THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, September 12, 1894.

COTTON—The market opened steady at 1 to 2 points advance, on very good demand in Liverpool for spot cotton, spinners being encouraged to buy on the favorable Manchester outlook, the buyings yesterday afternoon and to-day amounting to 18,000 bales. There was a little weakness, however, soon after the opening on private cables reporting a slight decline in futures and some selling for New-Orleans account, as well as for other Southern points. The market was very dull throughout the day, rallying a little early in the afternoon, the market holding steady. There was a net advance for the day of one to two points, with the tone steady. Total sales were only 43,000 bales. There is a local bearish sentiment. Exporters seem to be able to buy at prices favorable to themselves at the South. The receipts at the ports for the past four days have been 70,000 to 75,000 bales, against 58,185 last week and 52,897 last year. The receipts at New-Orleans to-morrow are estimated at 1,500 bales, against 1,208 last week and 1,488 last year. Receipts at Houston were 5,263 bales, against 2,838 last week and 3,135 last year. The Agricultural Department's weekly weather report states that the weather has been favorable for cotton in the Carolinas, Tennessee and Texas and the crop is slowly improving in Georgia, but heavy rains have proved injurious in Florida, Mississippi and Arkansas. Louisiana reports shedding general and prospects less favorable than last week. Picking has been interrupted by rains in Alabama, Mississippi and Texas.

The market for Brazil coffee remains very dull, and since our last there have been no interesting happenings. The primary markets are dull and without interest. Prices here are nominally unchanged, the basis of quotations being 15¾c for Rio No 7 on spot. For mild coffee there is an indifferent demand, with a rather weak market, the extreme dulness in Brazils having some effect on the market for the mild grades. We note sales of 500 bags Maracaibo on private terms.

FLOUR AND MEAL—Local jobbers are pursuing an extremely conservative course; they are buying a few trade brands, but otherwise show great indifference. Extra seconds winter are wanted to arrive, and have been very firm in consequence, but other grades show only a small jobbing trade. Sales to-day were about 12,250 pkgs, as follows: 900 bbls winter patents, $2 90@$3, and 125 bbls city mills, $4 25@$4 35, and 4,550 bbls local, private terms, 1,800 bbls straights, $2 65@$2 75; 125 bbls city mill clears, $3 55@$3 65; 500 sacks extra seconds, $2 10; export, 300 bbls, $2 25, to arrive, and 300 bbls city mills, $2 45@$2 50; 2,500 bbls spring patents, $3 45@$3 60; 500 bbls winter patents, $3 20@$3 30, and 600 bbls clears, $2 45@$2 55. Southern flour was neglected. RYE FLOUR—Market dull; sales, 200 bbls at $2 90@$3. CORNMEAL—Market firm; sales, 500 bbls and 2,000 sacks; Brandywine quoted at $3 30; Sagamore, $3 30; Western and Southern, $3 10@$3 25.....BAG MEAL—Market firm; fine ship, $1 35@$1 38; fine yellow, $1 32@$1 33; coarse, $1 25@$1 27.....FEED—Market steady, with sales of 20 cars Western at $16 50 to arrive; 40 lb, 82½@85c; 60 lb, 85c; 80 lb, 85@90c; 100 lb, 90@95c; sharps, 95c; city feed, 85@90c; rye feed, 85c; hominy chop, $1 05@$1 07½; cottonseed meal, $1 20; oil meal, $1 25@$1 30.

GRAIN—WHEAT—The wheat market was narrow and uninteresting to-day. It opened at a fractional advance, then dropped ⅜@⅞c. later recovering from the opening price. The early strength was due to a little local buying. The weakness was due to a report that a cargo of Argentine wheat was being shipped to New-York. The report first stated Valparaiso wheat. Immediately this was considered as being Argentine, and that the Argentine was through shipping cheap wheat to Europe and was ready to supply America at a lower price. The bears climbed out of a small hole, however, when it was found that the shipment was from Valparaiso, Ind. Foreign news was quiet and about steady, both public and private. Reports of damage by wet weather to the European crop are numerous, and undoubtedly a good deal of wheat will have to be imported of an extra dry kind in order to mix with the damp European. The Western movement is falling off, running behind last year's figures, and for to-morrow the estimated receipts for Chicago were only a trifle over 100 cars. The dry weather has delayed seeding, and there seems to be no doubt now but that the new crop of wheat will go in late. The reports about demand for wheat for feeding purposes are as numerous as ever, but naturally such demand does not have immediate influence on the market, however much it may possibly affect prices later. Interior wheat receipts at spring wheat markets to-day were 675,854 bush (including Chicago, 291,356 bush), nearly all winter), against 680,058 bush last year; winter, 178,013 bush, against 263,200 bush; spring wheat receipts, 131,846 bush, against 183,065 bush; total, 985,713 bush, against 1,126,243 bush; exports, 75,804 bush, against 290,201 bush. Dealings during the last hour of the session were small, but the tone was better on the export business, which footed up 176,000 bush at New-York, and 850,000 bush at outports. The close was steady at last night's prices. The sales of cash wheat included 128,000 bush of No 2 red at 2¼c under December delivered and private terms; 56,000 bush No 1 hard spring, at private terms, and 1 load of ungraded red at private terms. At the close No 2 red was quoted at September price, 58⅝c, and No 1 hard, 3⅜c over December to arrive, delivered. CORN—Dealings in corn were also quiet to-day. First sales were at a fractional advance, followed by quite a little decline about midday, and then a recovery to about the opening figures. The early strength was on a little buying by shorts, and some buying for outside account. The price is so high, however, that there is more or less disposition to sell corn for a reaction, even if the crop is short. A good deal of scepticism is expressed as to the trustworthiness of the Department's figures on corn, the bears claiming that they are just as liable to be incorrect as were the wheat figures. John Inglis, a Chicago crop expert, was quoted as saying that in Nebraska alone the total production would be about 100,000,000 bush, although the Government figures indicate only about 15,000,000 bush. His report was the main prop of the bears, and is of interest as an evidence of the positive statements of large areas cut up. This report of Inglis starts by claiming absolute absurdity for the Government figures on corn, and says: "It is conceded that the South has the best crop it has raised for years. Southern States, with 28,083,000 acres planted, at 20 bush, give 560,000,000 bush. Eastern States, 2,413,000 acres, at 25 bush, 60,000,000 bush. Mountain States, 252,000 acres, at 25 bush, 6,000,000 bush. Total, 626,000,000 bush. This west, Central and Middle States, 45,951,300 acres, at only 474,000,000 bush, to make up the total of 1,100,000,000 bush. Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri contain 18,974,000 acres in corn, and any one who has gone over these States will admit that they will raise nearly 100,000,000 bush more than the whole total the Government gives for the thirteen States, Central and Middle. This would allow the Government to give Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Oklahoma, Minnesota and the Dakotas, embracing 27,000,000 acres, Iowa, with 8,000,000 acres, counts for nothing. Nebraska, with over 7,000,000 acres, is claimed to average only 1 bush per acre. The highest estimate for the latter States is 100,000,000 bush, or 13¾ bush per acre, 3 per cent worse than 1890, which was the worst failure since the grasshopper year." Mr. Inglis's total figures of acreage approximately agree with the Government, amounting to 76,700,000 acres, but he makes no allowance for the amount of corn abandoned or cut up, and this is where the trouble comes in. The State report of Iowa estimates only 80,000,000 bush for that State, against 252,000,000 bush last year, and other State reports correspond with the Government figures very closely. It seems to be a question of how much of the area has been cut up or abandoned, and in this Mr. Inglis's figures would indicate that he did not allow for any. Seemingly, the private estimate has been put up against the approximate consensus of State and National report. Although this National report has apparently been out of the way on wheat, it probably is worth more than individual reports ahead, at any rate, for the present. Cash corn to-day was dull but firm; 16,000 bush at 65¼c to arrive, 16,000 bush at 65¾c to arrive, and 4,000 bush at 66½c delivered spot for export. The option market closed at the best prices for the day and at ⅛@¼c net advance.....OATS—Trading was quiet with prices following very closely to the movement in corn. Early a better feeling prevailed which later gave place to some weakness, with a recovery toward the last in sympathy with corn, the market leaving off firm at the highest prices, at ¼@⅜c net gain for the day. Cash oats were firm and higher. Sales were: No 2 oats, 12,000 bush, at 34½@35½c elevator; 30,000 bush canal do, at 35¼c (early allsort). No 2 white, 33,000 bush, 37@41c.....BARLEY—The track white, 15,000 bush, 37@41c.....BARLEY—The market is firm, but dull. No 2 Milwaukee was again day at 62c. The cargo of Russian barley also delivered at offered for sale to-day at 56c, duty paid, delivered at New-York, with 47@48c bid for small quantities.....MALT—Market dull, but steady; quoted, new, 70@80c.....SEEDS—Market quiet, with trade mainly of a jobbing character. Clover quoted at $9@$9 50 per 100 lb by sample, and October prime, $9 nominal. Timothy firm, at $3.70@$4 10 per 100 lb.

RICE—The market remains firm, there being a good demand for all sorts, especially for foreign, which is popular, owing to the inadequate supply of domestic. Orders are still coming from the South for some foreign rice. We quote: Carolina and Louisiana, common to ordinary, 3¾@4c; low fair to fair, 4@4½c; good to prime, 5@5¼c; choice to fancy, 5⅝@6c; extra head, 6@6¼c; Java, 3¾@4c; Japan, 4½@4¾c; Patna, 4@5c; do in bond, 3¼@3½c; Rangoon, 3½@3¾c; do in bond, 1⅞@2½c.

SUGARS—The London market shows some weakness on beet sugar, but otherwise unchanged. Cane steady, with little doing. Java opened 12s 9d; fair refining, 11s 6d. Beet quiet and rather easier, according to the official cable; September quoted 11s 10½d; October, 11s. Locally, the market is firm on the old basis of 3¾c for centrifugals and 2⅞c for muscovados, and molasses sugar quoted at 2¼c. The weakness in the London market seems to be checking the advancing tendency here. Taking the market as a whole, there seems to be no new or interesting feature. Refined is inactive what little business there is being for the most part in soft sugar. Prices are unchanged on the basis of 5c for granulated. We note sales of 7,311 bags centrifugal,96 test, 3¾c; 2,800 tons, 732 hhds and 1,005 crooms muscovado, 80 test, 3¼c, and 11,680 bags molasses sugar, 89 test, 2¾c.

TEAS—The regular weekly auction sale of teas went off fairly well to-day, although the offerings were light, consisting of only 2,043 packages, including the following: Moyune—152 pkgs young Hyson, 9¼@11½c; 12 pkgs Imperial, 15½c; 22 pkgs Gunpowder, 22½c. COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKET.

New-York, September 12, 1894.

BEANS AND PEAS.—Neither the export nor home jobbing demand for domestic beans shows any improvement, and there is just enough urgency to sell to give the market a weak, unsettled tone. Marrow can be bought easily at $3 10, and choice red kidney are offering at $2 50@$2 55. Medium and pea are unchanged. There is quite an Eastern demand for choice imported pea, and sales aggregating 700 to 800 bags have been made within a day or two at $1 65. Foreign medium quiet, and only exceptional sales above $1 45. Green peas slow. We quote: Beans, marrow, per bush, $3 10; do medium and pea, $1 90; do white kidney, $2 50@$2 60; do red kidney, $2 50@$2 55; do Turtle soup, $1 95@$2; do lima, California (60 lb), $2 00@$2 05; do do foreign, medium, $1 35@$1 45; do foreign pea, $1 50@$1 65; green peas, bbls, $1 17½; do bags, $1 12½; do Scotch, $1 15@$1 17½.

BUTTER—General trade continues very quiet, and the market for most grades is without further change. Fancy fresh creamery has most call and holds firm at yesterday's advance; gilt-edge lots of Western jobbing at 24½c. All the lower qualities are very plentiful, and are carried along with the hope that a demand from some source will spring up late. Many jobbers are using the best June goods in preference to the second-class fresh stock. State dairy, both tubs and firkins, remains quiet. More interest in factory of late and feeling firmer, particularly for fancy June stock. An exporter bought 100 tubs fancy June stock. We quote: Creamery, State and Pennsylvania June at 15½c. We quote: Creamery, State and Pennsylvania, extras, 23@24c; do firsts, 21@22c; do Western extras, 23@24c; do firsts, 21@22½c; do thirds to seconds, extras, 24@24½c; do June make, 19@22½c; State dairy, tubs, fresh, 19@20c; do June make, 19@22½c; State dairy, tubs, fresh, extras, 22c; do firsts, 19@21c; do thirds to seconds, 14@18c; dairy firkins, 19@21c; imitation creamery, 14@18c; Western dairy, 13½@17c; factory, June, firkins, 14½@16c; do June, tubs, 14@16c; do June firkins, 12½@14c. Difference between buyers and sellers, and no business was accomplished in large lots of cut cream. The continuous dulness has tended to modify sellers' views a little, and while 10½c was perhaps the general asking rate for fancy, some lots could probably have been bought at 10½c. The most bid that we could hear of was 10½c. Small sizes quiet, and the effort to advance the price is not proving very successful. Choicest Cayuga County, large size, part skims, are not plenty, and choicest lots command full late prices, in instances a little more, but the lower grades are dragging. Small sizes coming forward more freely, and are quite dull. Liverpool cables, 50s. We quote: State, full cream, large size, fancy, 10¼c; do choice, 10@10¼c; do good to prime, 9¼@9¾c; do common to fair, 8@9½c; do small size, fancy, 10¼@10½c; do common to choice, 8¼@10½c; part skims, 3@7½c; do common to choice, 2@3c; Western, June, creamery, 19@20c; do dairy, 20@21c; do large, choice, 7½@8c; do common to prime, 4@7c.

EGGS—Receipts are larger to-day, but the supply of strictly desirable goods is not larger than needed, and for such the market holds steady. Grades below prime are very slow to move, unless offered low enough to attract the cheapest class of trade. A few more Canadians on the way. Last arrivals have been pretty well cleaned up. We quote: Jersey, per doz, 19c; State and Pennsylvania, 18@19c; Canadian, 18@18½c; Western prime, 18c; do fair to good, 16@17½c; do poor to fair, per case, $2@$3; do seconds, $1 75@$2 50.

FRUITS—FRESH—Apples in lighter receipt and firmer for all desirable grades, red fruit showing most strength. Prime table pears are also firmer, but there is a good deal of inferior stock urging for sale at low prices. Peaches are in better condition to-day, but mostly below choice quality; very fancy large yellow would have sold at a premium, but general offerings made no advance. Plums firm. Delaware grapes firmer. Niagara quiet but steady. Concord dull unless of very choice quality. Cranberries quiet, but held unchanged. We quote: Apples, red varieties, per bbl, $1 75@$2 50; do blush, $1 75@$2; do green, $1 25@$1 75; do inferior, 75c@$1; pears, Bartlett, per bbl, $3 50@$3; do Seckel, $1 50@$3; do Beurre Bosc, $2 25@$2 75; do Beurre d'Anjou, $2@$2 50; do common kinds, $1 25@$1 75; peaches, average, [illegible] per basket; do choice, 20@50c; do preserving varieties, 25 cents; grapes, Western New-York, Delaware, per small basket, 15@17c; do Niagara, 12@14c; do Concord, 9@10c; do up-river Delaware, per 25-lb case, $1@$1 25; do Hamburg, 75c@$1; do Concord, per case, [illegible]; cranberries, Cape Cod, per bbl, $7 50@$8; muskmelons, per bbl, 25@$1 25.

FRUITS—The jobbing trade is taking the few small lots of new-evaporated apples about as fast as they come in, and prices are held fairly steady. No sun-dried as yet. Very little call for peaches. Evaporated raspberries generally held at 19@20c bid. Cherries slow. Blackberries quiet but firmly held. Apricots plenty and weak; difficult to get over 6c for fancy Royal in bags. We quote: Apples, evaporated, 1894, per lb, 10@11c; peaches, Southern, sun-dried, peeled, 1893, sun-dried, raspberries, evaporated, 1891, 18@20c; cherries, 1894, 13@14c; blackberries, 6c; apricots, Royal, bags, 8¼@9c.

HOPS—No export orders are coming to hand; brewers' wants are small, and the buying by dealers is along very conservative lines. Prices were but not quotably lower. We quote: State, 1894, sea-ditys, 9@11c; do 1893, choice, 8c; do common to prime, 5@7c; Pacific Coast, 1893, choice, 8@9c; do common to prime, 5@7c; yearlings, 4@5c; old olds, 2@3c.

POULTRY—ALIVE—Nearly ten carloads arrived to-day. Buyers wanted all the fowls and roosters at 6c advance, and they paid a little more for good geese. Ducks were slow, and chickens were quite plenty and no more than steady. We quote: Spring chickens, per lb, 10@11½c; fowls, Hamburg roosters, 6½c; turkeys, 10@11c; ducks, per pair, 45@50c; geese, per pair, 81@$1 75; pigeons, per doz, 200@300c.....DRESSED—Still a good deal of stale stock on hand from previous arrivals, but fresh receipts are moderate and choice lots of chickens and fowls are held a shade higher. Eastern geese easier, and ducks a shade lower for both Eastern and Long Island. Philadelphia chickens firm for fancy quality. We quote: Turkeys, young, dry-picked, 15@16c; do scalded, 12@14c; chickens, Philadelphia, 13@18c; do Western, dry-picked, 10@14c; do scalded
