COUGHLIN'S CASE MADE UP.

ALL THE EVIDENCE FOR THE ACCUSED EX-DETECTIVE IS NOW IN—HIS BROTHER TESTIFIES.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—"Dan" Coughlin's trial opened this morning with a legal fight over the admission of Thomas Coughlin's story tending to remove the "Smith 'of Hancock" explanation made by the defendant from the mythical region to that of fact. The defence had no sooner called the prisoner's brother to the witness stand and asked him if a man giving the name of James Smith had called at his livery stable in Hancock, Mich., in April, 1889, than the prosecutor stopped the answer with a vigorous objection.

Coughlin's lawyer made the first public statement to explain how "James Smith" came from Hancock to Chicago, called on Detective Coughlin and presented "Tom" Coughlin's business card, on which the latter had written his brother's address. "Tom" will swear that Smith was a stranger who hired a horse and buggy from his stable in April, 1889, to drive to some copper mines in the vicinity and on his return said he was going to Chicago. A conversation led up to the witness giving his card to Smith with his brother "Dan's" address on it.

The court decided to admit "Tom" Coughlin's testimony so far as it related to that circumstance. The prisoner's brother then told the above story, supplementing it with a description of Smith. The most significant point in it was that he was "cross-eyed." Dinan's description was the same, according to Inspector Schaack's testimony.

Coughlin's defence was closed at the morning session today, and the rebuttal testimony will be soon in. The defendant did not testify, as expected. When court reassembled after the recess the rebuttal testimony for the prosecution began. Henry F. Langhloff, of Lake View, grocer; Captain Villiers, Sergeant Jacob Spangler and Charles McAuley, formerly a Lake View policeman, were called to set at naught the array of men and women who swore to the bad reputation of Mrs. Hoertel for truth and veracity. They denied having told the defence's witnesses that they would not believe Mrs. Hoertel under oath or discussing her reputation in any way. Hermann Schuettler, the police captain, was recalled to deny that when Kunze was arrested he pinched the prisoner's cheek, "chucked him under the chin," knocked him down or said to him: "Now, my cross little German bird, say you drove Coughlin to the Carlson cottage and you will be free; if you don't you will be hanged."

A NEW MUSIC HALL IN HARLEM.

PLANS FOR A LARGE CONCERT PLACE IN WEST ONE-HUNDRED-AND-TWENTY-FIFTH-ST.

Contracts have been signed by which work will be begun at once on the construction of a new music hall in West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. It will be managed by Alfred E. Aarons, a theatrical agent, of No. 1,193 Broadway. Mr. Aarons is also the business manager of Herrmann's Theatre. The new place will be called the Alhambra. It will accommodate about 1,000 people, and the auditorium will be similar to that of Koster & Bial's former establishment in West Twenty-third-st. Mr. Aarons says that he is backed by a syndicate of Harlem business men, who agree with him that the population of Harlem is adequate to support such an enterprise. The interior will be decorated in white and gold. The upper tier will consist of boxes. The prices will be from 25 cents to $1. There will be a roof garden. Mr. Aarons says that he will engage the best vaudeville talent from France, England and this country to appear at the Alhambra. It will open this spring.

PRIZES OFFERED BY THE PATRIA CLUB.

The Patria Club, at its meeting in Sherry's last night, adopted the report of a special committee appointed last month on "Ways and means for developing a deeper interest among young people in affairs of government and citizenship." The committee says that after a careful study of the subject, it became convinced of three things: First, the necessity of stimulating an interest in all that pertains to good citizenship; second, the imperative need of properly directed processes of education; and third, the fact that the time is now ripe for a wise movement that will have as its end the political training and education of youth.

In order to stimulate the desired interest in the Government and citizenship among various classes of the population it is proposed that the Patria Club offer, for the year 1894, $500 in cash, or in first and second prize Patria Club medals, for the best thoughts on such topics. These prizes are to be offered to members of the Young Men's Christian Association, members of the societies of Christian Endeavor, to principals of the Industrial Schools of the Children's Aid Society, of this city; to the Baron de Hirsch Fund English Schools and other organizations for the best papers on these subjects. The prizes are to be presented on next Election Day. Among those who spoke last night in favor of the plan were D. Greenleaf Thompson, Amos Parker Wilder, Colonel Charles H. Denison, S. S. Packard, Mrs. W. A. Ewing, and Colonel George T. Balch.

DEATH OF MAXIME DU CAMP.

Paris, Feb. 9.—Maxime Du Camp, the well-known author, is dead. He was a member of the French Academy, having been elected in 1880 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. Saint-René-Taillandier. He was born in Paris in 1822.

He travelled extensively in the East in his early years, doing much pioneer work in photographing from nature, and his results were published in what is said to be the first book illustrated by photographs. M. Du Camp founded the "Révue de Paris" in 1851, and when that was suppressed became connected with the "Révue des Deux Mondes." His works, which are numerous, include accounts of his travels in the East, several volumes on art, novels and his personal recollections of the Revolution of 1848, the Commune in Paris and the expedition into Sicily.

A TRIPLE LYNCHING IN ARKANSAS.

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—A dispatch to "The Chronicle" from Conway, Ark., states that Henry Bruice, Charles Plunkett and "Bob" Plunkett were lynched in the Gulch country a few days ago for the murder of an aged couple. The information was brought to Conway by a mail carrier, who stated that the people of that community are extremely reticent regarding the affair, and no particulars could be learned. Telegrams have been sent to a number of points in that locality, but no confirmation of the story has been received.
