REVOLT ON STATEN ISLAND.

THE PEOPLE ARE TIRED OF NICHOLAS MULLER.

A CLEAR SHOWING OF THE WAY IN WHICH THE COUNTY IS UNJUSTLY TAXED.

The revolt in Richmond County against the rule of Mr. Croker's tributary prince, Nicholas Muller, is growing in importance, and those of the Ring in power are seemingly fearful that their hold on the offices is doomed. The nomination of Mrs. West for School Commissioner on the Republican ticket has brought out a large registration of women, who are entitled to vote for that office. As to the nominee for County Judge, all old soldiers will remember, if others do not, how the Democratic nominee, Judge Stephens, refused to adjourn court on the day of the funeral of General Sherman, when every other court in the country of like rank was closed.

The way in which Richmond County is taxed under the Muller rule is succinctly set forth in an interview with Joseph M. Keating, published yesterday in "The Staten Islander," an independent paper. Here is what Mr. Keating says:

"Richmond County is one of the sixty counties in the State. It is at the very foot of the list in the acres of land assessed, viz.: 30,353 acres, while Rockland County, which is the next above it, has 98,064 acres. When considered with reference to the assessed value of real estate, it is No. 48 in the list of counties, and when considered with reference to the assessed value of personal estate it is No. 58.

"The aggregate equalized valuation of taxable property in Richmond County for 1892 was $13,779,112, it being No. 41 in the list of counties. Its 'county taxes' were $274,335, and in the amount of county taxes paid it is No. 7 in the list; its tax-rate is .0258, and in the rate of tax paid it is No. 3 in the list.

"To summarize, let us reduce the foregoing figures to tabular form. Richmond County ranks among the counties of the State as follows:

In acres of land assessed	No. 60
In assessed value of real estate	No. 48
In assessed value of personality	No. 58
Equalized valuation of taxable property	No. 41
In amount of county taxes	No. 7
In its tax rate	No. 3

"Why should Richmond County, with its $13,779,112 of taxable property, pay $12,000 more of county taxes than Queens County, which has over $51,000,000 of taxable property? Why should it pay $123,000 more of county taxes than Dutchess County with $44,000,000 of taxable property, and $174,000 more of county taxes than Orange County, with over $42,000,000 of taxable property?

"There must be some reason why, when there are forty counties with more taxable property within their borders—there are only six counties whose government costs more than ours—and why our tax rate is .0258, while that of the city and county of New-York is only .0189.

"There is a reason, and it is expressed in the old saying that 'he who dances must pay the fiddler.'"

Staten Island has been dancing to the music of Nicholas Muller's fiddle for some time, and thinks it has paid enough.

HIGH-HANDED ACTS OF MULLER'S MEN.

THEY THROW A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN INTO PRISON—OUTRAGEOUS TREATMENT OF REPUBLICANS WHO TRY TO DO THEIR DUTY.

Fearful of impending disaster, utter rout and ruin, the leaders of the corrupt Democratic organization of Staten Island ruled by Nicholas Muller have resorted to drastic measures, hoping thereby to prolong the existence of their defiant and dishonest band of political plunderers. Trouble has been brewing for the leaders of Muller's party for a long time. Signs of dissatisfaction among the taxpayers and citizens of Staten Island have been succeeded by open revolts from his party, and a corresponding gain of force by the Republican party.

Yesterday Muller's followers, by their actions, showed what was in store for Republicans who did what they deemed to be their duty to the community and to their party. A citizen of high standing and unimpeachable character, a resident of the village of Port Richmond, was arrested on a charge of perjury, taken to a police station and locked in a cell. The leaders of the corrupt Democratic organization, not satisfied with this high-handed outrage, placed a policeman at the St. George ferry to watch for another respected and honored citizen of Port Richmond, that he, too, might be thrown into a cell. David J. Jones is the man who was arrested and locked up yesterday. Lester A. Scofield is the man the policeman at the St. George ferry was waiting for all yesterday afternoon and last evening.

The outcome of the outrage perpetrated yesterday in the name of the law is anxiously awaited by the respectable people of Staten Island. Regardless of past political affiliations they denounce the tactics of Muller's "gang."

The arrest of David J. Jones at Port Richmond was the outcome of the arrest on Thursday of Thomas W. Fitzgerald, District-Attorney of Richmond County, and Excise Commissioner George Van Name. The warrants for the arrest of these officials were issued by Daniel T. Cornell, Justice of the Peace at Clifton, on Tuesday. David J. Jones and Lester A. Scofield were the complainants. Mr. Jones and Mr. Scofield came before Justice Cornell on Monday and swore to the complaint. They accused Fitzgerald and Van Name of violating Sections Nos 1 and 3 of Chapter No. 154 of the laws of 1882. The seriousness of the charges made against these two officers of Richmond County can be seen from the quotation from the complaint printed below. Mr. Jones and Mr. Scofield swore "that Fitzgerald, being then and there chairman and presiding officer at the primary election held by the Citizens' party in the village of Port Richmond, in the town of Northfield, in the County of Richmond, and State of New-York, held at Griffith's Hall in said village in the 18th of February, 1893. . . . Committed misdemeanors and violated the law governing primary elections, and especially sections 1 and 3 of Chapter 154, of the laws of 1882, and committed frauds and wrongs tending to affect the result, and allowing to be received and fraudulently and wrongfully receiving and allowing to be received and depositing in the said ballot-box more than one ballot from the same person for the same office, which said ballots were fraudulently and unlawfully folded together, and by knowingly making a false court canvass statement and certificate or return of the ballots cast, knowingly and wilfully counting ballots so fraudulently folded together, against the form of the Statute in that case made and provided."

Before he issued the warrants Justice Cornell asked the complainants why they did not go to some other justice nearer the place of the commission of the alleged acts.

"I never met Jones or Scofield before," said Justice Cornell to a Tribune reporter last evening. "They replied to my question about going elsewhere by saying that they could not get justice elsewhere. 'Are you afraid, Cornell?' they asked. I looked over the complaint and the next day I issued the warrant, giving it to Constable Fitzpatrick with instructions to hand the warrant to the District-Attorney and Mr. Van Name, allowing them to come to my office of their own accord."

District-Attorney Fitzpatrick was seen by a Tribune reporter at Clifton yesterday. He said to the reporter that he had prepared a petition to the Supreme Court, praying that Mr. Cornell be removed from office. Mr. Cornell said last night that he had not been served with a copy of the petition.

David J. Jones, who was arrested and locked up, was released during the afternoon in $2,000 bail. Counter charges of malicious prosecution, civil suits for damages, etc., will soon, it is said, be brought in the courts.

A DINNER FOR COLLECTOR KILBRETH.

The nabobs of the Democratic Club, at No. 617 Fifth-ave., gave their first regular monthly dinner last evening, the guest of honor being Collector James T. Kilbreth. The president of the club, John H. V. Arnold, who is also the Tammany candidate for Surrogate, presided. Near President Arnold at the principal table were Postmaster Charles Willoughby Dayton, William E. Curtis, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Congressman John R. Fellows, Tammany candidate for District-Attorney; Speaker William Sulzer, Street-Cleaning Commissioner W. S. Andrews and George Trimble Davidson. Vice-President Edward F. O'Dwyer was at the other end of the table, facing Mr. Arnold, and on his right and left were Magrane Coxe, Deputy Register John Van Glahn, Assistant Corporation Counsel Charles W. Ridgway, Thomas E. Crimmins, Third-ave. cable road contractor, and F. H. Chapin. A. A. Alling and John Quincy Adams presided at other tables.

About 160 members and guests dined with Mr. Kilbreth. Francis Lynde Stetson, Herman Ridder, Roger Foster, Judges Van Wyck, Newburger and McCarthy, Senator Jacob A. Cantor, ex-Register John Reilly, Lewis J. Conlan, Tammany candidate for City Court Judge; J. Rockwell Fay, the newly appointed Assistant United States Appraiser; Edward P. Steers, S. D. Freshman, Walter A. Logan, W. H. Woodbury and Samuel Goldberg were among them. There were no set toasts, but Collector Kilbreth, Colonel Fellows, Speaker Sulzer and Postmaster Dayton, being called upon, made speeches.

"DRY DOLLAR'S" REPUBLICAN OPPONENT.

In view of the shameful disclosures of illegal registration carried on by Timothy "Dry Dollar" Sullivan and his "heelers," it seems especially pertinent to call attention to the fine record of his Republican opponent for the Senate, Captain John Schmidling. The Captain is forty-nine years old. He enlisted in the war as a drummer boy, fought gallantly throughout the entire struggle and was retired as ranking captain. He then secured a place with "The New-York Clipper," and has been connected with that journal ever since. He is past commander of J. L. Riker Post, No. 62, and is held in esteem by Grand Army men all over the city. He has been a firm, unflinching Republican all his life.

Captain Schmidling has been actively engaged in VIIth Assembly District politics for many years, is a member of both the Patterson and the Progress Republican clubs, and has many friends of the opposite political faith.

NEED OF PLAIN AND COURAGEOUS WORDS.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Most heartily do I thank you for the masterly manner in which you handle Maynard in your editorial of October 16. Had this country more fearless and courageous editors like you it would be in a much better fix than it is in now.

It did not take much of a philosopher to foretell what would be the result of the Democrats taking possession of all three branches of the Government. If honest people are not already in possession of the fact, they will soon learn that there is not one particle of patriotism in the breasts of the Democratic leaders. They go exclusively for the spoils of office and they are not at all scrupulous about the manner of getting into office.

I am opposed to free silver, but I hope the Republican Senators will not, by consenting to change the rules of the Senate, pull down the gap for the Democrats to turn in their herd of foolish laws.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

MOUNT VERNON.

A report gained circulation yesterday that smallpox was prevalent in a part of Mount Vernon. Upon investigation it was learned that the rumor was greatly exaggerated, and that there was only a single case in South Mount Vernon. It was discovered a few days ago by Dr. T. F. Sharkey, who at once established an efficient quarantine and took other measures against a communication of the disease. Health Officer Archibald T. Fanning, the candidate for Coroner, has also taken measures to prevent any spread of the disease. He has reported Dr. Sharkey's action as most fortunate. He has officially given notice to the railroad contractors not to employ Italians unless they can show clean bills of health, and has cautioned the police officials to keep a close watch on every part of the city, and to report every suspicious case of sickness and all cases of violation of the sanitary laws.

WHITE PLAINS.

The annual meeting of the Westchester County Historical Society was held at the Court House, White Plains, yesterday. Previous to the delivery of the annual address by the Rev. Charles Lindsley, of New-Rochelle, on "The Fate of the English Regicides in America," a business meeting was held. It was resolved to have erected at White Plains a fireproof building for the use of the society, and Charles H. Tibbits, of White Plains; David A. Rowe, of Tarrytown; David Cromwell, the Rev. Charles Lindsley, of New-Rochelle, and the Rev. Lea Luquer, of Bedford, were named as a committee to solicit subscriptions. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, James Wood, of Mount Kisco; vice-presidents, Edward F. de Lancey, Josiah S. Mitchell, David Hawley, John Jay and Thomas C. Cornell; recording secretary, James B. Lockwood; corresponding secretary, S. L. H. Ward; librarian, William A. Woodworth; treasurer, Monmouth G. Hart, all of White Plains; trustees, William H. Robertson, David A. Rowe, Edward Hartley, the Rev. Lea Luquer, David Cromwell, Charles H. Tibbits, C. R. Dusenbury, Edward L. L. Phipps, Cornelius E. Kane, L. T. Yale, Joseph Barrett, Isaac N. Mills, John Pagan, E. B. Long, Henry Wood and the Rev. W. S. Coffey. About fifty members sat down to the annual dinner of the society.

YONKERS.

Dr. Valentine Browne, president of the Board of Health, reports that the cost of the smallpox cases was about $6,000. There were fifty-three cases, so the average cost for each case was less than $120. Seven of the cases proved fatal. . . . The contract for building a new hospital for the reception of persons suffering from contagious diseases has been awarded. It will cost $15,370. . . . A new plan has been adopted this year to stimulate interest in the evening schools. This is the giving of an entertainment on Friday evenings. The success of the first entertainment Friday evening was such that the plan will be continued through the term. . . . The Criticism class held its first meeting of the season Friday night, at the home of Mrs. John Reid. William F. Scott was elected vice-president in place of G. Hilton Scribner, who is abroad, and Charles P. Easton was elected secretary. The other officers held over. The class listened to an address by George P. Putnam, who spoke entertainingly on "The Relations of the Publisher to the Author and the Public."

RYE.

The Cliff House, a well-known summer hotel of Rye, was burned at an early hour yesterday morning. The loss is thought to be about $25,000, covered by insurance. The few persons occupying the building had no difficulty in making their escape. The owner of the property is Mrs. Jeannette Persons, of New-York.

PEEKSKILL.

The old blast furnace, a familiar landmark at Peekskill for the last half century, is being torn down after passing through many hands. It was bought some time ago by G. W. Schultz & Co., of No. 308 Walnut-st., Philadelphia, from Senator J. P. Jones, of Nevada; Frederick Livingston and William Schoonmaker, of New-York.

NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

KILLED BY THE MOTOR CAR.

William Gepp, driver of a mail wagon, was run down and killed by a motor car in Grand-st., Jersey City, yesterday afternoon. Gepp, who was collecting the mail, was driving down Grand-st., followed by the motor. In some way the car became unmanageable. When it struck the mail wagon Gepp was thrown under the car and literally ground to pieces. Parts of his body were thrown into the gutter, and were not found until an hour after the accident. Lewis Martin, the motorman, was committed on a charge of manslaughter. He says he tried to ring the bell to warn Gepp, but it failed to work. Then he had tried to turn off the current and stop the car, but the handle of the storage battery had broken and left the motor to run at will until the conductor disconnected the trolley wire. Before that could be done, Gepp was dead.

The Jersey City Board of Finance has authorized the sale of new City Hall bonds to the amount of $550,000. The erection of the building will be begun as soon as the bonds are sold.

NEWARK.

Gregario Pignalare, one of the three Italians stabbed by Dominico Bove in a quarrel at Van Baren and Chestnut sts. last Sunday, died in the hospital yesterday. The murderer has not yet been captured.

It was made definitely known yesterday that the amount embezzled by George Lingard, formerly bookkeeper for the Eastwood Chemical and Wire Cloth Works, at Belleville, will not exceed $7,000. It is believed that Lingard lost the money in Wall Street. He will not be prosecuted by the firm. His wife will turn over her property to the banks that will be losers by his transactions.

The certificate of Weslie Jackson, Republican candidate for Assembly in the IVth District, was filed in the County Clerk's office at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. At noon the clerk who received the certificate informed the County Clerk that it had been stolen. The latter at once sent word to the chairman of the Republican County Committee. A new certificate was prepared for filing in place of the stolen one.

HACKENSACK.

A number of boys were throwing a six-pound stone in front of Edward Ackerman's coal office, in Anderson-st., Hackensack, early yesterday evening. Daniel Thompson, eighteen years old, took his turn and threw the stone. Joseph Hyatt, aged five and a half, was on the large gate leading to the coal yard. The missile hit him on the back of the head, and he fell on his face on the rough cobblestones of the driveway. It was found that the child's skull was fractured, and doctors said he could not live. Thompson left the town.

ELIZABETH.

W. B. Tucker, the best-known and oldest hardware merchant of Elizabeth, was only saved last night from a horrible death by the presence of mind of Edgar Knapp, the quarterback of the Elizabeth Athletic Club football team. Mr. Tucker, who is deaf, was returning from the game, and was caught on the Jefferson-ave. crossing between a coal and a passenger train going in opposite directions. He was bewildered and did not know what to do. Young Knapp, seeing his peril, dashed forward on the crossing, and, hurling Mr. Tucker to the ground between the two tracks, threw himself on top of the prostrate man and held him in this position until the danger was passed. It was a gallant deed, and loudly cheered by the crowd of people who witnessed the occurrence.

VETERAN VOLUNTEERS CELEBRATE.

The Veteran Association of the 54th New-York Volunteers last night celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of the day the volunteer regiment left for the seat of war by a dinner, concert and dancing at the German Masonic Temple, No. 220 East Fifteenth-st. The Theodore Koerner Liedertafel, a choral society composed of members of the association, sang many glees and patriotic songs during the dinner. The speakers were: Senator Roesch, Commissioner Wahle and Francis J. Werneck, president of the association. Gettysburg medals were given to Charles Miller, Anton Miller, Daniel Miller, Charles Graus, Julius Hohma, John Kroell, John Wehehner, Louis Brank, Charles Heeler, Herman Sauten, Herman Scheidberg and Louis Hahn. After the dinner and singing came the dancing, the music for which was furnished by Meinz's Band, of the Steinwehr Post, G. A. R.
