GRAND ARMY BUGLE NOTES.

LOCAL CANDIDATES FOR DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.

GREAT INTEREST IN THE ELECTION FOR THE OFFICE—MANY WELL-KNOWN COMRADES WHO HAVE LATELY DIED—SERVICES BY VARIOUS POSTS.

It is a long time since a Department Commander was chosen from this part of the State, and if the office does not come this way next time it will not be for want of candidates. Within a short radius of the New-York City Hall there are already three good men and true, whose friends are hard at work to elevate them to the chief place in the department—Senior Vice-Department-Commander Edward J. Atkinson, Past Commander of H. B. Claflin Post, No. 578, of this city; Commander John C. Shotts, of Kitchings Post, No. 69, of Yonkers, and Past Commander Joseph W. Kay, of Winchester Post, No. 197, Brooklyn.

Last week Comrades E. A. Dubey, Past Junior Vice-Department Commander; A. T. Wilson, Commander of Rankin Post, No. 10, and C. W. Cowtan, Past Senior Vice-Department Commander, all of Brooklyn, sent out a circular addressed to each post in the department, referring to a letter of the Kings County Committee of May 1 last, which was similarly addressed, designed to elicit an expression of the order regarding Past Commander Kay. Comrades Dubey, Wilson and Cowtan now desire to say that the responses to the May letter from all parts of the State have been so numerous and the proffers of assistance have been so generous that the committee has determined formally to place Comrade Kay in nomination for Department Commander. They therefore request Comrade Kay's friends to select delegates favorable to him to the coming State Encampment, to meet in March. "We present a candidate," the circular adds, "who should combine all interests, fuse all diverse opinions and mass together the great body of our comrades, in a grand effort to recognize the courage of conviction and honesty of purpose exemplified in the person of a brave soldier, a good comrade and a conscientious, valued citizen. All correspondence on this subject should be addressed to Comrade C. W. Cowtan, No. 197 Monroe-st., Brooklyn."

Comrades of Lafayette Post, No. 140, will assemble in full uniform this evening to attend in a body the funeral of Major Theodore W. Greig, at St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church, the Rev. Dr. Van De Water, pastor, One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st. and Fifth-ave., at 8 p. m. Major Greig died on Friday, after a long and painful illness. Few members of the Grand Army in this city were better known or more popular. He served in the 61st New-York Volunteers, and received the medal of honor voted by Congress for conspicuous bravery at the battle of Antietam, where he captured the flag of the 4th Alabama. Comrade Greig was for many years adjutant of Lafayette Post, but declined a re-election last year. He was at his death and for a long time previously an official of the Excise Department. The dead comrade leaves a wife and two children.

VETERANS LAID TO REST.

E. A. Kimball Post, No. 100, Dr. S. G. Cook, Commander, on Wednesday laid to rest, with military honors in Greenwood, the body of Comrade Robert Taylor, who died at the Soldiers' Home, at Hampton, Va. Comrade Taylor served in the 59th New-York Volunteers. On the same day Alexander Hamilton Post, No. 182, Commander Thomas W. Smith, buried Comrade William M. Philbrick, one of its most faithful members. The dead comrade was a soldier in the 71st and 37th N. Y. S. M. He was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery. Kimball Post and the Veteran Association of the Hawkins Zouaves lost one of their best-known members last Tuesday in the sudden death of Comrade Charles W. Glaser. His funeral took place on Saturday from his home, No. 322 West One-hundred-and-forty-fifth-st., and was attended by the post and the association and by "Charlie's" brother inspectors in the New-York Custom House, in which he held a place for a quarter of a century. Comrade Glaser entered the Army in the 9th New-York Volunteers (Hawkins Zouaves) in 1861 as a private soldier. Through bravery and faithful service he was promoted to a lieutenancy in Company G. At the end of his two years' service he re-enlisted in the 17th New-York Volunteers, with which regiment he continued until the end of the war. A large circle of friends and brothers-in-arms mourn his loss.

H. B. CLAFLIN POST ENCAMPMENT.

H. B. Claflin Post, No. 578, enjoyed an interesting encampment last Monday evening, which included the muster of two recruits presented by Commander Walter Dull. This is the sixth new member he has brought in this year. The nominations for officers to be elected next month were as follows: Commander, William H. Rans, Andrew G. Sutton, C. L. Booth; Senior Vice-Commander, Ferd Boehner; Junior Vice-Commander, George Bainton; Quartermaster, M. S. Sure; Surgeon, Wilbur A. Jackson, M. D., and George E. Morgan; Chaplain, the Rev. Henry Cramer; Officer of Day, Thomas Harrison; Officer of the Guard, James Raynor. Arrangements were made for the annual reception and entertainment, to take place November 28, at Fisher's Academy, One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth- and Third-ave.

The memorial service which George Huntsman Post, No. 50, of Flushing, L. I., held last Wednesday in memory of Past Commander Alonzo Garretson, Frederick Schmidt, Horace Leek and Francis A. Brown, four comrades who died during the year, was largely attended and extremely impressive. It took place in the armory of the 17th Separate Company of the National Guard, Commander Henry A. Bowman presiding.

Comrade John Palmer, Secretary of State-elect, has chosen for his Deputy Secretary Comrade Andrew Davidson, ex-State Senator, and one of the most popular members of the Grand Army in this State. The appointment gives great satisfaction to members of the order. Captain Davidson served in the 121st New-York Volunteers, and afterward in the 31st United States Colored Infantry.

Phil Sheridan Post, No. 233, and Judson Kilpatrick Post, No. 143, named for two of the ablest and most dashing cavalry generals the Union Army produced, are discussing the question of consolidation. Both posts are strong in pluck and energy, and their consolidation would place them on a satisfactory footing as to membership.

Naval Post, No. 516, yesterday attended the funeral of Comrade Martin O'Hearn, at No. 301 Mulberry-st., and laid wreaths on the shipmates of the Farragut Association of Naval Veterans, paid a fraternal visit to the United States steamship New-York. They were warmly received by Captain Philip and his hardy bluejackets.

Civil Justice-elect George F. Roesch, of the VIIth Assembly District, is soon to wed Miss Lederle, daughter of Comrade Frank Lederle, of Steinwehr Post, No. 192. The veterans of Steinwehr are preparing to wish the happy pair joy in a substantial way.

Past Commander A. M. Underhill, of Alexander Hamilton Post, No. 182, has been announced as Inspector-General on the staff of Commander-in-Chief J. G. B. Adams, and General N. W. Day as New-York member of the National Board of Administration.

The New-York Memorial Committee will hold its regular meeting this evening at the 69th Regiment Armory. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

This sensible extract is taken from the last general order of the Department Commander of Washington and Alaska: "The postroom is the only clubhouse the average veteran can afford. The time that he will enjoy its benefits will not be long. Let then every effort be made to make it pleasant and the meetings interesting," and continues by advising the "boys" to keep the campfire burning. That is practical Grand Army talk.

GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, November 18, 1893.

COTTON—The cotton market at New-York opened at a drop of from 5 to 11 points, and at the close the tone was easy, with a net decline for the day of from 14 to 15 points. This falling off was due to a net decline in Liverpool contracts of 1-64 to 2-64d and to free selling by local longs. When the market opened it was without public advices from Liverpool, as cable communication was broken by a heavy storm of sleet in England. Private cablegrams, however, reported a net decline at the start at the Liverpool market of 1-64d on contracts. "The Financial Chronicle" states that picking and marketing have progressed rapidly during the last week, and that in many sections the gathering of the crop is nearing completion. The movement at New-Orleans for next week is estimated at 200,000 bales, while the receipts at all ports are estimated over the same time at 280,000 bales. The estimated receipts at the ports for to-day, as given out unofficially, were for 40,000 bales, against 51,439 bales last week, and 33,033 last year. The receipts at the principal ports were as follows: Galveston, 6,410 bales, against 8,999 bales this day last week; New-Orleans, 15,529 bales, against 4,366 bales; Mobile, 568 bales, against 923 bales; Savannah, 4,825 bales, against 6,131 bales; Charleston, 2,000 bales, against 4,829 bales; Norfolk, 4,957 bales, against 1,882 bales.

COFFEE—The coffee market at New-York, after opening at a partial decline of 5 points, remained very steady, though fairly active, and closed finally with the tone steady and 5 to 10 points lower for the day. The total sales of futures were 16,750 bags. The chief causes of the decline were free selling by longs and reports from Brazil of weaker markets there. The public Brazilian cable gave the following information: Rio No 7 coffee, 14 800; exchange, 10¾d. Receipts, 10,000 bags; stock, 111,000 bags; market quiet. Santos receipts, 15,000 bags; Santos stock, 211,000 bags; good average Santos, 15 800. The European markets were in the main lower. Hamburg being partially ¼ pfg off; London, 3d lower, and Havre about ¼f higher. The early transactions were made within the following range: December, 16.50; January, 16.25; February, 16.05; March, 15.90; May, 15.55@15.60; July, 15.35. The market for contracts closed steady, but 5 to 10 points lower. Total sales were 16,750 bags as follows:

Brazil coffee was very dull, and no important sales were made, the nominal price for No 7 spot being 18c. December shipment was offered at 14½c, but not taken. Mild coffee was steady, but quiet, at unchanged prices. Cordova was quoted at 20@20½c.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The interest in the flour market is perhaps more restricted than the interest in wheat. There is hardly any business doing to warrant any fair criticism of the market, although what little there is passes uniformly to be on the weak side of the market, with buyers showing a persistent indifference. Sales to-day were only 7,300 pkgs, including 600 bbls Southern flour, 3,000 bbls city mills clears at private terms; 500 sacks extra ls, at $2.50; 100 bbls choice superfine at $2.50, and 2,000 bbls spring patents at $3.85@$4 in wood, and some as low as $3.50 in sacks. Southern flour is still neglected and heavy. RYE-FLOUR—The market continues firm, with a moderate jobbing trade at $2.55@$2.60. RYE MEAL—The market was quiet and easy. Sales were 125 bbls at $2.90@$2.95. Quotations follow:

CORNMEAL—The market is firm. Quotations: Yellow Western, $2.60@$2.75; Brandywine, $2.80; Saxonmore, $2.80. Southern white, bags, $1.15@$1.25. BAG MEAL—Steady. Quotations: Fine white, $1.05@$1.10; fine yellow, $1.02@$1.05; coarse, $1.00@$1.05. FEED—Market quiet. Quotations of Western carlots, 49-lb, 70@72½c; 00-lb, 70@72½c; 80-lb, 75c; 100-lb, 80@85c; sharps, 95c@$1; city feed steady at 80c; rye feed, 75@80c; hominy chop, 85c; sales, 4 cars; cottonseed meal, $1.20@$1.25; oil meal, $1.40@$1.45.

GRAIN—WHEAT—The action of the market was almost a reproduction of nearly every day of the last week, excepting that another record on the down side of the market was made, the price going below any previous figures for May and December both here and at Chicago. The opening was very dull at about the closing figures of last night, followed by a little advance, and then a slow decline on liquidation. The result was a net decline of ¼@⅜c here, and on the curb prices were again weaker. Weak cables, poor foreign demand and only a small cash trade were factors in the decline. Interior receipts for the week show quite a little falling off, but not enough to make a decrease in the visible Monday. Exports are fair, considering the small purchases, but even these fair figures cannot be maintained long with the present small purchases. The sales of cash wheat were only 32,000 bush, including 10,000 bush for exports, as follows: No 2 red, one under December in store; December closed 65¾c, ⅝c over December f o b at store; December closed f o b afloat, and December price delivered; No 2 red, 8,000 bush, ⅛c over December f o b afloat, December 1; ungraded, 24,000 bush, private terms. CORN—The market for corn was weak and lower, selling down on further liquidation. The opening was quiet, but there seemed to be more long stuff pressing for sale, and later quiet a weak feeling developed on rather liberal offerings at the West, and reports of larger movement and increased production. "The Prairie Farmer" talked of 1,728,000,000 bush for the crop, which is about 100,000,000 bush in excess of the low estimates of the late summer. The belief that the final yield of the crop will be much in excess of the early estimates has been bringing long corn on the market for the last week. The close was dull at ¼@⅜c net decline. Cash corn was fairly active, with sales of 144,000 bush, including 112,000 bush for export, as follows: No 2 corn, 128,000 bush, east and forward, at 45½c; No 2 white, 8,000 bush, private terms, to arrive. OATS—The market was very dull to-day, with prices somewhat easier, in sympathy with the decline in corn. Trade in futures was small, and the final close was weak and at ⅛ to ¼c net loss. Cash oats were dull and weak, with sales of 40,000 bush, as follows: No 2 oats, 20,000 bush, 33¾c elevator and 35c delivered; No 3 oats, 33½c nom; No 2 white, 10,000 bush, 36c; No 3 white, 3,000 bush, 33½c; track white, 12,000 bush, 35@36c; do mixed, 2,000 bush, 34½@35c. MALT—Market steady; Western, 60@80c; Canada, 90@95c; six-rowed, 85@85c. BARLEY—Very quiet; No 2 Milwaukee, 62@63c; ungraded, Western, 65@90c. RYE—Market nominal, carlots, 80 bushels, 55@57c. MOLASSES AND SYRUPS—A slow jobbing demand is noted for new crop New-Orleans molasses, the passing sales being at prices within the range of 30@36c for prime to choice. Foreign has still dull and nominal, average were nominal at 20@25c for good to prime, and 12@19c for common.

NAVAL STORES—There was a quiet market all around to-day, but there was a fair degree of steadiness throughout, and no important changes were made in prices. Stock—Rosin, 18,599 bbls; spirits turpentine, 805 bbls; tar, 1,805 bbls. We quote: Spirits turpentine, 30½c in yard, 30¾c in store, 30½c in machine-made; bbls: Rosins—common strained, $1.27½; good strained, $1.30; E, $1.40; F, $1.52½; G, $1.60; H, $1.85; I, $2.20; K, $2.75; M, $4 low to $6; N, $4; W G, $4.20; W W, $4.50@$4.40; tar, f o b, w h, $2; f o b, f n, $2 10; pitch, flight weight, $1.20; pitch, regular weight, $1.60.

OCEAN FREIGHTS—Both freights were firm on the light supply of room, which for prompt and early loading has been closely absorbed by prompt and through shipments. The demand for cotton tonnage continues fairly good, though there has been a decline from the highest rate of the season of 4@5s per ton. Petroleum freights are neglected, but rates for barrels remain steady on the few chartings of small parcels of spot tonnage. Grain of freights to China and Japan are 2d lower. Other freights are about steady and moderately active. Engagements to-day were: To Antwerp, 6 loads grain at 3¾d from store; to Rotterdam, 2 loads, 7½c; to Hamburg, 3 loads, 55 pfg. We quote berth rates for grain: Liverpool, 3d; London, 3¼d; Antwerp, 3¼d; Newcastle, 4d; Hull, 4d; Glasgow, 3¼d; Leith, 4d; Cork for orders, 3s 6d. Cotton, 11-64d, petroleum, 1s 6d. CHARTERS—A steamer, 1,279 tons, general cargo, Philadelphia to Liverpool, London or Bristol, 15s 6d; a steamer, 2,600 tons, general cargo, Philadelphia to United Kingdom, about 18s 6d; a steamer, 448 tons, lumber, Pensacola to Buenos Ayres, 30s; a steamer, 2,000 quarters grain, New-Orleans to Danish Sound ports, 19s, net form; a steamer, 17,000 quarters grain, New-Orleans to United Kingdom or Continent, 3s 1½d@3s 6d; a steamer, cotton, New-Orleans to Liverpool or Continent, 5c; a steamer, cotton, Savannah to Liverpool or Continent, 13-64d; a bark, 1,776 tons, grain, Portland, Ore., to Cork for orders, 33s 6d; a ship (to arrive), 50,000 cases petroleum, New-York to Hong Kong, 17c; Japan, 18c; Shanghai, 22c; a ship, 2,298 tons, Hong Kong to New-York, $18,000; a steamer, 1,223 tons, Philadelphia to Cuba and back, £726; two schooners, coal, Philadelphia to Matanzas, $2; a brig, sugar, Pernambuco to North of Hatteras, 17s 6d; a bark and a schooner, coal, Philadelphia to Galveston, $2; two schooners, from Philadelphia to Cienfuegos and back, north of Hatteras, not east of New-York, with sugar, 17s 6d; two schooners, railroad ties, Charleston to New-York, 13c for 36 feet, and 15c for 44 feet; a brig and schooner, coal, hence to Rockland, 75c; a schooner, coal, hence to Salem, 70c.

OILS—The crude market was perhaps a little steadier to-day for cottonseed oil on sales of 300 or 400 bbls prime crude at 31c. There was no general activity, however. Lard oil was about steady at unchanged prices, and the same may be said of linseed oil. We quote: Cottonseed oil, prime crude, 30@31c; prime crude, loose, 29@29c; off crude, bbls, 27@28c; winter oil, 40@41c; summer yellow, prime, 36@38c; summer yellow, off-grade, 34@36c. Lard oil was quiet at 70@78c.

Charles B. Talmer & Bro. write: "We regret to report a continued decline in oil, and so far without any apparent check. The weakness of provisions, the heavy drop in lard, with increasing receipts in hogs have been more than the market could stand, and so far exporters have not come to the rescue. Some inquiries from abroad are being made, but on the basis of 30c for prime summer yellow. Off oils are relatively very large quantity at some small concessions from present values. Offerings of crude are increasing, and with but little disposition here on the part of buyers to take hold, except at lower than market rates. Receipts for the week at this port are 4,621 bbls, and stocks are slowly increasing.

PROVISIONS—The provision market was moderately active and firmer early, there apparently being some disposition to buy provisions for a reaction, and some covering of shorts. Toward the close, however, a weak feeling developed and the final close was dull and depressed at the lowest. PORK—Dull. Quoted: Mess, $17@$17.75; family, $18@$19; short clear, $18@$20; extra prime, $14@$14.50. BEEF—Firm. Quotations: Family, $12.50@$14; mess, $8.50@$9; packet, $12@$13; extra India mess, $18@$23. BEEF HAMS—Market quiet, $16; Chicago hams at $15. DRESSED HOGS—Lower; 180-lb, 7⅝@7⅞c; 160-lb, 7⅝@7⅞c; 120-lb, 7⅞c; pigs, 8⅛@8⅜c. CUT MEATS—Pickled shoulders, steady and in fair demand, sales being 500 pieces at 6¼c; pickled bellies, hams moderately active, sales of 600 packages, quoted at 8c; pickled bellies dull and easy; 12-lb quoted at 8c; 14-lb, 8½c; 10-lb, 9¼c. LARD—Market lower; Western closed nominally at 8.80; city closed at 8c, compound, 7½@7⅝c; refined for Continent, 9.35c, and South America, 10c. In options November closed at 8.65c nominal; January, 8.20 nominal.

RICE—There was a fair demand for domestic rice to-day considering the practical half-holiday. The tone of the market was called steady. Advices from the South indicate a fairly good condition of affairs there, so far as the tone is concerned, but there is not much activity. We quote: Common to ordinary, 2½@3c; good, 3¼@3½c; good to prime, 4¼@4½c; Rangoon, 4@4¼c, and in bond, 2½@2¾c; Patna, 4¾@4¾c, and in bond, 2¼@2¾c; Japan, 4¼@4¾c.

SUGAR—RAW—Was very quiet to-day, and from present indications the next sales will be on a lower basis than that now quoted, which is 3⅛c for centrifugal. This belief is predicated upon the liberal arrivals of sugar. We quote: Centrifugal, 96 test, 3⅛c; muscovado, 89 test, 2¾c; molasses sugar, 89 test, 2⅝c. REFINED—Quiet, feeling depressed. Java at 15c 6d, and fair refining at 13s 6d. Port dull and tending downward since receipt of mail, 12s 9d; next month, 12s
