THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, August 4, 1894.

COTTON—The Liverpool market was closed to-day and will remain closed until Wednesday morning, hence local traders were without the usual inspiration from that market. Local sentiment, however, turned toward the bull side, which resulted in an advance on first sales of from 1 to 4 points, the distant months showing the principal advance. Later the market was still firmer on local covering, closing at top prices. The net improvement for the day was 5@9 points, and total sales 49,700 bales, with the tone steady. The strength was imparted by the receipts of some reports from the cotton belt stating that some damage had been done to the crop. This damage, however, was apparently in isolated cases, and it was not contended that any serious injury had been done to the growing crop. One report made on the 1st of August at Anniston, Ala., stated that the moisture had stimulated the growth of weeds at the expense of fruit, and while the outward conditions were flattering as to size, the condition of the fruit was ten days late, and planters were apprehensive of shedding should the weather, so long cool and showery, turn warm and hot. "The Financial Chronicle's" weather reports from the cotton belt for the week ending last night are as a rule of a favorable character. In a number of sections along the Atlantic the rainfall is claimed to have been excessive, and in a few districts of Texas moisture is needed. But the general tenor of advices is that the cotton crop is doing well, and in some sections of Alabama and Texas the prospects are exceptionally good. "The Chronicle's" statement of the visible supply of cotton at all points shows 2,324,935 bales, against 2,497,785 bales for the week last year, and 1,861,527 bales in 1893. Above figures show a decrease of 172,850 bales as compared with the same date of 1893, a decrease of 564,103 bales from the corresponding date of 1892, and an increase of 463,428 bales over 1891. The total receipts from the plantations since September 1, 1893, were 5,905,556 bales, against 5,024,484 bales in 1892-'93, and 7,201,627 bales in 1891-'92. The actual movement from plantations was 5,901 bales. The week's net overland movement was 1,227 bales, against 3,079 bales the same week in 1893, while the net overland movement for the season shows a decrease from a year ago of 32,023 bales. There came into sight during the week 10,085 bales, against 15,655 bales for the same week of 1893, and the increase in the amount in sight as compared with last year, 889,429 bales.

COFFEE—The market was dull and heavy, with smallest day's trading that has taken place for months. An increase in the world's visible supply of 113,000 bags on August 1 and heavy receipts at Brazilian points fill balls with dismay and check speculation. A slight loss was shown for most months at the close. Rio was 150 reis higher at 15,530 reis; exchange unchanged at 9¾; receipts, 14,000 bags; stock, 190,000 bags. Santos firm at 16,200 reis; receipts, 20,000 bags; stock, 103,000 bags. Warrant shipments to the United States in July, 21,000 bags. Contracts closed dull at 5 points advance to 5 points decline. Sales were 2,250 bags, as follows:

There was a moderate demand for Brazil sorts, and the market is in rather an unsatisfactory state, with prices more or less nominal. Rio No 7 on spot is quoted on a basis of 16½c. For mild coffee there was a fair demand, which resulted in the placing of some small lots at full prices.

FLOUR—MEAL—The market was very quiet with a fair inquiry only for winter straights for export. There was also a small demand for winter patents and for spring extra is, otherwise dealings were insignificant. Offerings of winter extra 2s are small and supplies light. Spring patents were firmer in tone and sales were made at a little advance; total transactions were 17,000 pkgs, including 450 bbls of winter patents at $2 90@$3 10; 1,500 bbls for export at private terms; 1,500 bbls straights at $2 60@$2 80, and 6,000 sacks for export, private terms, quoted equal to $2 75 in bbls; 1,000 bbls extra 2s, private terms, for export; 2,500 bbls spring patent at $3 55@$3 70; 3,000 bbls straights at $3 35@$3 40; 2,000 sacks extra is for export $2 35. The export sales of flour has been quite good this week and recently there has been a good business from the West. Sales of flour at Minneapolis was reported at 220,000 bbls. Exports of flour are increasing and to-day were 151,900 bbls from the Atlantic ports, making 318,600 bbls for the week, an increase of 107,000 bbls over last week.....RYE FLOUR—Market quiet; sales, 250 bbls at $2 85@$2 90.....CORN MEAL—Market firm; sales 250 bbls. Graded, Brandywine, $3; Saganore, $3.....BAG MEAL—Market firm; fine white, $1 25; fine yellow, $1 20; coarse, $1 07@$1 09.....FEED—Market firm; 40-lb, 82½c; 60-lb, 82½c; 80-lb, 82½c; 100-lb, 85@87½c; sharps, 82½c; city firm at 80@85c; rye feed, 77½@80c; hominy chop, 90@95c; cottonseed meal, $1 10@$1 12½; oil meal, $24@$24 50.

GRAIN—WHEAT—The wheat market was dull and a little lower to-day during the greater part of the session, closing quiet at ⅛c net decline. On the curb a slightly better feeling prevailed, September selling up to 51 1-16c, closing at 51-16c. The early weakness of the market was due to disappointments at the cables, which were dull and heavy, the final cables showing a net loss for the day. "Bradstreet's" exports were comparatively small, the decrease from the previous week being about 400,000 bush. The total exports were 2,977,000 bush, against 1,622,000 bush last year. So far this season the exports have been 12,467,000 bush, 10,500,000 bush less than for the corresponding time last year. The present rate of exports are on about half the scale of last year, and promise for the first three months, unless materially increased, to make up a small total against last year's big figures for three months. The interior receipts of wheat have been very heavy this week, showing an increase of 709,000 bush over last week. Estimates on the visible point to a big increase. Interior receipts of spring wheat to-day were 446,947 (Chicago, 338,739 bush, nearly all winter) against 183,647 bush last year; winter, 372,476 bush, against 326,808 bush. Seaboard receipts, 439,808 bush, against 593,916 bush; total, 1,278,281 bush, against 1,103,400 bush; exports, 317,505 bush, against 144,639 bush. Wheat was dull and ⅛c lower; 24,000 bush No 2 Toledo sold at 1c under September delivered. September closed at 55⅝c, and 2 loads of No 1 Northern at 58⅝c, over September. No 2 red, 2 loads of No 1 Northern at 58⅝c, delivered, 1 to 6 afloat; exporters took 5 loads.....CORN—The opening of the corn market was irregular and a little lower, prices showing readily the effect of the failure of fruit to materialize as predicted last night, and of the hot weather. There was, however, no rain reported through the corn belt, and very shortly the market turned strong, advancing to the highest prices of the day, closing at ⅛@⅜c net advance. On the curb a still higher price seemed to exist, September selling up to 50c, closing at 55c. The news of the morning outside of the weather reports was rather scant, and there was very little feature to trading. Reports from the South are quite favorable regarding the crop in Southern States, and some authorities estimate the outturn there at 150,000,000 bush more than last year. The damage, however, in the great corn States is material, and not only is the country reporting serious injury, but has bought a great deal of corn. When the stampede is over it may be a great deal harder to get out of the corn than it was to get in. As every relatively high priced compared with wheat, it may have a great deal to do in the saving of corn rather than wasteful use. Cash corn locally was very dull to-day, a small lot of No 2 selling at 56c in store, equal to 57½c delivered, while No 2 red wheat sold at 55⅝c delivered. "Bradstreet's" exports for the week were 119,000 bush, against 256,000 bush the previous week.....OATS—The dealings in oats were also on a small scale to-day, with prices early showing a heavy undertone, with the decline in other cereals, but later, with the rise in corn, the market hardened a little, leaving off quiet but steady at ⅛c decline to ⅛c advance. Cash oats were quiet but firm. Offerings continued moderate, notwithstanding the fact of big increase in interior receipts which this week show a gain of 873,000 bush. No 2 oats, 4,000 bush sold at 42c; 16,000 bush old No 2 white, at 44@44½c, and 4,000 bush new at 43½c; 16,000 bush track white at 40@54c, and a few cars of track mixed at 40@44c.

We give for comparison the closing prices of the previous day and for the corresponding date last year:

OILS—The market for cottonseed oil is without activity, although the tone is called steady to firm by holders. SUGAR—The market for raw sugar to-day is rather quiet, one reason being that there is very little sugar afloat to offer as most of the cargoes were pushed forward to get here before August 1, and holders of sugar in store are holding firmly, pending a settlement of the tariff question. Local prices are as follows: Centrifugal, 96 test, 3⅝c; muscovados, 89 test, 2 11-16c; molasses sugar, 89 test, 2 5-16c; sale of 200 bags molasses sugar made at 2 7-16c. The opinion is rife on the ground in the sugar trade that the tariff now pending in Congress will become a law. A program to Willett & Grays says: "It is impossible to get new sugar schedule accurately, but it is probably 40 per cent raw refined sugar, 1-5 of 1 cent specific, and 40 per cent on saccharine strength in refined sugar, taking 88 degrees German best sugar as a standard." The London market is quiet but steady, for cane prices unchanged. Java quoted 13s, fair refined 11s. Beet firm for prompt delivery; August 11⅛d higher, at 11s 4½d; September unchanged at 11s. Refined is in rather fair demand today, with market firm though unchanged on the basis of 5c for long price granulated, except on Columbia A, Windsor A and Ridgewood A, which were 1-16c higher. The Howell refinery is selling granulated for delivery in about three weeks.

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

New-York, August 4, 1894.

BEANS AND PEAS—Very little business was accomplished to-day, but there is nothing in the receipts, present or prospect, nor the tenor of interior advices that suggest any change in the general position of the market. All kinds of white beans are in light stock, but there are fair offerings of red kidney. Foreign beans moving slowly, but there are no further important lots expected until September, and holders have some confidence in best grades. We quote: Beans, domestic, marrow, per bush, $3 25; do medium, $2; do pea, $1 95; do white kidney, $2 40@$2 50; do red kidney, $2@$2 10; do turtle soup, $1 95@$2; do lima, California, 4c; Japan, $2 55@$2 60; foreign, marrow, $2 50@$2 75; do foreign, medium, $1 45@$1 60; do foreign, pea, $1 60@$1 70; green peas, $1 15@$1 17½.....BUTTER—It is still largely a speculative market. Legitimate trading has been much quieter for the last few days, and the bidding on 'Change for lines of high grade goods is the main support at present. It is true that receipts of fresh table qualities are moderate and promise to be still lighter next week, but with so much low-house stock to work on it would seem as if any thought of higher prices at present would be unwise and dangerous. The little doing to-day was at unchanged figures. We quote: Creamery, State, Pennsylvania or Western extras, 20c per lb, 28c, do firsts, 20@21c; do seconds, 16@18c; do thirds, 14@15c; State dairy, half firkin tubs, extras, 21c; do seconds to firsts, 16@20c; do thirds, 14c; imitation creamery, firsts, 16@17c; do seconds, 14@15c; Western dairy, thirds to firsts, 12½@16c; factory, June make, 14@15½c; do current make, firkins, 13½@14½c; do tubs, 12 15½c; do packing stock, 12c.

CHEESE—It was too late to get any more cheese on this week's steamers, and shippers were not much interested in the lots held over from previous arrivals. The results of the week's trading have not been satisfactory to either the buying or selling interest. So much of the stock showed hot weather defects that exporters in search of fancy, cool, dry cheese had to pay a premium right up to the close, but average run of stock went begging for customers, and sales were at very irregular rates. Indications point to something of a stand-off early next week, as much of the stock due over next Saturday and sellers will probably ask more than shippers will pay. Sales at Boonville yesterday were at 8½c. Hiliss at 8⅝c, and Sinclairville at 8⅞@8⅝c.....Liverpool cable, 45s. We quote: State, full cream, large, colored or white, fancy, 8⅝@8¾c; do choice, 8½c; do good to prime, 8⅛@8⅜c; do common to fair, 7⅝@8c; do small size, fancy, 8⅝@8¾c; do choice, 7½@8⅛c; part skims, choice, 5½@5¾c; do common to prime, 3@5c; full skims, 2@2½c.

EGGS—There is very little fresh to-day, and the market shows no change. Buyers do not hesitate to pay 14c for really fine goods, but only a few such are found, and on the lower grades holders are glad to find buyers at any reasonable prices. The defects in quality are quite general in stock from all sections, but are greatest in receipts from distant points. We quote: Nearby, fancy, per dozen, 14c; State and Pennsylvania, average prime, 14½@15c; 16c; State and Pennsylvania, choice, 16c; do poor to good, per dozen, 13@14c; do poor to good, per case, $13@$14; cull eggs, per case, $10@$12.

FRUITS—FRESH—Apples plenty and quiet; quality and value still show wide range and it requires well graded stock to reach top quotations. Pears very dull and weak. Fine large yellow peaches from Maryland and Delaware meet a moderate demand at steady prices. Jersey fruit is running poor as a rule and all ordinary qualities drag heavily, but the few lots of good size and color are salleable at fair prices. Southern grapes very dull and weak; poor lots almost unsalable. Blackberries steady for choice, but common stock neglected. Huckleberries dull and weaker. Muskmelons steady for fancy, but stock largely below prime and the lower grades continued to decline. Watermelons quieter and easier. We quote: Apples, hand-picked, per double head bbl, $1 25@$2; do open heads, 75c@$1 50; pears, Bartlett, Southern, per crate, $1 50@$2 50; do Maryland and Delaware, per crate, 75@$1 25; do Jersey, per bbl, $1 50@$3; do Clapp's favorite, $2 50@$3; do Bell and other green sorts, $1 50@$2; do Southern, per box, $1; do common kinds, 30@50c; peppers, 40c; cucumbers, 40@60c; cucumber pickles, per 1,000, 75@$1 25; cabbages, per 100, $4@$7; okra, 10@15c; green corn, 50@$1 25; lima beans, per bag, $1@$2; string beans, $1@$1 25; green peas, 75@$1 75; celery, per doz roots, 10@50c.

Minneapolis, Aug. 4.—The wheat market was very quiet to-day, opened weak this morning, and there was a disposition on the part of sellers to look for lower prices. There was no rain in the corn belt to speak of and this had a tendency to check large sales. It is thought possible that the present cool and cloudy weather may continue for a few days longer and injure corn beyond any possible recovery, reducing the yield below that of any for several years past. The close was 55⅝c for August, 52⅝c for September, 54c on track; 58½c for hard; 57c for No 1 Northern; 55½c for No 2 Northern.
