SENTENCE OF RECEIVING TELLER HILL.

HIS DISCLOSURES TO THE DISTRICT-ATTORNEY MAY LEAD TO IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS.

Lewis A. Hill, receiving teller of the St. Nicholas Bank, pleaded guilty yesterday before Recorder Smyth in General Sessions to an indictment for grand larceny in the first degree. He was sentenced to State Prison for four years and three months. The sum named in the indictment was $568, but the amount Hill took from the bank was upward of $42,000. His stealing had been going on for several years. Hill was greatly affected when he entered the courtroom with his counsel, H. B. B. Stapler. Recorder Smyth in passing sentence said that he would take into consideration the facts that Hill had refunded to the bank all the property in his possession, about $5,000, and also that he had given all the information possible to the District-Attorney's office.

It was said downtown that the revelations made by Hill would throw some light upon the queer methods employed by the officers of the St. Nicholas Bank. Considerable speculation was indulged in yesterday in Wall Street as to the nature of the information given by Hill to the District-Attorney, and it was currently said that some of the transactions made by the St. Nicholas Bank might lead to other arrests.

The most interesting side of the bank's history has not yet been told, and it is probable that its affairs will have a thorough airing in the courts. The State Banking Department has been unable, so it says, to discover Hill's methods of theft, and the officers of the bank shake their heads when asked about it. The officers of the bank and the State Banking Department have both been blamed for neglect of duty by the bank's depositors, but something more than neglect of duty may be charged against others connected with the bank as a result of Hill's disclosures to the District-Attorney. H. J. Grant, the receiver, will to-day pay a dividend of 40 per cent to the depositors.

MILITARY SURGEONS TO MEET.

Following the establishment of the Hospital Corps as a distinct branch of the National Guard, much interest is felt by the medical officers connected with the military forces of this State in the convention of the Association of Military Surgeons, which will meet in Washington on May 1. It is expected that fully 500 delegates will be present from the Army, Navy, National Guard and the Marine Hospital Service. The members of the committee who are making the arrangements for the convention hold a meeting on March 5, and they will hold another one on next Monday in Washington to complete the details of the programme of proceedings.

GUARDSMEN TO CARRY THE MERRIAM PACK.

The knapsack will soon be a thing of tradition, so far as the National Guard of this State is concerned. The Merriam pack is soon to take its place, the State having made a contract with the manufacturers of Colonel Merriam's invention for 12,000 packs, to be supplied within a few months. The pack has already been adopted by the Army, and is considered a great improvement over the knapsack. In fact, it is a combination of knapsack and haversack, the weight being so arranged that the load which the soldier must carry will be well distributed. Arrangements are also made for the proper ventilation of the food which the soldier must carry.

SAN FRANCISCO'S GREAT CHINESE DOCTOR

From The Troy Times.

We inspect a drugstore and meet there the great physician of this Chinatown. He is distinguished from his fellow-citizens by a little less dirt, a much gayer costume and two nails seven inches long on two fingers of the left hand. These are said to be his great pride, though it means a partial paralysis of that hand and arm from lack of use. Of course he can have no use of that hand, and he keeps it partially closed that the nails may lie against the arm and be protected by it. Queer parcels of bark, roots, flowers, insects and also horrid packages of dried lizards carefully stretched out constitute the stock in trade. I saw one prescription given to a young girl containing all these things and a number of frightful-looking dried bugs and beetles. She was to boil the whole mess in water two hours, and then cool and take two teaspoonfuls every two hours! The whole cost her 25 cents.

A WITNESS AGAINST HIS MOTHER.

TESTIMONY OF THE SON OF A WOMAN ACCUSED OF MURDERING HER HUSBAND.

Stories of bloodshed and brutality are told daily in General Sessions, but a trial there yesterday aroused a feeling of horror even in the breasts of the loungers who form the "House of Lords." The defendant was Mrs. Mary Dunn, and she was accused of the premeditated murder of her husband on October 14, at their home, No. 106 West Twenty-sixth-st. A most important witness against the woman was her son, twelve years old. While his father lay in bed, dying from a dozen wounds inflicted with a hammer, the baby of the family, a girl, was sleeping by his side, bathed in blood.

Assistant District-Attorney Osborne said he would prove that the case was one of murder. Dr. Donlin, coroner's physician, described the fatal wounds. Then the young son testified that his father, who was an engineer in the Hotel Marlborough, came home about 7 a. m. on October 14, after finishing his night's work. His wife locked him out for an hour. When she let him in he drank a glass of beer and went to bed. She drank a lot of beer. Then she sent the witness out to buy some stockings for himself. When he came back his father was senseless and bleeding. He asked if his father was dead. His mother said she had thrown a hammer at her husband. The boy took the baby down to a neighbor's.

Other testimony was given to show that the prisoner often tried to beat her husband, but his superior strength saved him. She drank a great deal, while he was comparatively a temperate man. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler is defending the woman. The trial will go on to-day.

F. L. EAMES FOR STOCK EXCHANGE PRESIDENT

The regular nominations for officers and governors of the Stock Exchange were announced yesterday as follows: For president, Francis L. Eames, of Eames & Moore; for chairman, James Mitchell; for secretary, George W. Ely; for treasurer, D. C. Havs; for members of the Governing Committee, to serve four years: E. Haight, Alfred de Cordova, C. W. Kilborne, J. H. Olyphant and W. C. Sheldon, in place of H. G. Campbell, J. W. Davis, A. H. De Haven, J. Frank Emmons and F. W. Gilley. W. H. Heaton and C. H. Huestis are nominated as governors for one year to fill vacancies. A. B. Baylis is nominated as trustee of the Gratuity Fund, in place of W. L. Bull.

Mr. Eames, the nominee for president, joined the Stock Exchange on May 2, 1865. He has served for a number of years on the Governing Committee, and was chairman of the committee which arranged the Stock Clearing House for the Exchange. He is popular and stands high among his fellow members.

The governors of the Stock Exchange yesterday voted to close the Exchange on Good Friday, March 23.

FINE ART OBJECTS SOLD CHEAPLY.

BEGINNING THE SALE OF THE SMALL BUT CHOICE COLLECTION OF ALEXANDER G. BLACK.

The sale of a list of about 650 pieces of porcelains, glass, silver and bronze art objects, collected by Alexander G Black, of this city, was begun yesterday afternoon at the Fifth Avenue Art Galleries, No. 366 Fifth-ave. Many of the pieces offered were of rare beauty and quality; there is little that is poor in the whole lot, and for one of its size the collection is remarkable for its general excellence. Prices yesterday, as a rule, showed the effects of the general feeling of retrenchment, and were in no case up to the value of the pieces. The highest figure of the day was $578, which was paid for the large Sèvres vase, of Etruscan design, which formerly belonged to the collection of Mrs. Mary Jane Morgan. The painting on the vase was by Leonard Schilt. A large Sèvres coupe, which was presented by the Empress Eugenie in 1867 to the Havre Orphan Asylum, sold for $119, and a pair of fine vases, with imperial decorations in gold and turquoise blue, with medallions after Boucher, sold for $200. A large gilt pedestal centre table, covered with mosaic representing a wreath of cape jessamine, also sold for $200.

This afternoon the Oriental division, comprising a number of small, single-color cabinet specimens, etc., will be sold at 3 o'clock, and at 7:30 the American, French and English paintings will be offered.

AN EXCELLENT CHANCE FOR BUYERS.

The peremptory auction removal sale of S. Herskovits & Co.'s extensive stock of elegant fine art goods, china, glassware, bric-a-brac, etc., at No. 66 West Twenty-third-st., is still in successful progress, the sale beginning at 11 a. m. daily, and affording an excellent opportunity for securing fine goods at remarkably low prices. Among the goods offered is a fine assortment of rare and beautiful vases, fine china, rich cut glass, single plates of rarity and great beauty, of game and fish sets, soup and meat sets, dinner ware, statuary, choice bric-a-brac of every description, fine art goods, etc. In this large and varied assortment of desirable goods the wares of nearly all the most celebrated manufacturers throughout the world are represented. The sale is imperative, on account of the early removal of Herskovits & Co. to their new store, and it will continue every day till the entire collection shall have been sold to the highest bidder. The sale is well worthy of inspection, and visitors will find that beautiful and costly articles are almost literally sold for a mere song

BIG SHIPMENT OF CALIFORNIA BRANDY.

San Francisco, March 14.—The German bark J. C. Pfluger left here last night with the largest shipment of brandy ever made from any port in the United States. The shipment consisted of 163,454 gallons of California brandy in barrels, at an estimated wholesale value of $91,595. It is expected that the retail price will be about three times that amount. There was also included in the cargo twenty-five barrels of select Riesling and 200 barrels of red wine and 105 barrels of port wine. The brandy exportation marks the rapid growth of an established foreign (especially German) market for the California product. Four hundred barrels of the brandy go to the German army for use in the hospital service, the Germans having used California brandy almost exclusively for two years. The United States Army hospital service finds California brandy not good enough and patronizes France.
