NEW-YORK SLUMPS AGAIN

SLOTHFUL WORK BY SOME OF THE GIANTS.

BALTIMORE WINS, 10 TO 6—THE VISITORS BUNCH THEIR HITS—A DISAPPOINTED AND CREST-FALLEN CROWD.

GAMES YESTERDAY.

Baltimore 10, New-York 6. | Pittsburg 15, Cincinnati 6.
Brooklyn 15, Washington 10. | Louisville 8, Chicago 2.
Boston 6, Philadelphia 5 (10 innings). | At St. Louis—Rain.

There was another large outpouring of baseball enthusiasts at the Polo Grounds yesterday to witness the second game of the present series between the New-York and Baltimore teams. Over 7,000 people were present, which is one of the largest Monday crowds seen at the Polo Grounds in many years. The result was unfortunate and will detract somewhat from the drawing powers to-day, and if the Giants do not show a material improvement in their work the ill effects will not die out for several days to come.

If one were to judge the game from the statistics found below, he would find at least for once that figures do not always tell a truthful story of a baseball battle. The local players made just as many basehits as did the Orioles, and they made one less error, and yet Baltimore won easily. The Orioles made their hits just when hits were needed, while the Giants scattered their baseball through the entire nine innings. The Orioles played with a dash and spirit which were really refreshing, while the Giants did not. Some of the New-York players did excellent work, but one or two did the sort of playing which will assign them to the players' bench if they continue in that strain much longer. Slow-thinking, lazy players have seen their day in the National League, and the successful baseball player of to-day and the future must be able to think and act quickly as well.

NO SPEED IN GERMAN'S CURVES.

German started in to pitch, but this handsome young fellow, who led the League pitchers last year, was not himself. He had good control of the ball, but his speed was lacking and as a result his curves were batted freely in the second and third innings. Westervelt relieving him in the fourth. The latter was not much of an improvement. Doyle caught a good game, while the all-around work of Burke, Murphy and Ward was excellent. Tiernan's work was discouraging. He seemed to be in a partial trance during the whole afternoon.

While probably 6,950 of the enthusiasts were yelling for the Giants, about fifty Baltimore "rooters" sat in the left wing of the grand stand and yelled encouragment to the Orioles. Bedecked in orange and black rosettes and tooting little tin whistles, the noise sounding not unlike the cry of an infant, the travellers from Maryland had a right royal afternoon. The Baltimore players protested everything, and Umpire Lynch had his hands full.

HOW THE GAME WAS WON.

Neither side scored in the opening inning, the players being quickly retired. In the second inning the Orioles scored two runs and took the lead. Kelley was put out and Bonner made a scratch hit between short and third. Jennings's drive hugged the left foul-line, and the hit was good for two bases. Robinson forced Bonner at the plate, Murphy making a pretty throw. Van Haltren lay in too close on Mullane, and the pitcher fooled him and hit over his head for three bases, scoring Jennings and Robinson.

In the third inning the Orioles continued their cannonading and added three more runs to their lead, and the onlookers began to look tired and unhappy. Keeler hit into the crowd in right field for three bases, and Brodie's hit brought him home. Brouthers hit to right field, advancing Brodie to third, Brouthers taking second on the throw in. Bonner's line drive over second scored Brodie and Brouthers. A neat double play by Murphy, Ward and Connor ended the inning, leaving Baltimore in the lead by 5 to 0. It was a hard handicap to overcome, but the Giants were not so despondent as their friends in the stands.

NEW-YORK TRIES TO "BRACE."

The New-Yorkers showed a disposition to do some effective work in that inning, but with three men on the bases Tiernan rolled an easy grounder to Brouthers and no runs resulted. Local confidence was restored somewhat in the fourth inning, when the New-Yorkers scored three runs and reduced the lead of their rivals to two. Davis reached first on an error by Bonner. Connor sent an easy grounder to Brouthers, but he threw wildly to second, and both men were safe. They were costly blunders, for Bushe hit safely to left field and Davis scored. Doyle followed with a hit in the same direction and Connor scored. Ward sacrificed and a wild pitch allowed Bushe to score. Westervelt then went in to pitch for New-York, and the Orioles went out in order, the inning ending with the score at 5 to 3 in Baltimore's favor.

The Orioles scored two more runs in the fifth inning and led 7 to 3. Keeler was sent to first on called balls and Brodie was struck with a pitched ball. Brouthers's fly allowed Keeler to reach third. When Brodie tried to steal second Doyle threw over Ward's head and Keeler scored. Brodie scored on Tiernan's poor return to the plate of Kelley's fly.

Westervelt was erratic in the seventh inning; the Orioles added three more runs to their list and the disappointed crowd prepared to go home. With one out, Keeler made a hit and Brodie was sent to first on balls. Brouthers—he of the eagle eye—hit safely to centre field for three bases, and Keeler and Brodie scored. Brouthers came home on a passed ball.

The Giants did most of their effective batting in the last two innings, but it was then too late to avert defeat. The two runs in the eighth were made on a base on balls, a hit by Ward, stolen bases by Ward and Murphy, and Connor's two-bagger. The one run in the ninth inning was made on hits by Davis and Burke, and a stolen base by Davis. Unless better work is done to-day there may be a surprise in store for somebody. The score:

EASY FOR THE BROOKLYNS.

WASHINGTON OFFERED A WEAK RESISTANCE TO THE FORCES OF CAPTAIN FOUTZ.

Washington, April 30.—The Senators put up a poor game of ball to-day, and Brooklyn won easily. Mercer started in to pitch, but was so wild and ineffective that the visitors piled up nine runs in three innings. Daub did good work up to the fifth inning, when he went to pieces, and before the Senators had been retired seven Brooklyn men crossed the plate. Gastright was substituted, and, while he was a trifle wild, was effective at critical points. Weather clear. Attendance, 1,500. Score:

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Philadelphia, April 30.—Luck was against the Philadelphia club this afternoon, and Boston pulled out a victory in the tenth inning, after two men had been put out. The visitors were out-fielded and out-batted by a considerable majority, and would probably have been defeated had Umpire Hurst called a strike on Tucker in the first inning when the Boston first baseman "swung on the ball." Hurst called a ball instead and gave Tucker his base, thus forcing Long home. Bannon, the next batsman, went out on a fly to Hamilton and retired the side. The game was full of surprises and was exciting throughout. In the fourth inning, with Reilly and Turner on first and second respectively, McCarthy executed a double play, unassisted, by purposely dropping Thompson's fly and touching second base. This play caused a long wrangle, but it was allowed by Hurst. McCarthy scored the winning run on Bannon's hit. Weather pleasant. Attendance, 8,000. Score:

Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	3	2	0	0	—5
Boston	1	0	1	0	3	0	0	0	1	—6

Basehits—Philadelphia 16, Boston 11. Errors—Philadelphia 2, Boston 5. Batteries—Weyhing and Clements; Nichols and Ryan. Umpire—Hurst.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 30.—The Reds knocked Gumbert out of the box in the fourth inning and Nicol was substituted. Not a run was made by them after that inning. Chamberlain let up in his delivery in the seventh, and in the three following innings twelve hits, four bases on balls, a wild pitch, passed ball, three errors by Latham and one by Murphy gave the visitors fourteen runs. Score:

Cincinnati	0	0	3	3	0	0	0	0	0	—6
Pittsburg	0	0	1	0	0	0	7	5	2	—15

Basehits—Cincinnati 15, Pittsburg 14. Errors—Cincinnati 6. Batteries—Chamberlain and Murphy; Gumbert, Nicol, Sugden and Mack. Umpire—Emslie.

St. Louis, April 30.—The St. Louis-Cleveland game was postponed on account of rain.

Philadelphia, April 30.—Lafayette was outclassed by the University of Pennsylvania to-day, and beaten by the score of 24 to 1. Score:

Pennsylvania	8	0	0	2	2	3	9	0	—	24
Lafayette	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	1

Hits—Pennsylvania 21; Lafayette, 3. Errors—Pennsylvania, 2; Lafayette, 5. Batteries—Schoenhut and Renning; Darlington, Crisswell and Barkley.

Louisville, Ky., April 30.—Louisville defeated the Colts again to-day in a one-sided game. After the third inning Kilroy retired on account of nervousness, and Stratton was put into the box for the first time this season. He pitched well, only two hits being made off him, and one of these a scratch. Attendance, 1,200. The score:

Louisville	0	2	0	1	2	0	2	1	0	—8

Basehits—Louisville, 10; Chicago, 6. Errors—Louisville, 2; Chicago, 4. Batteries—Kilroy, Stratton and Earle; McGill and Kittridge. Umpire—Swartwood.

Providence, April 30 (Special).—Brown University defeated Wesleyan here to-day. The game was characterized by loose fielding by Brown, Wesleyan playing sharply. Brown managed to win by heavy batting in the first half of the game. Score:

Brown	3	7	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—11
Wesleyan	0	0	2	0	0	0	2	0	0	—4

Batteries for Brown, Robinson, Brady and Tenney; Wesleyan, A. and G. Tirrell.

YALE'S BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

New-Haven, April 30.—Manager Skinner, of the Yale baseball nine, to-day announced that the following games had been arranged after the beginning of the championship season with Princeton, May 19; May 26, Orange A. C., at Orange, N. J.; May 28, Georgetown College, at New-Haven; May 30, Brown University, at Providence; May 31, Andover Academy, at New-Haven; June 2, Lehigh University, at New-Haven, unless Princeton and Harvard tie; June 4, University of Pennsylvania, at New-Haven; June 5, open; June 9, Princeton, at Princeton; June 16, Princeton, at New-York; June 23, Harvard, at Cambridge; June 25, Harvard, at New-Haven; June 30, Harvard, at New-York, in case of tie. In case the Harvard-Princeton series results in a tie the decisive game will be played on the Yale field on June 2.

LARCHMONT YACHT CLUB OFFICERS.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED AND SAILING DATES ARRANGED.

The officers and committees of the Larchmont Yacht Club for this year have been announced as follows:

Commodore, Seymour L. Husted, jr.; vice-commodore, George Work; rear commodore, Henry W. Bucknall; secretary, Charles C. Little; treasurer, William Murray; measurer, John Hyslop, No. 208 East Twenty-ninth-st.

Board of Trustees—Commodore Husted, chairman; Charles C. Little, secretary; William Murray, treasurer; Oswald Sanderson, Francis M. Scott, Harry A. Van Liew, Edward J. Greacen, Augustin Monroe and Chester C. Munroe. House Committee—Augustin Monroe, chairman; Edward J. Greacen, Oswald Sanderson, the commodore, ex-officio, the treasurer, ex-officio. Library Committee—Horatio R. Harper, chairman; Frank D. Shaw, E. D. Appleton, T. Stafford Drowne, jr., and Godfrey A. S. Wieners. Regatta Committee—John F. Lovejoy, chairman; Otto Sarony and Gerard M. Barretto. Fleet surgeon, Dr. Charles F. Roberts.

The following regattas have been arranged: Spring regatta, Saturday, June 9; annual regatta, Wednesday, July 4; annual sail, July 14 to 21; Flint Cup for cabin cats, Saturday, July 28; fall regatta, Saturday, September 1; Larchmont Cup for schooners, Saturday, September 15.

RACING AT NASHVILLE.

Nashville, Tenn., April 30.—The talent were not in clover at Cumberland Park to-day, but they saved themselves for the first time during the meeting. Two pronounced favorites, one of which was the Brooklyn Handicap candidate Carlsbad, and two heavily backed second picks were first across the line. Trenton, favorite in the colt race, ran a dead heat with Flash, also well played, in the fastest half-mile of the year.

The sport opened with the usual upset, Major Caesar Weatherford's gelding Revenue, with Taylor up, winning with odds at 20 to 1, and landing a big stack of money for Marcus Cartwright and Henry C. Brown. The Gloucester contingent pulled off two purses with the sprinters Artillery and Frank R. Hart. The weather was fine, track fast and attendance about 2,000. Summary:

First race, seven furlongs—Revenue, 100, Taylor, 20 to 1, won; Linda, 105, Thorpe, 7 to 5, second; The King, 119, Kunz, 20 to 1, third. Time—1:28¼.

Second race, six furlongs—Miss Manle, 102, Goodale, 3½ to 1, won; Florence M., 102, Thorpe, 4 to 1, second; Gratz Hanley, 107, H. Williams, 8 to 1, third. Time—1:15¼.

Third race, purse, six furlongs—Carlsbad, 119, Martin, 9 to 5, won; The Reaper, 110, Thorpe, 2 to 1, second; Henry Young, 117, Griffin, 13 to 5, third. Time—1:14.

Fourth race, four furlongs—Trenton, 110, Martin, 6 to 5, and Flash, 110, J. Hill, 10 to 1, ran a dead heat; Buckfly, 107, Thorpe, 5 to 1, third. Time—0:48½.

Fifth race, six furlongs—Artillery, 100, C. Taylor, 4 to 1, won; Guilty, 88, Cassin, 10 to 1, second; Salvation, 100, Clayton, 6 to 5, third. Time—1:14.

Sixth race, six furlongs—Frank R. Harf, 112, Martin, 14 to 5, first; Elmer, 102, J. Hill, 3 to 1, second; Crevasse, 107, Costello, 4 to 5, third. Time—1:15.

MR. GEBHARD HAS A SALE OF YEARLINGS.

San Francisco, April 30 (Special).—Fifteen yearlings, the get of St. Saviour and imported Greenback, from Frederick Gebhard's ranch in Lake County, were sold to-day at auction, and fetched fair prices, considering the market and their condition. The horses looked half-starved. The sixteen brought $2,950, an average of $185. The highest price paid was $360 for a filly by St. Saviour out of Negress by Pelican. The imported mare Negress was also sold, bringing $360. She was bought by Dr. Farnam, a well-known breeder, who was the heaviest purchaser. "White Hat" McCarthy bought three yearlings, and Adolph Spreckels picked up two fillies.

HE FLOGGED HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Hartford, Conn., April 30.—George P. Hart, of New-York, severely horsewhipped his brother-in-law, Leroy Brainerd, at Portland, this morning. The affair grew out of the celebrated contest over the will of Erastus Brainerd, of Portland, by which his daughter, Hart's wife, was disinherited. Hart met Brainerd in the street. Hot words passed, and Brainerd struck Hart a violent blow in the face. Hart then grabbed a horsewhip, and flogged Brainerd unmercifully until bystanders interfered. Brainerd was badly punished.

IMPORTERS FOR THE BILL.

NATURALLY THEY FAVOR THE WILSON TARIFF.

CONSEQUENTLY THEY HAVE SIGNED THE CALL FOR THE MASS-MEETING OF THURSDAY NIGHT IN LARGE NUMBERS AND WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

The leading business men of this city have issued a call for a mass-meeting to be held in Cooper Union, on Thursday evening, to protest against the long delay by the United States Senate on the Tariff bill, and to demand prompt action on the measure. The following is the text of the call:

"In view of the disastrous consequences to every branch of business of the prolonged uncertainty in respect to the final disposition of the Tariff bill now in the Senate of the United States, all citizens who have supported tariff reform and who believe that a speedy passage of the bill (with or without the income tax) is now of vastly greater importance to the country than the differences between the House and Senate in respect to the details of the measure are invited to attend a mass-meeting to be held at Cooper Union on Thursday, May 3, 1894, to adopt resolutions respectfully urging upon the Senate the immense importance of passing the bill without further delay and of terminating the present disastrous uncertainty in respect both to the time of the passage of the bill and its character when passed."

Among the signers of the call are professional free traders, well-known Democratic lawyers, and officeholders under the present Administration, and men engaged in the importing business as merchants, agents of foreign houses and agents of steamship companies.

Some of the signers are the following: Everett P. Wheeler, Frederic R. Coudert, William B. Hornblower, Oswald Ottendorfer, Calvin Tompkins, Dermont Clarke, E. Ellery Anderson, William R. Grace, W. L. Trenholm, George Coppell, James C. Carter, William S. Opdyke, Henry Holt, James Speyer, Charles S. Fairchild, William Steinway and J. Edward Simmons. Among the importing houses represented on the list of names are the following: H. W. T. Mali & Co., James F. White & Co., Robert G. Winny, Sweetser, Pembrook & Co., Fred Butterfield & Co., James G. Johnson & Co., H. Herrmann, Sternbach & Co., E. S. Jaffray & Co., Fleitmann & Co., Abegg & Rusch, L. Straus & Sons, Bawo & Dotter, Lehn & Fink, John G. Witte & Co., A. Klingenberg, Charles Ahrenfeldt & Son, Edward Rorke & Co., Haida Lamp and Calma Company, George W. Hunter, Henrichs & Co., Haviland & Abbott, William Foerster & Co., J. M. Young Importing Company, M. Kirchberger & Co., M. L. Hiller & Sons, Schoverling, Daly & Gales, and Ehrich Brothers.

Some of the others on the list are Oelrichs & Co., steamship agents; Thomas G. Shearman, the well-known free trade advocate; Hubbard, Price & Co., Edward Moran, James Speyer, F. R. Gurney, Frank E. Blackwell, Ulysses D. Eddy, Henry F. Crosby and H. A. Adams. In all there are 121 names signed to the call.

THE DOG SHOW TO BE OPENED TO-DAY

CROWDS CONTINUE TO STUDY FARM LIFE AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN.

The Farm Show at the Madison Square Garden continued to attract crowds of city people yesterday and last evening. Many well-dressed women and children hovered about the inclosures where the animals and poultry were being fed, and the dairymaids were kept busy ladling out buttermilk to thirsty men. The trick ponies and dogs claimed much attention during the day. In the evening many dogs were taken to their boxes in the basement of the garden, where the bench show will open in connection with the other show this morning. Five clubs are interested in the special show of dogs, which is to continue from to-day until Friday evening. They are the St. Bernard Club, the Fox Terrier Club, the Spaniel Club the Collie Club and the Bull Dog Club of America. Among the men prominent in these clubs are August Belmont, J. Pierpont Morgan, Jenkins Van Schaick and J. H. Matthews. In the list of high-class dogs to be exhibited are Sir Bellwere, Otho, Kingston Regent and Altoner among the St. Bernards, Roslyn Wilkes and Sefton Hero among the collies, and Starlens King and Raby Mixer among the fox terriers.

A VERDICT OF SUICIDE GIVEN.

MRS. CADWELL TELLS HOW SHE AND HER MOTHER CLIMBED INTO THE RESERVOIR AT WOODHAVEN, L. I.

The inquest into the death of Mrs. Mary A. Smith, of Brooklyn Hills, whose dead body was found in the Grosjean Reservoir, at Woodhaven, L. I., on Saturday morning, was held last night. It resulted in the jury deciding that death was the result of suicide.

On Saturday morning about 3 o'clock Mrs. Smith, who was slightly demented, and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Cadwell, left the house of Mr. Richardson, who married another daughter of Mrs. Smith. They were not seen to leave the house. The first known of their departure was when the daughter returned to the house with her clothes wet. She was asked where she had been, and said to the reservoir. When asked where her mother was, she said she was taking her usual morning bath in the reservoir. An alarm was sounded at once, and a search at the reservoir revealed Mrs. Smith's body floating in the water. It was taken out.

The jury assembled last night at Mr. Richardson's home. Coroner Everitt was in charge. Only two witnesses were examined. Mrs. Richardson told of her mother's movements on the night before her death.

The most mysterious part of the whole affair was how Mrs. Cadwell climbed the fence after leaving the water. This was cleared away by Coroner Everitt. Previous to the beginning of the inquest he had been closeted with Mrs. Cadwell, and had induced her to tell a story of the morning trip. She told the Coroner that she and her mother had been planning suicide for some time, and had laid their plans carefully. They had taken the stepladder from the house when they started to the reservoir. When they had climbed to the top of the fence, they pulled the ladder up after them, and dropped it down on the other side. When Mrs. Cadwell left the water, she climbed back to the top of the fence, and pulled up the ladder. She then dropped it on the other side and climbed down.

The jury added to their verdict a recommendation that a night-watchman be kept at the reservoir.

HE MAY COME TO A BROOKLYN CHURCH.

Springfield, Mass., April 30.—The Rev. Marion Crosley, the pastor of St. Paul's Universalist Church in this city, gave notice to his congregation yesterday that he would resign his charge next Sunday. Mr. Crosley received on Saturday a call to the Church of Good Tidings, in Quincy-st., Brooklyn, and, although he has given no reply, it is possible that he will accept. He has been pastor of St. Paul's for five years, his previous pastorates having been at Portland, Me., Glasgow, Scotland, and Utica, N. Y. He was a missionary in Indiana for twelve years, and during the war engaged in the work of sanitary commission and preached to the soldiers. He is a prominent Mason and Odd Fellow, and is a member of Springfield Commandery, Knights Templar.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 30 (Special).—Wheat to-day did not prove as weak as expected. There was some yielding at the outset, and the May-July spread got to 2¼ cents. Before the close the May more than recovered its early loss. Armour took all the May offered, possibly 2,000,000 of it, at 2 cents under July. May opened at 57⅞, sold between 57⅝ and 58¼, and closed at 58⅜ cents. There was nothing going on in the pit except changing. Cables were lower. There was an increase on passage of 2,760,000 bush. The decrease in the visible supply, 1,842,000, proved larger than expected. May holders of corn were selling out, and getting over into July. The May-July spread widened from 1⅛ to 1½ cents. While the May yielded a little, the more distant deliveries kept firm. Receipts were large, 417 cars, the estimate for Tuesday was 520. The sample market was easier. Cables were slightly lower. Export clearances from the seaboard were 142,000 bushels. The visible supply decreased 1,452,000 bushels. The local supply decreased 826,000 bushels. The local stock of all grades here is now down to 6,110,000 bushels. May opened at 37⅞, sold between 37¼ and 37⅝, and closed at 37⅛ cents. Oats started weak, but closed firm. May sold between 32⅝ and 33⅛ cents, and closed at the top. Receipts were 373 cars, the estimate for Tuesday, 430. The sample market, however, was strong. Provisions started weak, because the hogs, 30,000, overran 60,000. Prices closed higher than they did Saturday; pork, 7½ cents higher; lard, 2½ to 5 cents higher; ribs, 2½ to 10 cents higher. Hogs at the yards were 10 cents lower. The estimate for Tuesday was 18,000 head. Armour and Swift were good buyers of ribs.

SOUTHERN COTTON MARKETS.

SUGAR'S ERRATIC COURSE.

HEAVY DEALINGS IN THE STOCK WHICH YIELD LARGE PROFITS.

OTHER INDUSTRIALS GET A "BOOST" ON A FRIENDLY "TIP" FROM WASHINGTON—WALL STREET AND THE TARIFF TINKERS.

The stock of the American Sugar Refining Company was the prominent feature in the trading at at the Stock Exchange yesterday. There was an enormous buying of sugar certificates, and the price jumped from Saturday's closing of 104½ to 107¾. The total transactions in this stock for the day amounted to 125,600 shares. In the first half hour 49,000 shares were traded in at prices ranging from 106 to 106½. The business in this stock was attended with considerable excitement, and its kite-like fluctuations throughout the day made it a topic of absorbing interest among the brokers.

In the opening hours there was a big rush to buy, and the price went up two points to 106½. After that a reaction set in on large selling orders, and it declined to 104¾. Later on the bull side again gave it its support, and a rapid advance set in, which sent the quotation to 107¾. It then went down again, and closed at 105¼.

The remarkable activity in this stock, by which enormous profits are being made by those on the "inside," is supposed to be due to information from Washington, which reveals to those interested in the company that there will be ample protection afforded their interests. The active speculation in this stock and its rapid gain in price are generally believed to come from the success those on the inside have had with their Washington lobby.

There was an advance in National Cordage on buying by insiders and those interested in the management. It was generally agreed that this was due to the financial adjustment of the company, which will, it is said, be perfected in a few days by the election of Frank K. Sturgis to the presidency.

With the exception of Chicago Gas, which declined two points, there was a general advance in most of the prominent stocks. The friendly "tip" from Washington to the effect that the Senators would not neglect the trusts made Sugar, Lead, Cordage and Tobacco go to prices on which to realize. No one doubts who has watched the course of the market in the last month that the alliance between the inside interests in American Sugar Refinery and other stocks, which depend more or less on the tariff, and the Democratic majority in the Senate has become strong enough to insure big profits to both sides, and that the trust stocks are manipulated to fill the pockets of the men in the companies and the tariff-tinkers in Washington.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

PASSENGER RATES READJUSTED.

A SETTLEMENT BY THE TRUNK LINE AND CENTRAL TRAFFIC ASSOCIATIONS.

The question of passenger rate readjustment on lines between here and Chicago, which has been under consideration by the Trunk Line Association and the Central Traffic Association, has been settled, and a new schedule has been made. Yesterday the Board of Ruling of the two associations gave out the result of its decision on the East and West bound rates, and the following readjustment was made: The Lehigh Valley rate on its fast train over the Grand Trunk was raised to $18; the West Shore train, No. 3, over the Nickle Plate, to $18; the Erie trains Nos. 5 and 7 remain at the present rate, and the other roads are reduced to $17. All rates made by lines using the Lake Shore and Michigan Central for Western connections remain at $20. The rates to Cincinnati by the Baltimore and Ohio and the Chesapeake and Ohio have been raised $1 to $17.

ADOPTING A SIGNAL SYSTEM.

The Hall Signal Company has closed a contract with the receivers of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad for the equipment of the section of the road between Philadelphia and Jenkintown with the automatic electric normal danger block signals of the Hall system. This is the same system recently adopted by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western.

WESTWARD-BOUND ON RAILROAD BUSINESS.

Cornelius Vanderbilt and Chauncey M. Depew left the Grand Central Station at 7.30 o'clock last evening, in Mr. Vanderbilt's private car, for Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago, to attend the annual elections of the Nickel Plate, the Lake Shore and the Michigan Central railroad companies. Portions of these lines not covered during their trip of two weeks ago will be passed over for inspection. Some Northern branch lines of these systems may also be visited, if time permits. Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Depew expect to return to New-York some time on Saturday next.

PLANS FOR A NEW STATE ROAD.

Susquehanna, Penn., April 30.—Plans have been completed for the immediate construction of a new railroad from Deposit to Syracuse, crossing the Delaware and Hudson road at Nineveh, Broome County, N. Y.

CANADIAN ROADS REDUCING EXPENSES.

Montreal, April 30.—The Grand Trunk Railroad authorities say that within the last three weeks 1,000 men employed in the repair department have been dismissed.

Three hundred men have been discharged from the Canadian Pacific Railroad workshop here. There have also been dismissals in the offices and other departments.

JUDGE COLT ISSUES A STIPULATION.

Boston, April 30.—Judge Colt, of the United States Circuit Court, issued Saturday this stipulation in the case of the receivers of the New-York and New-England Railroad against the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad Company: "Motion for restraining order may be continued, to be renewed at any time on notice to defendants, and the defendant will not
