adopt. There was not a little anxiety to learn what Mr. Myers's intentions were, and little doubt was expressed of Mr. Robinson's withdrawal if Mr. Myers decides to be a candidate. If the Controller sent messages to personal friends on the subject yesterday, they were not made public.

John E. Owens, representing the Welsh societies which have declared for Mr. Myers's re-election, sent the following message to the Controller from the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening:

Hon. Theo. W. Myers, Auditorium Hotel, Chicago:

I am instructed to wire you that if you accept the nomination the Republicans will indorse you without a doubt. Your election is assured. Wire reply.

JOHN E. OWENS.

Mr. Owens declined to give the authority upon which he sent this telegram, and neither ex-Judge Patterson nor any other Republican leader seen last night would admit that Mr. Owens was authorized by him to send the message. Mr. Owens was one of the speakers at the Cooper Union on Friday evening, and told newspaper men to whom he showed the message that he had received Mr. Myers's personal assurance that he would be a candidate an hour before the Controller started for Chicago. He said he expected a positive answer to-day.

AN AMAZING TALE ABOUT MR. ROBINSON.

Among the curiosities exhibited at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening was a letter purporting to be written by Henry C. Robinson, Republican nominee for Controller, and addressed to an evening Democratic newspaper, in which it was said that he had "been in consultation with members of the committee which placed me in nomination, and after a full consideration of the meeting last evening, I have definitely concluded not to withdraw from the canvass."

Mr. Patterson, Mr. Smith, Mr. Hackett, Mr. Gibbs and other Republicans to whom this alleged letter was shown expressed great surprise at its contents. The letter was written upon the note paper of Porter Brothers & Co., Nos. 78 and 80 Worth-st., and Nos. 15 and 17 Thomas-st., of which firm Mr. Robinson is a member, but some Republicans at headquarters last evening doubted its genuineness. They thought it entirely beyond belief that Mr. Robinson would listen to any advice from any one connected with a Democratic evening paper, or take such a publication for his medium of communication with the public.

MR. MYERS NOT TALKING MUCH.

REFUSING TO SAY WHAT HE WILL DO WITH THE NEW-YORK NOMINATION.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Controller Theodore W. Myers, of New-York City, who was recently set aside by Tammany in favor of Congressman Fitch, who was nominated for the office so well administered by Mr. Myers, is in the city attending the Manhattan celebration. To-day a reporter met Mr. Myers at the Auditorium Annex, just as he was about to start with Mayor Gilroy's party for Jackson Park, and asked him if he would accept the nomination.

"I have not heard yet that I have been nominated," Mr. Myers answered.

"But the fact remains that you have," said the reporter. "Don't you depend upon the newspapers for information like that?"

"Sometimes," answered the Controller, with a smile. "However, I do not believe it would be in good taste for me to talk on the subject without official notification. I may hear something at the Fair, and will see you when I come back."

The reporter intimated that this would be too late for his purpose, but Mr. Myers refused to commit himself. After some urging he made a remark which seemed to indicate that he would not accept the independent nomination tendered.

COLONIZING VOTERS IN CAMDEN.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 21 (Special).—A scheme to poll 1,500 fraudulent votes for the Democratic ticket at the coming election for State Senator, Sheriff and Assemblyman has been unearthed, and to-day the Republican County Executive Committee took steps to prevent the theft of the county. It has been discovered that the canvass made by Democratic ward workers introduced nearly 1,500 bogus residents, who have been placed upon the registry lists of the several wards. According to these lists every saloon in the city kept by a Democrat contains from eight to ten voters, and the houses of Democratic policemen contain four to six each. Others are registered from stables, shops and factories. One stable in the Fifth Ward answers for the residence of nine men. The Republican Committee decided to employ detectives to watch the polls and cause the arrest of any who attempt to vote upon these bogus names. All the lists are being carefully examined and a thorough canvass of the city is being made by the Republicans. William J. Thompson, "Duke of Gloucester," was renominated for Assemblyman by the Democrats of the IIId District.

A DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE INELIGIBLE.

Buffalo, Oct. 21 (Special).—It has been discovered that Dr. William Nelson Martin, the Democratic candidate for Assembly in the Wyoming County district, is ineligible because he is an examining surgeon under the pension laws, and therefore a Federal officeholder. He is related by marriage to President Cleveland, but was nominated by machine men.

MANY WOMEN REGISTERING.

Chatham, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special).—The names of 250 women have been registered in this village to-day.

Owego, N. Y., Oct. 21.—On the first registration day in Owego 400 women were registered. It is probable that a woman will be nominated on an independent ticket for School Commissioner, on account of the women favoring scientific temperance instruction in the schools of the county.

NOTES OF THE CANVASS.

The Ninth Ward Pioneer Corps has adopted resolutions heartily indorsing all Republican nominees as candidates whose characters are beyond reproach, and declaring many of the Democratic nominees to be unfit to receive the suffrages of the people. The corps pledges its earnest and loyal support to the Republican ticket.

The Swedish Republican Central Club held a meeting on Friday night at Congress Hall, No. 192 Third-ave. The Republican State and county tickets were indorsed with great enthusiasm. The president of the club, H. Johansen, presided.

The members of the Morton Republican Club of Harlem are exceedingly pleased over a crayon portrait of Levi P. Morton which Harvey T. Andrews has presented to their club. The picture now has a conspicuous place in the clubrooms.

DESPERATION OF THE RING.

ITS RUFFIANS AND LOAFERS TRY TO BREAK UP A BROOKLYN MEETING.

THEY HOPED TO PREVENT THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB FROM INDORSING SCHIEREN—POLICE CALLED IN TO STOP THE RIOT—RESOLUTIONS APPROVING THE HONEST CITIZENS' CANDIDATE FINALLY ADOPTED.

A desperate attempt was made by the McLaughlin Democrats in Brooklyn last evening to prevent an expression of opinion on the part of the Young Men's Democratic Club, upon a resolution to approve the candidacy of Charles A. Schieren for Mayor. The club has about 100 members in good standing, and there were ninety-two of them present at the meeting held at No. 44 Court-st. Notice was given five days ago, according to the by-laws of the club, that a motion would be made last evening to approve Mr. Schieren's candidacy. Then another member gave notice that he would make a motion to approve the whole Democratic ticket. The meeting was called to order by Archibald L. Sessions, and while the minutes of the last meeting were being read a crowd of young men from the Tenth and Sixth Wards marched in, led by John J. and Joseph McGarry, the sons of Alderman McGarry. John J. McGarry is a Democratic candidate for District Alderman to succeed his father, and as such by the rules of the club ceased to be a member when he was nominated. Both he and his brother, however, had been dropped from the roll for non-payment of dues. Most of those with them were not members of the club, and they displayed their personal proclivities by giving a cheer for John J. McGarry as they entered the hall. It was evident that an organized attempt was to be made to defeat the resolutions to support Mr. Schieren, which required a two-thirds vote, and that if necessary riot was to be provoked, as the result showed.

GROANS FROM THE RUFFIANS.

When Mr. Robinson called up his resolution approving the nomination of Mr. Schieren, it was met with groans from the rear of the room, especially when he read the clause calling upon all public-spirited Democrats to support the reform candidate. When the resolution had been read Robert Stewart, jr., moved that the meeting adjourn. This motion was put and declared carried by the chairman. This was the signal for the utmost disorder and confusion. The McGarrys and their supporters tried to howl down the motion, and crowded to the front as all the members rose.

A riot seemed imminent as John J. McGarry forced his way to the platform and tried to reassemble the meeting. Nearly every one was shouting at the top of his voice; some had climbed on tables and chairs and gesticulated wildly and spoke, but only the motion of their jaws could be seen, and no words were heard above the tumult. Some of the members feared that the excited ones would come to blows and the property of the club be destroyed, and half a dozen hurried to Police Headquarters and called for help to quell the riot. Police Captain Campbell, Detectives Mahoney, Conner, Kelly and Ryan, Sergeant Reeves and a squad of a score of policemen hastened to the hall. No physical damage had been done, save that John J. Clancy, once the Labor candidate for Mayor, had been struck on the head with a cane. He had shouted: "No sons of a 'Boodle' Alderman can run this meeting!" when he was struck.

HE THOUGHT A MCGARRY HIT HIM.

He said afterward that he thought that one of the McGarrys hit him, but he could not be sure. Several hats were smashed in the melee, and a number of coats were torn. There were cheers for Boody in the midst of the excitement. After the police had appeared it was some time before quiet was restored. The detectives, in their plain clothes, had no deterrent effect upon the crowd which swayed to and fro in the room.

Finally Chairman Sessions mounted his table and secured attention. He stated that if there was any doubt in regard to the adoption of the motion to adjourn a division would be taken by calling the roll. On the suggestion of William C. Beecher, every member was required to identify himself by marching up to the ballot box and depositing his vote.

F. W. Hinrichs said that there were many men unknown to the club present, and all who voted should give their names and addresses. Charles Frederick Adams said: "All fair and manly men will be ready to make full identification of themselves; nobody but rowdies and heelers will object."

George Gru made a slighting allusion to "Pooh-Bah" Hinrichs, and Mr. Adams retorted that Mr. Hinrichs was the favorite of Brooklyn.

A RING CANDIDATE'S FRAUDULENT VOTE.

After the ballots had been cast it was found that Louis Haff, a Democratic candidate for Alderman-at-Large, had voted, though disqualified. While the vote was being counted the room was cleared of all save members of the club, by another call of the roll and the placing of those who responded on one side of the room. The police then put all non-members out of the room. The motion to adjourn was announced to have been carried by a vote of 67 to 25, but F. W. Hinrichs at once moved that it be reconsidered, and this was adopted, with only eleven negative votes.

The resolutions to approve the nomination of Mr. Schieren were then adopted after some debate by more than the necessary two-thirds vote. When they found themselves excluded from the room the McGarrys and their followers went home.

Among those who earnestly advocated the resolutions in favor of Mr. Schieren were ex-Police Commissioner James D. Bell, F. W. Hinrichs, Robert Stewart, jr., Henry Yonge, Sanders Shanks and C. F. Adams.

The meeting was the most exciting in the history of the club since it was divided against itself in 1885 upon the question of supporting Alfred C. Chapin, first president of the club, for Mayor on the regular Democratic ticket, or supporting General John B. Woodward, the independent and reform candidate.

A member of the club said after the riot, "This was a most barefaced attempt to override the will of a majority by a factious minority that I ever saw. The McGarrys, in their pink shirts, came in here to make trouble. To avoid it the leading members thought it wise to adjourn. But this provoked the tumult it was designed to avoid. When the members of the club who favor Mr. Schieren found that they had matters their own hands they excluded strangers, as should have been done in the first place, and conducted the business properly."

BOTH NOMINATIONS INDORSED.

CHARLES A. SCHIEREN AND WILLIAM J. GAYNOR WARMLY COMMENDED TO THE VOTERS OF BROOKLYN.

The Committee of Nine, appointed at the mass-meeting of citizens held in the Academy of Music, in Brooklyn, on October 12, have issued a manifesto strongly indorsing Charles A. Schieren and William J. Gaynor as the respective Republican nominees for Mayor of that city and Justice of the Supreme Court. The committee was appointed to present the name of Mr. Gaynor to the Republican City Convention as that of a candidate for the Mayoralty, unless the Republican party should place in nomination some other candidate satisfactory to at least seven of the committee. The convention having recognized the universal demand for a candidate who should be in himself a guarantee against misrule and misgovernment, had nominated Mr. Schieren for Mayor. Mr. Schieren, as a strong and fearless business man who would administer the duties of the office in the interests of the people, recognizing no bosses or rings, having accepted the nomination and publicly indorsed the platform of the meeting by which the committee was appointed, his nomination was entirely satisfactory. At the earnest request of the committee, Mr. Gaynor had accepted the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, recognizing the fact that the judiciary is the main bulwark of liberty for the people and redress for evils which rings thrust upon them, and that the high office of justice should be filled by a strong and able jurist in whom the people have confidence. The committee earnestly recommends that the people of Brooklyn will, by their hearty support of Mr. Gaynor, "demonstrate to the world that ability, uprightness of character, sterling integrity and fidelity to the people will not be allowed to go unappreciated."

THE PROGRESS CLUB GIVES A BALL.

The Progress Republican Club of the VIIth Assembly District gave its fifth annual ball at Beethoven Maennerchor Hall, No. 210 Fifth-st., last evening. More than 125 couples were present. The music was furnished by the Daniel F. Miller Orchestra. After the dancing was over the guests were invited to the dining hall, where refreshments were served. The Committee of Arrangements were Samuel A. Sancler, Gustav Kurz, John Druschele, Frank Blost, Frederick Knorr, Arthur Fredericks and Frank Bauer. The large dancing hall was filled with people, who danced until a late hour, and the ball was a complete success.

WOMEN TO CALL ON MR. SCHIEREN.

The Women's Health Protective Association of Brooklyn met yesterday and Mrs. James Scrimgeour presided. The committee to wait upon Charles A. Schieren and inform him of the action of the women's mass-meeting in supporting him for Mayor was formed of Mrs. Andrew J. Perry, Mrs. Camden C. Dike, Mrs. Isaac H. Cary, Mrs. Ethan Allen Doty, Mrs. Emma F. Pettengill, Mrs. Isaac H. Howland and Mrs. James Scrimgeour. Mr. Schieren will be asked when it will be convenient for the committee to call upon him. The leaflets to be distributed by the members of the association, urging the election of Mr. Schieren, will be ready this week.
